Dear SDA friends around the world,

Greetings in Jesus' holy name. Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The above Bible text says that the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night. And dear Jesus said that His coming will be like it was in the days of Noah. And the Bible says that “knowledge shall be increased.” What do these predictions of Christ's soon coming have to do with the unbelievable high tech advances of today? What connection does it have to the end of the world? And how will it all affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Just imagine how these two men feel as they have the high honor of proudly escorting the largest passenger giant in the world! It's as if the giant is spreading its arms in welcome - as when the father spreads his arms and runs to greet his prodigal son. It's like when the holy angels escort dear Jesus - coming to take you home!

He said: "Aviation history was made when two experienced jetman daredevils flew in formation with an Airbus A380 Jumbo Jet. Two jetpack fliers flew around the world's largest passenger aircraft. We're looking at a human being who has a Kevlar wing strapped to his body with four jet engines, and flying in close proximity to an aircraft that is absolutely humongous. It took 3 months to plan and coordinate the incredible project. And every step of the way, stunning videos were captured. What an over-the-top stunt!"

Here's one of them. He has 4 small jet engines - two on each side. Our kind Father saw those who fly in the end of the world, and asked who they are - "Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?" Isa. 60:8. It would take a real increase of knowledge in "the time of the end" - "But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased." While building the ark he was to preach that God would bring a flood of water upon the earth to destroy the wicked. Those who would believe the message, and would prepare for that event by repentance and reformation, should find pardon and be saved..."

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I thank you dearly for sending me the book, "National Sunday Law." I study it over and over again and will share it with others so that they too may know the truth! The writing of this book is written in the book of remembrance in heaven! Continue in the faith. May the Most High bless you abundantly! Sincerely,

Pastor Jan: Only in the end of the world could something like this be done.

Charity: What are a few more things that are changing fast?

Pastor Jan: 1) In 1999, one in every 5000 children got autism. Now, one in every 110 children have it! On a video entitled, "The Dangers of Evolution," Kent Hovand revealed that in Australia, they let parents opt out of giving their children vaccinations. 50% of the parents opted out of it, and autism dropped by 50%. 2) According to CNN, February 3, 2019, twenty nations now permit sodomy [same-sex marriage] - "as it was in the days of Noah."

"In the days of Noah a double curse was resting upon the earth in consequence of Adam's transgression and of the murder committed by Cain. Yet this had not greatly changed the face of nature... The hills were crowned with majestic trees supporting the fruit-laden branches of the vine. The vast, gardenlike plains were clothed with verdure, and

Dear Pastor Jan,

My name is Mike. A friend of mine let me read "National Sunday Law" and I was amazed at its quality of information. I was raised Roman Catholic and I had not had the faintest idea that that stuff was happening. The book revealed a lot of things to me about the church of Rome, and now that I know the truth, I want to share it with not only my family, but also with my friends. I am hungry for the truth! It will be an honor to be blessed with your publications. Thank you, and may God continue to bless your work! Your friend and co-laborer, Mike S.

"God gave Noah the exact dimensions of the ark and explicit directions in regard to its construction in every particular. Human wisdom could not have devised a structure of so great strength and durability. God was the designer, and Noah the master builder. It was constructed like the hull of a ship, that it might float upon the water, but in some respects it more nearly resembled a house. It was three stories high, with but one door, which was in the side. The light was admitted at the top, and the different apartments were so arranged that all were lighted. The material employed in the construction of the ark was the cypress, or gopher wood, which would be untouched by decay for hundreds of years... All that

Dear Sir, I am thanking you for this wonderful book. I have read "National Sunday Law" twice now, and the more I read it, the more convicted I become. When I look upon the immorality of society it can be clearly seen that the hand writing is on the wall. I have been a Sunday worshiper, but after reading "National Sunday Law" and comparing it with my Bible, I am made aware of how serious the consequences are in willfully disobeying God. I am going to change. I am going to start keeping God's Bible Sabbath holy. I do not want to fall short of God's grace, especially now when the time is at hand. It's time for God's people to stand up against evil and separate themselves from the world. I will do my part, first with myself, and then to enlighten others. I will be sending "National Sunday Law" books to ministers. As I am changing my life and starting to witness for God, I am disgusted with the position that Christians hold today. We need more warriors who will stand up for Christ no matter what the cost. Life has no meaning to me unless Christ is in it. Respectfully yours, Y.E.

