Satan said, "I will exalt my throne above the stars of God... I will be like the most High." Isa. 14:13,14. Do you see any flaming swords? As the mad fiend fights to "exalt my throne," how will it lead to the battle of Armageddon?

Do you see the tornado coming at him? Do you see the flood coming up? Do you see the earthquake toppling skyscrapers? Do you see the fire burning up the city? Do you see the poor man standing on the roof before he's swallowed up? Will it be supernatural?

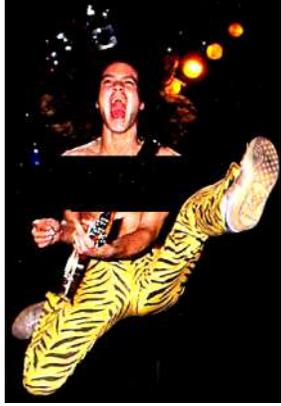

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.
Faith: The Bible verse says, "Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels." Rev. 12:7. No one knows whether the angels just pushed each other, or if each one used a "flaming sword" {seen in Gen. 3:24} - like at the gate to the garden of Eden.
But we do know that Satan's battle against dear Jesus and His people will intensify until the battle of Armageddon. How will it all affect us?
Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

“Lucifer, ‘son of the morning,’ was first of the covering cherubs, holy and undefiled. He stood in the presence of the great Creator, and the ceaseless beams of glory enshrouding the eternal God rested upon him. ‘Thus saith the Lord God; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty...

Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.’ Eze. 28:12-15.

“Little by little Lucifer came to indulge the desire for self exaltation. The Scripture says, ‘Thou hast said in thine heart... I will exalt my throne above the stars of God... I will be like the Most High.’ Isa. 14:13,14. Not content with his position, though honored above the heavenly host, he ventured to covet homage due alone to the Creator...

The rock star.
The poor soul died.

“Now the perfect harmony of heaven was broken. Lucifer’s disposition to serve himself instead of his Creator aroused a feeling of apprehension when observed by those who considered that the glory of God should be supreme. In heavenly council the angels pleaded with Lucifer. The Son of God presented before him the greatness, the goodness, and the justice of the Creator, and the sacred, unchanging nature of His law... But the warning, given in infinite love and mercy, only aroused a spirit of resistance. Lucifer allowed his jealousy of Christ to prevail, and became the more determined.

“To dispute the supremacy of the Son of God, thus impeaching the wisdom and love of the Creator, had become the purpose of this prince of angels. To this object he was about to bend the energies of that master mind, which, next to Christ’s, was first among the hosts of God. But He who would have the will of all His creatures free, left none unguarded to the bewildering sophistry by which rebellion would seek to justify itself. Before the great contest should open, all were to have a clear presentation of His will, whose wisdom and goodness were the spring of all their joy.

“The King of the universe summoned the heavenly hosts before Him, that in their presence He might set forth the true position of His Son and show the relation He sustained to all created beings. The Son of God shared the Father’s throne, and the glory of the eternal, self-existent One encircled both. About the throne gathered the holy angels, a vast, unnumbered throng—‘ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands’ (Rev. 5:11.), the most exalted angels, as ministers and subjects, rejoicing in the light that fell upon them from the presence of the Deity. Before the assembled inhabitants of heaven the King declared that none but Christ, the Only Begotten of God, could fully enter into His purposes, and to Him it was committed to execute the mighty counsels of His will. The Son of God had wrought the Father’s will in the creation of all the hosts of heaven [including Lucifer] and to Him, as well as to God, their homage and allegiance were due. Christ was still to exercise divine power in the creation of the earth and its inhabitants...

Here are six Sabbath-keepers. The people you see behind them have been there for only a few minutes. You notice that the men on the left are reasoning with the Nazis, for they know that before they can count to ten, they’ll join the ones behind them. What they may not know is that - it will seem to them - that before they can bat an eye, they will be looking into the face of Jesus. What joy! Most people don’t think about that. That’s why the martyrs were happily singing in the flames. Whether or not these men worship themselves, or are trusting in Jesus - will determine their eternal life, or their eternal death. If Satan had known all the suffering and torture he was going to bring upon billions, would he have run back into the Saviour’s arms?

“The angels joyfully acknowledged the supremacy of Christ, and prostrating themselves before Him, poured out their love and adoration. Lucifer bowed with them, but in his heart there was a strange, fierce conflict. Truth, justice, and loyalty were struggling against envy and jealousy. The influence of the holy angels seemed for a time to carry him with them. As songs of praise ascended in melodious strains, swelled by thousands of glad voices, the spirit of evil seemed vanquished; unutterable love thrilled his entire being; his soul went out, in harmony with the sinless worshippers, in love to the Father and the Son. But again he was filled with pride in his own glory. His desire for supremacy returned, and envy of Christ was once more indulged... He gloried in his brightness and exaltation and aspired to be equal with God... ‘Why,’ questioned this mighty angel, ‘should Christ have the supremacy? Why is He honored above Lucifer?’

