Here's a footprint in stone, of a giant with four toes. People can learn about these things on the internet. "There were giants in the earth in those days." Gen. 6:4. It's been estimated that this giant was 15-16 feet tall.

"And ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall." Mal. 4:2. God's prophet reveals that we will "grow up" as we eat of the leaves of the tree of life, for "the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations." Rev. 22:2." [See CC 23 chap 17.] And one day, if you are faithful to Jesus, you yourself will be a giant. How do you feel about that? ☺

The Maverick Neurosurgeon Going All-In on an Unthinkable Human Experiment

His name is Dr. Sergio Canavero. The April, 2026 issue of Popular Mechanics gives us a glimpse into what humanity will be like when probation closes; when about 8 billion people are stirred into a frenzy to try to put God's people to death." {Rev. 13:15-18}. It seems like the poor fiend has a low IQ. With one good head; and one good body; and one bad head, and one bad body; he's determined to cut a person's head off and stick the good head onto the good body with Pollyethyleneglycol glue. The last I heard, if he cuts your head off, he will charge you one million dollars.

Hope: If your head dies, will he give your money back?

Found in Turkey - the giant leg bone of a man at the time of the flood, who was about 15 feet tall.

fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings."

Dear SDA friends around the world. Welcome in the name of the lovely Jesus.

Faith: In this letter are you going to show us things that are happening leading to the coming of Jesus in the clouds?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

The article says - "Neurosurgeon Sergio, insists his plan for the first human head transplant is inevitable, and will unlock radical life extension."

By "radical life extension," he means that they're hoping to keep cutting people's heads off until they end up living forever. How does that sound? ☺ I can hear Sweet Vennita, Sister Marie, and Sister Debbie - all saying together - "Oh Brother."

Both high and low, rich and poor, are almost going insane to find some way to live forever while not knowing that dear Jesus is holding it out to them - if they will only have it! If they will have Him! They can't stand the thought of dying and being DEAD!

The solution to having eternal life is so simple that I can hear the three ladies singing it in song - "Trust and obey, for there's no other way, to be happy in Jesus but to Trust and obey."

The article asks, "But when scalpel meets skin, is it survivable?"

► It is simply impossible to reconnect the spinal cord and restore function, Canavero's critics say.

"By 2013, Canavero believed he was ready to perform a human head transplant... The surgical approach was published in Surgical Neurology International (where, notably, Canavero served on the editorial board). After reducing the recipient's body to 50 degrees Fahrenheit to avoid tissue damage... surgeons would slice through arteries, veins, and muscles in the neck, color-coding them for re-attachment. Then, the spines of both bodies would be severed between the fifth and sixth vertebrae with an ultra-sharp diamond-edged surgical blade to prevent fraying...

"Another major hurdle for a successful transplant was the risk of 'Central Pain Syndrome' = severe pain due to damage to the central nervous system that manifests in near-continual numbness and burning sensations throughout the body, as well as agonizing bursts of horrible 'nerve pain.'

"Canavero, on the other hand, doesn't plan to wait for anyone's permission. 'I have the support of several secret, high-powered investors. Americans are interested in this, especially very wealthy Americans,' he said, a toothy grin spread wide across his face. 'Huge people,' he said, 'very important people.'

"Tantalizing? Yes. Verifiable? Not at all!"

Can you volunteer to be decapitated?
Can you volunteer for a procedure
that's likely to kill you?

In a parable, we can look at the poor fiend! - fumbling around with a slippery bundle of blood-soaked nerves while many more connections must go to the brain, heart, and other places. There they are - lying there dying! All he can do now - as the clock is running out - is to grab a bloody tool while his eyeballs are popping out and the nerve bundles, arteries, veins, are getting stiff. There's the man's nearly dead body on the table, and there's the other man's nearly dead head. The clock is striking zero! All the poor thing can do now is to yank the clock off the wall, throw it across the room, and cry out - "AAAAAAAAAAAHhhhhh!!!!!!" as he falls on the floor.

