And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other... Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.”

Pavel Kashin

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Greetings in Jesus’ holy name. Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we’ll talk about what’s happening.

Faith: The dear lady on the right cooked a lovely dinner for the family. Such a lovely grandma and a happy home!

Nine minutes after this picture was taken, she had a heart attack; then went to the hospital, and died. The Bible text says, “Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.” Matt. 24:44. How will that verse affect the wicked world, the Christian world, and us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Here’s Pavel Kashin - freerunning with amazing flips and spins. As with selfies of self, competitive sports, and the latest fashions, freerunning tries to satisfy the great human craving to love and to be loved. Dear Jesus put that within us - to bring us to Him - who satisfies us completely. Without Jesus, the person hungers in soul emptiness - toward eternal death. Would Pavel Kashin be famous like Spiderman, so that everyone would love him? He jumped off a 16 story building, and “lost his footing.” Here, you see him for the last time. He knew the ground was coming fast, but before he could count to 10, he will see the face of God. “Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.”

Thursday, November 8 was an eventful day. It was only weeks ago. There was a church board meeting scheduled for 7 p.m. that evening in Paradise, CA.

Wife: "Remember the board meeting this evening honey."

Husband: "Thank you sweetheart! We'll be sure to be there on time. And maybe we can get a few groceries before we come home."

But the board members never made it to the board meeting. They never made it to the Safeway. They never made it back home. The grocery store was gone. The shopping center was gone. The elementary school was gone. Their homes were gone. The Mormon church was gone. The Catholic church was gone. The Pentecostal church was gone. The SDA church was gone. The lovely 1,273 member SDA church in Paradise was a smoldering wreck - and tens of thousands of people - jamming the roads, were fleeing from a fiery hell. The animals were running. "And all the birds of the heavens were fled." Jer. 4:25. The town was gone. And thousands from other towns were running too. It was as if the demons were crying out to the fleeing masses - "Merry Christmas, and a happy New Year!"

Some couldn't go anymore. They got clogged up in traffic jams, or ran out of gas while giant flames were rushing in - pushed by 60 mile per hour gusts. Many cars couldn't move, so the dear people just got out and ran down the road! Some were carrying babies, cats, dogs. Some didn't get out of their cars.

Traffic jam! Many cars were left in the middle of the road clogging the way. Then, people got out and ran for their lives from the raging hell. A number of people who couldn't get out and run down the road never got out. When the rescuers were able to look in their cars, they just saw bones. "For in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

The next day, sitting behind the steering wheel of their car was their bones. "For in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

A number of people refused to leave Paradise because it is "our home!" "I don't care what the man said, I've been here for over 30 years and I'm staying right here in Paradise."

So they stayed in their nice homes until their remains were wrapped in blue bags and carried to the portable morgues borrowed from the military. "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

In Paradise, evacuee James Brown told the Record Searchlight - "It looked like the gates of hell opened up, I swear."

Police officer Ryan Lambert said to The Los Angeles Times, "It's pure chaos up here! Malibu looks like a war zone, with homes and businesses burned to the ground."

Charred earth is as far as the eye can see."

"It really seems like we are chasing it, it moves so fast, and the fire behavior is just so intense," said Mike Grosenbach, a Los Angeles County firefighter.

"The air was so thick last night, you could barely breathe," said Malabu homeowner Robin Elmasian.

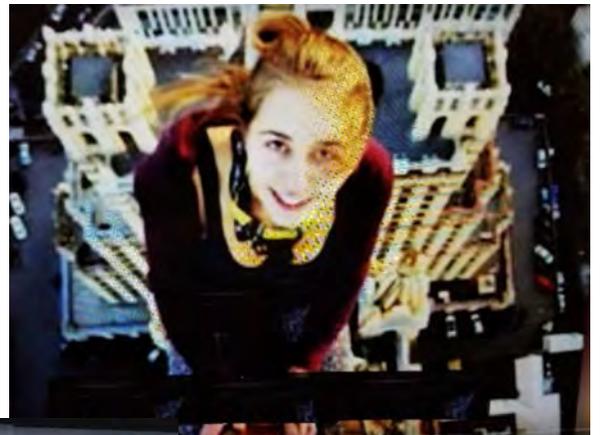

"Capt. Scott McLean of the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection said that crews basically 'gave up' attacking the flames, and instead, helped people get out alive."

