Dear SDA friends around the world, Greetings in Jesus' holy name.

Faith: The above Bible quote says, “They shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.” Daniel 11:31. Who will “place” it? What will they place? It says, “But the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.” Daniel 11:32.

Charity: What kind of “exploits?”

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

“Four mighty angels hold back the powers of this earth till the servants of God are sealed in their foreheads. The nations of the world are eager for conflict; but they are held in check by the angels. When this restraining power is removed, there will come a time of trouble and anguish. Deadly instruments of warfare will be invented... [Like powerful drones.] All who have not the spirit of truth will unite under the leadership of satanic agencies. But they are to be kept under control till the time shall come for the great battle of Armageddon.

“Angels are belting the world, [Praise God!] refusing Satan his claims to supremacy... their hands are linked about the world, and with sleepless vigilance they are keeping the armies of Satan at bay till the sealing of God’s people shall be accomplished. [To accomplish that “sealing” is why the NSL preachers were written.]

“Oh, that all could behold our precious Saviour as He is, a Saviour... He is surrounded with heavenly intelligences, cherubim, and seraphim, ten thousand times ten thousand of angels.

“All these heavenly beings have one object above all others, in which they are intensely interested—His church. They are united in a holy alliance, in a grand and sublime unity of purpose, to show forth the power and compassion and love and glory of the crucified and risen Saviour.” SDA7A on Rev. 5:11.”

Dear Sir;

I praise and thank God, and I thank you for showing us the true word of God! Oh, I praise God for opening my eyes to the seal of God and the mark of the beast with the book, “National Sunday Law!” I’m so excited! Your witnessing has fallen on fertile ears.

As soon as I read your book “National Sunday Law,” I became a Seventh-day Adventist. That book really opened my eyes and I will never honor Sunday again! Keep up the good work. God bless you! Thank you,

“THIS MAN IS NOT CHRISTIAN IF HE HAS SAID THINGS LIKE THAT.”

POPE FRANCIS

“I AM A CHRISTIAN, AND I AM PROUD OF IT.”

DONALD TRUMP

USA TODAY February 21, 2016

Hope: Why did the Pope infer that this man is not Christian? And why did President Trump say that the Pope’s words are “disgraceful?” [He died]. And why did the president’s people - on the internet - say that the Pope is a hypocrite? And why did President Trump say that he upholds religious liberty? And how does Rome feel about many thousands of Catholics becoming Seventh-day Adventists? And before the Sunday law why did God’s prophet say that Protestants and Catholics will “unite?” After months of debate, will the US Congress pass the Sunday law and send it to the Senate? And after much debate will the Senate and the Supreme Court approve it so that Protestant leaders and preachers will all unite in love with the pope - and with the Vatican, so that President Trump will sign the Sunday law while he is still President?

Pastor Jan: It’s a secret. But I think you can guess.

The Monster? Here we go -

“As Tetzel entered a town, a messenger went before him, announcing: ‘The grace of God and of the holy father is at your gates.’ D’Aubigne, b. 3, ch. 1. And the people welcomed the blasphemous pretender as if he were God Himself come down from heaven to them. The infamous traffic was set up in the church, Tetzel, ascending the pulpit, extolled the indulgences as the most precious gift of God. He declared that by virtue of his certificates of pardon all the sins which the purchaser should afterward desire to commit would be forgiven him, and that ‘not even repentance is necessary.’ Ibid., b. 3, ch. 1. More than this, he assured his hearers that the indulgences had power to save not only the living but the dead; that the very moment the money should clink against the bottom of his chest, the soul in whose behalf it had been paid would escape from purgatory and make its way to heaven. (See K. R. Hagenbach, History of the Reformation, vol. 1, p. 96)...

“Luther trembled as he looked upon himself—one man opposed to the mightiest powers of earth. Luther’s teachings attracted the attention of thoughtful minds throughout all Germany. From his sermons and writings issued beams of light which awakened and illuminated thousands. A living faith was taking the place of the dead formalism in which the church had so long been held. The people were daily losing confidence in the superstitions of Romanism.

“Luther received a summons to appear at Rome to answer to the charge of heresy. The command filled his friends with terror. They knew full well the danger that threatened him in that corrupt city, already drunk with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. They protested against his going to Rome and requested that he receive his examination in Germany.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I’ve spent most of my life on the streets, hitch-hiking, riding freight trains, with alcohol, drugs, lying, cheating, stealing, and behind bars. Today I finished reading your book “National Sunday Law.” I believe what it says! I know it’s the truth! Through all this, I know now that God has forgiven me. I know that God’s mercy and love are still for me! I’m a living testimony to the saving grace of God. I received your book because someone advertised it in the newspaper as a free book. Your book has really opened my eyes! Thank God for your ministry. God bless.
Sincerely, John B.

We don’t know all the details, but they must-needs have a sign if they want the foolish virgins to know when and where to go on the day of the sun. On the sign, the word “Saturday” will be removed, and the word “Sunday” will take its place. It stirs our hearts just to think of it! Then we will have what you would call an “Emergency.” In the U.S. we don’t have such an “Emergency” now.

