Do you see the cross? Have you ever wondered what church pastors might look like in the end of the world? Here's the church pastor. His name is Pastor Craig Duke.

Hope: Is he a dope fiend?

Pastor Jan: He's a "Drag Queen."

Charity: Can he scare babies and make them cry?

Pastor Jan: The internet article says that he and other men like himself are traveling to "cities and towns across the country, transforming locals into fierce drag queens." How can it be? It's because we are in the end of the world! Do you believe that? We see that fiends who are controlled by demons are having fun guiding poor souls onto the path toward hell. The time is fast approaching when "He that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped." Rev. 14:16.

Do you see a rainbow anywhere? A great crowd gathered outside the Supreme Court the first week of December, hoping that the highest Court of the land would decide to do the right thing. One female blue person shouted - "Abortion saves lives!"

Faith: What does that mean?

Hope: It means that while the Mother Superior is snuffing out the lives of the babies in the convent, if anyone asked her what she was doing, she might say, "I'm saving lives." That's because they believe that if they sprinkle it with holy water before it dies, it will be "saved" in heaven as a good Roman Catholic. Out of over 50 million murdered babies, a good bit of them were in Catholic convents. Why?

Pastor Jan: Because we're in the end of the world.

for the time is come
for thee to reap;
for the harvest of
the earth is ripe.
And he that sat
on the cloud thrust in his

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the name of dear Jesus!

Faith: The Bible verse says, "And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped." Rev. 14:15,16. When that happens on the earth, what will it be like? And how will it affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

“Satan is trying to bring about a condition of things that will make the world uncivilized.” 19MR 395.

Charity: Will our kind Father let the fiend do it? Will the world become uncivilized?

Pastor Jan: In the quote below, the prophet of God describes some of the scenes taking place when dear Jesus appears in the sky - “The setting aside of the divine precepts gave rise to thousands of springs of evil, discord, hatred, iniquity, until the earth became one vast field of strife, one sink of corruption. No language can express the longing which the disobedient and disloyal feel for that which they have lost forever - eternal life...”

“The people see that they have been deluded. They accuse one another of having led them to destruction; but all unite in heaping their bitterest condemnation upon the ministers. Unfaithful pastors have prophesied smooth things; they have led their hearers to make void the law of God and to persecute those who would keep it holy. Now, in their despair, these teachers confess before the world their work of deception. The multitudes are filled with fury. ‘We are lost!’ they cry, ‘and you are the cause of our ruin;’ and they turn upon the false shepherds... Everywhere there is strife and bloodshed.

“A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the Lord hath a controversy with the nations, He will plead with all flesh; He will give them that are wicked to the sword.’ Jer. 25:31. For six thousand years the great controversy has been in progress... Now all have made their decisions; the wicked have fully united with Satan in his warfare against God.

The time has come for God to vindicate the authority of His downtrodden law. Now the controversy is not alone with Satan, but with men...

How many knuckles do you see? This news broadcast from “The Hill” brought to view the fact that our nation is more divided now than it was when the civil war broke out in 1860. Will people ever be united with each other? How will it all end? The prophet of God cries out -

“Nations will be stirred to their very center. Support will be withdrawn from those who proclaim God's only standard of righteousness...”

“The great issue so near at hand will weed out those whom God has not appointed [Corrupt pastors. They will leave when the persecution comes. Bye bye.] and He will have a pure, true, sanctified ministry prepared for the latter rain. [Praise God!]

“All the policy in the world cannot save us from a terrible sifting, and all the efforts made with high authorities will not lift from us the scourging of God because sin is cherished. If as a people we do not keep ourselves in the faith and not only advocate with pen and voice the commandments of God, but keep them every one, not violating a single precept knowingly, then weakness and ruin will come upon us...”

“Our own land is to become a battlefield on which is to be carried on the struggle for religious liberty—to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience. [Illegal mandates - which we've all seen - are trial runs for the devil's last illegal push to enforce the mark of the beast.]

“America, where the greatest light from heaven has been shining upon the people, can become the place of greatest peril and darkness because the people do not continue to practice the truth and walk in the light...”

“The more nearly we approach the closing scenes of this earth's history, the more pronounced will be the work of Satan. Every species of deception will take the lead to divert the mind from God through Satan's devices...”

“The God-fearing, commandment-keeping people should be diligent, not only in prayer, but in action, and this will bring the truth before those who have never heard it. [Wonderful! That's what the little NSL preachers are for.]