On an expedition for National Geographic, Roy C. Andrews photographed this giant in Mongolia. But he was a tiny one. He was only 7 feet 5 inches tall.

"In the late 1950's during road construction in Homs southeast Turkey, many tombs of giants were unearthed. These tombs were 4 meters {12 feet} long}.

"The human thigh bones were 47 inches in length. They calculated that the person who owned this femur probably stood at fourteen to sixteen feet tall. A cast of this bone is seen at the Creationist Museum in Glenrose, Texas.

"South America Giants: Magellan's ship's log mentions a race of giants living on the Pacific coast of South America. Captain Cooke recorded a giant over nine feet tall. While tying him to his ship's mast, the giant freed himself from the ropes and was last seen when he dove overboard.

"Inca Giants: They believed that before the Incan times, Wiracocha created the heavens and the earth. He created a race of giants."

As much as the poor evolutionists try to blind themselves, our kind Father has shown the world scores of giants - revealing the evidence of 1 - Noah's flood; 2 - That the world is 6,000 years old; 3 - God made it in 6 days; 4 - The Bible is the word of God; and 5 - "The 7th day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God." Ex. 20:8-11. See YouTube, "Many Tombs of Giants."

Pastor Jan: Once the spinal cord is cut, you have a very short time to sew or glue the scores of blood vessels, nerves, and muscle connections into place - on another person's body!

“Let none suppose that they can live a life of selfishness, and then, having served their own interests, enter into the joy of their Lord... They could not appreciate the pure atmosphere of love that pervades heaven. The voices of the angels and the music of their harps would not satisfy them. To their minds the science of heaven would be an enigma.” COL 364, 365.

“All that he [Noah] possessed, he invested in the ark. As he began to construct that immense boat on dry ground, multitudes came from every direction to see the strange sight and to hear the earnest, fervent words of the singular preacher. Every blow struck upon the ark was a witness to the people.

“Many at first appeared to receive the warning; yet they did not turn to God with true repentance. They were unwilling to renounce their sins. During the time that elapsed before the coming of the Flood, their faith was tested, and they failed to endure the trial. Overcome by the prevailing unbelief, they finally joined their former associates in rejecting the solemn message. Some were deeply convicted, and would have heeded the words of warning; but

Dear Pastor Jan,
I believe everyone in the world should read “National Sunday Law.” Surely God has blessed you greatly with this insight. I have become a Seventh-day Adventist. Jesus is Lord! God bless you greatly for revealing to the people this awesome truth of God! Your brother in Christ, [That’s what the papacy does.] This class were foremost in rejecting the preaching of Noah. As they endeavored to represent God by material objects, their minds were blinded to His majesty and power; they ceased to realize the holiness of His character, or the sacred, unchanging nature of His requirements. As sin became general, it appeared less and less sinful, and they finally declared that the divine law was no longer in force; that it was contrary to the character of God to punish transgression...

“It was not multitudes or majorities that were on the side of right. The world was arrayed against God’s justice and His laws, and Noah was regarded as a fanatic. Satan, when tempting Eve to disobey God, said to her, ‘Ye shall not surely die.’ Gen. 3:4. Great men, worldly, honored, and wise men, repeated the same. ‘The threatenings of God,’ they said, ‘are for the purpose of intimidating, and will never be verified. You need not be alarmed. Such an event as the destruction of the world by the God who made it, and the punishment of the beings He has created, will never take place. Be at peace; fear not. Noah is a wild fanatic.’

“The world made merry at the folly of the deluded old man. Instead of humbling the heart before God, they continued their disobedience and wickedness, the same as though God had not spoken to them through His servant. But Noah stood like a rock amid the tempest. Surrounded by popular contempt and ridicule, he distinguished himself by his holy integrity and unwavering faithfulness. A power attended his words, for it was the voice of God to man through His servant. Connection with God made him strong in the strength of infinite power, while for one hundred and twenty years his solemn voice fell upon the ears of that generation in regard to events, which, so far as human wisdom could judge, were impossible.

