Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the holy name of Jesus.
Faith: Rev. 12:11 says, “And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.”
Who overcame who? What did they do?
And how does it effect us?
Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

On page one, we see the article in The New American, which says, "In the two years since his inauguration the [redacted] administration has sent federal SWAT teams into homes and offices to drag nearly 1,000 Americans off to a Soviet style gulag. Hundreds of them still languish in pretrial detention where they have been denied due process of law. They are being treated as if they are foreign combatants - as enemies of the state - rather than American citizens with constitutionally protected rights. In many cases they have been denied medical treatment and have been subjected to beatings, torture, and inhumane treatment that has even drawn criticism from liberal left icons.

"Now, the deep state handlers are doubling down, vowing to step up their attacks on what they call 'domestic terrorists.' [The article talks about a "mad rush toward dictatorship."]

"Students of history will recognize that every day citizens are being branded as enemies of the state by would-be tyrants. This is nothing new. During the reign of terror in the French Revolution, merely being accused of disloyalty to the revolution was sufficient to guarantee a death ride to the guillotine." God's prophet saw it - -

"The war against the Bible, carried forward for so many centuries in France, culminated in the scenes of the Revolution. That terrible outbreaking was but the legitimate result of Rome's suppression of the Scriptures. It presented the most striking illustration which the world has ever witnessed of the working out of the papal policy...

"It had been Rome's policy, under a profession of reverence for the Bible, to keep it locked up in an unknown tongue and hidden away from the people. Under her rule the witnesses prophesied 'clothed in sackcloth.' But another power — the beast from the bottomless pit— [atheism] was to arise to make open, avowed war upon the word of God...

"According to the words of the prophet, a little before the year 1798 some power of satanic origin and cherished the faith of their fathers. As they ventured to meet by night on mountainside or lonely moor, they were chased by dragoons and dragged away to lifelong slavery in the galleys. The purest, the most refined, and the most intelligent of the French were chained, in horrible torture, amidst robbers and assassins. Others, more mercifully dealt with, were shot down in cold blood, as, unarmed and helpless, they fell upon their knees in prayer. Hundreds of aged men, defenseless women, and innocent children were left dead upon the earth at their place of meeting. In traversing the mountainside or the forest, where they had been accustomed to assemble, it was not unusual to find 'at every four paces, dead bodies dotting the sward, and corpses hanging suspended from the trees.'

"But blackest in the black catalogue of crime, most horrible among the fiendish deeds of all the dreadful centuries, was the St. Bartholomew Massacre. The world still recalls with shuddering horror the scenes of that most cowardly and cruel onslaught... A bell, tolling at dead of night, was a signal for the slaughter. Protestants by thousands, sleeping quietly in their homes, trusting to the plighted honor of their king, were dragged forth without a warning and murdered in cold blood.

"As Christ was the invisible leader of His people from Egyptian bondage, so was Satan the unseen leader of his subjects in this horrible work of multiplying martyrs. For seven days the massacre was continued in Paris, the first three with inconceivable fury. And it was not confined to the city itself, but by special order of the king was extended to all the provinces and towns where Protestants were found. Neither age nor sex was respected. Neither the innocent babe nor the man of gray hairs was spared. Noble and peasant, old and young, mother and child, were cut down together. Throughout France the butchery continued for two months. Seventy thousand of the very flower of the nation perished.

"When the news of the massacre reached Rome, the exultation among the clergy knew no bounds. The cardinal of Lorraine rewarded the messenger with a thousand crowns; the cannon of St. Angelo thundered forth a joyous

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I feel compelled to write to you, having just read your book "National Sunday Law" which some unknown person left in my newspaper box. All my life I've been searching for the truth. I've gone from church to church seeking, and I came away empty. I have prayed to God Almighty that if it was His will - the truth would be revealed to me. I have read and studied my Bible and have done research in ancient history. I discovered that all that you have written in your book is the truth! I cannot tell you how much joy I feel to know and to bear witness to the truth. I am not alone. I now know that the seventh day is God's true Sabbath day. "God's day!" The Lord has brought me through! I thank God that I found you, who bear witness to the truth. I cannot contain the happiness I feel; the joy. I have an unquenchable thirst for truth, and for our loving and merciful Creator. I pray that your book will spread out around the world and true Christians will turn back to Christ. The truth will set us "free." God bless you. Yours in Christ, Velma

