

“And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place... from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.”

Do you see the lifeboat? There are over 1,500 people without one. How do you think they feel about it? They know that very shortly, they'll be dead. In the great ragtime party, they weren't expecting this! Death took them by surprise. "Be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

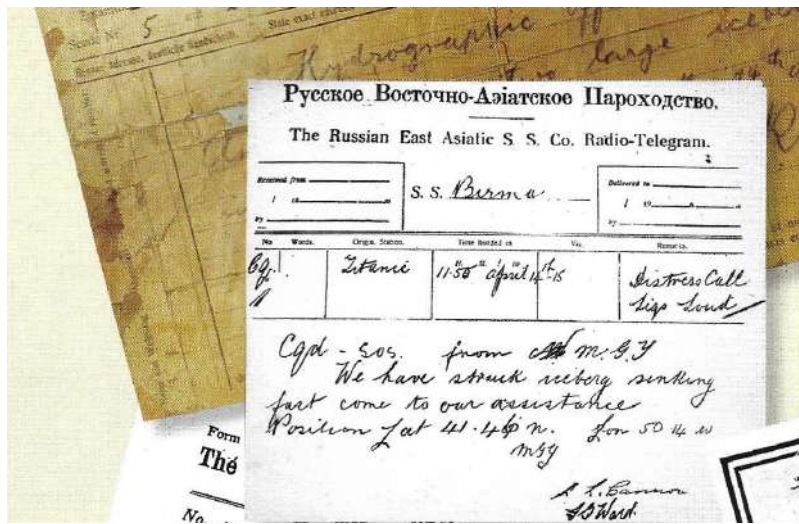

Do you see the tens of thousands packed in? They don't know that the iceberg has been struck. The masses don't know that death in sin will be eternal. There's still one Lifeboat left. But who cares?

“And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.”

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the holy name of Jesus.

Faith: The Bible verse says, “And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman.” Rev. 12:15. What is that “water” made out of? Will it happen again when we have to “flee before infuriated mobs?” EW 56.

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

From the wireless room, this message from Titanic to the S.S. Burma says, "SOS We have struck an iceberg. Sinking fast. Come to our assistance."

It says, "Women and children in boats. Cannot last much longer."

They tried their best to live. One passenger who was saved, said that the ice water, at 29 degrees, felt like "pins and needles all over my body." At first, there were the sounds of screams, cries, and the band playing. After the mighty ship disappeared, there was only blackness, silence, and shivering, in the vast middle of nowhere.

The message for us now is, "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of Man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

Do you see the propeller? There were three of them. As the giant engines turned them with 50,000 horsepower, the humongous ship was pushed forward at about 23 mph. Now they are at the bottom of the sea.

seek a refuge while it might be found. Again they rejected his words, and raised their voices in jest and scoffing. Suddenly a silence fell upon the mocking throng. Beasts of every description, the fiercest as well as the most gentle, were seen coming from mountain and forest and quietly making their way toward the ark. A noise as of a rushing wind was heard, and lo, birds were flocking from all directions, their numbers darkening the heavens, and in perfect order they passed to the ark.

Hope: In

the days of the Titanic, it was as the days of Noah. Now in our day, it's even worse. And we don't know the half of it.

In both "the days of Noah" and in the days of the Titanic, the people died in the water. What was it like then compared with now?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely -

"They continued their festivities and their gluttonous feasts; they ate and drank, planted and builded, laying their plans in reference to advantages they hoped to gain in the future; and they went to greater lengths in wickedness... They asserted that if there were any truth in what Noah had said, the men of renown—the wise, the great men—would understand the matter. [Their world of beauty was unsinkable.]

"The period of their probation was about to expire. Noah had faithfully followed the instructions which he had received from God. The ark was finished in every part as the Lord had directed, and was stored with food for man and beast. And now the servant of God made his last solemn appeal to the people. With an agony of desire that words cannot express, he entreated them to

It was unsinkable.

Animals obeyed the command of God, while men were disobedient... The world looked on in wonder, some in fear. Philosophers were called upon to account for the singular occurrence, but in vain. It was a mystery which they could not fathom. But men had become so hardened by their persistent rejection of light that even this scene produced but a momentary impression. As the doomed race beheld the sun shining in its glory, and the earth clad in almost Eden beauty, they banished their rising fears by boisterous merriment, and by their deeds of violence they seemed to invite upon themselves the visitation of the already awakened wrath of God.

“God commanded Noah, ‘Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before Me in this generation...’

“Mercy had ceased its pleadings for the guilty race. The beasts of the field and the birds of the air had entered the place of refuge. Noah and his household were within the ark, ‘and the Lord shut him in.’