“There were giants in the earth in those days.” In the parable, the waitress brings a honey badger on a giant bun. After a few bites the people cheer while making fun of Noah. Outside, a giant is eating a Komoto Dragon after chasing it around the parking lot. “As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be.”

there were so many to jest and ridicule, that they partook of the same spirit, resisted the invitations of mercy, and were soon among the boldest and most defiant scoffers; for none are so reckless and go to such lengths in sin as do those who have once had light, but have resisted the convicting Spirit of God.

“The men of that generation were not all, in the fullest acceptance of the term, idolaters. Many professed to be worshipers of God. They claimed that their idols were representations of the Deity, and that through them the people could obtain a clearer conception of the divine Being.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I am writing from Casper Wyoming. I’m writing to just say thank you for such a clear look into something that I was never taught. I’m thanking you for the book “National Sunday Law.” I have rededicated my life to Jesus and am so glad to have come across your book which just captivated my interest and shown me how I should be worshiping God on His holy Sabbath day. I would love for others to be able to read this book as well. Thank you for such great knowledge. God bless you. Jeff Wolfe

The spokesman to the people against Noah’s message.

Vanetta's Cameo: "Union with Christ means an unflinching preference for Him in every act and thought." TMK 361.

“As time passed on, with no apparent change in nature, men whose hearts had at times trembled with fear, began to be reassured... Reasoning that if the message of Noah were correct, nature would be turned out of her course, they made that message, in the minds of the world, a delusion —a grand deception...

“The period of their probation was about to expire. Noah had faithfully followed the instructions which he had received from God. The ark was finished in every part as the Lord had directed... And now the servant of God made his last solemn appeal... With an agony of desire that words cannot express, he entreated them to seek a refuge while it might be found. Again they rejected his words, and raised their voices in jest and scoffing. Suddenly a silence fell upon the mocking throng. Beasts of every description, the fiercest as well as the most gentle, were seen coming from mountain and forest and quietly making their way toward the ark. A noise as of a rushing wind was heard, and lo, birds were flocking from all directions, their numbers darkening the heavens, and in perfect order they passed to the ark. Animals obeyed the command of God, while men were disobedient...

“Guided by holy angels, they ‘went in two and two unto Noah into the ark,’ and the clean beasts by sevens. The world looked on in wonder, some in fear... As the doomed race beheld the sun shining in its glory, and the earth clad in almost Eden beauty, they banished their rising fears by boisterous merriment, and by their deeds of violence they seemed to invite upon themselves the visitation of the already awakened wrath of God.

“God commanded Noah, ‘Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before Me in this generation...’

“Mercy had ceased its pleadings for the guilty race. The beasts of the field and the birds of the air had entered the place of refuge. Noah and his household were within the ark, ‘and the Lord shut him in.’ A flash of dazzling light was seen, and a cloud of glory more vivid than the lightning descended from heaven and hovered before the entrance of the ark. The massive door, which it was impossible for those within to close, was slowly swung to its place by unseen hands. Noah was shut in, and the rejecters of God’s mercy were shut out. The seal of Heaven was on that door; God had shut it, and God alone could open it. So when Christ shall cease His intercession for guilty men, before His coming in the clouds of heaven, the door of mercy will be shut. Then divine grace will no longer restrain the wicked, and Satan will have full control of those who have rejected mercy. They will endeavor to destroy God’s people [Rev. 13:15-18] but as Noah was shut into the ark, so the righteous will be shielded by divine power.

