and
the same horn
made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to Notice the words of the Bible to the left, "and prevailed against them." What does that mean? Who will bring the most dangerous persecution to God's people? Will it come from good people? Will it come from bad people? Will they work together?

Knox County Sheriff's Office Detective, Grayson Fritts, Calls for L.G.B.T.Q.
People to Be Captured and EXECUTED.

Hope: Rev. 13 reveals that a certain group of religious people will be sentenced to be executed. How long will it take before leading people in religious and government positions in the U.S. will dare to call for it?

Pastor Jan: In this letter, you'll get a hint.

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Greetings in Jesus' holy name. Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The above Bible text says, "And the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom." Why does our kind Father allow the little horn to prevail against the saints until the time comes that they possess the kingdom? How will the wicked horn prevail against God's dear people? What will it be like? Will it be out in the open? Will it be done under the table like Rome and the devil usually work? And what do miracles have to do with it? Will those who sentence God's people to death work miracles? And what will happen to us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go - the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High... But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him."

More and more people are becoming aware of miracles from both God and the devil. But they can't tell which is which. Because they don't study God's word, many of them will fall for the mark of the beast.

Hope: How long will it take before leading people in both religious and government positions in the U.S. will dare to call for people of a certain religion to be sentenced to death? Will the devil wait until after probation has closed before he inspires certain leaders to call for it?

Pastor Jan: This article will give you a hint -

The New York Times,

<https://www.nytimes.com/2019/06/15/us/knoxville-pastor-grayson-fritts.html>

By Sandra E. Garcia, June 15, 2019

“A Tennessee pastor, who is also a detective [of the Knox County Sheriff’s Office] said in a sermon, that people who were lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender were ‘freaks’ and ‘worthy of death.’

“In the sermon, delivered on June 2, Grayson Fritts, also called for the government to send a riot team to a Pride parade scheduled for June 22 in Knoxville. He said L.G.B.T. people should be arrested, tried, and if convicted, executed.

“That’s the problem with law enforcement nowadays,’ he said in the sermon posted by The Tennessee Holler. ‘They are chasing around cookie thieves, when the real animals are on floats rolling down Gay Street.’

“Mr. Fritts is a detective at the Knox County Sheriff’s Office, and is a pastor at All Scripture Baptist Church, which makes its stance on homosexuality known on its website: ‘A person will only burn in their lust toward the same gender if they have been given over to a reprobate or rejected mind. God said homosexuality should be punished with the death penalty, as set forth in Leviticus 20:13.’”

The articles on this page tell about police detective, Grayson Fritts. Do you see his badge? The job of a detective is to detect whether or not a person is breaking the law, and, like a good papal inquisitor, to report everything possible to the authorities. But a person who is both a detective, and a policeman, is a police detective. That’s been the position of Grayson Fritts. On top of that, he is a church pastor. How does that sound?

The way Rome works is that they have one person to proclaim some shocking program that would accomplish the Vatican’s wicked goal, knowing that it will be rejected, and then, that person fades from view. But the seed has been sown, and later, when more people push it, it’s not new, and people more easily accept it. That’s what happened with police detective Fritts. He is retiring as a police detective, but retaining his position as church pastor. According to Rev. 13:15,16, it’s guaranteed that the law to execute certain religious people - like the Jews in Nazi Germany, and the 144,000 in our day, will come back, and according to Rev. 13:15,16 they will pass it. But before they can enforce the wicked law, dear Jesus appears in the sky! How will you feel then?

of ’em going to jail, we got a bunch of them we’re gonna get convicted because they’ve got their Pride junk on and they’re professing what they are - filthy animals.”

“I’ve heard this sort of thing before,’ Rob Boston said, ‘spouted by the so-called Christian Reconstructionists. The most extreme arm of the Religious Right, Reconstructionists openly espouse theocracy and call for laws to be based on the books of the Hebrew Bible. In their model “reconstructed” society, members of the LGBTQ community would be executed and so would anyone who commits adultery, curses a parent, engages in witchcraft, is ‘unchaste,’ commits blasphemy or worships a ‘false god,’ among other offenses.

“Fritts is unapologetic. Just days later he preached again, calling other churches ‘weak and spineless’ for not advocating that LGBTQ people be killed. He concluded the sermon by saying, ‘Put homos to death.’”

