For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.”

They like magical crystals

New York Post, 12/14/17.

BACK in the good old days, Alex Hill used to drop a couple of grand a night on models and bottles [of poison]. But now he spends his money on a different indulgence: amethyst crystals. Hill, the CEO of his own real estate firm, had all the trappings of a successful alpha-male existence: a sweet apartment hugging the High Line, a shiny BMW X5, and nights out in Las Vegas with five-figure bar tabs. But he wasn't fulfilled.

"I was seeking a deeper purpose, but I was blocked," says Hill. So he turned to crystals for help.

Pastor Jan: These poor souls have no clue where it will lead them! The devil is going to use shiny crystals to lead them farther and farther down the path - to the supernatural - to spiritualism - to miracles - to the unity movement with Rome - to the anti-christ - to the mark of the beast!

CRYSTAL MIGHT

New York Post, 12/14/17.

Hope: Do smiling fiends sell sparkling crystals for $10,000 each to poor rich souls who are empty? Money, fast cars, adultery, and muscles fail to bring the sweet peace that dear Jesus gives. How will crystals help lead liberal atheists and evolutionists into spiritualism - to go along with the devil's religious law? In this letter, you'll get a hint.

and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon."

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Live forever! Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The Bible quote says that "the spirits of devils" "go forth" to "the whole world" "to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty." It also says that "He" gathered them into a place called "Armageddon." Where is that? What is that? When is that? Who is that? Why is that? What do crystals have to do with anything? What will Catholic clergy and apostate Protestant preachers have to do with it? And how will it all affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

YOUNG ADULTS

Spiritually thirsty millennials turn to the occult

Our Sunday Visitor, 1/6/18.

On page 1, you see Alex Hill, the poor rich guy who gave up a lot of money and thrills for crystals. Concerning him, and many like him, the New York Post says, "Spending tens of thousands of dollars on rocks, and selling off most of his possessions, including the majority of his 35 suits, his luxurious apartment, and a Rolex Explorer watch, he went to a spiritual festival in Brazil... He now spends much of his time in the Venice section of Los Angeles [with his magical crystals]."

"The medical and scientific community considers "crystal healing" to be quackery. [Neither they, nor those who use the crystals, know that the supernatural power of the devil is behind it.] But that hasn't stopped the practice from growing in popularity. Earlier this year, FAST company reported a 40% jump in crystal healing over the past four years. [The devil would like to use these things to replace "Medical Missionary" work by God's people.]

"Crystals have long been popular with New Age enthusiasts and wellness fanatics, from Kim Kardashian, who turned to them to recover from her Paris robbery, to Gwyneth Paltrow and her GOOP followers. But, increasingly, they are attracting an unexpected demographic: Alpha men.

"Finance Titans [and other types of poor souls] are dropping big cash on shining rocks that supposedly have healing properties as the popularity of crystals spreads beyond hippie circles.

"These are people who run hedge funds, who work on Wall Street. These are guys who are running businesses and handling all these people's money," says Colleen McCann, an "energy practitioner" who charges $250 an hour for her crystal reading private sessions.

"One guy named Anthony admitted that the crystals many times lose their powers after a while, and they crack. "You're not supposed to talk about that," he says, "even good ones crack. They did their purpose, and now you move on."

Pastor Jan: The devil does that with crystals for the same reason that he made William Schnoebelen to keep drinking more and more blood as a vampire in order to be satisfied. The devil does the same thing with alcohol, drugs, secret vice, and any evil habit - to suck the people deeper and deeper into his pit, hoping that they'll never "behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world." John 1:29.

Hope: What do all these things - crystals, magic, healings, and leading church crooks have to do with the battle of Armageddon?

Pastor Jan: This article in Newsweek gives us a hint. The picture here to the left, and the one on page 3, illustrate a little of what has been going on here in the end of the world. The article, when compared with books like Great Controversy; historical and court records; reveals such wicked acts of leading church demons that you can't comprehend it. In a nutshell, the documentation, {at <http://itccs.org/tag/international-common-law-court-of-justice/>} reveals murder, rape, corruption, abuse, and torture of men, women, children, and babies, before the highest church monsters on earth eat their flesh and drink their blood {as part of the 9th circle Jesuit cult}. The article reveals that the International Common Law Court of Justice – has issued warrants for the arrest of Jorge Bergoglio {Pope Francis}, Adolfo Pachon {the Black Pope}, former Pope Benedict XVI, Justin Welby {the Archbishop of Canterbury}, etc. If you knew how short time is now, it might make chills go down your back.