A flash of dazzling light was seen, and a cloud of glory more vivid than the lightning descended from heaven and hovered before the entrance of the ark. The massive door, which it was impossible for those within to close, was slowly swung to its place by unseen hands. Noah was shut in, and the rejecters of God’s mercy were shut out. The seal of Heaven was on that door; God had shut it, and God alone could open it. So when Christ shall cease His intercession for guilty men, before His coming in the clouds of heaven, the door of mercy will be shut. Then divine grace will no longer restrain the wicked, and Satan will have full control of those who have rejected mercy. They will endeavor to destroy God’s people; but as Noah was shut into the ark, so the righteous will be shielded by divine power.

“For seven days after Noah and his family entered the ark, there appeared no sign of the coming storm. During this period their faith was tested. It was a time of triumph to the world without. The apparent delay confirmed them in the belief that Noah’s message was a delusion, and that the Flood would never come. Notwithstanding the solemn scenes which they had witnessed they still continued their sport and revelry, even making a jest of these signal manifestations of God’s power. They gathered in crowds about the ark, deriding its inmates with a daring violence which they had never ventured upon before. [They would have killed them if they could - just like they will try to do to God’s 144,000 as described in Rev. 13:15.]

“But upon the eighth day dark clouds overspread the heavens. There followed the muttering of thunder and the flash of lightning.

Soon large drops of rain began to fall.

The world had never witnessed anything like this, and the hearts of men were struck with fear. All were secretly inquiring, ‘Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed to destruction?’ Darker and darker grew the heavens, and faster came the falling rain. The beasts were roaming about in the wildest terror, and their discordant cries seemed to moan out their own destiny and the fate of man.

“Pope Meddles in Politics.”

USA TODAY February 21, 2016

Why did the Pope say that “this man” is not Christian? And why did “this man” say that the Pope’s words are “disgraceful?”

Thus began the great, secret battle of the Vatican against “this man” - with its vast visible and invisible armies at its command. It’s a small part of the great battle of good and evil. The great, universal battle is described in the book, The Great Controversy, pages 565, 566, & 581.

Faith: Who is “this man?”

Pastor Jan: It’s a secret.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I’m writing Sir because “National Sunday Law” is the most influential book I have ever read! It had a major role in my being saved. It gave me a major awakening which caused me to turn to God. This in itself is a miracle. I have been an absolute reprobate for the last 10 years. Drugs, drug dealing, and alcohol are at the center of my reproachful past. Now I have been saved from those sins, and I believe God wants me to help spread His truth. I just want to say that “National Sunday Law” is very powerful! It is of the utmost importance that people learn the end time truth that it contains. I feel compelled to spread these books! I praise God that you had the courage to write it! Sincerely,
P.B. Wisconsin

Dear Sir;

I’m writing because I walked past your book, “National Sunday Law” three times, and then picked it up and started to read. I couldn’t put the book down! I was all ears. The book is backed up by Scripture, so it will help me to bring people to our Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you, and may God bless! I couldn’t put it down! Derran

Then 'the fountains of the great deep' were 'broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.' Water appeared to come from the clouds in mighty cataracts. Rivers broke away from their boundaries, and overflowed the valleys.

Jets of water burst from the earth with indescribable force, throwing massive rocks hundreds of feet into the air, and these, in falling, buried themselves deep in the ground.

He went down with the unsinkable ship. They found him floating in the water with hundreds of others. Now they're getting his body ready to be put into a coffin. "In such an hour as ye think not, the son of man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

vain. Conscience was at last aroused to know that there is a God who ruleth in the heavens. They called upon Him earnestly, but His ear was not open to their cry. In that terrible hour they saw

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
My husband and I read the book National Sunday Law. Both of us were not able to put it down until the last page! The truth was presented with such love and sensitivity that no honest person could ever be offended. A man who has been opposed to the SDA church, received the book, and he could not put it down either! He shared his excitement with his own Sabbath-keeping relatives! This book is written with the love and inspiration of God, and we praise Him for using you at this critical time in history when our freedoms are slipping away from us! We are praying that a piece of property will sell so we can help further this work of getting the NSL books to many others. Yours in Christ, Eugene and Hope true repentance than did the old-world sinners...

"From the highest peaks men looked abroad upon a shoreless ocean... How those doomed sinners longed for the opportunities which they had slighted! How they pleaded for one hour's probation, one more privilege of mercy, one call from the lips of Noah! But the sweet voice of mercy was no more to be heard by them. Love, no less than justice, demanded that God's judgments should put a check on sin. The avenging waters swept over the last retreat, and the despisers of God perished in the black depths.

Vennita's Corner: "Those who take Christ at His Word, and surrender their souls to His Keeping, their lives to His ordering, will find peace and quietude." DA 331

As the violence of the storm increased, trees, buildings, rocks, and earth were hurled in every direction. The terror of man and beast was beyond description. Above the roar of the tempest was heard the wailing of a people that had despised the authority of God. Satan himself, who was compelled to remain in the midst of the warring elements, feared for his own existence. He had delighted to control so powerful a race, and desired them to live to practice their abominations and continue their rebellion against the Ruler of heaven. He now uttered imprecations against God, charging Him with injustice and cruelty. [Let him leap up and down.] Many of the people, like Satan, blasphemed God, and had they been able, they would have torn Him from the throne of power. Others were frantic with fear, stretching their hands toward the ark and pleading for admittance.