"The beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.' The atheistical power that ruled in France during the Revolution and the Reign of Terror, did wage such a war against God and His holy word as the world had never witnessed. The worship of the Deity was abolished by the National Assembly. Bibles were

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I received your book, "National Sunday Law," from a friend. It's inspiring! Thank you! Except for the holy Bible, your book is the best book I've ever read! Sir, this wonderful knowledge is by far the best gift anyone could have ever given me! Every page brings out a new gem of knowledge. This is a book that I will definitely pass on to everyone I can! I can never put into words how eternally grateful I am. God bless you. G.L.

Dear Sir,
I could never understand Revelation. I'm captivated with your book "National Sunday Law." I used to worship God on Sundays until a friend of mine gave me your book. Since then, I've been worshipping God on His seventh-day Sabbath, and attending the Seventh-day Adventist church. You really know the book of Revelation. I want to serve God, and not man from now on. Dear Pastor Marcussen,
We rejoice in the Lord to see how one entire church congregation here in Mexico accepted the truth of God's Sabbath as a direct result of the powerful book "National Sunday Law!" At first the members of that church did not do anything. But upon seeing the pope on TV here in Mexico, talking about a Sunday Law, this Sunday church made a decision, and they called our SDA Pastor - asking him to come and baptize them all! And within a short distance from them is another church called "The Upper Room." They are all studying God's SDA Bible truth too. And recently, another Pentecostal group of nine people were baptized here in our SDA church. God is working on many hearts now in the end of time! Sincerely, John

Dear Pastor Jan,
I'm writing to say that I've become a Seventh-day Adventist since reading "National Sunday Law." God guided me. My wife is also accepting God's truth and is worshipping with me on His Sabbath. I want to pass out this book to people so they may also know the truth. I want to order a large amount of them. May God bless you! Continue to stay faithful and close to our heavenly Father. He deserves all the praise and glory. His Spirit is upon you to spread His last message. Your brother in Christ, L.F.

“The gospel would have brought to France the solution of those political and social problems that baffled the skill of her clergy, her king, and her legislators... But under the domination of Rome the people had lost the Saviour’s blessed lessons of self-sacrifice and unselfish love. They had been led away from the practice of self-denial for the good of others. The rich had found no rebuke for their oppression of the poor, the poor no help for their servitude and degradation... The rich wronged the poor, and the poor hated the rich...

“But the outworking of all this was widely different from what Rome had purposed. Instead of holding the masses in a blind submission to her dogmas, her work resulted in making them infidels and revolutionists.

Author... Voltaire and his associates cast aside God’s word altogether and spread everywhere the poison of infidelity. Rome had ground down the people under her iron heel; and now the masses, degraded and brutalized, in their recoil from her tyranny, cast off all restraint. Enraged at the glittering cheat to which they had so long paid homage, they rejected truth and falsehood together; and mistaking license for liberty, the slaves of vice exulted in their imagined freedom.

“Unhappy

France reaped in blood the harvest she had sown. Terrible were the results of her submission to the controlling power of Rome. Where France, under the influence of Romanism, had set up the first stake at the opening of the Reformation, there the Revolution set up its first guillotine. On the very spot where the first martyrs to the Protestant faith were burned in the sixteenth century, the first victims were guillotined in the eighteenth...

