And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.”

Do you see a laughing lady? Why is she laughing? The Vatican can be proud of her. Tucker Carlson reveals that what she's trying to do is one of the many signs that Jesus is coming soon "with power and great glory." Here it is -

Tucker Carlson: "A lawmaker in Virginia by the name of Elizabeth Guzman is introducing a bill that would 1) charge parents with a felony, 2) strip them of their employment, and 3) imprison them - if they don't wholeheartedly endorse their minor children's sex changes!

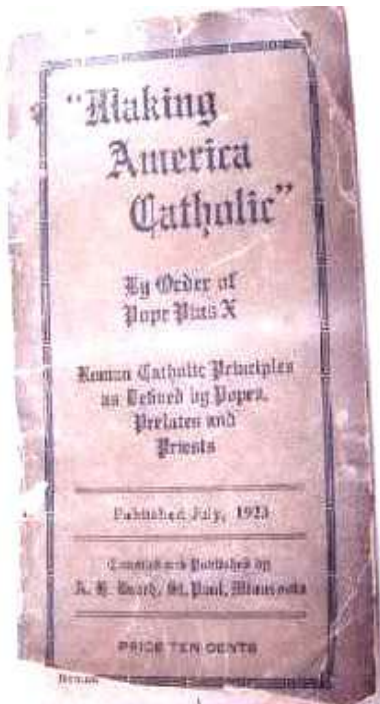

"So your 12 year old daughter says she wants to get a mastectomy [so she can be a boy. Her good teacher inspired the children with it. He knows best, doesn't he?]

"If you object to that in any way; even if you raise a question about it, Elizabeth Guzman will send you to jail!"
<https://nrcc.org/2022/10/14/fox-news-va-dems-tied-to-law-maker-who-wants-to-criminalize-parents-who-wont-affirm-childs-gender/>

Another poor fiend by the name of Congresswoman Spanberger joined laughing Guzman and said, "I think it's unfortunate that adults may want to punch down" on their kids. [By "punch down" she means to correct and guide them in the right way.] "It's a pretty sad state of affairs," she said.

She laments that parents would want to guide their children right - to not ruin themselves by mutilating their bodies. Poor Guzman and her gay paramours would make them criminals and send them all to jail. Merry Christmas!

"Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the son of man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

This book, Making America Catholic was written by order of Pope Pius X. Bishop Ireland said, "Our work is to make America Catholic, and our hearts shall leap toward it with enthusiasm." Most people have no clue of this. How is their work of "making America Catholic" coming along? You get a hint of it by the millions from Catholic nations coming in through open borders; the Catholic president; by stopping good things for the nation, and giving executive orders which bring ruination; the Catholic majority in Congress; the Senate; the Supreme Court; the Pentagon; the Catholic media; the papal leadership in education, medicine, banking, the churches, oil, food, flash mobs; the under-world; etc. Surprise Surprise! Did it just happen overnight? It happened gradually while people were enjoying the three stooges. Lawyers are taught by Jesuit-trained teachers. Catholic trained judges now interpret ambiguous laws according to Catholic Canon Law. Why does our kind Father allow it? Can you guess?

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the holy name of Jesus.

Faith: The Bible quote says, "He hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication." Rev. 19:2. What makes the whore so "great?" And how will she affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