Four giant crystals, curiously and beautifully arranged. Their magic is exciting and attractive to those who are empty because they've been turned away from the Bible and dear Jesus by church hypocrites. If they knew the depths of hell into which the devil is using these things to lead them, they - as William Schnoebelen learned the hard way - would run into the arms of Jesus, and be happy and safe forever.

By Nicholas Wolfram Smith

Growing up, religion was a Sunday affair for Michael, and he described the faith in his home as not "particularly stringent." As an adult convert to Catholicism, he entered deeply into his faith and studied theology. During the same time, he, like a growing number of millennials, also became a practitioner of magic.

Michael told Our Sunday Visitor that the magic he practices grounds his "daily spiritual practice" and allows him to see divine grace at work "in a solid, concrete way." He connected the interest in the occult among millennials as being about "the search for something deeper, something that's not superficial, but is beautiful, ancient and tangible."

"Both magic and religion challenge a completely superficial, rational world view."

While magical practices may seem harmless or ridiculous to some, they are still spiritually dangerous.

It's no mystery that our kind Father describes it like this - "And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, ... having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration." Rev. 17:4-6.

"And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all." Rev. 18:21.

Hope: "And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon." Rev. 16:16. What does that mean?

Pastor Jan: The word "Armageddon" is made from two Hebrew words, "Har," and "Megidon." The word "Har" means, "mountain." So it's not just a local battle in the valley of Megiddo. It's a worldwide battle as we see in Rev. chapters 16-20, and as the prophet reveals in the last few chapters of the book, Great Controversy. The word "Megidon" means "congregation." That word is found in Isaiah 14:13. Here it is. Satan said, "I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north." On that mount, "in the sides of the north" is where God's temple is, with the "Congregation" of "ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands" {Rev. 5:11} standing before Him. And that's where the devil was determined to sit! But instead of Satan sitting there "as god," he and his poor slaves will end up standing in front of God at "the mount of the congregation" in the great White Throne Judgment - to receive the sentence of eternal death after they have tried to kill God's dear people in the last global conflict. The devil and the wicked will finally receive the wages they have earned by their lives. Their wages? "The wages of sin is death," {Rom. 6:23} not eternal life in torment. The devil and Rome tell that lie to make people think that our kind Father is more cruel, and a greater monster than Satan is. And Rome makes a lot of money off of it. The perfect joys and peace of heaven will not be ruined by such a monstrous thing. Are the priests and preachers who teach that lie - like the three stooges? Or are they just ignorant of the Bible? Or are they like monsters?

Arlow Weed: "Come on Jake, lets go and see if Mama is being tortured in hell now as much as she was a trillion years ago."

Jake: "Seeing Mama burn and scream in hell forever is great! Have fun Mama! In another trillion years, you've only just begun!"

Is that fair? Is that love? Instead of that lie of the devil, God reveals that their wages will be "according to their works." "And the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works." Rev. 20:12. Is that fair? Yes! "For behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts... And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet." Mal. 4:1-3. "And they shall be as though they had not been." Obed. 16. They will never live again. They'll never suffer again - because "God is love."

By their lies, the "three unclean spirits like frogs" will help start the battle of Armageddon by stirring up the world to try to kill God's dear people {Rev. 13:15}. In Great Controversy, the prophet of God describes many details of this global battle right before our eyes! Watch closely -

Newsweek, 12/8/17.

In the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy, dear Jesus perfectly describes it. Do you see hundred dollar bills flying around? The big white box is to hide someone's nakedness. In the Vatican, they worship Lucifer and Dagon the fish god. Do you see the fish hat on the priest of Dagon?

Concerning Martin Luther's visit to Rome, the prophet said, "At last he beheld in the distance the seven-hilled city. With deep emotion he prostrated himself upon the earth, exclaiming: 'Holy Rome, I salute thee!' He entered the city, visited the churches, and listened to the marvelous tales repeated by priests and monks... Everywhere he looked upon scenes that filled him with astonishment and horror... No one can imagine,' he wrote, 'what sins are committed in Rome... They are in the habit of saying, 'If there is a hell, Rome is built over it:' it is an abyss whence issues every kind of sin.'" GC 124,125.