“The Lord has enlightened us in regard to what is coming upon the earth that we may enlighten others, and we shall not be held guiltless if we are content to sit at ease, with folded hands, and quibble over matters of minor importance.” 3SM 384-389.

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,
My name is Kevin. What I just read in “National Sunday Law” chilled my bones and opened my eyes! I read the whole thing! Now I can see! Reading the truth of God gives me perfect peace! It makes perfect sense!! [Praise His holy name.] I want to study the word of God in a new way, and become a Seventh-day Adventist! Thanks for your help in these matters. In Christ, Kevin GA

“The mark of deliverance has been set upon those ‘that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done.’ Now the angel of death goes forth, represented in Ezekiel's vision by the men with the slaughtering weapons, to whom the command is given: ‘Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at My sanctuary.’ Says the prophet: ‘They began at the ancient men which were before the house.’ Eze. 9:1-6... [Who is that?]

“The Lord cometh out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.’ Isa. 26:21... Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. And it shall come to pass in that day, that a

Dear Sir,
Wow! The book “National Sunday Law!” All I can say is, “What dynamite!” I just loved it and could not stop reading it! My joy is so great! I feel so happy! I want to know more! A lot of my questions got answered, and it's a great feeling, especially when you know that God is with you! Yours truly, A.E.

great tumult from the Lord shall be among them...' Zech. 14:12,13. In the mad strife of their own fierce ["uncivilized"] passions, and by the awful outpouring of God's unmingled wrath, fall the wicked inhabitants of the earth—priests, rulers, and people, rich and poor, high and low. 'And the slain of the Lord shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried.' Jer. 25:33.

"At the coming of Christ the wicked are blotted from the face of the whole earth—consumed with the spirit of His mouth and destroyed by the brightness of His glory. Christ takes His people to the City of God, and the earth is emptied of its inhabitants. 'Behold, the Lord maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.' 'The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the Lord hath spoken this word.' Isa. 24:1,3,5,6.

"The whole earth appears like a desolate wilderness. The ruins of cities and villages destroyed by the earthquake, uprooted trees, ragged rocks thrown out by the sea or torn out of the earth itself, are scattered over its surface, while vast caverns mark the spot where the mountains have been rent from their foundations...

"I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down.' Jer. 4:23-26.....

"For six thousand years, Satan's work of rebellion has 'made the earth to tremble...' For six thousand years his prison house [the grave] has received God's people, and he would have held them captive forever; but Christ had broken his bonds and set the prisoners free." [Wonderful Jesus!] GC 655-659.

Notice the words, "Christ takes His people to the City of God." When you look around inside the city of God, how will you feel then? Satan is doing his best to prevent God's people from going there. He wants us all to end up with him - burning to ashes in the fire. But the mad fiend cannot rip you out of the hands of dear Jesus! Every hour you can pray - "Take me dear Jesus!" And you are safe. The battle is for the mind. Whoever has your thoughts has you. Let's fill our minds with His word, praising Him, singing to Him, walking and talking with Him, to "know Him" forever. Then, we won't drift into the arms of the devil. But you'll be full of joy and peace - "safe in the arms of Jesus."

Faith: Both God and the devil use human agents to carry out their plans. Please tell us about some of them, so we won't be ignorant of Satan's devices.

Pastor Jan: The prophet said, "History is repeating." DA 258. In the

Here's a judge giving a report on Fox news. What she said fits the state of things now. After getting a glimpse of how tens of millions of Satan's ignorant slaves are talking and acting, Sweet Vennita said that it seems like we're living in a make-believe world. The judge said -

"Something has radically changed in America. Crime is coming out of nowhere and is hitting like a thunderbolt. The victims are totally innocent and the crimes unprovoked. It matters not who you are, what you are, or what you were doing. The police are the ones handcuffed by mayors and governors. And judges are looking to please the 'left' for their next judgeship. They let a man go free for only $1000 bail after murdering six people. They let the criminals go free and penalize the innocent." One policeman told me that this is the reason why police sometimes beat the criminals because they know that the corrupt judges will let them go and that this is the only punishment that the criminals will ever get.

The words of the prophet describe what's happening - "Already the doctrine that men are released from obedience to God's requirements [by the crooked preachers] has weakened the force of moral obligation and opened the floodgates of iniquity upon the world. Lawlessness, dissipation, and corruption are sweeping in upon us like an overwhelming tide. [That's what the judge said also.] The whole system of religious principles and doctrines... seems to be a tottering mass, ready to fall to ruin. The vilest of criminals, when thrown into prison for their offenses, are often made the recipients of gifts and attentions as if they had attained an enviable distinction... The press publishes the revolting details of vice, thus initiating others into the practice of fraud, robbery, and murder; and Satan exults in the success of his hellish schemes. The infatuation of vice, the wanton taking of life, the terrible increase of intemperance and iniquity of every order and degree, should arouse all who fear God, to inquire what can be done to stay the tide of evil.