“Leaving his place in the immediate presence of the Father, Lucifer went forth to diffuse the spirit of discontent among the angels. He worked with mysterious secrecy and for a time concealed his real purpose... He began to insinuate doubts concerning the laws that governed heavenly beings... The exaltation of the Son of God as equal with the Father was represented as an injustice to Lucifer...

He’s a rock star. Can you count how many hamburgers are on his head? Is this degraded being a picture of where Satan is sweeping the whole human race? When he started the war in heaven, if he had seen himself taking beautiful, innocent little babies and dragging billions of them down to hell as mad zombies, would he have still rebelled? Or would he have run back into the arms of Jesus?

“There had been no change in the position or authority of Christ... Many of the angels were, however, blinded by Lucifer’s deceptions.

“Taking advantage of the loving, loyal trust reposed in him by the holy beings under his command, he had so artfully instilled into their minds his own distrust and discontent that his agency was not discerned. Lucifer had presented the purposes of God in a false light - distorting them to excite dissent and dissatisfaction... While secretly fomenting discord and rebellion, he with consummate craft caused it to appear as his sole purpose to promote loyalty and to preserve harmony and peace... [He’s using humans who’ve surrendered to him to do the same type of wicked work now - in organizations, hospitals, schools, colleges, universities, churches, counties, towns, cities, and nations of earth. In the past 6 months, this type of shocking, evil work has been seen by the whole world. It is seen in riots, murders, assassinations, and in the daily news. Satan’s working is leading to the battle of Armageddon. But in the end - King Jesus will win - and His faithful people will win with Him.]

“The harmony of heaven had never been interrupted; wherefore should there now be discord? The loyal angels could see only terrible consequences from this dissension, and with earnest entreaty they counseled the disaffected ones to renounce their purpose and prove themselves loyal to God...

“In great mercy, according to His divine character, God bore long with Lucifer. The spirit of disaffection had never before been known in heaven. It was a new element, strange, mysterious, unaccountable. Lucifer himself had not at first been acquainted with the real nature of his feelings; for a time he had feared to express the workings and imaginings of his mind; yet he did not dismiss them. He did not see whither he was drifting. But such efforts as infinite love and wisdom only could devise, were made to convince him of his error. His disaffection was proved to be without cause, and he was made to see what would be the result of persisting in revolt. Lucifer was convinced that he was in the wrong. He saw that ‘the Lord is righteous in all His ways, and holy in all His works’ (Ps 145:17)... Though he had left his position as covering cherub, yet if he had been willing to return to God, acknowledging the Creator’s wisdom, and satisfied to fill the place appointed him in God’s great plan, he would have been reinstated in his office. [Our kind Father is so good!] The time had come for a final decision; he must fully yield to the divine sovereignty or place himself in open rebellion. He nearly reached the decision to return, but PRIDE forbade him. It was too great a sacrifice for one who had been so highly honored to confess that he had been in error... and to yield to the authority which he had been working to prove unjust.

Get ready for your heart to beat the band. Here are Brother Brent & Sister Joanna. These faithful Seventh-day Adventists are part of God’s SDA soul-winning team to help get His Three Angels’ Messages to millions. By the grace of God, they were able to get the National Sunday Law preachers to the great masses of people in New Zealand! Our mighty God helped them to get His last message to the nation so fast that the devil and his girlfriend couldn’t stop it!! Praise God! Let the fiend leap up and down!

As of the latest census, the population of New Zealand is 4.917 million people. With an average of 3 in each home, those people live in about 1.7 million homes. The 1.7 million NSL preachers that were printed could reach those homes! Our kind Father helped the faithful SDAs to reach the nation! Do you comprehend that? Praise God!

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I found your book “National Sunday Law” in my mail box. I was a Roman Catholic. Now, I am a Catholic no more! I have become a Seventh-day Adventist! I am passing the NSL books out to the people. Thank you. Irene

“A compassionate Creator, in yearning pity for Lucifer and his followers, was seeking to draw them back from the ABYSS of ruin into which they were about to plunge. But His mercy was misinterpreted. Lucifer... persistently defended his own course, and fully committed himself to the great controversy against his Maker. Thus it was that Lucifer, ‘the light bearer,’ the sharer of God’s glory, the attendant of His throne, by transgression became Satan, ‘the adversary’ of God and holy beings, and the destroyer of those whom Heaven had committed to his guardianship.