“For seven days after Noah and his family entered the ark, there appeared no sign of the coming storm... But upon the eighth day dark clouds overspread the heavens. There followed the muttering of thunder and the flash of lightning. Soon large drops of rain began to fall. The world had never witnessed anything like this, and the hearts of men were struck with fear. All were secretly inquiring, ‘Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed to destruction?’ Darker and darker grew the heavens, and faster came the falling rain. The beasts were roaming about in the wildest terror, and their discordant cries seemed to moan out their own destiny and the fate of man. Then ‘the fountains of the great deep’ were ‘broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.’ Water appeared to come from the clouds in mighty cataracts. Rivers broke away from their boundaries, and overflowed the valleys. Jets of water burst from the earth with indescribable force, throwing massive rocks hundreds of feet into the air, and these, in falling, buried themselves deep in the ground.

“The people first beheld the destruction of the works of their own hands. Their splendid buildings, and the beautiful gardens and groves where they had placed their idols, were destroyed by lightning from heaven...

“As the violence of the storm increased, trees, buildings, rocks, and earth were hurled in every direction. [Notice that even “buildings” were hurled through the air!.] The terror of man and beast was beyond description. Above the roar of the tempest was heard the wailing of a people that had despised the authority of God. Satan himself, who was compelled to remain in the midst of the warring elements, feared for his own existence... He now uttered imprecations against God, charging Him with injustice and cruelty. Many of the people, like Satan, blasphemed God, and had they been able, they would have torn Him from the throne of power. Others were frantic with fear, stretching their hands toward the ark and pleading for admittance. But their entreaties were in vain. Conscience was at last aroused to know that there is a God who ruleth in the heavens... So when God’s judgments shall fall upon the earth before its deluge by fire, the impenitent will know

Dear Sir,
Never have I read a book like this one! “National Sunday Law” has answered questions that I longed to ask others, but was afraid to. May God richly bless the person who sent out this book for God’s people! E.I.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
You have shown me the Bible so clearly and backed it up with scripture like I have never seen or heard before!! “National Sunday Law,” what a great book! It makes me so hungry to learn more of the truth “The real truth” and I thank God for the day that you wrote this truly amazing book!! Now I want everyone to read it. I have a new hunger for God like I never had before!!! E.S.

Dear Sirs,
This may sound crazy, but I was just walking and this book was lying right on the sidewalk. I just knew that God had something to do with it. It was exciting! I know it’s the truth! Please thank the man who wrote it for me. With love and respect, Janice Minch just where and what their sin is—the despising of His holy law...

“Some in their desperation endeavored to break into the ark, but the firm-made structure withstood their efforts. Some clung to the ark until they were borne away by the surging waters, or their hold was broken by collision with rocks and trees. The massive ark trembled in every fiber as it was beaten by the merciless winds and flung from billow to billow. The cries of the beasts within expressed their fear and pain. But amid the warring elements it continued to ride safely. Angels that excel in strength were commissioned to preserve it.

“The beasts, exposed to the tempest, rushed toward man, as though expecting help from him. Some of the people bound their children and themselves upon powerful animals, knowing that these were tenacious of life, and would climb to the highest points to escape the rising waters. Some fastened themselves to lofty trees on the summit of hills or mountains; but the trees were uprooted, and burden of living beings were hurled into the seething billows. One spot after another that promised safety was abandoned. As the waters rose higher and higher, the people fled for refuge to the loftiest mountains. Often man and beast would struggle together for a foothold, until both were swept away.

“From the highest peaks men looked abroad upon a shoreless ocean... How those doomed sinners longed for the opportunities which they had slighted! How they pleaded for one hour’s probation, one more privilege of mercy, one call from the lips of Noah! But the sweet voice of mercy was no more to be heard by them. Love, no less than justice, demanded that God’s judgments should put a check on sin. The avenging waters swept over the last retreat, and the despisers of God perished in the black depths.

“By the word of God... the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.’ 2 Peter 3:5-7. Another storm is coming. The earth will again be swept by the desolating wrath of God, and sin and sinners will be destroyed...