When the restraints of God’s law were cast aside, it was found that the laws of man were inadequate to hold in check the powerful tides of human passion; and the nation swept on to revolt and anarchy. The war against the Bible inaugurated an era which stands in the world’s history as the Reign of Terror. Peace and happiness were banished from the homes and hearts of men. No one was secure. He who triumphed today was suspected, condemned, tomorrow. Violence and lust held undisputed sway [like the violence and demon powered destruction in Portland and dozens of “liberal” cities in the nearly 50 days of their papal inspired “crime spree.”] King, clergy, and nobles were compelled to submit to the atrocities of an excited and maddened people. Their thirst for vengeance was only stimulated by

Dear Jan Marcussen,

Where do I start? I’m a truck driver. I’ve been living just a worldly life for myself. Fatigue is a big weapon. My mind and body have been so exhausted that I guess I couldn’t see the love of God. But one day as I was driving, all of a sudden God came close to me. I just knew it was the presence of God. I didn’t pray. I didn’t confess any sins. I would do those things later. At that time, I didn’t do anything. But I did not resist Him. I let Him come close to me. And my life changed. For the first time, I didn’t resist Him. And He did something in my heart. I made up my mind that from then on, I was going to live for Jesus. Soon after that, a book came in the mail called “National Sunday Law.” My wife read it, and gave it to me. We both accept the message of truth in it. I know that God loves me! This past Saturday, we kept our first Sabbath. No more driving the truck on God’s Sabbath. Sweet is the feeling of obedience. Sweet is the feeling of obedience. May God bless you! Kyle

Dear Sir,

I have received the book “National Sunday Law.” When I read it, I knew that the message in it is so important that I could not stop reading it! This is the best piece of mail that I’ve received in a long time. I want to give these books to others. What’s in this book is something that every person should know about! Thank you very much. Yours truly in Christ, A. Nicholas.

Dear Sir,

To be frank, I was a devoted Catholic. But since someone loaned me the book “National Sunday Law,” everything about my life has changed! That book caused me to make the decision that has made me a Seventh-day Adventist today. The man who loaned the book to me, took it back, but the contents of the book has been established in my heart. S.P. Nigeria

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I read your book “National Sunday Law” about a week ago and I’ve been thinking of it continuously. It completely blew me away and made me examine God’s word in a new light. It’s so refreshing for someone to come out with the complete truth. Your work is going to make a difference in the world. Shouldn’t we all be doing more to reach the people with God’s message? Sincerely, J.H.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

After 30 years of Sunday worship I read the book “National Sunday Law,” and shortly afterward, I became a Seventh-day Adventist! This book has changed my life forever! Recently, a friend gave me some of your newsletters, and the material is astounding! I’m amazed with the amount of TRUTH that I’ve learned in a short time! I will be giving out the NSL books. Keep up the good work! God bless you! E.C. Buffalo, NY the execution of the king; and those who had decreed his death soon followed him to the scaffold. A general slaughter of all suspected of hostility to the Revolution was determined. The prisons were crowded, at one time containing more than two hundred thousand captives. The cities of the kingdom were filled with scenes of horror. [That type of thing happens now in gang fights, riots, and mass murder attacks. Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I was a member of the Catholic church. I had been studying the prophecies of Revelation and was frustrated because I didn't understand them. I was praying for God to help me understand, and I was at the peak of my obsession with these prophecies when I received the book "National Sunday Law" in my mailbox. This wasn't a coincidence! The timing was too perfect! Now I have made a vow that I will keep God's holy Bible Sabbath and not work on Saturday any more - even if it costs me my job. Now I thank the Lord for His mercy, and for His answering my prayers! Sincerely, Y. Markin

"Concerning the two witnesses the prophet declares further: 'And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. Dear A.J. Marcussen,
For years my family have gone from one denomination to another looking for the truth. Eventually, they all quit looking except me. It must have been a guardian angel that helped me. Then I met a friend, and together, we studied the Bible. The time came when we wondered about the Sabbath of God. Was it Saturday, or Sunday, or did it matter? How do we find the answer? To my amazement, a few days ago, a woman handed me a book entitled "National Sunday Law!" Now I know the truth! I do not want to sin against my Father in heaven! So now I sit here writing to you instead of going to work on Saturday, God's 7th day Sabbath. I seek the truth of God! It is my joy that I received your book, exalting the word of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ! With the love of Jesus! G.H.

Thank you, and God bless you. We enjoy your letters! Darin & Kimberly
