Hope: Why is “Death” the rider on the pale horse? How can death do anything? Why is hell following him? And what does all this have to do with God’s dear people down here in the end of the world?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go –

“Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world.” What crime did the little lamb commit? Look at his face! Is he pure and holy? Would you plunge a dagger into his heart? Did he die for you & me? Then what?

“And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.” II Thess. 2:8-10.

Dear SDA friends around the world, greetings in the name of Jesus.

Faith: What kind of earthquake will it take to make “every mountain

The time came in human history that our kind Father gave a number of great signs on earth to warn the world to be ready to face the judgement - for eternal life, or eternal death. The great Lisbon earthquake was the first of these, and was so powerful that it was felt in Europe, Africa, and America. The prophet said -

“The shock’ of the earthquake ‘was instantly followed by the fall of every church and convent, almost all the large public buildings, and more than one fourth of the houses. In about two hours after the shock, fires broke out in different quarters, and raged with such violence for the space of nearly three days, that the city [Lisbon] was completely desolated. The earthquake happened on a holyday, when the churches and convents were full of people, very few of whom escaped... The terror of the people was beyond description. Nobody wept; it was beyond tears. They ran hither and thither, delirious with horror and astonishment, beating their faces and breasts, crying, ‘Misericordia! the world is at an end!’ Mothers forgot their children, and ran about loaded with crucified images. Unfortunately, many ran to the churches for protection; but in vain was the sacrament exposed; in vain did the poor creatures embrace the altars; images, priests, and people were buried in one common ruin.’ It has been estimated that ninety thousand persons lost their lives on that fatal day.” GC 306. But a much greater earthquake is coming during the 7 last plagues when the earth itself will heave up and down like the waves of the sea... when “the towers fall,” and mountain chains sink into the ground.

Bronze head of Constantine, from a colossal statue in the 4th century.

The rider on the black horse with balances in his hand represent a type of judgement in a time when the sins of the church people and their crooked leaders were black - as corruption spread throughout the churches.

The pale horse represents something even worse. It is the period when the church leaders are totally corrupt and spiritually dead. The name of the smiling church leaders is “Death.” Can you imagine the churches being led by “Death!” And hell [hades = the grave] followed close behind.

The pale horse itself is the very color of death and is still riding through the land. Meanwhile, we are now in the church period of “Laodicea.” Prophecy reveals - in Rev. 3:16 and Last Day Events, p. 180 - that dear Jesus said to Laodicea, “I will spue thee out of my mouth.” That spewing out will happen after the Sunday law when “the majority forsake us.” LDE 180. In obedience to the papal infested government, they will go along with the Sunday law and will influence “the majority” of their church friends into following them and will give up God’s holy Sabbath day to avoid persecution! They will say that we ought to obey the laws of the land {rather than God}. To avoid persecution - which the cowards are afraid of - will many have church services on both Sabbath and Sunday? But as the Sunday law gets more strict, only Sunday will be honored. But by that time, “the majority” have the mark of the beast. Woe be to the poor church members who follow “Death,” and give up God’s holy Sabbath of the Ten Commandments in order to obey Rome and honor her day of the sun - “the mark of the beast.”

“His name was Flavius Valerius Aurelius Constantinus Augustus - better known as Constantine the Great. The papacy also caused him to be known as “Saint Constantine.” He ruled the Roman empire from 306 to 337 AD, and is known for being the first Roman emperor to be converted to “Christianity” [Roman Catholic style.]

The encyclopedia says that “Constantine retained the title of ‘pontifex maximus’ until his death, a title emperors bore as heads of the pagan priesthood.”

The title “pontifex maximus” is also the title which the popes of Rome have used for hundreds of years, because, in essence, the pope is also the Roman emperor. The title “pontifex maximus” means “Chief Bridge Builder.” The “Chief Bridge Builder” builds bridges between light and darkness, truth and error, right and wrong, good and evil - to unite all in one joyous union of love - to sing and swing and sin and celebrate. His great work is to gently move the world into uniting with himself to be under his loving care in the ecumenical movement until they all burn up in hell. [Don’t judge anyone because dear Jesus can save all who will.] The Chief Bridge Builder is joyfully occupied in building bridges.

In 1990 a new G.C. president was elected in Indianapolis. Some time later he had to be removed from that position. You saw him in the CCA video series. I watched and listened to his first great sermon. The title of his sermon was “Building Bridges.”