"Courts of justice are corrupt. Rulers are actuated by desire for gain and love of sensual pleasure. Intemperance has beclouded the faculties of many so that Satan has almost complete control of them. Jurists are perverted, bribed, deluded. Drunkenness and revelry, passion, envy, dishonesty of every sort, are represented among those who administer the laws. 'Justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.' Isa. 59:14." GC 585,586.

days of President Abraham Lincoln papal Rome attempted to ruin, and then take over the U.S. In our day, the great harlot has been trying to do it again by attacking President [redacted] while at the same time, using one of the three stooges to help her destroy and then rule it. Watch closely -

Charles Chiniquy: "On the 19th of May, 1856, I met Abraham Lincoln for the first time. He was a giant in stature; but I found him still more a giant in his noble mind and heart. It was impossible to converse five minutes with him without loving him. There was such an expression of kindness and honesty in that face, that after a few moments one felt tied to him by all the noblest affections of the heart. [Then, speaking to President Lincoln, he said -]

“The Jesuits want the Roman Catholics to believe that you are a monster, an open enemy of God and of His Church...”

“The unanimity with which the Catholic hierarchy of the United States is on the side of the rebels is an incontrovertible evidence that Rome wants to destroy this republic. By your personal virtues, your popularity, your love for liberty, you are the greatest obstacle to their diabolical schemes. Their hatred is concentrated against you. You are the daily object of their curses. It is at your breast that they will direct their blows. My blood chills in my veins when I contemplate the day which may come, sooner or later, when Rome will add to all her other iniquities the murder of Abraham Lincoln.”

“When saying these things to the President, I was exceedingly moved, and my voice was choked... But the President was perfectly calm. He said, ‘I will repeat to you what I said at Urbana, when for the first time you told me your fears that I would be assassinated by the Jesuits: ‘Man must not care where and when he will die, provided he dies at the post of honour and duty.’ But I may add, today, that I have a presentiment that God will call me to Him through the hand of an assassin. Let His will, and not mine be done!’ ... I know that they are not imaginary dangers. If I were fighting against a Protestant South, there would be no danger of assassination. The nations who read the Bible, fight bravely on the battle-fields, but they do not assassinate their enemies. The Pope and the Jesuits, with their infernal Inquisition, are the only organized powers in the world which have recourse to the dagger of the assassin...”

“I feel more and more, every day, that it is not against the Americans of the South alone, that I am fighting, it is more against the Pope of Rome, his perfidious Jesuits, and their blind and blood-thirsty slaves... So long as they will hope to conquer the North, they will spare me; but the day we will rout their armies (and that day will surely come, with the help of God), take their cities, and force them to submit, then, it is my impression that the Jesuits, who are the principal rulers of the South, will do what they have almost invariably done in the past. The dagger, or the pistol of one of their adepts, will do what the strong hands of the warriors could not achieve. This civil war seems to be nothing but a political affair to those who do not see, as I do, the secret springs of that terrible drama. But it is more a religious than a civil war. It is Rome who wants to rule and degrade the North, as she has ruled and degraded the South... There are only very few of the Southern leaders who are not more or less under the influence of the Jesuits, through their wives, family relations, and their friends. Even the Protestant ministers are under the influence of the Jesuits without suspecting it. To keep her ascendancy in the North, as she does in the South, Rome is doing here what she has done in Mexico, and in all the South American Republics; she is paralyzing, by a civil war, the arms of the soldiers of Liberty. She divides our nation, in order to weaken, subdue, and rule it.

“But there is a thing which is very certain; it is, that if the American people could learn what I know of the fierce hatred of the priests of Rome against our institutions, our most sacred rights, and our so dearly bought liberties, they would drive them away, or they would shoot them as traitors. But I keep those secrets in my heart; you are the only one to whom I reveal them, for I know that you learned them before me.

“Please accept my sincere thanks for the new light you have given me on the dangers of my position, and come again. I will always see you with a new pleasure.”