In the book, Making America Catholic, it says 1) “All human power is from evil, and must therefore be standing under the Pope.” 2) “The pope has the right to give nations which are non-Catholic to Catholic regents who can reduce them to slavery.” 3) “The pope can make slaves of those Christian subjects whose ruling power is interdicted by the Pope.” 4) “The church has the right to practice the unconditional censure of books.” 5) “The Pope has the right to annul state laws, constitutions, etc.” 6) “The Pope possesses the right of punishing rulers, emperors, and Kings.” 7) “He who kills one who is excommunicated [by the Roman Catholic Church] is no murderer in a legal sense.” 8) “The church cannot give favor to those whom she knows to be imbued with a spirit of hostility to her.” 9) “We hold upon the earth the place of God Almighty.” 10) “It is unlawful to grant unconditional freedom of thought, of speech, of writing, or of worship.” 11) “The state should aid, protect, and defend the church.” 12) “The Roman Catholic Church is free and independent of any earthly power. The Pope is sovereign head of the church which is sovereign mistress of the world. He is therefore not only Pope, but King of Kings, head of humanity, and head of the world.” 13) “The pope alone has the right to define the limits of his own authority and the limits of the authority of the state.” 14) “Roman Catholics must obey their bishops whether right or wrong.” 15) “Do not fear that there is any prejudice against Catholics in high places. There is none.” 16) “When a Catholic candidate is on the ticket and his opponent is a non-Catholic, let the Catholic candidate have the votes, no matter what he represents.” 17) “If the American government is to be sustained and preserved at all, it must be by the rejection of the principles of the Reformation, and the acceptance of the Catholic principles, which is a government by the Pope.” [The prophet of God reveals that this is just what our great nation will do. Have you noticed it happening?] 18) “There will be a Catholic altar erected in the White House. 19) “The will of the Pope is the supreme law of all lands.” 20) “The Catholic seal is set upon the United States for ever.” 21) “There are more merits for obeying one’s own Catholic superior than for obeying God himself.” 22) “It is the intention of the Pope to possess the United States. In this intention he is aided by the Jesuits and Children can be taught to enjoy hanging dollars on the tree for Jesus. In a Catholic Mass, the priests are taught that they have the supernatural power to turn the cookie into God. The church of Rome gave this special mass its name = Christ Mass. The drunken priest says the words, “Hokus Pokus” and Jesus is created right in his hand! Then he and the people eat it. Do you see the Christmas lights? Do you see the bag of toys for every child in the world? Do you see his tongue hanging out? He needs a 5 barrel carburetor to get to every home in the world before the sun comes up. In the end of the world, people don’t ask, “What can I do for Jesus by helping to save others?” They ask themselves, “What am I going to get?” Then the time comes when what they got is seen sitting in the dust, in the attic, in the basement, in a yard sale, in the dump. Have you ever noticed that?

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I want to thank you for publishing “National Sunday Law.” This book is a creation of Jesus Christ. I put them in my church and people grabbed them up to read them! I’m so inspired by these books that I feel that I need to put more copies of them in other churches, and get them out to many people! I was confused about which day the Sabbath was until I read your book. But thanks be to Jesus! I know that I can get more of these books into the hands of the people! Keep up the good work in Jesus’ name!

all the Catholic prelates and priests.” 23) “We want to make the press of this country a positive agency in the dissemination of Catholic ideas. [They’re doing it.] 24) “The Bible belongs to the Catholic Church.” 25) “Protestantism, the murderous hag, is slowly dying of corruption and congenital rottenness, and she will not much longer encumber the earth.” 26) “Those are not to be accounted murderers when burning with love and zeal for their Catholic mother against excommunicated Protestants, they shall happen to kill a few of them.” [That’s what Catholic inspired riots, mobs, and surprise attacks are for.] 27) “No man has a right to choose his own religion.” 28) “Protestantism – we would impale it and hang it up for crows to eat. We would tear it with pincers, and fire it with hot irons. We would fill it with molten lead, and sink it in 100 fathoms of hell-fire.” 29) “If Catholics ever gain sufficient majority in this country, religious freedom is at an end.”

The prophet of God cries out - “God’s Word has given warning of the impending danger; let this be unheeded, and the Protestant world will learn what the purposes of Rome really are, only when it is too late to escape the snare. She is silently growing into power... She is piling up her lofty and massive structures, in the secret recesses of which her former persecutions will be repeated. Stealthily and unsuspectingly she is strengthening her forces to further her own ends when the time shall come for her to strike.” GC 581.

On January 20, 2021, the great papal magisterium mashed on the gas pedal a little more, and the massive wheels of the vast papal network spun faster and accelerated the “strike.” But as in the days of the great reformers, God - who never slumbers nor sleeps - is raising up people who - like in Martin Luther’s day - will counteract the forces of evil, and will give God’s mighty Three Angels’ Messages to the world. The devil can’t stop it. Watch closely -

“Luther was still a true son of the papal church and had no thought that he would ever be anything else. In the providence of God he was led to visit Rome... He entered the city, visited the churches, listened to the marvelous tales repeated by priests and monks. Everywhere he looked upon scenes that filled him with astonishment and horror.