To the Author,
I don’t know why or how I was sent this book “National Sunday Law” but I am ever so grateful that it was sent to me. I have read the Bible but have never really understood it. My eyes are now opened!! I understand now, and am no longer ignorant about God’s Sabbath. Thank you!

Dear Pastor Jan,
When we were given this “National Sunday Law” book to read, we read it and immediately stopped keeping Sunday and became Seventh-day Adventists. Now we’re so happy. We’re planning to do a bulk mailing of the NSL preachers, to reach many people!
Yours in Christ, H.C.

Do you see the black marble pillars surrounding the throne of god? {2 Thess. 2:4.} Where else do you see black marble pillars? What do they mean?

The encyclopedia states, "In 321, Constantine instructed that Christians and non-Christians should observe "the venerable day of the sun," [That was the first Sunday law. You'll see in a minute that the method used then was similar to that which will soon be used again.] Long after his alleged conversion to Christianity, Constantine's coinage continued to carry the symbols of the sun."

Concerning the first Sunday law of "Saint" Constantine, the prophet said - "If the reader would understand the agencies to be employed in the soon-coming contest, he has but to trace the record of the means which Rome employed for the same object in ages past. [Do you comprehend that? The very "means" used in the enforcement of the Sunday law back then will be the ones used in our day!]

Hope: Since it was the emperor who gave the order for the first Sunday law, will it be a modern U.S. leader who is acting like an "emperor" who will start the ball rolling?

Pastor Jan: The prophet said - "Royal edicts, general councils, and church ordinances sustained by secular power were the steps by which the pagan festival attained its position of honor in the Christian world. The first public measure enforcing Sunday observance was the law enacted by Constantine. (A.D. 321) This edict required townspeople to rest on 'the venerable day of the sun,' but permitted countrymen to continue their agricultural pursuits. Though virtually a heathen statute, it was enforced by the emperor after his nominal acceptance of Christianity. Rome called Constantine "saint." The great Harlot will also honor the virtual U.S. "emperor" as they will be cooperating with each other.]

"The royal mandate not proving a sufficient substitute for divine authority, Eusebius, a bishop who sought the favor of princes, and who was the special friend and flatterer of Constantine, advanced the claim that Christ had transferred the Sabbath to Sunday. [That claim will again be repeated.] Not a single testimony of the Scriptures was produced... Eusebius himself unwittingly acknowledges its falsity and points to the real authors of the change. 'All things,' he says, 'whatever that it was our duty to do on the Sabbath, these we have transferred to the Lord's Day... Miracles also were called into requisition. Among other wonders it was Here we see the house of Representatives in Congress. Do you see the black marble pillars on each side of the throne? Where else do you see them? The black marble pillars also surround the pope's throne. Most people don't know that when our great nation was being founded, there were two forces struggling for expression - one Christian, and the other pagan/Catholic. And most people don't know what the bound rods on each side of the podium represent. The government website reveals it -

"The bronze fasces [rods] represent the Roman symbol of civil authority."

Fasces rods mean "Fascism." Fascism is what Hitler had; what Mussolini had, etc. and it is what Rome is working to give to Protestant America. When the rods were put there hundreds of years ago, Rome only had wishful thinking. Now, the reality of it is much closer.

The rods are bound together by one strap = one man - who is controlled by papal Rome. Fascism is Rome's favorite form of government because it's the easiest for her to control through the one man. Now that Rome has her faithful people in the Capitol and the White House, it's no surprise that shocking changes have come upon us with rapid fire - eventually leading to the enforcement of the mark of the beast. I'm thankful that our kind Father can control the situation anyway He pleases. It's evident that He is allowing the devil to get away with many things because "The end of all things is at hand."

According to GC 234,235. it's not surprising that Roman Catholics have also infiltrated into all the branches of leadership. They are the majority in Congress, the Senate, the Pentagon, the Supreme Court, the White House, slowly and joyfully moving the nation toward self destruction - while uniting the nation with herself by doing good things like having her key people to reverse Roe v. Wade. I've shown you Rome's literature telling of her preparations to take over the nation. They've been planning that for a long time - so that kind papal leaders can raise our nation from the ashes to be a poor, but faithful Roman Catholic controlled "Protestant" nation.