And remember the tender love that our kind Father has for the dear Catholic people in darkness. While the pope and his god invite all to unite with the papacy, dear Jesus says, "Come out of her my people." He gets all the praise that tons of dear Catholics, Protestants, and others, have become faithful Seventh-day Adventists from reading the NSL preachers which you have been getting to them by putting them on door-steps, benches, parking lots, restrooms, and any place people walk, sit, wait, or go. Our mighty God gets all the praise. He is finishing His work, and the devil can't stop it! Let the fiend leap up and down.

Dear Pastor Jan,
I grew up as a Roman Catholic. I am an inmate in prison and have been distributing the book "National Sunday Law" for over a year to the inmates and the guards. I have been called a heretic for leaving the Catholic church. But I thank God and Jesus for giving me His Spirit to pass the truth to others, and to be a soldier in the army of Jesus Christ. May God bless you for the good work you are doing! Amen! Sincerely your Brother in Jesus Christ, L.P.

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,
Grace be unto you, and peace. I read your book "National Sunday Law," and became a Seventh-day Adventist. I have seen all of your CCA videos, and I pass out the NSL books to everyone I can reach. Now I would like to be on your mailing list to get your monthly letter so I can share it with others too. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you. Darrio

"When the protection of human laws shall be withdrawn from those who honor the law of God, there will be, in different lands, a simultaneous movement for their destruction. As the time appointed in the decree draws near, the people will conspire to root out the hated sect. It will be determined to strike in one night a decisive blow, which shall utterly silence the voice of dissent and reproof. [Notice the words, "in one night."]

"The people of God—some in prison cells, some hidden in solitary retreats in the forests and the mountains - still plead for divine protection, while in every quarter companies of armed men, urged on by hosts of evil angels, are preparing for the work of death. It is now, in the hour of utmost extremity, that the God of Israel will interpose for the deliverance of His chosen. [Praise God! Dear Jesus comes with His "rod and staff" to save us when it looks like there's no hope. He does that to strengthen our faith. Have you ever noticed that?]

"With shouts of triumph, throngs of evil men are about to rush upon their prey, when, lo, a dense blackness, deeper than the darkness of the night, falls upon the earth... [That happens during the 6th plague of Rev. 16.]

"By the people of God a voice, clear and melodious, is heard, saying, 'Look up,' and lifting their eyes to the heavens, they behold the bow of promise... Again a voice is heard, saying: 'They come! they come! holy, harmless, and undefiled. They have kept the word of My patience; they shall walk among the angels;' and the pale, quivering lips of those who have held fast their faith utter a shout of victory. [Praise God!]

"Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. [They have been taken to heaven when Jesus comes in the clouds, and they reign with Him in heaven.] And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison. [He is "loosed" when the holy city, with God's people, comes down from heaven, and Jesus raises the wicked from the dead to receive their reward.] And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. [Satan makes them think that they can take the city of God by force and live in it. So they surround the city in this final act of the great battle.] And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them." Rev. 20:6-9.

like the voice of demons upon a mission of destruction. The whole earth heaves and swells like the waves of the sea. [Look at that!] Its surface is breaking up. Mountain chains are sinking. Inhabited islands disappear.

Babylon the great has come in remembrance before God, 'to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.' Prison walls are rent asunder, and God's people, who have been held in bondage for their faith, are set free. [Praise God! In this great battle, like in the battle of Jericho, dear Jesus does the fighting!]

"Fierce lightnings leap from the heavens, enveloping the earth in a sheet of flame. Above the terrific roar of thunder, voices, mysterious and awful, declare the doom of the wicked..."

"Those who a little before were so exultant in their cruelty to God's commandment-keeping people, are now shuddering in fear. Their wails are heard above the sound of the elements. Demons acknowledge the deity of Christ and tremble before His power, while men are suplicating for mercy and groveling in abject terror.

"Said the prophets of old, as they beheld in holy vision the day of God: 'Howl ye; for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.' Isa. 13:6. 'Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of His majesty. The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. For the day of the Lord of hosts shall be upon everyone that is proud and lofty... and he shall be brought low.' Isa. 2:10-12.

"A marvelous change has come over those who have held fast their integrity in the very face of death. They have been suddenly delivered from the dark and terrible tyranny of men transformed to demons. Their faces, so lately pale, anxious, and haggard, are now aglow with wonder, faith, and love. Their voices rise in triumphant song: 'God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea.' Ps. 46:1-3...