But their entreaties were in vain. They would have returned to their defiance of Heaven, had the judgment been removed. So when God's judgments shall fall upon the earth before its deluge by fire, the impenitent will know just where and what their sin is... Yet they will have no more

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I was baptized as an infant in the Roman Catholic system. Then, I was stumbling around until a Christian woman brought me to Jesus Christ. I started attending church, and later asked the minister why our church observes Sunday. He could not give me an answer from the Bible. Then I got your book "National Sunday Law." It certainly answered my questions! Now I'm going to be ordering NSL books to give to others! I feel so good! And yes, the truth has set me free! Glory to God! I thank God for you and God's truth! I love God and want to share His truth with everyone! Thank you again for "National Sunday Law!" It is a blessing from the heavenly Father! May God bless you, in Christ our Saviour. Amen and amen! Sincerely, D.S.

Dear Sir,
I have read "National Sunday Law." Now I know why the Lord brought me out of my disobedient Sunday church! Many have left it after many years of being deceived. All churches in my area worship on Sunday. I constantly hear the verse quoted to me, "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together" [on Sunday.] I say to them, "True, but "We ought to obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29. Thank you! Sharon H.

“Another storm is coming. The earth will again be swept by the desolating wrath of God, and sin and sinners will be destroyed... The intense worldliness of that generation is equaled by that of the generation now living...

“Appetite is indulged without restraint. Professed followers of Christ are eating and drinking with the drunken, while their names stand in honored church records.

Intemperance benumbs the moral and spiritual powers and prepares the way for indulgence of the lower passions. Multitudes feel under no moral obligation to curb their sensual desires, and they become the slaves of lust. Men are living for the pleasures of sense; for this world and this life alone...

“The spirit of anarchy is permeating all nations, and the outbreaks that from time to time excite the horror of the world are but indications of the pent-up fires of passion and lawlessness that, having once escaped control, will fill the earth with woe and desolation...

“As the time of their probation was closing, the antediluvians gave themselves up to exciting amusements and festivities... [It’s happening now.]

“When the reasoning of philosophy has banished the fear of God’s judgments; when religious teachers are pointing forward to long ages of peace and prosperity, and the world are absorbed in their rounds of business and pleasure... feasting and merrymaking, rejecting God’s warnings and mocking His messengers—then it is that sudden destruction cometh upon them, and they shall not escape.’ 1Thess. 5:3.” PP 97-103.

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I was a Roman Catholic, but the book, “National Sunday Law” brought me into God’s truth to make me a Seventh-day Adventist. I couldn’t stop reading it until the end. I was shocked! I was shocked when I learned that Rome had tried to change the law of God. I wanted that very moment to be faithful to God! Rome wants to keep people in darkness. But “National Sunday Law” opens their eyes! H.F.

Dear Sir,
After carefully studying the book “National Sunday Law” I was electrically moved and shocked. I have now come to trust and obey King Jesus - Thanks be to Almighty God for the plain message you are carrying in your book. And bravo to the brother who put this book into my hands. God bless both of you. Paul

Dear Pastor A. Jan Marcussen,
I was amazed at the quality of information in your book “National Sunday Law.” And I was amazed at your boldness in presenting biblical truths that have eluded the world! The question of the Lord’s Sabbath has always troubled my soul. Your exposition from the Bible is very enlightening! Your book has made the truth of God very clear. Here in Africa, occultism, cults, witchcraft, and wizardry, are taking the best of the people. May God Almighty bless you for the good work you are rendering to humanity. Your son in Christ, Charles P.

“Often the Christian life is beset by dangers, and duty seems hard to perform. The imagination pictures impending ruin before and bondage or death behind. Yet the voice of God speaks clearly, ‘Go forward.’ We should obey this command, even though our eyes cannot penetrate the darkness, and we feel the cold waves about our feet. The obstacles that hinder our progress will never disappear before a halting, doubting spirit... Unbelief whispers, ‘Let us wait till the obstructions are removed, and we can see our way clearly;’ but faith courageously urges an advance, hoping all things, believing all things.

“The cloud that was a wall of darkness to the Egyptians was to the Hebrews a great flood of light, illuminating the whole camp, and shedding brightness upon the path before them. So the dealings of bring to the unbelieving, darkness and despair, while to the trusting soul they are full of light and peace. The path where God leads the way may lie through the desert or the sea, but it is a safe path.” PP 290. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I am a Sunday keeping Christian. But my Church is dead. Your book “National Sunday Law” was delivered to my door. After reading it, I have started keeping the Bible Sabbath as God said to do. You have made a big difference in my life! I will be sending for more of your books to give to my family. God bless you! PC