Hope: Does it sound scary? If Leviticus 20:13 is what God wants people to live by now, then why are some churches calling for sodomites to be lovingly taken into their fellowship - including - {as you’ve already learned from their own book}, the poor NAD men who have “trickishly” rebelled against the GC? Many Episcopal churches have even ordained sodomites as Bishops. If it sounds confusing to some, didn’t we already learn that one of Rome’s goals is to bring in confusion so she can more easily slip in papal principles?

Pastor Jan: The prophet of God cries out - “As the Protestant churches have been seeking the favor of the world, false charity has blinded their eyes. They do not see but that it is right to believe good of all evil, and as the inevitable result, they will finally believe evil of all good. GC 571.

After the mark of the beast is enforced by law, it won’t be sodomites who will be sentenced to death by the sodomite society, but it will be God’s dear people.

Faith: How is that possible in our civilized, modern society?

Pastor Jan: Here it is - “When the third angel’s message closes, mercy no longer pleads for the guilty inhabitants of the earth. The people of God have accomplished their work. They have received ‘the latter rain,’ ‘the refreshing from the presence of the Lord,’ and they are prepared for the trying hour before them. Angels are hastening to and fro in heaven. An angel returning from the earth announces that his work is done; the final test has been brought upon the world, and

Time now is so short that billions have been “bundled” in clubs, gangs, secret societies, false churches, labor unions. “Said the angel, ‘They are binding in bundles ready to burn.’” EW 88.

all who have proved themselves loyal to the divine precepts have received 'the seal of the living God.' Then Jesus ceases His intercession in the sanctuary above. He lifts His hands and with a loud voice says, 'It is done... Every case has been decided for life or death...'

"When He leaves the sanctuary, darkness covers the inhabitants of the earth. In that fearful time the righteous must live in the sight of a holy God without an intercessor. The restraint which has been upon the wicked is removed, and Satan has entire control of the finally impenitent. God's long-suffering has ended. The world has rejected His mercy, despised His love, and trampled upon His law. The wicked have passed the boundary of their probation; the Spirit of God, persistently resisted, has been at last withdrawn. Unsheltered

The prophet of God said, "The satanic zeal with which the prince of evil will inspire them for the accomplishment of his malignant designs, will bear the semblance of zeal for God." GC 615. After probation closes, church members will do things like whoop, holler, speak in gibberish, be "slain in the spirit," fall on the floor, die laughing, and then get up and go hunting. "A decree will finally be issued against those who hallow the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, denouncing them as deserving of the severest punishment and giving the people liberty, after a certain time, to put them to death." GC 615. Rev. 13:15 predicts it. If police detective Grayson Fritts and the those of the reconstructionist movement knew all this now, they would be excited.

opposition to an institution of the church and a law of the state ought not to be tolerated; that it is better for them to suffer than for whole nations to be thrown into confusion and lawlessness. The same argument was brought against Christ by the 'rulers of the people.' 'It is expedient for us,' said the wily Caiaphas, 'that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.' John 11:50. This argument will appear conclusive; and a decree will finally be issued against those who hallow the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, denouncing them as deserving of the severest punishment and giving the people liberty, after a certain time, to put them to death...

"The people of God will then be plunged into those scenes of affliction and distress described by the prophet as the time of Jacob's trouble...

"Satan leads many to believe that God will overlook their unfaithfulness in the minor affairs of life; but the Lord shows in His dealings with Jacob that He will in no wise sanction or tolerate evil. All who endeavor to excuse or conceal their sins, and permit them to remain upon the books of heaven, unconfessed and unforgiven, will be overcome by Satan... Those who delay a preparation for the day of God cannot obtain it in the time of trouble or at any subsequent time. The case of all such is hopeless...

"Jacob's history is also an assurance that God will not cast off those who have been deceived and tempted and betrayed into sin, but who have returned unto Him with true repentance. While Satan seeks to destroy this class,

God will send His angels to comfort and protect them in the time of peril. The assaults of Satan are fierce and determined, his delusions are terrible; but the Lord's eye is upon His people, and His ear listens to their cries...

"The season of distress and anguish before us will require a faith that can endure weariness, delay, and hunger—a faith that will not faint though severely tried. The period of probation is granted to all to prepare for that time. Jacob prevailed because he was persevering and determined. All who will lay hold of God's promises, as he did, and be as earnest and persevering as he was, will succeed as he succeeded. Those who are unwilling to deny self, to agonize before God, to pray long and earnestly for His blessing, will not obtain it. Wrestling with God—how few know what it is! How few have ever had their souls drawn out after God with intensity of desire until every power is on the stretch. When waves of despair which no language can express sweep over the suppliant, how few cling with unyielding faith to the promises of God!