Dear Sir,

I have been the senior pastor of the Holiness Tabernacle for nearly twenty years. In my research, I was seeking information concerning whether or not church tradition for Sunday keeping is in harmony with God's word. Having received a copy of the book "National Sunday Law," I saw that this book showed me the proof, not only of the man of sin, but also that he changed the true Sabbath worship to Sunday. My eyes have seen the light! And thanks to "National Sunday Law," our congregation now worships on God's true Sabbath day. We will accept nothing but the truth! Thank you, and may God bless you! Elder C. Williams

Dear Sir,
I have just finished reading "National Sunday Law." It was so interesting that I couldn't put it down! Thank you for keeping the public informed of God's word. I am loaning "National Sunday Law" to my friends and family. Thank you!
Jennell Georgia

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I never thought that a book like "National Sunday Law" could change someone's heart the way it has changed mine! Everything in your book is absolutely true! You have made me look at life with a different meaning. I have to live for God now. You have touched a lot of people with "National Sunday Law." Now I'm going to keep the fourth commandment like the Lord said. When I read the first chapter of "National Sunday Law" I could not put the book down! I had to read the whole thing! It really touched my heart! I could tell that you are a child of God, and I hope that you keep doing what you're doing. Please pray for me that I will always live for God and for our Lord Jesus Christ. May God keep blessing you every day! Yours truly, James Tennessee

"Like peals of loudest thunder His words roll through the earth. The Israel of God stand listening, with their eyes fixed upward. Their countenances are lighted up with His glory... The wicked cannot look upon them. And when the blessing is pronounced on those who have honored God by keeping His Sabbath holy, there is a mighty shout of victory." GC 635-640.

"As the third message swells to a loud cry, [May dear Jesus help us give that last message!] and as great power and glory attends the closing work, the faithful people of God will partake of that glory. It is the latter rain which revives and strengthens them... Their faces will shine with the glory of that light which attends the third angel.

"I saw that God would in a wonderful manner preserve his people through the time of trouble. The decree will go forth that they must disregard the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, and honor the first day, or lose their lives; but they will not yield, and trample under their feet the Sabbath of the Lord, to honor an institution of the Papacy...

"Wicked men, who had been exulting that the people of God were in their power, behold the faces of the righteous lighted up, and reflecting the image of Jesus, and they fell like dead men to the earth. Satan and evil angels fled from the presence of the saints glorified. Their power to annoy them was gone forever." 4bSG, pp. 106-114. Praise God!

Dear Sir,
I just finished reading your book "National Sunday Law." It's what I've been waiting to read all my life! Thank you! It was fascinating! I've read it twice now. I can't say enough about it! It has given me so much peace and insight, and I feel like a new person. I feel like a brand-new Christian! Thanks again. In Christ, Bob E.

"Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ." HP 262. "When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are forgiven." SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

"The redeemed throng will range from world to world. [Would you like to fly with dear Jesus from world to world? When you land on those worlds, what will you do then? Will you listen to a concert by their colossal orchestra and choir? Will you and dear Jesus stay for dinner?] The privileges of those who overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony are beyond comprehension.

"All the treasures of the universe will be open to the study of God's children. [Notice the word, "all."] With unutterable delight we shall enter into the joy and the wisdom of unfallen beings. We shall share the treasures gained through ages upon ages spent in contemplation of God's handiwork.

"God has worlds upon worlds that are obedient to His law... As the inhabitants of these worlds see the great price that has been paid to ransom man, they are filled with amazement.

"The Lord has given me a view of other worlds. [Here we go!] Wings were given me, and an angel attended me from the city to a place [another world] that was bright and glorious. The grass of the place was living green, and the birds there warbled a sweet song. The inhabitants of the place were of all sizes; they were noble, majestic, and lovely. They bore the express image of Jesus, and their countenances beamed with holy joy, expressive of the freedom and happiness of the place.

"I asked one of them why they were so much more lovely than those on the earth. The reply was, 'We have lived in strict obedience to the commandments of God, and have not fallen by disobedience, like those on the earth...'

"Then I was taken to a world which had seven moons. There I saw good old Enoch, who had been translated... I asked him if this was the place he was taken to from the earth. He said, 'It is not; the city is my home, and I have come to visit this place.' He moved about the place as if perfectly at home.

"I begged of my attending angel to let me remain in that place. I could not bear the thought of coming back to this dark world again. Then the angel said, 'You must go back, and if you are faithful, you, with the 144,000, shall have the privilege of visiting all the worlds and viewing the handiwork of God.'" Mar. 367,368.