“The intense worldliness of that generation is equaled by that of the generation now living... Multitudes feel under no moral obligation to curb their sensual desires, and they become the slaves of lust. Men are living for the pleasures of sense; for this world and this life alone. Extravagance pervades all circles of society. Integrity is sacrificed for luxury and display. They that make haste to be rich pervert justice and oppress the poor, and ‘slaves and souls of men’ are still bought and sold. Fraud and bribery and theft stalk unrebuked in high places and in low. The issues of the press teem with records of murder—crimes so cold-blooded and causeless that it seems as though every instinct of humanity were blotted out... The spirit of anarchy is permeating all nations, [you see it in the news] and the outbreaks that from time to time excite the horror of the world are but indications of the pent-up fires of passion and lawlessness that, having once escaped control, will fill the earth with woe and desolation. The picture which Inspiration has given of the antediluvian world represents too truly the condition to which modern society is fast hastening...

“The Lord sends His servants with a warning to the world to prepare for that great event. Multitudes have been living in transgression of God’s law, and now He in mercy calls them to obey its sacred precepts... But many feel that it requires too great a sacrifice to put away sin... ‘Let none be disturbed... [they cry] by the exciting message of these alarmists...’

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy - a life of undimmed happiness - awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.

“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Pastor Jan,

I thank God for having you put the “National Sunday Law” book out in such a loving format. Seeing the way that God is speaking through you lets me know that He loves the people on this planet with an everlasting love. God and His Son are crying out through you that His Spirit will not always strive with man. God brought me into His Seventh-day Adventist church, and I’m blessed to be in His truth-filled movement. May God bless you my brother.

Sincerely, Timothy New York

Dear Sir,

I could never understand Revelation until now! I just wanted to write to you because I’m captivated by your book “National Sunday Law.” I used to serve God on Sundays until a friend gave me your book. Since then I’ve been honoring God on His seventh day Sabbath, and attending the Seventh-day Adventist church. I can tell that you really know the book of Revelation. I want to serve God and not man from now on! Thank you so much! Shawn California

Dear Jan Marcussen,

When I first received the book “National Sunday Law,” I didn’t read it. But one morning, I decided to read it. On the first page it said, “The Two Horned Beast.” I could not stop reading it! In “National Sunday Law” I learned things that I’d never learned in any book I’d ever read! Light came into my mind. Thank you very much! How grateful I am to have received it. Alvin Cross

“As the time of their probation was closing, the antediluvians gave themselves up to exciting amusements and festivities [as they do now.] Those who possessed influence and power were bent on keeping the minds of the people engrossed with mirth and pleasure, lest any should be impressed by the last solemn warning. Do we not see the same repeated in our day? While God’s servants are giving the message that the end of all things is at hand, the world is absorbed in amusements and pleasure seeking...

“The wrath of Satan increases as his time grows short, and his work of deceit and destruction will reach its culmination in the time of trouble.” GC 624.

“When great and wise men had proved to their satisfaction that it was impossible for the world to be destroyed by water, when the fears of the people were quieted, when all regarded Noah’s prophecy as a delusion,

Dear Sir,
I have felt such an empty void in my life until I read “National Sunday Law!” For the first time in my life I feel fulfilled! The truth is suddenly right before my eyes! In each page I turn, my questions are being answered! I want to thank the brother who sent me this book! God bless, Diana C.

and looked upon him as a fanatic—then it was that God’s time had come...

“When the reasoning of philosophy has banished the fear of God’s judgments; when religious teachers are pointing forward to long ages of peace and prosperity, and the world are absorbed in their rounds of business and pleasure... rejecting God’s warnings and mocking His messengers—then it is that ‘sudden destruction cometh upon them, and they shall not escape.’ 1 Thess. 5:3.” PP 95-103.

“Satan was exulting that he had succeeded in debasing the image of God in humanity. Then

Jesus came to restore in man the image of his Maker. None but Christ can fashion anew the character that has been ruined by sin. He came to expel the demons that had controlled the will. He came to lift us up from the dust, to reshape the marred character after the pattern of

His divine character, and to make it beautiful with His own glory.” DA 37,38. Praise God friend. Praise God!