Dear Jan Marcussen,
It was no accident that I received your book! A great friend of mine gave it to me. "National Sunday Law" is so inspiring! Many truths were revealed to me in it. This is a book that I will definitely pass on to all my friends and even my enemies. Sir, this wonderful knowledge is by far the most exquisite gift anyone could ever receive. God bless you! Jessee L.

Dear Sir;

I found the book "National Sunday Law" lying in the street. I had seen it before, but didn't pay much attention. Now it was in the street where the cars are going on each side. Angels do things, and God does things, and I was drawn to it. The pages were flapping in the wind. I picked it up and said, "Man! God is really talking to me! I can't seem to get away from this book! Here it is again!" That's when I started passing them out! I grew up in the Catholic church and went to Catholic school. But now I know that what's in this book is the truth, and I will follow it! Rodney Vennita's Corner: "Every victory gained is a gem in the crown of life!" ST 6-20-1900.

"We should now acquaint ourselves with God by proving His promises. We should rather dispense with selfish gratifications than neglect communion with God. We must take time to pray. If we allow our minds to be absorbed by worldly interests, the Lord may give us time by removing from us our idols...

"Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons. The spirits of devils will go forth to the kings of the earth and to the whole world, to fasten them in deception, and urge them on to unite with Satan in his last struggle against the government of heaven. By these agencies, rulers and subjects will be alike deceived...

Dear Pastor Jan:

I know that what you wrote in the book "National Sunday Law" is the truth! Because of this, I've started going to church on Saturdays, and I will continue doing so for the rest of my life. I want to spread the word about what is going on. I will share the book with as many people as I can. I'm going to make it my mission in life to get these books to the people - to alert everyone! Thank you, and God bless. William T.

upon the air: 'Christ has come! Christ has come!' The people prostrate themselves in adoration before him, while he lifts up his hands and pronounces a blessing upon them, as Christ blessed His disciples... and then, in his assumed character of Christ, he claims to have changed the Sabbath to Sunday, and commands all to hallow the day which he has blessed. He declares that those who persist in keeping holy the seventh day are blaspheming his name by refusing to listen to his angels sent to them with light and truth. This is the strong, almost overmastering delusion...

"But the people of God will not be misled. [Satan will walk around on the ground, but when Jesus comes, He will not touch the ground because we will be "caught up" to Him {I Thess. 4:16.} and go up to heaven.] Only those who have been diligent students of the Scriptures and who have received the love of the truth will be shielded from the powerful delusion that takes the world captive...

"Though enemies may thrust them into prison, yet dungeon walls cannot cut off the communication between their souls and Christ... Angels will come to them in lonely cells, bringing light and peace from heaven. The prison will be as a palace; for the rich in faith dwell there, and the gloomy walls will be lighted up with heavenly light as when Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises at midnight in the Philippian dungeon.

"When Christ ceases His intercession in the sanctuary, the unmingled wrath threatened against those who worship the beast and his image and receive his mark (Rev 14:9,10), will be poured out. The plagues upon Egypt when God was about to deliver Israel were similar in character to those more terrible and extensive judgments which are to fall upon the world just before the final deliverance of God's people. Says the revelator, in describing those terrific scourges: 'There fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshiped his image.' The sea 'became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.' And 'the rivers and fountains of waters ... became blood.' Terrible as these inflictions are, God's justice stands fully vindicated...

"In the plague that follows, power is given to the sun 'to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat.' [Pastor Jan: It's global warming.] The prophets thus describe the condition of the earth at this fearful time:

'The land mourneth... because the harvest of the field is perished... All the trees of the field are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.' The rivers of water are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.' 'The songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.' Joel 1:10-12,17-20; Amos 8:3.