Flood, their faith was tested, and they failed to endure the trial. Overcome by the prevailing unbelief, they finally joined their former associates in rejecting the solemn message. Some were deeply convicted, and would have heeded the words of warning; but there were so many to jest and ridicule, that they partook of the same spirit, resisted the invitations of mercy, and were soon among the boldest and most defiant scoffers; for none are so reckless and go to such lengths in sin as do those who have once had light, but have resisted the convicting Spirit of God.

“It was not multitudes or majorities that were on the side of right. The world was arrayed against God’s justice and His laws, and Noah was regarded as a fanatic...

“But Noah stood like a rock amid the tempest.

Surrounded by popular contempt and ridicule, he distinguished himself by his holy integrity and unwavering faithfulness. A power attended his words, for it was the voice of God to man through His servant. Connection with God made him strong in the strength of infinite power, while for one hundred and twenty years his solemn voice fell upon the ears of that generation in regard to events, which, so far as human wisdom could judge, were impossible.

“As time passed on, with no apparent change in nature, men whose hearts had at times trembled with fear, began to be reassured. They reasoned, as many reason now, that nature is above the God of nature, and that her laws are so firmly established that God Himself could not change them... They continued their festivities and their gluttonous feasts; they ate and drank, planted and builded, laying their plans in reference to advantages they hoped to gain in the future; and they went to greater lengths in wickedness, and in defiant disregard of God’s requirements, to testify that they had no fear of the Infinite One. They asserted that if there were any truth in what Noah had said, the men of renown—the wise, the great men—would understand the matter.

“Had the antediluvians believed the warning, and repented of their evil deeds, the Lord would have turned aside His wrath, as He afterward did from Nineveh. But by their obstinate resistance to the reproofs of conscience and the warnings of God’s prophet, that generation filled up the measure of their iniquity, and became ripe for destruction. [Thus they committed the “unpardonable sin” - as many are doing now.]

“The period of their probation was about to expire. Noah had faithfully followed the instructions which he had received from God. The ark was finished in every part as the Lord had directed, and was stored with food for man and beast. And now the servant of God made his last solemn appeal to the people. With an agony of desire that words cannot express, he entreated them

Dear Pastor Jan,

One day I parked my car and walked up the sidewalk to my front door. Half way up there was a little white book on the sidewalk entitled, “National Sunday Law.” I didn’t read it, but put it on a shelf. The next day as I was walking up the sidewalk, there was a book entitled, “National Sunday Law” in the same place on the sidewalk! I couldn’t believe it! I read the whole thing! I soon became a Seventh-day Adventist. The book changed my life! Praise God! R.B. Arizona

“There were giants in the earth in those days.” Gen. 6:4. It looks like these are skeletons of a man and his wife who lived before the flood, and died side by side. All the dirt hasn’t yet been taken away from the man’s head. You see one of the two men chopping some of the dirt away from behind the giant’s head with a pick. If an atheistic evolutionist saw this picture, he might get excited.

During road construction in southeast Turkey, [not too far from where Noah’s ark landed] many tombs of giants were unearthed. These tombs were about 16 feet long. In two of them, the human thigh bones were 47 inches in length. They calculated that the people stood nearly sixteen feet tall. A cast of this bone is seen at the Creationist Museum in Glenrose, Texas.

Flavius Josephus, the noted Jewish historian of the first century A.D., (who witnessed the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple in 70 A.D.), also described the giants as having “bodies so large and countenances so entirely ‘different’ from other men that they were surprising to the sight.” He adds that the bones of the giants were still on display then. The faces of these two skeletons in this picture, also look “strange.” Their upper teeth are in a straight line, making their opened mouth look square. God’s prophet said that many of the ancient giants were “strange.” Here’s the quote - “The inhabitants of this land [Bashon], descendants from a giant race, were themselves of marvelous size and strength, while Og, the king of the country, was remarkable for size even in a nation of giants...