On social media, it was seen that one man left his car and walked past the traffic jam back toward the fiery hell - looking for his wife and child. Concerning this, Robyn Markow said on Twitter, "Any word if this man found his family?"

The answer came back, "We've had enough sadness today with the shootings in Thousand Oaks last night, I hope he finds them. It's ironic that the town should be named "Paradise" when it looks like Dante's Vision of Hell."

Here's the front door of a lovely home in Paradise. Some, like Lot's wife couldn't bear to leave. "Remember Lot's wife." Lk. 17:32.

In the picture above, do you see the tiny cars way down below this high voltage tower on top of a skyscraper? She is up there putting her self on a selfie to show her self to the world so that hopefully, people will love her. She thought it was working pretty well until she accidentally touched a high voltage wire, and then she fell and fell way down to the ground. But the long fall didn't bother her, because, on the way down, she was already dead. "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

Here's Paradise. Sweet Vennita and I stayed in Paradise one night some time ago - on our way to a memorial service. It was so beautiful there that I can understand why they named it "Paradise." It seemed to be as beautiful and lovely as was Sodom on the night before the fire fell.

CBS NEWS - Nov. 13 - "A registered nurse was one of several hospital staff members who helped evacuate patients as the fire closed in, CBS News correspondent Mireya Villarreal reports.

"Darrell Wilken and his patients fled the raging flames in Paradise, which was mostly wiped out.

"The fire was everywhere!" Wilken said. He had three patients, two critical, in his car. Vehicles around him were on fire. He thought they may be next, so he and his patients called their families to say goodbye.

"What do you do when you go through hell?" Wilken said. "You just keep going." It took them more than three hours to get through hell. "I'm still shaking every time I talk about it," Wilken said."

On the Weather Channel, it showed videos which people recorded while they drove. One man said, "I'm surrounded by fire!"

A dear mother with her little, helpless baby on the seat cried out, "I'm surrounded by fire, and I don't know what to do!"

I guarantee you that the angels of God were following her with the tenderest sympathy and love!!! These holy angels under God are "all powerful!!!" Look at them watching the lone car with the terrified mother and her helpless babe - lying there - trusting in its mama's love!

With her heart crying out to God, she jammed on the gas, and she drove through the smoke, and she drove through the fire, and she drove through the bushes where a rabbit couldn't go. She drove so fast that the flames couldn't catch her - on down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico. Old devil said, We can take her by surprise. We will catch her and her baby and we'll look 'em in the eyes. He felt so proud that he had her in his ring, 'till he saw the angels coming and he couldn't do a thing. He fired his cannon 'til the barrel melted down, then he got a bunch of demons and they fought another round. The devil and his army tried to melt her into clay, but the angels came from heaven and they knocked them all away. She drove through the briars, and she drove through the brambles, and she drove through the bushes where a rabbit couldn't go. She drove so fast that the flames couldn't catch her - on down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico.

The Paradise, California SDA church. The hearts of God's people have gone out in love and prayers for our suffering brothers and sisters. The prophet reveals in the last chapters of Great Controversy that after the Sunday law, all the church and conference buildings will also be gone - when God's people will be chased by "infuriated mobs." EW 44. We're all in the same boat. Look at innocent Job. The lesson for us all now is - "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

church members? And why didn't He save Paradise, Malabu, and other cities? And why didn't He save the whole world?

Pastor Jan: "God is love." He always does what love will do. And He has answered those questions in His word. But before I give you the quotes, I'll ask, How many people do you and I know since Adam and Eve who have lived for thousands of years and have never died? Just two. No one else has escaped death. Even on the very day that Jesus appears, billions will die. If you don't live until that very day, you yourself will die. It's guaranteed. "It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment." Heb. 9:27. But as long as you have a work to do for God, He will keep you alive to do it! Praise God!

Charity: Is time so short now that the plagues of God are already falling upon the earth?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "What mean the awful calamities without a moment's warning? What mean the accidents by land—fire consuming the riches that men have hoarded?... The Lord will not interfere to protect the property of those who transgress His law..."