Dear Sir,

I am a Muslim and I want to thank you very much for sending me the book, "National Sunday Law." It has helped many people as well as myself. I am now going house to house sharing with the people what's in "National Sunday Law." Most of them want me to tell them more about the Bible teachings in this book. The Muslims in this area are my people and are accepting this truth as they find it. Thank you, and may God bless you and your family. Your Brother in Christ, Mohammed Inusah

To Whom it May Concern,
I don't like to read, but once I started reading "National Sunday Law" I couldn't put it down! I read the whole thing. It's an amazing book and I immediately decided that I have to share this wonderful truth with others. Yours truly, “Though a general decree has fixed the time when commandment keepers may be put to death, their enemies will in some cases anticipate the decree, and before the time specified, will endeavor to take their lives. But none can pass the mighty guardians stationed about every faithful soul. Some are assailed in their flight from the cities and villages; but the swords raised against them break and fall powerless as a straw. Others are defended by angels in the form of men of war...
M. Hall

“The heavens glow with the dawning of eternal day, and like the melody of angel songs the words fall upon the ear: ‘Stand fast to your allegiance. Help is coming.’ Christ, the almighty Victor, holds out to His weary soldiers a crown of immortal glory; and His voice comes from the gates ajar: ‘Lo, I am with you. Be not afraid. I am acquainted with all your sorrows; I have borne your griefs. I have fought the battle in your behalf, and in My name you are more than conquerors.’

“Soon appeared the great white cloud, upon which sat the Son of man. When it first appeared in the distance, this cloud looked very small. The angel said that it was the sign of the Son of man. As it drew nearer the earth, we could behold the excellent glory and majesty of Jesus as He rode forth to conquer. A retinue of holy angels, with bright, glittering crowns upon their heads, escorted Him on His way. No language can describe the glory of the scene. The living cloud of majesty and unsurpassed glory came still nearer, and we could clearly behold the lovely person of Jesus. He did not wear a crown of thorns, but a crown of glory rested upon His holy brow. Upon His vesture and thigh was a name written, King of kings, and Lord of lords. His countenance was as bright as the noonday sun, His eyes were as a flame of fire, and His feet had the appearance of fine brass. His voice sounded like many musical instruments. The earth trembled before Him, the heavens departed as a scroll when it is rolled together, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. ‘And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of His wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?’ Those who a short time before would have destroyed God’s faithful children from the earth, now witnessed the glory of God which rested upon them. And amid all their terror they heard the voices of the saints in joyful strains, saying, ‘Lo, this is our God; we have waited for Him, and He will save us.’

“The earth mightily shook as the voice of the Son of God called forth the sleeping saints. They responded to the call and came forth clothed with glorious immortality, crying, ‘Victory, victory, over death and the grave!’ Then the living saints and the risen ones raised their voices in a long, transporting shout of victory. Those bodies that had gone down into the grave bearing the marks of disease and death came up in immortal health and vigor. The living saints are changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, and caught up with the risen ones, and together they meet their Lord in the air. Oh, what a glorious meeting! Friends whom death had separated were united, never more to part.” EW 286-288.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I have been attending an Episcopal Church, but it's dead. Then your book "National Sunday Law" was delivered to my door. What dynamite! How I would love to see every famous T.V. preacher in the nation get a copy of your book! After reading it, I started keeping the Bible Sabbath as God said to do. Your book has made a difference in my life! I think that you are a female. I will be sending for more of your books to give to others. I have three daughters. One is horribly backslidden. I don't know who is responsible for the book I got, but the seed has sprung up. God bless you. P.C. New Hampshire

Dear Jan Marcussen,
My name is Carlos. I'm an 18-year-old, and I have just now discovered the truth! I read your book "National Sunday Law" and I must say that it is truly fascinating how it all fits together. I was raised a Roman Catholic but have always felt that it was not right to confess my sins to a man. As the Bible says, only God can forgive your sins. It's not until now that I can see the truth about the pope and Roman Catholicism. Now I choose to be a complete follower of God's word. I know that faith in God will get me through. I just want to thank you for your newsletters and for keeping Jesus and his truth real. Much love and God bless! Sincerely Carlos Georgia

Dear Pastor Jan,
I cannot find words to express it! Jesus is working wonderful miracles through the book "National Sunday Law." The spiritually dead have come alive. The spiritually blind are seeing. The lame are leaping up from the ground, and many are waking up from a stupor. Personally, I want to do something for Christ, who died in our place. I want the joy of seeing people turning to Jesus for help and salvation. I'm planning on getting many more "National Sunday Law" preachers. I'm going to get them into the people's hands. If you have a prayer list, please put me on it. Sincerely, Edwin G. Jamaica

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
For years I have attended a Sunday keeping church – the Apostolic Faith Mission Church. But now the whole church has switched and is keeping God’s true Sabbath holy. Isn’t our Lord Jesus wonderful! I’m sending your NSL preachers to people. God can use us to make a difference. Please keep us in your prayers as we keep you in ours. Scott Garner
