

What's going on? "As it was in the days of Noah" Satan is working hard to turn the poor people into highly developed animals. But as the devil's law approaches, the world is going to see what our mighty God will do - and is doing now!

“But
days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God

should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets... And he said unto me, 'Thou must prophesy again
before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.'”

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the holy name of Jesus.

Faith: The Bible verse says, “When he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished.” Rev. 10:7. The mystery of God is the “good news” gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. And the 7th angel of Rev. 10 has begun “to sound!” So what should we expect to see here in the end of the world?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Have you ever wondered where clapping, funny skits, sanctified jokes, and holy clowns came from in large, progressive church services? Here's a church clown entertaining the saints in the Vatican. As the enforcement of the mark of the beast is getting closer, would we expect to see holy clowns and other funny things entertaining the church members?

“Great hailstones, every one ‘about the weight of a talent,’ are doing their work of destruction. The proudest cities of the earth are laid low... Babylon the great has come in remembrance before God, ‘to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath...’” GC 636.

wrath.’ Great hailstones, every one ‘about the weight of a talent,’ are doing their work of destruction. Verses 19,21. The proudest cities of the earth are laid low... Prison walls are rent asunder, and God’s people, who have been held in bondage for their faith, are set free.” GC 636.

Hope: Almost no one pays attention anymore to our Saviour’s invitations of love and eternal life. Almost no one is willing to obey God by His grace. They ignore His kind warnings of what will happen to them if they choose Satan as their leader! As we near the battle of Armageddon some cling to Jesus and die in the Lord. Many follow the devil and share his reward. And some will never die. As the scenes of the end unfold, what will it be like? What about now?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - “A deafening roar drove 17-year-old Katrina Coleman into the bathroom Wednesday night. Crouched with a friend, she put her fingers in her ears and shut her eyes tight. She prayed so as not to scream and she never lost consciousness.

“Next door, Donna Faye Reed flew into the bathtub, sandwiching her 16-year-old daughter Tiffany between herself and a cousin who lay on top of them for protection.

“One mile away, 11-year-old Reid Barton and his family saw the tornado warning on their battery-powered television. They also ran to the bathroom, but only five people could fit, and seven more spilled into the hallway.

“The tornado tossed a mobile home onto the house Wednesday evening. Reid tucked his face between his knees and held a pillow over his head. Someone covered him with his grandmother’s thick quilt. With winds pushing as high as 157 mph, the tornado buzzed through trees and brush in the dark before coming to a small cluster of homes off State Road Alternate 69A. There, it killed four people. They were killed in a double-wide trailer when the tornado flipped it over, lifted it up, and dropped it onto the wood-frame home of Melissa and Danny Houghs, where Coleman cowered in the bathroom.

“James Marshall, 41, and his wife, Mary Lee, 37, were killed when their mobile home was flung and landed across the street.

“Coleman thought she was in a safe place Wednesday night. She watched from the sofa of the wood-frame house as tornado warnings were issued in counties all around Calhoun. But she didn’t see the one that said a tornado was headed her way. She just reacted to the noise. ‘It was so loud,’ she said, that she couldn’t hear anything else, even as she knew glass was breaking and wood was splintering all around her. ‘The noise just got closer and closer, and then the house started shaking, and then we just got picked up and flung,’ said Coleman, who would learn later that the Terry home was pitched on top of the house she was in.

God’s prophet said, “We need to study the pouring out of the seventh vial. The powers of evil will not yield up the conflict without a struggle.” Mar. 279.

“In the midst of the angry heavens is one clear space of indescribable glory, whence comes the voice of God like the sound of many waters, saying: ‘It is done.’ Rev 16:17.

“That voice shakes the heavens and the earth. There is a mighty earthquake, ‘such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great...’ There is a roar as of a coming tempest. The sea is lashed into fury. There is heard the shriek of a hurricane like the voice of demons upon a mission of destruction. The whole earth heaves and swells like the waves of the sea. Its surface is breaking up. Its very foundations seem to be giving away. Mountain chains are sinking. Inhabited islands disappear. The seaports that have become like Sodom for wickedness are swallowed up by the angry waters. Babylon the great has come in remembrance before God, ‘to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his

“Mary Folsom, sister of James Terry, learned from Tiffany of how her relatives had tried to save themselves by going to the bathroom. She and three other relatives survived. But Tiffany, who suffered a dislocated shoulder, doesn’t remember anything after getting into the bathtub. After the tornado, Coleman lay on her side, covered with so much debris that she couldn’t feel the wind or rain pelting Blountstown. She screamed in the dark, but her voice was muffled by a closet that sat sideways in front of her. A friend who was in the bathroom with her lay nearby, and the two told each other to hang on and wait for help.

“People were screaming when Sgt. Terry arrived at the scene. He couldn’t tell whether they were male or female or make out what they were saying. The yells came from the piles of wreckage. Phinney, who arrived next, said the beams from their flashlights were nearly useless as wind-driven rain smothered the light. He just picked an area and started moving debris.