“Rejecting with disdain the arguments and entreaties of the loyal angels, he denounced them as deluded slaves. The preference shown to Christ he declared an act of injustice both to himself and to all the heavenly host, and announced that he would no longer submit to this invasion of his rights and theirs... [He sounds like Adolf Hitler, and like demon possessed rioters of our day.] Great numbers of the angels signified their purpose to accept him as their leader. Flattered by the favor with which his advances were received, he hoped to win all the angels to his side, to become equal with God Himself, and to be obeyed by the entire host of heaven...

“God permitted Satan to carry forward his work until the spirit of disaffection ripened into active revolt. [He does the same today among the nations.] It was necessary for his plans to be fully developed, that their true nature and tendency might be seen by all... God’s government included not only the inhabitants of heaven, but of all the worlds that He had created; and Lucifer had concluded that if he could carry the angels of heaven with him in rebellion, he could carry also all the worlds... All his acts were so clothed with mystery [like the workings of Satan’s servants, the Jesuits. GC 234,235] that it was difficult to disclose to the angels the true nature of his work. Until fully developed, it could not be made to appear the evil thing it was... Even the loyal angels could not fully discern his character or see to what his work was leading.

“God could employ only such means as were consistent with truth and righteousness. Satan could use what God could not—flattery and deceit... Satan had made it appear that he himself was seeking to promote the good of the universe. The true character of the usurper... must be understood by all. He must have time to manifest himself by his wicked works.

“The discord which his own course had caused in heaven, Satan charged upon the government of God. All evil he declared to be the result of the divine administration... Therefore God permitted him to demonstrate the nature of his claims... [It’s happening again now.] His own work must condemn him. Satan had claimed from the first that he was not in rebellion. The whole universe must see the deceiver unmasked.” PP 35-42.

“Then there was war in heaven. Angels were engaged in the battle; Satan wished to conquer the Son of God and those who were submissive to His will. But the good and true angels prevailed, and Satan, with his followers, was driven from heaven.” EW 145. Dear Jesus said, “I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.” Luke 10:18.

Dear Sir,
I found a book on my doorstep entitled “National Sunday Law.” I read it with amazement. Then I read it again. Then I closed the book and said to God - “I believe this about the ‘mark of the beast’ and the Sabbath to be the truth.” It is all making sense to me. As I was reading I felt at that moment that God was speaking to me! How awesome! Praise the Lord!
Sincerely, A.S.

“Satan stood in amazement at his new condition. His happiness was gone. He looked upon the angels who, with him, were once so happy, but who had been expelled from Heaven with him. Before their fall, not a shade of discontent had marred their perfect bliss. Now all seemed changed. Countenances which had reflected the image of their Maker were gloomy and despairing. Strife, discord, and bitter recrimination, were among them. Previous to their rebellion these things had been unknown in Heaven. Satan now beholds the terrible results of his rebellion. He shuddered, and feared to face the future, and to contemplate the end of these things.

Vennita's Corner: "Those who are willing to make any and every sacrifice for eternal life will have it." TMK 303

Dear Sir,
It was Saturday when a man gave me a book called “National Sunday Law.”
Then he drove away. I read it 5 or 6 times. It changed my life! I grew up a Baptist, but there was always something missing deep down inside. I had no rest. After reading your book I searched for a church, and I found a small, little church. Now I am a Seventh-day Adventist! I left a large Sunday school, social events, everything. But I learned about God’s Sabbath, and I found peace of mind in Jesus. Thanks for your book! Don’t get tired of working for God! C.P.

“The hour for joyful, happy songs of praise to God and his dear Son had come. Satan had led the heavenly choir. [He knows music better than anyone on earth, and the fiend teaches people - like rock stars - just what to do. He uses them to corrupt many others before he kills them.] He had raised the first note, then all the angelic host united with him, and glorious strains of music had resounded through Heaven in honor of God and his dear Son. But now, instead of strains of sweetest music, discord and angry words fall upon the ear of the great rebel leader. Where was he? Was it not all a horrible dream? Was he shut out of Heaven? Were the gates of Heaven never more to open and admit him? The hour of worship draws nigh, when bright and holy angels bow before the Father. No more will he unite in heavenly song. No more will he bow in reverence and holy awe before the presence of the eternal God. Could he be again as he was when he was pure, true and loyal, gladly would he yield up the claims of his authority. But he was lost! beyond redemption, for his presumptuous rebellion! And this was not all; he had led others to rebellion and to the same lost condition with himself.

“These spirits had become turbulent with disappointed hopes. Instead of greater good, they were experiencing the sad results of disobedience and disregard of law. Never more would these unhappy beings be swayed by the mild rule of Jesus Christ. Never more would their spirits be stirred by the deep, earnest love, peace, and joy, which his presence had ever inspired in them...