"We began to look at the glorious things outside of the city. There I saw most glorious houses, [notice the word "most"] that had the appearance of silver, supported by four pillars set with pearls most glorious to behold. These were to be inhabited by the saints. [There's your mansion! Look at it! It's empty now. But not for long!] In each was a golden shelf. I saw many of the saints go into the houses, take off their glittering crowns and lay them on the shelf, then go out into the field by the houses to do something with the earth; not as we have to do with the earth here; no, no. A glorious light shone all about their heads, and they were continually shouting and offering praises to God.

"I saw another field full of all kinds of flowers, and as I plucked them, I cried out, 'They will never fade.'

Dear Sir;
Reading "National Sunday Law" has changed my life! I cannot go back to Sunday worship. I must find a truly God-seeking Christian church that worships and keeps God's true Sabbath day holy. I will trust God to guide me. Thank you so much for this revelation of God's truth! God is so on time! A sister in Christ, Alicia

Dear Miss Jan Marcussen,
Wow! What an excellent and incredible book you wrote! Praise God!! This book "National Sunday Law" is a blessing! I'm overjoyed at what I learned from it, so much that I have to write and say "Thank you" for writing such an outstanding book. This is the first time I've ever written to an author to personally give my deepest regards and to express that you are a blessing from God to many of us who desire to understand God's word. What a great book! May the Holy Spirit continue to bless you. Cruz R.
Pennsylvania

Next I saw a field of tall grass, most glorious to behold; it was living green, and had a reflection of silver and gold, as it waved proudly to the glory of King Jesus. Then we entered a field full of all kinds of beasts,—the lion, the lamb, the leopard, and the wolf, all together in perfect union. We passed through the midst of them, and they followed on peaceably after. As we were traveling along, we met a company who also were gazing at the glories of the place. I noticed red as a border on their garments; their crowns were brilliant; their robes were pure white. As we greeted them, I asked Jesus who they were. He said they were martyrs that had been slain for Him. With them was an innumerable company of little ones; they also had a hem of red on their garments.

"Mount Zion was just before us, and on the mount was a glorious temple, and about it were seven other mountains, on which grew roses and lilies. And I saw the little ones climb, or, if they chose, use their little wings and fly to the top of the mountains, and pluck the never-fading flowers." EW 17,18.

"The mystery of the cross explains all other mysteries. In the light that streams from Calvary the attributes of God which had filled us with fear and awe appear beautiful and attractive. Mercy, tenderness, and parental love are seen to blend with holiness, justice, and power. [Wonderful Jesus!] While we behold the majesty of His throne, high and lifted up, we see His character in its gracious manifestations, and comprehend, as never before, the significance of that endearing title, 'Our Father.'

Dear Sir,
 I am the Bishop of my church here in Zambia. We have been assembling on Sundays. I came across your book "National Sunday Law." When you start reading it, you don't want to stop! You are carried away with it! Now, upon finding no basis in the Bible for meeting on Sunday, our church has switched to meeting on Saturday, God's Bible Sabbath. the seventh-day of the week. Please send us more material. We have a membership of 100. May God richly bless you.

"It will be seen that He who is infinite in wisdom could devise no plan for our salvation except the sacrifice of His Son. The compensation for this sacrifice is the joy of peopling the earth with ransomed beings, holy, happy, and immortal... And such is the value of the soul that the Father is satisfied with the price paid; and Christ Himself, beholding the fruits of His great sacrifice, is satisfied." GC 652. Praise God!

"Jacob wrestled with the Angel all night before he gained the victory. When morning broke, the Angel said, 'Let me go, for the day breaketh.' But Jacob answered, 'I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.' Then his prayer was answered. It is such faith as this that we need... Walk with God in the dark as well as in the light, repeating the words, 'He is faithful that promised.' (Heb 10:23).

"When with earnestness and intensity we breathe a prayer in the name of Christ, there is in that very intensity a pledge from God that He is about to answer our prayer 'exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think.' [Praise God!] Never is one repulsed who comes to Him with a contrite heart. Not one sincere prayer is lost. [Praise God!] Amid the anthems of the celestial choir, God hears the cries of the weakest human being. We pour out our heart's desire in our closets, we breathe a prayer as we walk by the way, and our words reach the Monarch of the universe. They may be inaudible to any human ear, but they cannot die away into silence, nor can they be lost through the activities of business that are going on. Nothing can drown the soul's desire. It rises above the din of the street, above the confusion of the multitude, to the heavenly courts. It is God to whom we are speaking, and our prayer is heard." HP 72-83.