In other locations, God’s pure Bible Sabbath SDA churches will be meeting in homes or under the trees and maybe they will put up a sign which says -

Dear Sir,

Your book “National Sunday Law” was left on my doorstep. I wish to thank you for the clear explanation to a lot of questions I’ve had for years. This book is dynamite! I can see that the issue in this book is going to be the deciding factor for the two classes of people in the entire world! It needs to be read far and wide to show people the evil that’s in our very midst! I can see that Rome is working in disguise. I’m planning to get many of these books to give to others. There are hundreds of millions who need to be reached with this message! May God bless you! Don

But as for my soul, they cannot take that. He who desires to proclaim the word of Christ to the world, must expect death at every moment.’ Ibid., b. 4, ch. 4. [That gets rid of the fanatics.]

The time will come when the church sign in front of the church

Dear Pastor Jan,

I was born and raised in the Mennonite Church, and since graduating from school God has been putting information in my path about the New World Order, Masonry, etc. I was amazed when I found the book National Sunday Law in my mail box. It’s wonderful to have found in the SDA church such an astute knowledge of Scripture and respect for prophecy as is in National Sunday Law. May God bless you as you continue your very important ministry! Sincerely, Joel L.

The “faithful few” around the world will be God’s world-wide SDA church. It will be pure and “holy unto the Lord,” and ready for the latter rain.

God’s church has been shaken to its core until not one person is left who is not truly converted - “dead to self, crucified with Christ.” The shaking will accomplish that.

There are over 24 million SDA people in the world. The persecution will purify us so that “the majority forsake us.” LDE 180. More than half of 24 million will forsake us. That’s over 12 million people! With sinking hearts, we watch them leave to obey the devil’s law. But the prophet said - “The ranks will not be diminished.” Those who are firm and true will close up the vacancies that are made by those who become offended and apostatize.” Mar. 200.

“When divine power is combined with human effort, the work will spread like fire in the stubble. God will employ agencies whose origin man will be unable to discern. Angels will do a work which men might have had the blessing of accomplishing had they not neglected to answer the claims of God.” 1SM 118.

Hello Brother angel. Thank you for being with me since I was born.

“When the storm of persecution really breaks upon us... then will the message of the third angel swell to a loud cry, and the whole earth [how many?] will be lightened with the glory of the Lord.” 6T 401. [Praise God!] With angels working with us, God’s work will be finished FAST! “The whole earth will be lightened with the glory of the Lord.” 6T 401. Praise God! We haven’t seen anything yet!

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Thank you so much for your marvelous book “National Sunday Law.” My eyes filled with tears of joy! Now, I will, with all my heart, honor God’s law and keep His Sabbath day holy. God bless you and thank you again for sending the book to me. Love in Christ, N.K.

“When the papal bull reached Luther, he said: ‘I despise and attack it, as impious, false... It is Christ Himself who is condemned therein... I rejoice in having to bear such ills for the best of causes. Already I feel greater liberty in my heart; for at last I know that the pope is antichrist, and that his throne is that of Satan himself.’ D’Aubigne, b. 6, ch. 9.

“Rome had hurled her anathemas against him, and the world looked on, nothing doubting that he would perish or be forced to yield. But with terrible power he flung back upon herself the sentence of condemnation and publicly declared his determination to abandon her forever. In the presence of a crowd of students, doctors, and citizens of all ranks Luther burned the pope’s bull, with the canon laws, the decretals, and certain writings sustaining the papal power. ‘My enemies have been able, by burning my books,’ he said, ‘to injure the cause of truth in the minds of the common people, and destroy their souls; for this reason I consumed their books in return. A serious struggle has just begun. Hitherto I have been only playing with the pope. I began this work in God’s name; it will be ended without me, and by His might...’

“A new bull appeared, declaring the Reformer’s final separation from the Roman Church, denouncing him as accursed of Heaven, and including in the same condemnation all who should receive his doctrines. The great contest had been fully entered upon.

“There was a present truth in the days of Luther, and a present truth for the church today. [You can guess what it is. Don’t be shocked if your fellow church members, elders, or pastors try to stop you from giving God’s last message.] But truth is no more desired by the majority today than it was by the papists who opposed Luther.

“As the news was circulated at Worms that Luther was to appear before the Diet, a general excitement was created. Aleander, the papal legate to whom the case had been specially entrusted, was alarmed and enraged. He saw that the result would be disastrous to the papal cause...

“‘In Luther’s errors there is enough,’ he declared, ‘to warrant the burning of ‘a hundred thousand heretics!’ ...

“The Reformation did not, as many suppose, end with Luther. It is to be continued to the close of this world’s history... [We’re in it!]

“The council now demanded the Reformer’s appearance before them. Notwithstanding the entreaties, protests, and threats of Aleander, the emperor at last consented, and Luther was summoned to appear before the Diet...