Dear Sir,

I have never seen anything that explained God’s word so clearly in such a plain, understandable way as the book “National Sunday Law!” I plan to be ordering more to give to others! Thank you, and may God bless you all! Love in Christ,
Anne

“He saw that iniquity existed among all classes of the clergy. He heard indecent jokes from prelates, and was filled with horror at their awful profanity, even during mass. As he mingled with the monks and citizens he met dissipation, debauchery. ‘No one can imagine,’ he wrote, ‘what sins and infamous actions are committed in Rome; they must be seen and heard to be believed. Thus they are in the habit of saying, ‘If there is a hell, Rome is built over it: it is an abyss whence issues every kind of sin.’ [High papal clergy scare the poor masses into supporting Rome by using the terrors of hell, but Sister Charlotte revealed that many of the church leaders do not believe in either heaven or hell! Their god is Lucifer. They preach against abortion and they have more thousands of abortions in their convents than anyone on earth. They condemn masonry but have masonic lodges in the Vatican for the cardinals. But of all this, the masses are ignorant - for her very name is - “MYSTERY.” {Rev. 17:5}...

“Precious was the message which Luther bore to the eager crowds that hung upon his words. Never before had such teachings fallen upon their ears. The glad tidings of a Saviour’s love, the assurance of pardon and peace through His atoning blood, rejoiced their hearts and inspired within them an immortal hope. [Praise God!] At Wittenberg a light was kindled whose rays should extend to the uttermost parts of the earth, and which was to increase in brightness to the close of time...

“But light and darkness cannot harmonize. Between truth and error there is an irrepressible conflict. To uphold and defend the one is to attack and overthrow the other. Said Luther, ‘God does not guide me, He pushes me forward. He carries me away. I am not master of myself. I desire to live in repose; but I am thrown into the midst of tumults and revolutions.’ D’Aubigne, b. 5, ch. 2. He was now about to be urged into the contest.”

[The poor indulgence monger - Tetzal - came creeping around with a man beating on a drum to draw crowds.]

“As Tetzal entered a town, a messenger went before him, announcing: ‘The grace of God and of the holy father is at your gates.’ And the people welcomed the blasphemous pretender as if he were God Himself come down from heaven to them.” GC 124-127.

Tetzal - “Now my good people! This is no ordinary indulgence! This will build St. Peter’s Cathedral in Rome. And you will share in every mass that is said from now until doomsday! Here, in the pope’s own words - full forgiveness for all sins! Absolution from all punishments!

No confession necessary. Valid even for your loved ones in purgatory. For who would see his mother in flames, when with a piece of silver he can set her free! For, as soon as the money clinks in the chest, a soul flies up to heavenly rest! Come along good people! Put your money in the chest! Come good people.”

Pastor Jan: When one of Luther’s church members presented to him the letter of indulgence, Luther read it, and this started the fight that “led to the battle which shook the papal throne and jostled the triple crown upon the pontiff’s head.” GC 127. To his congregation Luther said concerning indulgences, “This is not salvation. This is damnation.”

Luther sat down with his Bible and wrote 95 theses against indulgences. Then, on the great Roman Catholic holiday - Halloween - of 1517 - he nailed it to the church door in Wittenberg. “Printers had it translated into German, and then other languages of Europe. Within weeks, they were the talk of all Germany. Within months, all Christendom was on fire... [This is the way the whole world will be when they get God’s mighty 3 angels’ messages with the latter rain power of the Holy Spirit! This mighty reformation in the future will be even greater than in Luther’s day!]

Groups of people could be seen reading the 95 theses and shocking others with its words - - “Vain is the hope of salvation through indulgences even if the pope himself were to pledge his own soul for them!”

Poor Tetzal read some of the 95 theses to the Archbishop of Mainz - “It is better to give to the poor than to buy an indulgence!” There my lord! Translate it for everyone to read! No wonder the sales of my indulgences have fallen off! Give me ten days and I’ll turn the people against him as a heretic. I’ll burn his books, and I’ll burn him too!”