“The calm faith of their leader [Moses] inspired the people with confidence in God... Not mighty giants nor walled cities could stand before the Captain of the Lord’s host. The Lord led the army; the Lord discomfited the enemy; the Lord conquered in behalf of Israel... Thus was blotted from the earth that “strange” people who had given themselves up to iniquity and abominable idolatry.” PP 436. And thus will be blotted from the earth the people whose “iniquity” is “as it was in the days of Noah.”

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,

I was born a Roman Catholic, and have been going to church all my life. I’ve heard many sermons on the book of Revelation, but never has anything touched my heart like the book “National Sunday Law!” I’m hungry for God’s truth! God bless you and your ministry. Your brother in Christ, M. Anjaiah to seek a refuge while it might be found. Again they rejected his words, and raised their voices in jest and scoffing. Suddenly a silence fell upon the mocking throng. Beasts of every description, the fiercest as well as the most gentle, were seen coming from mountain and forest and quietly making their way toward the ark. A noise as of a rushing wind was heard, and lo, birds were flocking from all directions, their numbers darkening the heavens, and in perfect order they passed to the ark. Animals obeyed the command of God, while men were disobedient... The world looked on in wonder, some in fear. Philosophers were called upon to account for the singular occurrence, but in vain. It was a mystery which they could not fathom. But men had become so hardened by their persistent rejection of light that even this scene produced but a momentary impression. As the doomed race beheld the sun shining in its glory, and the earth clad in almost Eden beauty, they banished their rising fears by boisterous merriment, and by their deeds of violence they seemed to invite upon themselves the visitation of the already awakened wrath of God.

“Mercy had ceased its pleadings for the guilty race... A flash of dazzling light was seen, and a cloud of glory more vivid than the lightning descended from heaven and hovered before the entrance of the ark. The massive door, which it was impossible for those within to close, was slowly swung to its place by unseen hands. Noah was shut in, and the rejecters of God’s mercy were shut out. The seal of Heaven was on that door; God had shut it, and God alone could open it. So when Christ shall cease His intercession for guilty men, before His coming in the clouds of heaven, the door of mercy will be shut. Then divine grace will no longer restrain the wicked, and Satan will have full control of those who have rejected mercy. They will endeavor to destroy God’s people; but as Noah was shut into the ark, so the righteous will be shielded by divine power.

The finger of a giant who lived before the flood. Do you see his finger nail?

were secretly inquiring, ‘Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed to destruction?’ Darker and darker grew the heavens, and faster came the falling rain. The beasts were roaming about in the wildest terror, and their discordant cries seemed to moan out their own destiny and the fate of man. Then ‘the fountains of the great deep’ were ‘broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.’ Water appeared to come from the clouds in mighty cataracts. Rivers broke away from their boundaries, and overflowed the valleys. Jets of water burst from the earth with indescribable force, throwing massive rocks hundreds of feet into the air, and these, in falling, buried themselves deep in the ground.

“The people first beheld the destruction of the works of their own hands. Their splendid buildings, and the beautiful gardens and groves where they had placed their idols, were destroyed by lightning from heaven, and the ruins were scattered far and wide. The altars on which human sacrifices had been offered were torn down, and the worshipers were made to tremble at the power of the living God, and to know that it was their corruption and idolatry which had called down their destruction.

“As the violence of the storm increased, trees, buildings, rocks, and earth were hurled in every direction. The terror of man and beast was beyond description. Above the roar of the tempest was heard the wailing of a people that had despised the authority of God. [You’ll hear that “wailing” again after probation has closed and the 7 last plagues are falling on billions.] Satan himself, who was compelled to remain in the midst of the warring elements, feared for his own existence. He had delighted to control so powerful a race, and desired them to live to practice their abominations and continue their rebellion against the Ruler of heaven. He now uttered imprecations against God, charging Him with injustice and cruelty. Many of the people, like Satan, blasphemed God, and had they been able, they would have torn Him from the throne of power. Others were frantic with fear, stretching their hands toward the ark and pleading for admittance. But their entreaties were in vain. Conscience was at last aroused to know that there is a God who ruleth in the heavens. They called upon Him earnestly, but His ear was not open to their cry. In that terrible hour they saw that the transgression of God’s law had caused their ruin...