“As Luther compared the Holy Oracles with the papal decrees he was filled with wonder. ‘I am reading,’ he wrote, ‘the decrees of the pontiffs, and ... I do not know whether the pope is antichrist himself, or his apostle.’ GC 134.

“Rome was bent upon the destruction of Luther; but God was his defense. Luther’s opponents, burning with a desire for revenge, urged the pope to take decisive measures against him. He replied: ‘The papists do not desire my coming to Worms, but my condemnation and my death. It matters not. Pray not for me, but for the word of God... Christ will give me His Spirit to overcome these ministers of error. I despise them during my life; I shall triumph over them by my death. Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

It’s very obvious and certain that you were guided by the Holy Spirit in writing the book “National Sunday Law.” I am most interested in the way you have explained Daniel and Revelation when other denominations don’t even understand them at all. You have enlightened the people. Please send me as many of these books as my gift can cover so that the work of God can go forward. Sincerely, L.J.

illness, wore a kindly and even joyous expression. The solemnity and deep earnestness of his words gave him a power that even his enemies could not wholly withstand. Both friends and foes were filled with wonder. Some were convinced that a divine influence attended him; others declared, as had the Pharisees concerning Christ: ‘He hath a devil...’

“Every avenue was crowded with spectators eager to look upon the monk who had dared resist the authority of the pope... He longed for the assurance that the Lord of hosts would be with him. In anguish of spirit he threw himself with his face upon the earth and poured out those broken, heart-rending cries, which none but God can fully understand.

“‘O almighty and everlasting God,’ he pleaded, ‘how terrible is this world! Behold, it openeth its mouth to swallow me up... If it is only in the strength of this world that I must put my trust, all is over... My last hour is come, my condemnation has been pronounced... O Lord, help me! Faithful and unchangeable God, in no man do I place my trust... Stand at my side, for the sake of Thy well-beloved Jesus Christ, who is my defense, my shield, and my strong tower...’

“In his utter helplessness his faith fastened upon Christ, the mighty Deliverer. He was strengthened with the assurance that he would not appear alone before the council. Peace returned to his soul, and he rejoiced that he was permitted to uplift the word of God before the rulers of the nations...

“Never had any man appeared in the presence of a more imposing assembly than that before which Martin Luther was to answer for his faith...

“Luther was conducted to a position directly in front of the emperor’s throne. A deep silence fell upon the crowded assembly. Then an imperial officer arose and, pointing to a collection of Luther’s writings, demanded that the Reformer answer two questions—whether he acknowledged them as his, and whether he proposed to retract the opinions which he had therein advanced. The titles of the books having been read, Luther replied that as to the first question, he acknowledged the books to be his... ‘I am but a mere man, and not God,’ he continued; ‘I shall therefore defend myself as Christ did: ‘If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil...’

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

My name is Mike. One day while going into a Walmart I saw the book “National Sunday Law” lying there but paid it no mind. Then on my way out, there it is again, only now it’s on a bench. I think to myself, “An angel wants me to have it.” So I took it and read it. I read the whole thing and I could not believe my eyes! I was amazed! After reading your book. I know now that Saturday, the 7th day, is the Sabbath of the Bible. I guess you could say that an angel led me to your book and to Jesus. I would like to help get these books out to the people! I have given up everything for our Lord Jesus. Your friend in Christ, Mike.

Dear Sir,

Your book “National Sunday Law” is incredible! It’s fascinating! I can’t find words to describe it! I was a Roman Catholic, so I’m extremely shocked at this revelation. But I get on my knees and thank God that this book came into my hands! Not only that, but I thank God that He chose me for this revealing moment. I want to share the knowledge that is in this book with my family and others, that they too, might receive the “seal of God” in their foreheads. I sincerely thank you again, and may our Blessed Lord and Saviour bless you always. E.H.

“The Reformer answered: ‘Since your most serene majesty and your high mightinesses require from me a clear, simple, and precise answer, I will give you one, and it is this: I cannot submit my faith either to the pope or to the councils, because it is clear as the day that they have frequently erred and contradicted each other. Unless therefore I am convinced by the testimony of Scripture or by the clearest reasoning, unless I am persuaded by means of the passages I have quoted, and unless they thus render my conscience bound by the word of God, I cannot and I will not retract, for it is unsafe for a Christian to speak against his conscience. Here I stand, I can do no other; may God help me. Amen.’

Dear Sir;
 Several months ago, a friend gave me a copy of “National Sunday Law.” Having been raised a Roman Catholic, I was curious and began to read. After a few chapters, where you give the twelve hints as to who the beast is, it dawned on me that the beast of Revelation is the Roman Catholic system! As I read, it was as if a fog was lifted and I felt a bright, wonderful feeling. I read the whole book and then I read it again. Words cannot describe how much my life has changed since then! Now I’m studying with Seventh-day Adventists. I’ve fully accepted the Seventh-day Adventist Bible message and have made plans to be baptized. I thank God for allowing me to have my eyes opened! God bless you all! Sincerely T.S.