“The very best you can do will not merit the favor of God. [Praise God! Isn’t that a wonderful thought!] It is Jesus’ worthiness that will save you, His blood that will cleanse you... Be zealous and repent, then believe.” God’s Amazing Grace, p. 182

“We are to have no anxieties or cares. [Praise God!] Just put your trust in the Lord. All that is needed for you and me is to believe and trust in Him who is able to save to the uttermost... ‘Hold fast My hand,’ Jesus says to you and me.” 2SM 252. “Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength.” Isa. 26:3, 4. Praise God!

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,

I grew up as a Baptist, but I just didn’t “get it.” So I turned to the streets. Then I got into Islam and other weird things, but none of it satisfied my soul. Then, a friend of mine gave me “National Sunday Law.” I thank God that you wrote it because it changed my life!! Everything is clear to me now. Thank you!! I don’t want to be blind anymore. Thank you and God bless! Daryl Walker

Dear Pastor Jan,

God has been putting information in my path about the New World Order. Having prayed for wisdom to understand things relating to Bible prophecy, I was amazed when I found a copy of the book National Sunday Law. God is bringing His remnant together and equipping them for the final chapter of His plan! It is wonderful to have found in the SDA church such an astute knowledge of Scripture and respect for prophecy as is in National Sunday Law. May God bless you as you continue your very important ministry. Sincerely, J.L. Canada

In Rome, the legate, Aleander, read some of the theses to Pope Leo III. "Here my lord Pope, listen to this - 'The true treasure of the church is the gospel of the glory and grace of God. Why therefore does not the Pope empty purgatory out of pure Christian charity?!'"

Pope Leo: "Who wrote those?"

Aleander: "Martin Luther! A monk of the Augustinians."

Pope Leo: "So this is your clever scholar! Your fine theologian!"

To the Archbishop of Mainz, Aleander said, "What kind of rebellious beasts do you breed up here in Germany?"

Luther's Corner: "As though Jesus we enter into rest, Heaven begins here!" DA 331

A room in the Wartburg where, while he was hiding, Luther translated the New Testament from Greek to German.

Concerning the 95 Theses the prophet said, "The sin-loving and superstitious multitudes were terrified as the sophistries that had soothed their fears were swept away. Crafty ecclesiastics, interrupted in their work of sanctioning crime, and seeing their gains endangered, were enraged, and rallied to uphold their pretensions. The Reformer had bitter accusers to meet. Some charged him with acting hastily and from impulse. Others accused him of presumption, declaring that he was not directed of God, but was acting from pride and forwardness. 'Who does not know,' Luther responded, 'that a man rarely puts forth any new idea without having some appearance of pride?'"

"Luther trembled as he looked upon himself—one man opposed to the mightiest powers of earth. He sometimes doubted whether he had indeed been led of God to set himself against the authority of the church. 'Who was I,' he writes, 'to oppose the majesty of the pope, before whom the kings of the earth and the whole world trembled? No one can know what my heart suffered during these first two years, and into what despondency, I may say into what despair, I was sunk.' But he was not left to become utterly disheartened. When human support failed, he looked to God alone and learned that he could lean in perfect safety upon that all-powerful arm. [Praise God! That's what God's faithful SDA people will do as they get God's last message to the world amid the ravings of demon possessed fiends.]

"'He is a heretic,' cried the Roman zealots. 'It is high treason against the church to allow so horrible a heretic to live one hour longer. Let the scaffold be instantly erected for him!' Ibid., b. 3, ch. 9. But Luther did not fall a prey to their fury. God had a work for him to do, [and for you and me!] and angels of heaven were sent to protect him. [Can you picture the holy angels around him, and around you?]"

Dear Sir,

I could never really understand Revelation until now! I just want to write to you because I'm captivated by your book "National Sunday Law." I used to serve God on Sundays until Herold Goodman gave me your book. Since then I've been honoring God on His seventh day Sabbath, and attending the Seventh-day Adventist church. I can tell that you really know the book of Revelation. I want to serve God and not man from now on. Thank you so much! Shawn CA

"Luther received a summons to appear at Rome to answer to the charge of heresy. The command filled his friends with terror. They knew full well the danger that threatened him in that corrupt city, already drunk with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. [Do you think that Rome is better now?]"