"The plagues of God are already falling upon the earth, sweeping away the most costly structures as if by a breath of fire from heaven. Will not these judgments bring professing Christians to their senses? God permits them to come that the world may take heed, that sinner may be afraid and tremble before Him." 3MR 311. He loves them with an everlasting love! After years of many blessings fail to awaken careless people to their danger of eternal death, the "judgments of God" are a loving effort to allow the devil to make them suffer - to drive them to Jesus so he can save them from sin and from being burned to ashes in hell.

"God has a purpose in permitting these calamities to occur. They are one of God's means of calling men and women to their senses. By unusual workings through nature God will express to doubting human agencies that which He clearly reveals in His Word." 19 MR 279. Notice the word, "unusual."

A string of melted cars. It looks like the end of the world. Is this the kind of thing the devil will see during the 1000 years that he is bound to the earth before he is burned to ashes?

"Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty acts... Praise him with the psaltery and harp. Praise him with the timbrel and dance... Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals. Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD." Ps. 150.

Hope: Praise God! Why do some good and bad people die in calamities, and others are saved by the power of God? Why did our kind Father permit the devil to bring the fire that killed all those people? Why didn't He save the SDA church building? And why didn't He save the homes of the

The Pentecostal church. Dear Jesus loves them all.

Dear Sir:

I'm living in Texas. I need to talk with you about the book "National Sunday Law." I've had this book for years. I've thrown it away four times, and it keeps coming back under my bed! I finally read it. I couldn't believe this book! Then I took it to the Bible and compared it back and forth to see if it is really true. It's the truth! This is great! I've been sharing it with my family! [Praise God!] H.N.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I have just finished reading "National Sunday Law." I was totally shocked! I picked up your book at my doctor's office. I couldn't put it down! I was brought up as a Catholic. I have left the Catholic church. I knew it was wrong to pray to saintly statues. Now I adhere to the truth of the Bible! May God bless you always! L.C.
West Palm Beach, FL

A good understanding comes by reading Isaiah 26:9,10, and Isaiah 57:1,2. These two Bible texts are a “key” that unlocks your understanding concerning plagues, judgments, calamities, and the death of many righteous and wicked.

1) Isaiah 26:9,10 says, “When thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. [There it is! That’s the reason “thy judgments” come.] Let favour be showed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness.” Isaiah 26:9,10. Year after year our kind Father has given the masses “favour.” When the time comes that more “favour” and blessings would only make them worse, then, “thy judgments” are their only hope to “learn righteousness,” to go to heaven instead of hell.

Vermont Corner: "a silent witness guards every soul that lives, seeking to draw that soul to Christ." cch 240.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I have read the awesome book “National Sunday Law.” I loaned it to someone, and upon receiving it back, I am reading it again. From now on, I will obey God’s Sabbath, which has been so clearly promulgated in this book. I refuse to be a hypocrite like the preacher who talks about the 10 Commandments yet honors Sunday - the 1st day of the week instead of the 7th. I thank you from the depths of my heart. Blessed love and grace to you, Michael King

2) Why are godly people killed along with the wicked in many calamities? It’s in Isaiah 57:1,2. It says, “The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.” There it is! Understanding these two Bible quotes also help you understand Romans 8:28 and Phil. 4:4.

“How frequently we hear of earthquakes and tornadoes, of destruction by fire and flood, with great loss of life and property!... They are among the agencies by which He seeks to arouse men and women to a sense of their danger.” PK 277.

“The Majesty of heaven has the destiny of nations as well as the concerns of His church in His own charge.” 5T 753. Praise God!

Faith: Is this why dear Jesus allowed His temple and church headquarters to be destroyed by the Babylonians in the time of Jeremiah? And is it why He allowed His temple and church headquarters to be destroyed by the Romans in the time of John the Revelator? And is it why He allowed His church headquarter buildings to be burned up in 1902 in Battle Creek? And is it why He allowed the devil to bring floods in the east to drown the poor people, and wreck their stuff; while fires in the west scorched them, and wiped out cities and towns with fire and smoke? And is it why He will allow the church buildings, homes, schools, hospitals, and conference headquarters to be taken over after the Sunday law?