The prophet of God cries out - "The Protestant churches are in great darkness, or they would discern the signs of the times. The Roman Church is far-reaching in her plans and modes of operation. She is employing every device to extend her influence and increase her power in preparation for a fierce and determined conflict to regain control of the world, to re-establish persecution, and to undo all that Protestantism has done. Catholicism is gaining ground upon every side... God's Word has given warning of the impending danger; let this be unheeded, and the Protestant world will learn what the purposes of Rome really are, only when it is too late to escape the snare. She is silently growing into power. Her doctrines are exerting their influence in legislative halls, in the churches, and in the hearts of men. She is piling up her lofty and massive structures, in the secret recesses of which her former persecutions will be repeated. Stealthily and unsuspectingly she is strengthening her forces to further her own ends when the time shall come for her to strike. All that she desires is vantage ground, and this is already being given her. We shall soon see and shall feel what the purpose of the Roman element is." GC 565,566,581. I thank our kind Father that there is something we can do about it. The best thing we can do is to not get into politics, but to get God's mighty 3 angels' messages to the people! May God help us do it is my prayer.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I read your book, and that's how I became a Seventh-day Adventist! Your book was the first Seventh-day Adventist book I ever read, and through it, the Holy Spirit converted me. May the God of Israel bless you, your family, and your work. Robert Davis reported that as a farmer who was about to plow his field on Sunday cleaned his plow with an iron, the iron stuck fast in his hand, and for two years he carried it about with him, 'to his exceeding great pain and shame.' Later, the pope gave directions that the parish priest should admonish the violators of Sunday and wish them to go to church and say their prayers, lest they bring some great calamity on themselves and neighbors. [That same type of thing will be proclaimed in our day.] An ecclesiastical council brought forward the argument, since so widely employed, even by Protestants, that because persons had been struck by lightning while laboring on Sunday, it must be the Sabbath. 'It is apparent,' said the prelates, 'how high the displeasure of God was upon their neglect of this day.' Thomas Morer, Discourse in Six Dialogues on the Name, Notion, and Observation of the Lord's Day, page 271...

Dear Sir;

The book "National Sunday Law" had been sitting on the shelf when I gave it to a friend, and I had not even read it. When she gave it back, she said, "You're right! Saturday, the seventh day is the sabbath of God!" When I heard that, I thought to myself, "I've got to read this book!" The powerful book opens minds that were closed! I was so shocked when she said that I was right - and I hadn't even read the book! Now I have! Now I'm going to give this book out to others so they'll know that God's word doesn't change! Praise God! Sincerely, M.W.

"Still, the absence of Scriptural authority for Sunday keeping occasioned no little embarrassment. The people questioned the right of their teachers to set aside the positive declaration of Jehovah, 'The seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God,' in order to honor the day of the sun. To supply the lack of Bible testimony, other expedients were necessary. A zealous advocate of Sunday, who about the close of the twelfth century visited the churches of England, was resisted by faithful witnesses for the truth; and so fruitless were his efforts that he departed from the country for a season and cast about him for some means to enforce his teachings. When he returned, the lack was supplied, and in his after labors he met with greater success. He brought with him a roll purporting to be from God Himself, which contained the needed command for Sunday observance, with awful threats to terrify the disobedient. This precious document... was said to have fallen from heaven and to have been found in Jerusalem, upon the altar of St. Simeon, in Golgotha. But, in fact, the pontifical palace at Rome was the source whence it proceeded. Frauds and forgeries to advance the power and prosperity of the church have in all ages been esteemed lawful by the papal hierarchy... [On the CCA video series you heard Sister Charlotte revealing that Catholics can steal up to $40 without having to confess it to the priest, and they can tell all the lies they want as long as it upholds the Roman Catholic church. She said that the Catholics who know will never tell you this. You've probably noticed that in the news, people and leaders keep asking why a certain sardine keeps telling lies to the nation all the time. The answer is that the mother church is pleased with it. They are right on track.]

Dear Pastor Jan,

I thank God for His goodness in giving you the understanding to write the great book, "National Sunday Law." It's a book for this time! My friends and I are getting together, and we're planning to give 1000s of them in cities and towns. By God's grace, we will now embark on this wonderful campaign! In Jesus' holy name, K.W.

leaders keep asking why a certain sardine keeps telling lies to the nation all the time. The answer is that the mother church is pleased with it. They are right on track.]

"It was reported that persons laboring beyond the appointed hour were stricken with paralysis. A miller who attempted to grind his corn [on Sunday] saw, instead of flour, a torrent of blood come forth, and the mill wheel stood still, notwithstanding the strong rush of water. A woman who placed dough in the oven found it raw when taken out, though the oven was very hot. Another who had dough prepared for baking, but determined to set it aside till Monday, found, the next day, that it had been made into loaves and baked by divine power... By such absurd and superstitious fabrications did the advocates of Sunday endeavor to establish its sacredness.