“Some in their desperation endeavored to break into the ark, but the firm-made structure withstood their efforts. Some clung to the ark until they were borne away by the surging waters, or their hold was broken by collision with rocks and trees. The massive ark trembled in every fiber as it was beaten by the merciless winds and flung from billow to billow. The cries of the beasts within expressed their fear and pain. But amid the warring elements it continued to ride safely. Angels that excel in strength were commissioned to preserve it.

“The beasts, exposed to the tempest, rushed toward man, as though expecting help from him. Some of the people bound their children and themselves upon powerful animals, knowing that these were tenacious of life, and would climb to the highest points to escape the rising waters. Some fastened themselves to lofty trees on the summit of hills Tenniter's Corner: "None but those who have fortified the mind with the truths of the Bible will stand through the last great conflict." GC 593, 594.

“For seven days after Noah and his family entered the ark, there appeared no sign of the coming storm. During this period their faith was tested. It was a time of triumph to the world without. The apparent delay confirmed them in the belief that Noah’s message was a delusion, and that the Flood would never come... They gathered in crowds about the ark, deriding its inmates with a daring violence which they had never ventured upon before.

“But upon the eighth day dark clouds overspread the heavens. There followed the muttering of thunder and the flash of lightning. Soon large drops of rain began to fall. The world had never witnessed anything like this, and the hearts of men were struck with fear. All were secretly inquiring, ‘Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed to Another finger of a giant. The piece of paper money shown here is 6 inches long.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I'm an SDA who is a correctional counselor here at one of the two State Prisons in California. We are in charge of 10,000 adult male felons. Many of these men are intelligent, and want to make permanent changes in their lives. I am in a position to get God's three angels' messages to them in the form of the book "National Sunday Law." Also my half brother called from Indiana and asked if I had ever heard of the book "National Sunday Law." I told him Yes! He was amazed. He was backslidden, but the NSL book helped to bring him back to our Lord Jesus Christ with all His wonderful commandments. Keep up your ministry! In Christian love, Jim

Dear Sir,
I have just read the book "National Sunday Law." Never have I seen anything that has explained God's word so clearly, in such a plain, understandable way! Thank you, and may God bless you all. I will be sending for more of them later. Love in Christ, Anne or mountains; but the trees were uprooted, and with their burden of living beings were hurled into the seething billows. One spot after another that promised safety was abandoned. As the waters rose higher and higher, the people fled for refuge to the loftiest mountains. Often man and beast would struggle together for a foothold, until both were swept away.

“From the highest peaks men looked abroad upon a shoreless ocean. The solemn warnings of God’s servant no longer seemed a subject for ridicule. How those doomed sinners longed for the opportunities which they had slighted! How they pleaded for one hour’s probation, one more privilege of mercy, one call from the lips of Noah! But the sweet voice of mercy was no more to be heard by them. Love, no less than justice, demanded that God’s judgments should put a check on sin. The avenging waters swept over the last retreat, and the despisers of God perished in the black depths.

“By the word of God... the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.” 2 Pet. 3:5-7. Another storm is coming. The earth will again be swept by the desolating wrath of God, and sin and sinners will be destroyed.

“The sins that called for vengeance upon the antediluvian world exist today. The fear of God is banished from the hearts of men, and His law is treated with indifference and contempt. The intense worldliness of that generation is equaled by that of the generation now living...

“That which is lawful in itself is carried to excess. Appetite is indulged without restraint. Professed followers of Christ are today eating and drinking with the drunken, while their names stand in honored church records. Intemperance benumbs the moral and spiritual powers and prepares the way for indulgence of the lower passions. Multitudes feel under no moral obligation to curb their sensual desires, and they become the slaves of lust. Men are living for the pleasures of sense; for this world and this life alone. Extravagance pervades all circles of society. Integrity is sacrificed for luxury and display. They that make haste to be rich pervert justice and oppress the poor, and ‘slaves and souls of men’ are still bought and sold. Fraud and bribery and theft stalk unrebuked in high places and in low. The issues of the press teem with records of murder—crimes so cold-blooded and causeless that it seems as though every instinct of humanity were blotted out. And these atrocities have become of so common occurrence that they hardly elicit a comment or awaken surprise. The spirit of anarchy is permeating all nations, and the outbreaks that from time to time excite the horror of the world are but indications of the pent-up fires of passion and lawlessness that, having once escaped control, will fill the earth with woe and desolation...