And is it why He allowed the devil to bring floods in the east to drown the poor people, and wreck their stuff; while fires in the west scorched them, and wiped out cities and towns with fire and smoke? And is it why He will allow the church buildings, homes, schools, hospitals, and conference headquarters to be taken over after the Sunday law?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - “God carries with Him the sympathy and approval of the whole universe as step by step His great plan advances to its complete fulfillment.” PP 78, 79. Praise God! But there’s more!

“The act of Christ in dying for the salvation of man would not only make heaven accessible to men, but before all the universe it would justify God and His son in their dealing with the rebellion of Satan.” PP 68, 69.

Dear Sir,

I could never understand Revelation until now! I just wanted to write to you because I’m captivated by your book “National Sunday Law.” I used to serve God on Sundays until a friend gave me your book. Since then I’ve been honoring God on His seventh day Sabbath, and attending the Seventh-day Adventist church. I can tell that you really know the book of Revelation. I want to serve God and not man from now on! Thank you so much! Shawn California

“The Lord has shown me repeatedly, that if the saints had food laid up by them, or in the fields, in the time of trouble, when sword, famine and pestilence are in the land, it would be taken from them by violent hands, and strangers would reap their fields. Then will be the time for us to trust wholly in God, and he will sustain us. I saw that our bread and water would be sure at that time, and we should not lack or suffer hunger; for God was able to spread a table for us in the wilderness...”

“I saw that houses and lands would be of no use to the saints in the time of trouble, for they would then have to flee from their possessions before infuriated mobs, and at that time they could not be disposed of to advance the cause of present truth. I was shown that it was the will of God that the saints should cut loose from every encumbrance before the time of trouble comes, and make a covenant with God by sacrifice. If they have their property on the altar, and earnestly inquire of God for duty, he [not other humans] will teach them when to dispose of these things. Then they will be free in the time of trouble, and have no clogs to weigh them down. I saw if any held on to their property, and did not inquire duty of the Lord, he would not make duty known, and they would

Dear Pastor Jan,

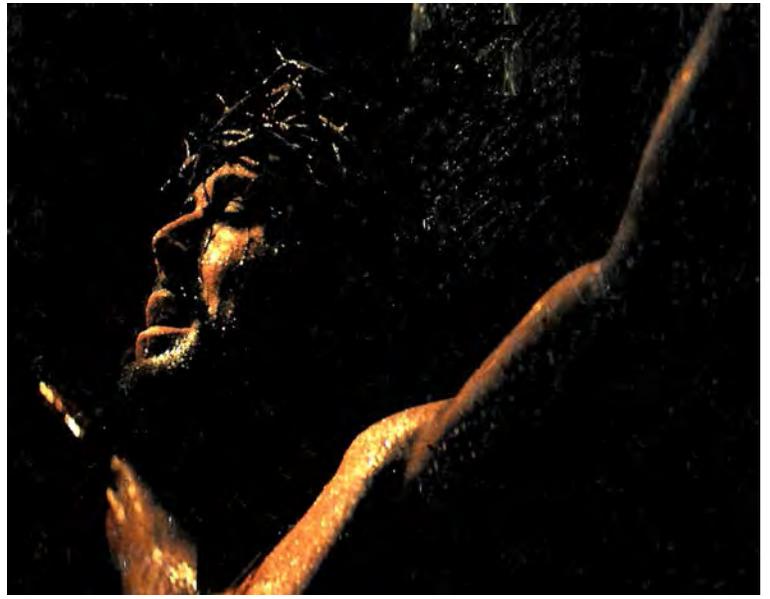

The book “National Sunday Law” is what the Holy Spirit used to draw me into His truth, to become a Seventh-day Adventist. May the Lord bless your work for Him. In His service, S.L.W. North Carolina

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I want to tell you “Thank you” from the bottom of my heart! After reading your book “National Sunday Law.” I feel tremendously enlightened! I feel like a great cloud has been blown away from me by the great truths that you brought to my eyes! I can’t remember when I was so spiritually stimulated! Now I have a thirst for truth! As a result of the book “National Sunday Law,” I have met with some of my friends, and have shared with them the facts of God’s true seventh-day Sabbath. I have a tremendous peaceful, contented feeling. I have this peace and joy ever since your book came into my life. Reading it has changed my whole outlook on life! It is my intention to let others know about your wonderful book! God bless you and thank you! Your brother in Christ, Richard be permitted to keep their property, and then in the time of trouble it would come up before them like a mountain to crush them, and they would try to dispose of it, but would not be able... I also saw that God had not required all of his people to dispose of their property at the same time, but in a time of need he would teach them, if they desired to be taught, when to sell and how much to sell...