“The next day, he kindly took me with him in his carriage, when visiting the thirty thousand wounded soldiers picked up on the battle-fields of the seven days’ battle of the Wilderness, and the thirty days’ battle around Richmond, where Grant was breaking the backbone of the rebellion. On the way to and from the hospitals, I could not talk much. The only thought which seemed to occupy the mind of the President was the part which Rome had in that horrible struggle. Many times he repeated: ‘This war would never have been possible without the sinister influence of the Jesuits. We owe it to Popery that we now see our land reddened with the blood of her noblest sons. I conceal what I know on this subject from the knowledge of the nation; for if the people knew the whole truth, this war would turn into a religious war, and it would, at once, take a tenfold more savage and bloody character... If they could hear what Professor Morse [the inventor of Morse Code] has said to me of the plots made in Rome to destroy this Republic, they would know that the priests, nuns, and monks... are nothing else but the emissaries of the Pope...”

Priest Chiniquy: “He handed me the note, saying, ‘Can you sign that?’ [It was a bill for defending priest Chiniquy against the Catholic priests who had brought him to court - with false accusations - for teaching the Catholic people from the Bible.]

“After reading it, I said, ‘Dear Mr. Lincoln, this is a joke. It is not possible that you ask only fifty dollars for services which are worth

Dear Sir;

A friend let me borrow his copy of the book “National Sunday Law.” It moved me! It truly opened my eyes! I was brought up as a Catholic, but now I choose to be a Christian. The people are being deceived, and they need to know what’s in this amazing book!!! It left me hungering to know more! I praise God that I got my hands on it! I will share this truth of God with others! God bless you!
Jesse M. Texas

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I’m writing because “National Sunday Law” is probably the most influential book I have ever read! It had a major role in my being saved. Yes, it gave me a major awakening which caused me to turn to God. This in itself is a miracle because of the fact that I have been an absolute reprobate for the last 10 years. Drugs, drug dealing, and alcohol are at the center of my reproachful past. I have now been saved from those sins, and I believe that I have been chosen by God to help spread His truth. What compelled you to write this amazing book? I just want to say that “National Sunday Law” is very powerful! It is of the utmost importance that people learn the end time truth that it contains! I feel compelled to spread these books! I praise God that you had the courage to write it! Sincerely, Pat Wisconsin

Dear Pastor Jan,

I have read your eye-opening book, “National Sunday Law.” Now I can see!!! I thank God that you wrote this soul-saving book. I cannot wait to introduce my friends to your book, and to look for a Seventh-day Adventist church! May God bless you and your work. Sincerely, and thank you, Nora at least two thousand dollars.”

“He then tapped me with his right hand on the shoulder and said: ‘Sign that; it is enough.’”

“The relaxation of the great strain upon my mind, and the great kindness of my benefactor in charging me so little... and the terrible presentiment that he would pay with his life for what he had done for me, caused me to break into sobs and tears.

“Father Chiniquy, what are you crying for?”

“Dear Mr. Lincoln,’ I answered, ‘allow me to tell you that the joy I should naturally feel for such a victory is destroyed in my mind by the fear of what it may cost you. There were in the court not less than ten or twelve Jesuits from Chicago and St. Louis, who came to hear my sentence of condemnation to the penitentiary. But it was on their heads that you have brought the thunders of heaven and earth! Nothing can be compared to the expression of their rage against you, when you not only wrenched me from their cruel hands, but you were making the walls of the courthouse tremble under the awful and superhumanly eloquent denunciation of their diabolical malice in the plot they had formed for my destruction. What troubles my soul just now and draws my tears, is that it seems to me that I have read your sentence of death in their fiendish eyes. How many other noble victims have already fallen at their feet!

“He tried to divert my mind, at first, with a joke, ‘Sign this,’ said he, ‘it will be my warrant of death.’”

“But after I had signed, he became more solemn, and said, ‘I know that Jesuits never forget nor forsake. But man must not care how and where he dies, provided he dies at the post of honor and duty,’ and he left me.” 50 Years in the Church of Rome. Chapter 58.

Pastor Jan: Then priest Chiniquy revealed how the authorities learned that John Wilkes Booth - the Catholic pawn - was roosting in a nest of priests and Jesuits who were meeting in Washington D.C. in the home of Mary Surratt - where they planned the death of President Lincoln at the hand of Booth.

Hope: What will our kind Father do to overbalance all the suffering which the devil and his army have slung upon the earth?