“It was like you just took a bunch of toothpicks and slung them out,’ Phinney said about what was left of the homes. ‘There wasn’t a house in sight, just piles.’ Phinney saw a young girl sitting up and another man calling for help. He helped the girl stand and then realized that under the debris he was straddling was a woman. He saw her white canvas tennis shoe. ‘She had sheet rock on her, two-by-fours, studs. She was covered,’ Phinney said.

“On Friday, relatives picked through the debris scattered along a path the size of a football field. They looked for photos and other keepsakes. Strewn across the site were someone’s country-music record collection, stuffed animals, textbooks from Chipola Junior College. A soggy Bible lay open to Romans 1:21, with purple highlighter marking the chapter which spoke of ‘God’s righteous judgment.’

“As men depart further and further from God, Satan is permitted to have power over the children of disobedience.” Mar. 176.

they have had the truth, according to that light will be the punishment.” Mar. 176.

“The great master of evil conceals himself, working behind the scenes. [His girlfriend in Rome does the same.] He lays his plans with wonderful ingenuity, so arranging matters that men will not have time to think of the things of eternity. As Satan’s instruments do the work assigned them, he directs and controls. He gives all who will serve him plenty to do.

“Thus Satan is playing the game of life for the souls of men, and he is succeeding in a way surprising even to himself. Men are straining every nerve to gain earthly treasure, but when eternal riches are offered them, they turn carelessly away. Satan hides Christ and heaven from their view, because they choose to have it so. Led by him, they worship the world and the things of the world. Too late they will find that they must stand before God without a fit preparation, to hear the words, ‘Depart from me...’

“In his work Satan pretends to be very religious. He finds this the most effective way of carrying on the work he began in heaven.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
It’s very obvious and certain that you must have been guided by the Holy Spirit in writing the book “National Sunday Law.” I am most interested in the way you have explained Daniel and Revelation when other denominations don’t even understand them. You have enlightened the people! I want to get many more of these books to give to others. L.J.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
For years I have attended a Sunday keeping church – the Apostolic Faith Mission Church. But now the whole church has switched and is keeping God’s true Sabbath holy. Isn’t our Lord Jesus wonderful! I’m sending your book “National Sunday Law” to as many people as I can. God can use us to make a difference. Please keep us in your prayers as we keep you in ours. Scott Garner “Everyone’s belongings were mixed together. Sgt. Terry said someone brought him a photo of himself that was in his uncle’s house. They found it about a quarter-mile away. Thousands of migrating ducks fell from the sky 40 miles to the northeast.” Palm Beach Post. By Kimberly Miller.

The prophet of God cries out - “As men depart further and further from God, Satan is permitted to have power over the children of disobedience. He hurls destruction among men. There is calamity by land and sea. Property and life are destroyed by fire and flood. Satan resolves to charge this upon those who refuse to bow to the idol which he has set up.”

“Calamities will come, calamities most awful, most unexpected; and these destructions will follow one after another... God allows them to suffer calamity, that their senses may be awakened.

“The judgments will be according to the wickedness of the people and the light of truth that they have had. If

“The Lord will arise to shake terribly the earth... Fires will break out unexpectedly and no human effort will be able to quench them. The palaces of earth will be swept away in the fury of the flames.” LDE 24.

Under his guidance the Christian world has made void the law of God by tearing down the seventh-day Sabbath, and exalting in its stead a common working day.

“As God’s people approach the final crisis, they must with increasing power proclaim the message He has given them. The warning must be given to the churches. God’s requirements must be laid before those who are transgressing His law. They must be made to understand that this is a life and death question. God’s remnant people are to fill the earth with the cry of the third angel.

“In a pure, harmonious heaven there is no jar. no discord. All is health, happiness, and joy.”

G.K. Stevens: In my home I “jar” my wife and children because I accuse and blame them. Hearing my jarring, blaming voice, makes my wife and children accuse and blame each other and me. The tones of my voice jars them. My children and even the animals avoid me. This jarring is making my wife’s love for me wither away. I know I’m going straight to hell! I know it! Do I have a demon in me? What can I do to have sweet, merciful, and loving tones of my voice? Instead of the jar of blaming why can’t I just talk with them as if they are intelligent people and not animals? What can I do? Do I have any hope?

Pastor Jan: “As you view yourself a sinner, fall, all broken, at the foot of the cross. Jesus will receive you, all polluted as you are, and will wash you in His blood.” 2T 81. “And the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.” 1 John 1:7. “Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.” Matt. 9:2. Keep trying, and God will make you sweet, merciful, and loving, like Jesus.

trust. He bestows His richest endowments upon those who love Him and keep His commandments. He will never forsake those who work in His lines.

“Satan will strive to retain every soul in his strong power. He will not willingly relinquish his dominion over men. Therefore the work of advancing the gospel will meet with great opposition from his synagogue. His last effort will be a desperate one, but his overthrow will be complete.

“Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.’ John saw the remnant people of God when they had gained the victory over the Beast, and over his Image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name. Redeemed and glorified, they stood on the sea of glass, having the harps of God... As they surround the throne of God, they see their Saviour bearing upon His glorified body the marks of the crucifixion, and from myriads of voices peals forth the chorus of praise, ‘Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.’” RH 7/16/01.