Dear Pastor Jan,
One day I found the book “National Sunday Law.” I thought that the Sunday law is just what the world needs to bring unity! And I would be the one in charge of petitioning everyone in my area to be in favor of the Sunday law! So I started reading it. A few hours later I was converted! I was converted to Jesus and God’s holy 7th day Sabbath! I am so grateful for this book! Soon, my husband and daughter followed my lead. What a lot of lives this one little book has changed! We need to get many more NSL books into the people’s hands! My friends and I will be getting together to go and cover the doorsteps with these little preachers. Please pray for us as we are for you. In Christ, P.N.

cause of his grief. To be commander out of Heaven, was vastly different from being thus honored in Heaven. The loss he had sustained of all the privileges of Heaven seemed too much to be borne. He wished to regain these...

“When Satan became fully convinced that there was no possibility of his being re-instated in the favor of God, he manifested his malice with increased hatred and fiery vehemence.” 1 SP 28-30. “Satan raged like a chained lion.” GC 513.

“God knew that such determined rebellion would not remain inactive. Satan would invent means to annoy the heavenly angels, and show contempt for his authority. As he could not gain admission within the gates of Heaven, he would wait just at the entrance, to taunt the angels and seek contention with them as they went in and out. He would seek to destroy the happiness of Adam and Eve. He would endeavor to incite them to rebellion, knowing that this would cause grief in Heaven.

“Satan held a consultation with his evil angels... He sought to impress upon them that this was their last and only hope. If they failed here, all prospect of regaining and controlling Heaven, or any part of God’s creation, was hopeless.

“Satan went alone to mature plans that would most surely secure the fall of Adam and Eve...

“He shuddered at the thought of plunging the holy, happy pair into the misery and remorse he was himself enduring. He seemed in “Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.

“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

“Satan trembled as he viewed his work. He was alone in meditation upon the past, the present, and his future plans. His mighty frame shook as with a tempest. An angel from Heaven was passing. [That was no accident.] He called him, and entreated an interview with Christ. This was granted him. [Amazing! He had just been fighting with dear Jesus with all of his might. Now, picture him talking with our Saviour - “the meek and lowly One” - who created Lucifer, and created us all!] He related to the Son of God that he repented of his rebellion, and wished again the favor of God. He was willing to take the place God had previously assigned him, and be under his wise command. [“Jesus wept.”] Christ wept at Satan’s woe, but told him, as the mind of God, that he could never be received into Heaven. Heaven must not be placed in jeopardy. All Heaven would be marred should he be received back... The seeds of rebellion were still within him...

“He repented not of his rebellion... The wretchedness he realized in losing the sweet light of Heaven, and the sense of guilt which forced itself upon him, and the disappointment he experienced in not finding his expectations realized, were the

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Wow! I just finished reading “National Sunday Law.” It really hit home. It makes a lot of sense why the world is the way it is. We’ve been fooled and lied to again and again by the devil! I can’t wait to help spread this vital information by getting these books out to people! I’ve also just read your newsletter, and what a shocker! I am “Hungry” for the “truth.” Thank you & God bless. a state of indecision; at one time firm and determined, then hesitating and wavering. His angels were seeking him, their leader, to acquaint him with their decision. They will unite with Satan in his plans, and with him bear the responsibility, and share the consequences.

“Satan cast off his feelings of weakness, and, as their leader, fortified himself to do all in his power to defy the authority of God and his Son.” 1 SP 30-32.

“Satan’s rebellion was to be a lesson to the universe through all coming ages—a perpetual testimony to the nature of sin and its terrible results. [The poor skeptics and agnostics think that Satan’s horrible work of torture, misery, and death, is from our kind Father. It would be very helpful to them if you are ever able to let some of them read this letter.] The working out of Satan’s rule, its effects upon both men and angels, would show what must be the fruit of setting aside the divine authority. It would testify that with the existence of God’s government is bound up the well-being of all the creatures He has made. Thus the history of this terrible experiment of rebellion was to be a perpetual safeguard to all holy beings, to prevent them from being deceived as to the nature of transgression, to save them from committing sin, and suffering its penalty.

“He that ruleth in the heavens is the one who sees the end from the beginning - the one before whom the mysteries of the past and the future are alike outspread, and who, beyond the woe and darkness and ruin that sin has wrought, beholds the accomplishment of His own purposes of love and blessing. [We love Thee dear Father!] Though ‘clouds and darkness are round about Him: righteousness and judgment are the foundation of His throne.’ Ps. 97:2. And this, the inhabitants of the universe, both loyal and disloyal, will one day understand. ‘His work is perfect: [Praise God!] for all His ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity,