"The pope directed his legate to excommunicate all, of whatever dignity in church or state, except the emperor, who should neglect to seize Luther and his adherents, and deliver them up to the vengeance of Rome.

"Rome was bent upon the destruction of Luther; but God was his defense. His doctrines were heard everywhere—in cottages and convents, in the castles of the nobles, in the universities, and in the palaces of kings; and noble men were rising on every hand to sustain his efforts.

"He wrote thus of the universities: [like the ones you know about] 'I am much afraid that the universities will prove to be the great gates of hell, unless they diligently labor in explaining the Holy Scriptures, and engraving them in the hearts of youth. I advise no one to place his child where the

Dear Ms. Marcussen,

I'm assuming that you are a lady. I just read your book, "National Sunday Law." I enjoyed it very much, and I know that what you have written is the truth! Before I read the book, I had no idea of such things, but after I read it, I look around and see things happening in society that substantiate what the book says. I want to personally thank you. May God richly bless you! V.S.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

My name is Patrick. I'm writing Sir because "National Sunday Law" had a major role in my being saved. Yes, it gave me a major awakening which caused me to turn to God. This in itself I believe to be a miracle because of the fact that I have been an absolute reprobate for the past 10 years. Drugs, drug dealing, and alcohol are at the center of my reproachful past. Anyway, I have been saved from those sins, and I believe that I have been chosen by God to help spread His truth. I just want to say again that "National Sunday Law" is very powerful, and it is of the utmost importance that people learn the truth for the last days that it contains. I feel very compelled to spread these books. I praise God that you had the courage to write it!

Sincerely, Pat B.

Scriptures do not reign paramount. Every institution in which men are not unceasingly occupied with the word of God must become corrupt.' [Those who visit colleges and universities learn quickly that to a large degree - they are spiritually corrupt now!]

"It was decreed that Luther's doctrines should be immediately condemned. Sixty days were granted the Reformer and his adherents, after which, if they did not recant, they were all to be excommunicated.

"That was a terrible crisis for the Reformation. For centuries Rome's sentence of excommunication had struck terror to powerful monarchs; it had filled mighty empires with woe and desolation.

"Those upon whom its condemnation fell were universally regarded with dread and horror; they were cut off from intercourse with their fellows and treated as outlaws, to be hunted to extermination [as will happen again in the near future in fulfillment of Rev. 13:15.] Luther was not blind to the tempest about to burst upon him; but he stood firm, trusting in Christ to be his support and shield. With a martyr's faith and courage he wrote: 'What is about to happen I know not, nor do I care to know. Let the blow light where it may, I am without fear. Not so much as a leaf falls, without the will of our Father. How much rather will He care for us! It is a light thing to die for the Word, since the Word which was made flesh hath Himself died. If we die with Him, we shall live with Him.'

"Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy - a life of undimmed happiness - awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ." HP 262.

"When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned." SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

"When the papal bull reached Luther, he said: 'I despise and attack it, as impious, false. It is Christ Himself who is condemned therein. I rejoice in having to bear such ills for the best of causes. Already I feel greater liberty in my heart; for at last I know that the pope is antichrist, and that his throne is that of Satan himself.' —D'Aubigne, b. 6, ch. 9.

"Everything seemed to indicate that the Reformer's work was about to close. But Luther was fearless still. [Praise God!] Rome had hurled her anathemas against him, and the world looked on, nothing doubting that he would perish or be forced to yield. But with terrible power he flung back upon herself the sentence of condemnation and publicly declared his determination to abandon her forever. In the presence of a crowd of students, doctors, and citizens of all ranks Luther burned the pope's bull, with the canon laws, the decretals, and certain writings sustaining the papal power. 'My enemies have been able, by burning my books,' he said, 'to injure the cause of truth in the minds of the common people, and destroy their souls; for this reason I consumed their books in return. A serious struggle has just begun. Hitherto I have been only playing with the pope. I began this work in God's name; it will be ended without me, and by His might.' Ibid., b. 6, ch. 10.