“Now is the time to lay up treasure in heaven, and to set our hearts in order, ready for the time of trouble. Those only who have clean hands and a pure heart will stand that trying time. Now is the time for the law of God to be in our minds (foreheads,) and written in our hearts. The Lord has shown me the danger of letting our minds be filled with worldly thoughts and cares. I saw that some minds were led away from present truth and a love of the Holy Bible, by reading other exciting books, [movies, internet garbage, etc.] and others were filled with perplexity and care

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I've been trying to convince myself that your book “National Sunday Law” was just another person's opinion. So I decided to take your book apart verse by verse and prove that you were wrong. All my life I have been a devout Catholic. I compared your book with what is written in the Bible. After months of studying and looking for faults and false statements in your book I was not able to find any. I came to the conclusion that your NSL book and newsletters are truly inspired by the Holy word of God. The Catholic church contends that SDAs are just ignorant of Catholic views and that I should continue in my Catholic faith. I don't want to continue in my Catholic faith! I want to know and live my faith through Jesus Christ, and follow His word! I have made my decision to leave the Catholic church! I choose to become a Seventh-day Adventist, and be on the right path towards heaven. Please keep me in your prayers. Sincerely, Gil for what they shall eat, drink, and wear. I saw some, looking too far off for the coming of the Lord... If the mind is filled with other things, present truth is shut out, and there is no place in our foreheads for the seal of the living God. I saw that the time for Jesus to be in the Most Holy Place was nearly finished, and that time cannot last but a very little longer; and what leisure time we have should be spent in searching the Bible, which is to judge us in the last day.

“Let the commandments of God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ be in your minds continually, and let them crowd worldly thoughts and cares from the mind. When you lie down and when you rise up let them be your meditation. Live and act wholly in reference to the coming of the Son of man. The sealing time is very short, and soon will be over. Now is the time to make our calling and election sure.” EW 56-58.

“Those who are ‘do-nothings’ now will have the superscription upon them, ‘Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.’ They knew their Master's will, but did it not. They had the light of truth, they had every advantage, but chose their own selfish interests, and they will be left with those whom they did not try to save.” TM 237.

“We may behold Christ to good purpose. We may safely look to Him; for He is all-wise. As we look to Jesus and think of Him, He will be formed within, the hope of glory.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I grew up in the Presbyterian church but didn't understand the prophecies explained in your book. What makes me the most surprised is to learn about God's holy Sabbath day being on Saturday, the seventh-day of the week. May the good Lord forgive me for being prejudiced against God's Sabbath-keepers in the past. Now that I know the truth, I have become a Seventh-day Adventist! [Praise the Lord!] My wife and four children have also become Seventh-day Adventists with me! Now my desire is to share God's Bible truth with everyone I can! “National Sunday Law” books will help us do this. Yours in the service of the Lord, Daniel

“Let us strive with all the power that God has given us to be among the hundred and forty-four thousand.” Maranatha, p. 241. He will help us!

“In a special sense Seventh-day Adventists have been set in the world as watchmen and light bearers. To them has been entrusted the last warning for a perishing world. On them is shining wonderful light from the Word of God. They have been given a work of the most solemn import—the proclamation of the first, second, and third angels' messages. There is no other work of so great importance. They are to allow nothing else to absorb their attention.” 9T 19.

One drop of ink can make ten million think!

Dear Pastor Jan,

I cannot find words to talk to you! Jesus is working wonderful miracles through the book “National Sunday Law.” The spiritually dead have come alive. The spiritually blind are seeing. The lame are leaping up from the ground, and many are waking up from a stupor. Personally, I want to do something for Christ, who died in our place. I want the joy of seeing people turning to Jesus for help and salvation. I'm going to get “National Sunday Law” books into the people's hands! If you have a prayer list, please put me on it.

Sincerely, Everton Guthrie