“With prophetic eye Christ traced the scenes to take place in His last great conflict. He knew that when He should exclaim, ‘It is finished,’ all heaven would triumph. His ear caught the distant music and the shouts of victory in the heavenly courts.

“God watches over these faithful witnesses, and abundantly rewards their confidence. The way to His throne is always open to them. He sees and supplies their wants. They find their safety in looking to Him. When Jehovah gives them His protection, and says of them, Ye are laborers together with me, they are safe in the midst of the greatest danger. Satan tries to deceive them, but God lifts up for them a standard against the enemy. Those who work righteousness have an ever-present help in time of trouble. [Praise God!] In every time of need He is near. When they are tempted, He stands as their defense, saying, ‘I will guide thee with mine eye.’ I will deliver thee from perplexity, and be a covert for thee against the strife of tongues.”

“The cause is the Lord’s. He is on board the ship as commander in chief. He will guide us safely into port. He can command the winds and the waves, and they will obey Him. If we follow His directions, we have no need to be anxious or troubled. In Him we may

Dear Pastor Jan,
I nearly gave up the struggle because of the spiritual pressure that was on me. This pressure over me was heavier than I could bear, but I thank God for your book “National Sunday Law” which finally got me freedom from all these mental pressures by throwing light into the true way of our Father God Almighty. A friend gave me the book. After reading it, I felt a great relief. It gave me the power to arise and be strong in the Lord so as to keep the enemies of the Lord down. I thank our Lord Jesus that He is wonderfully using you for His truth. Your book “National Sunday Law” has come to redeem people from straying from God. Now I feel in my spirit that I will be a man of God. May God’s blessings be upon you all. Amen. A.A.

[Praise God!] He knew that the knell of Satan's empire would then be sounded, and the name of Christ would be heralded from world to world throughout the universe." DA 679. Praise God!

Hope: People have been hearing lately about strange and mysterious court cases against the former [REDACTED]. The cases are so corrupt that only agents of Rome, filled with demons could conceive of it. How long do you think it will take until Satan can drag down the degraded mobs to also persecute God's dear people even before the mark of the beast is enforced by law?

Pastor Jan: I won't tell you. The prophet of God gave us a hint -

"When the condemnation of Jesus was pronounced by the judges, a satanic fury took possession of the people. The roar of voices was like that of wild beasts. The crowd made a rush toward Jesus, crying, He is guilty, put Him to death! [How did they know?] Had it not been for the Roman soldiers, Jesus would not have lived to be nailed to the cross of Calvary. He would have been torn in pieces before His judges, had not Roman authority interfered, and by force of arms restrained the violence of the mob.

"Heathen men were angry at the brutal treatment of one against whom nothing had been proved.

But the Jewish leaders were dead alike to pity and to shame.

"Priests and rulers forgot the dignity of their office, and abused the Son of God with foul epithets. The most dissolute men engaged in infamous abuse of the Saviour. An old garment was thrown over His head, and His persecutors struck Him in the face, saying, 'Prophesy unto us, Thou Christ, Who is he that smote Thee?' When the garment was removed, one poor wretch spat in His face.

"The angels of God faithfully recorded every insulting look, word, and act against their beloved Commander. One day the base men who scorned and spat upon the calm, pale face of Christ will look upon it in its glory, shining brighter than the sun."

"Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ." HP 262. Dear Jan Marcussen,

I just now discovered the truth of God when I read your book "National Sunday Law." I must say that it is truly fascinating how it all fits together. I was raised a Roman Catholic but have always felt that it was not right to confess my sins to a man. [He can't even forgive his own sins!] Now that I can see the truth about Roman Catholicism, I choose to be a complete follower of God's word. I know that faith in God will get me through. I just want to thank you for your newsletters and for keeping Jesus and his truth real. Much love and God bless!
Sincerely, Carlos

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

I have been a member of the Pentecostal church, but through your book I have been led to see that I have been paying homage to the Catholic Church. Through "National Sunday Law," I have come to know the real truth! Now, by the grace of God, I am a Seventh-day Adventist! I thank the Almighty, Who has made the light of His salvation shine upon you, and upon us all. Yours in Christ, S.M.

Dear friend,

I'm writing to let you know that I read the book "National Sunday Law" and I must say that I believe every word of it. I understand more of God's word through your book. May God pour out His blessings upon you and your family so that you can keep reaching people like me who are confused. I plan to get more of these books so I can reach others! Thank you. A.P.

power to resist evil, power that neither earth, nor death, nor hell can master...

“With strong, hopeful words the Saviour ended His instruction. Then He poured out the burden of His soul in prayer for His disciples. Lifting His eyes to heaven, He said, ‘Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son also may glorify Thee: as Thou hast given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given Him. And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast sent...’

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I am a Sunday keeping Christian. But my Church is dead. Your book “National Sunday Law” was delivered to my door. After reading it, I have started keeping the Bible Sabbath as God said to do. You have made a big difference in my life! I will be sending for more of your books to give to my family. God bless you! PC