Dear Pastor Jan,

I've been a drug addict most of my life. My boyfriend found a book called "National Sunday Law" and handed it to me. Something inside said to me, "Read that book!" I read the whole thing that night. I was born Catholic. But this book made sense. I was convicted. I felt something stirring right here in my heart. And I knew, I know it's the truth! Now I'm a Seventh-day Adventist! Praise God! L.E. knows if God has not chosen and called me, and if they ought not to fear that, by despising me, they despise God Himself? Moses was alone at the departure from Egypt; Elijah was alone in the reign of King Ahab; Isaiah alone in Jerusalem; Ezekiel alone in Babylon. God never selected as a prophet either the high priest or any other great personage; but ordinarily He chose low and despised men. In every age, the saints have had to reprove kings, princes, priests, and wise men, at the peril of their lives. I do not say that I am a prophet; but I say that they ought to fear precisely because I am alone and that they are many. I am sure of this, that the word of God is with me, and that it is not with them.'—Ibid., b. 6, ch. 10. [Praise God!]

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I want to thank you for the book I received called "National Sunday Law." I have been a Christian for many years, but I struggled to understand the book of Revelation until now. All things are now clear. From reading your book, God's words are implanted in my mind. Praise God! I am more happy than ever before! I thank our Lord Jesus that I received this book, for time is very short. God bless you! Monty

Dear Jan Marcussen,

Thank God for your book "National Sunday Law." Thank God for making it so easy to understand. Now my eyes are opened to the truth! I will order more to give out to people so they can learn the truth of God too. Thank you Jesus!! I want to worship God on His Sabbath. I want to keep all the commandments of God. Thank you so much, and may God bless you to get this book "National Sunday Law" out to the people of this world before it's too late! Keep going! God bless! T. Thordanson

“A new bull appeared, declaring the Reformer’s final separation from the Roman Church, denouncing him as accursed of Heaven, and including in the same condemnation all who should receive his doctrines. The great contest had been fully entered upon...

“As Luther ceased speaking, [at the diet of Worms] the spokesman of the Diet said angrily... Will you, or will you not, retract?”

“The Reformer answered: ‘Since your most serene majesty and your high mightinesses require from me a clear, simple, and precise answer, I will give you one, and it is this: I cannot submit my faith either to the pope or to the councils, because it is clear as the day that they have frequently erred and contradicted each other. Unless therefore I am convinced by the testimony of Scripture, unless I am persuaded by means of the passages I have quoted, I cannot and I will not retract, for it is unsafe for a Christian to speak against his conscience. Here I stand, I can do no other; may God help me. Amen.’

“Thus stood this righteous man upon the sure foundation of the word of God. The light of heaven illuminated his countenance. [Praise God!] His greatness and purity of character, his peace and joy of heart, were manifest to all as he testified against the power of error and witnessed to the superiority of that faith that overcomes the world.

“The whole assembly were for a time speechless with amazement. The partisans of Rome had been worsted; their cause appeared in a most unfavorable light. They sought to maintain their power, not by appealing to the Scriptures, but by a resort to threats, Rome’s unfailing argument. Said the spokesman of the Diet: ‘If you do not retract, the emperor and the states of the empire will consult what course to adopt against an incorrigible heretic.’

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
Last week a girl named Cynthia came to our SDA church because of the NSL book. Praise God! I asked her where she got the book. She said that she found it on a shelf. The devil is kicking, but Jesus will triumph! Sincerely in Christ, Sheila “Luther said calmly: ‘May God be my helper, for I can retract nothing.’ Ibid., b. 7, ch. 8.

“Had the Reformer yielded a single point, Satan and his hosts would have gained the victory. But his unwavering firmness was the means of emancipating the church. The influence of this one man, who dared to think and act for himself in religious matters, was to affect the church and the world, not only in his own time, but in all future generations.

His firmness and fidelity would strengthen all, to the close of time, who should pass through a similar experience. The power and majesty of God stood forth above the counsel of men, above the mighty power of Satan.” GC 124-167. Praise God friend! Praise God!