"But notwithstanding all the efforts to establish Sunday sacredness, papists themselves publicly confessed the divine authority of God's Sabbath and the human origin of [Sunday.] In the sixteenth century a papal council plainly declared: 'Let all Christians remember that the seventh day was consecrated by God, and hath been received and observed, not only by the Jews, but by all others who pretend to worship God; though we Christians [Catholics] have changed their Sabbath into the Lord's Day.' Ibid., pages 281, 282. Those who were tampering with the divine law were not ignorant of the character of their work. They were deliberately setting themselves above God... The word of God teaches that these scenes are to be repeated as Roman Catholics and Protestants shall unite for the exaltation of the Sunday...

Dear Sir,

I was walking down a country road here in Tennessee when I found a book named "National Sunday Law" just lying there. It was wet and torn, but I picked it up, and read it. I'm really impressed with it! I know that it's the truth! I know that God is not through with me yet. May God bless you! J.V.

Pastor Jan Marcussen,

First and foremost I want to thank you for the book "National Sunday Law." This book opened my eyes and heart more than ever in my life! The knowledge I obtained through this book, I will share with everyone I can. I no longer do common work on God's holy Sabbath day. Thank you so much again! My mind and heart are starving for more, more! God is good! And thank you for sending me your newsletters. They are uplifting to my spirit and mind. Sincerely Brian

“And prophecy foretells a restoration of her power. ‘I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.’ Verse 3. The infliction of the deadly wound points to the downfall of the papacy in 1798. After this, says the prophet, ‘his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.’ Paul states plainly that the ‘man of sin’ will continue until the second advent. 2 Thess. 2:3-8. To the very close of time he will carry forward the work of deception...

“Marvelous in her shrewdness and cunning is the Roman Church. She can read what is to be. She bides her time, seeing that the Protestant churches are paying her homage in their acceptance of the false sabbath and that they are preparing to enforce it by the very means which she herself employed in bygone days. Those who reject the light of truth will yet seek the aid of this self-styled infallible power to exalt an institution that originated with her.

How readily she will come to the help of Protestants in this work it is not difficult to conjecture. Who understands better than the papal leaders how to deal with those who are disobedient to the church? The Roman Catholic Church, with all its ramifications throughout the world, forms one vast organization [notice the word “vast”] under the control, and designed to serve the interests, of the papal see.” GC 573-580.

Dear Sir,

I happened to come across your book “National Sunday Law.” I’m convinced that the writer is on target concerning the prophetic scriptures! I am already using material out of your book to teach others. I believe that God Almighty has called me to help prepare our people for the very prophetic conditions that are about to come to pass! God’s grace be with you! Your brother in Christ, Sylvester G

In some places, before the time for the decree to be executed, the wicked rushed upon the saints to slay them; but angels in the form of men of war fought for them. Satan wished to have the privilege of destroying the saints of the Most High; but Jesus bade His angels watch over them. God would be honored by making a covenant with those who had kept His law, in the sight of the heathen round about them; and Jesus would be honored by translating, without their seeing death, the faithful, waiting ones who had so long expected Him.” EW 282.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

My mother gave me a book called “Steps to Christ.” I didn’t read it. Then she gave me “Desire of Ages.” I didn’t read that either. Finally, my mother gave me the book “National Sunday Law.” It moved me! My whole life has changed! Thank you, and God bless you! F.E.

Charity: The past and the present have been swirling around us. What about the future?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - “I saw the saints leaving the cities and villages, and associating together in companies, and living in the most solitary places. Angels provided them food and water, while the wicked were suffering from hunger and thirst. Then I saw the leading men of the earth consulting together, and Satan and his angels busy around them. I saw a writing, copies of which were scattered in different parts of the land, giving orders that unless the saints should yield their peculiar faith, give up the Sabbath, and observe the first day of the week, the people were at liberty after a certain time to put them to death. [Is it the green new deal?] But in this hour of trial the saints were calm and

Dear Pastor Jan,

My three young children, ages 5,8, & 10 love Jesus with all their hearts and have placed over 800 NSL books on doorsteps and benches with their own hands! They all chose to give their piggy bank money of $150 to get more NSL preachers to work for souls. They are eager to do what Jesus desires of them & are anxiously awaiting His soon return. Thank you, and God bless you. We enjoy your letters! D.K.

The parents of children whom they have taught to work for Jesus to save souls will be happy in heaven forever - along with their little ones.