“All who will put away their sins by repentance toward God and faith in Christ are offered pardon. But many feel that it requires too great a sacrifice to put away sin. Because their life does not harmonize with the pure principles of God’s moral government, they reject His warnings and deny the authority of His law...

“As the time of their probation was closing, the antediluvians gave themselves up to exciting amusements and festivities. Those who possessed influence and power were bent on keeping the minds of the people engrossed with mirth and pleasure, lest any should be impressed by the last solemn warning. Do we not see the same repeated in our day? While God’s servants are giving the message that the end of all things is at hand, the world is absorbed in amusements and pleasure seeking. There is a constant round of excitement that causes indifference to God and prevents the people from being impressed by the truths which alone can save them from the coming destruction.

“In Noah’s day philosophers declared that it was impossible for the world to be destroyed by water; so now there are men of science who endeavor to show that the world cannot be destroyed by fire—that this would be inconsistent with the laws of nature. But the God of nature, the Maker and Controller of her laws, can use the works of His hands to serve His own purpose.

“When great and wise men had proved to their satisfaction that it was impossible for the world to be destroyed by water, when the fears of the people were quieted, when all regarded Noah’s prophecy as a delusion, and looked upon him as a fanatic—then it was that

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Dear Sir,

I just read your book “National Sunday Law,” and I must admit I was thoroughly shocked! For as long as I can remember my family has been going to church on Sunday. I’ve always wondered why every time I tried to do anything on Saturday, my plans would fall apart. I never knew that Christians aren’t supposed to eat pork. I will try to raise money so that my family and others can receive “National Sunday Law.” Thank you so much for writing this book! I really needed it! Sincerely Chante C.

Dear a. Jan Marcussen,

I would attend different churches each Sunday and not feel at peace within my spirit. Then my marriage ended. I began to draw closer to God. I went to the grocery store and had to wait for a few minutes while a father and his sons were using the water machine. As I waited I looked on top of a newspaper stand. To my surprise, I found a book there called “National Sunday Law.” I opened a few pages and began to read, I did not know why. I put it down, and walked away. Then I felt moved by the Spirit of God to take the book. As I went to my office I could not put the book down! I laughed and cried at finding such profound truth! I am truly inspired by the message God has provided through it. Thank you so very much. Sincerely, Jerry God's time had come. 'The fountains of the great deep' were 'broken up, and the scoffers were overwhelmed in the waters of the Flood... 'The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.' 2 Pet. 3:10. When the reasoning of philosophy has banished the fear of God's judgments; when religious teachers are pointing forward to long ages of peace and prosperity, and the world are absorbed in their rounds of business and pleasure, planting and building, feasting and merrymaking, rejecting God's warnings and mocking His messengers - then it is that sudden destruction cometh upon them, and they shall not escape. 1 Thess. 5:3." PP 90-103.

But like Noah and his family, God's humble people will be saved! Watch closely - "The heirs of God have come from garrets, from hovels, from dungeons, from scaffolds, from mountains, from deserts, from the caves of the earth, from the caverns of the sea. On earth they were 'destitute, afflicted, tormented.' Millions went down to the grave loaded with infamy because they steadfastly refused to yield to the deceptive claims of Satan. By human tribunals they were adjudged the vilest of criminals. But now 'God is judge Himself.' Psalm 50:6. They are no longer feeble, afflicted, scattered, and oppressed. Henceforth they are to be ever with the Lord. They stand before the throne clad in richer robes than the most honored of the earth have ever worn. They are crowned with diadems more glorious than were ever placed upon the brow of earthly monarchs. The days of pain and weeping are forever ended. [Praise God!] The King of glory has wiped the tears from all faces; every cause of grief has been removed. Amid the waving of palm branches they pour forth a song of praise, clear, sweet, and harmonious; every voice takes up the strain, until the anthem swells through the vaults of heaven: 'Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.' And all the inhabitants of heaven respond in the ascription: 'Amen: blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever.'" GC 635-651. Praise God friend! Praise God!