Pastor Jan: Here it is - “Soon there appears in the east a small black cloud, about half the size of a man’s hand. It is the cloud which surrounds the Saviour and which seems in the distance to be shrouded in darkness. The people of God know this to be the sign of the Son of man. In solemn silence they gaze upon it as it draws nearer the earth, becoming lighter and more glorious, until it is a great white cloud, its base a glory like consuming fire, and above it the rainbow of the covenant. Jesus rides forth as a mighty conqueror. Not now a ‘Man of Sorrows,’ to drink the bitter cup of shame and woe, He comes, victor in heaven and earth, to judge the living and the dead... With anthems of celestial melody the holy angels, a vast, unnumbered throng, attend Him on His way. The firmament seems filled with radiant forms - ‘ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands...’ As the living cloud comes still nearer, every eye beholds the Prince of life.

No crown of thorns now mars that sacred head; but a diadem of glory rests on His holy brow. His countenance outshines the dazzling brightness of the noonday sun. ‘And He hath on His vesture and on His thigh a name written, King of kings, and Lord of lords.’ Rev 19:16.

“The King of kings descends upon the cloud, wrapped in flaming fire. The heavens are rolled together as a scroll, the earth trembles before Him, and every mountain and island is moved out of its place... The derisive jests have ceased. Lying lips are hushed into silence... The cry bursts forth from lips so lately scoffing: ‘The great day of His wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?’ The wicked pray to be buried beneath the rocks of the mountains rather than meet the face of Him whom they have despised and rejected.

“That voice which penetrates the ear of the dead, they know. How often have its plaintive, tender tones called them to repentance. How often has it been heard in the touching entreaties of a friend, a brother, a Redeemer... Those who would have destroyed Christ and His faithful people now witness the glory which rests upon them. In the midst of their terror they hear the voices of the saints in joyful strains exclaiming: ‘Lo, this is our God; we have waited for Him, and He will save us.’ Isa. 25:9.

“Amid the reeling of the earth, the flash of lightning, and the roar of thunder, the voice of the Son of God calls forth the sleeping saints. He looks upon the graves of the righteous, then, raising His hands to heaven, He cries out:

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy - a life of undimmed happiness - awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.

“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I was so angry that I cursed God. Drugs, alcohol, and greed for money blinded me from the greatest love I have ever known. Little did I know that God had a great plan for me. I read the book “National Sunday Law” and I’m still recovering from the enormity of it! I plan to get “National Sunday Law” books so I can continue what God has instilled upon my life. Jesus is coming very soon! I don’t want the mark of the beast. I choose to keep God’s Sabbath day holy. Your loving brother in Jesus Christ, T.S.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I received your book “National Sunday Law” in the mail. I read it several times. It was shocking, yet, for the first time, it all made sense to me! Since reading “National Sunday Law,” I have renewed my relationship with Christ and I now live in a way which honors Him. I’m also sharing this book with others in hopes that their eyes will be opened. Thank you for writing such an incredible book! It’s just what the people need! H.S.

‘Awake, awake, awake, ye that sleep in the dust, and arise!’ Throughout the length and breadth of the earth the dead shall hear that voice, and they that hear shall live. And the whole earth shall ring with the tread of the exceeding great army of every nation, kindred, tongue, and people. From the prison house of death they come, clothed with immortal glory, crying: ‘O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?’ 1 Cor. 15:55. And the living righteous and the risen saints unite their voices in a long, glad shout of victory. [Praise God!]

“The living righteous are changed ‘in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye.’ At the voice of God they were glorified; now they are made immortal and with the risen saints are caught up to meet their Lord in the air. Angels ‘gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.’ Little children are borne by holy angels to their mothers’ arms. Friends long separated by death are united, nevermore to part, and with songs of gladness ascend together to the City of God.” GC 640-652. [Praise God!]

“Jesus knows the wants of the soul. Pomp, riches, and honor cannot satisfy the heart. ‘If any man thirst, let him come unto Me.’ The rich, the poor, the high, the low, are alike welcome. He promises to relieve the burdened mind, to comfort the sorrowing, and to give hope to the despondent... That sudden cry, ‘If any man thirst,’ startled them from their sorrowful meditation, and as they listened to the words that followed, their minds kindled with a new hope. The Holy Spirit presented the symbol before them until they saw in it the offer of the priceless gift of salvation... The cry of Christ to the thirsty soul is still going forth, [Praise God!] and it appeals to us with even greater power than to those who heard it on that last day of the feast. The fountain is open for all. The weary and exhausted ones are offered the refreshing draught of eternal life. Jesus is still crying, ‘If any man thirst, let him come unto Me, and drink.’ ‘Let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.’ ‘Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.’ DA 454. Praise God friend! Praise God!
