

“And all the world wondered after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies... And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds,

Hope: Is the cardinal wishing everyone a Merry Christmas? Is he sentencing someone to death for reading the Bible? Is he upset because the papacy hasn't yet regained control of the entire world?

Pastor Jan: The prophet of God cries out - "The Protestant world will learn what the purposes of Rome really are, only when it is too late to escape the snare." GC 581.

Charity: What's the "snare?" What is it like when the nation is caught in it? What will open their eyes before it's "too late to escape the snare?"

Pastor Jan: Nothing. "Her doctrines are exerting their influence in legislative halls, in the churches, and in the hearts of men. She is piling up her lofty and massive structures in the secret recesses of which her former persecutions will be repeated. Stealthily and unsuspectedly she is strengthening her forces to further her own ends when the time shall come for her to strike." GC 581.

And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.”

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The Bible quote says, "And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them." Rev. 13:7. How will that happen? And what is "Our Robotic Future?"

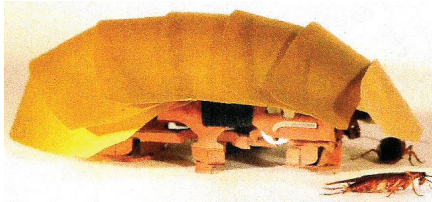

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

"Unable to move underneath the debris, you're forced to wait, hoping a first responder will soon pull you from the rubble. Finally, something peeks through the tangle of concrete and steel, and you find yourself face to face with a robot!"

"For centuries, humans have set out on search-and-rescue missions to save those left in a disaster's wake. But in the past few decades, robots have taken an increasingly active role in these rescue efforts. Bots have battled their way through major events like the World Trade Center attacks, hurricanes Katrina and Harvey, and the Fukushima nuclear disaster.

"These mechanical saviors can range from ground to marine to aerial vehicles including drones that provide reconnaissance from above. Roboticists across the globe are building inventive types of rescue robots. [We praise our kind Father that they can use robots to save lives.] Many projects still in development draw inspiration from the animal kingdom, mimicking designs that nature has perfected to make machines that can move through harsh environments, from robots that resemble snakes and cockroaches to a fleet of autonomous bees." The October issue of Discover.

Here's a nice cockroach robot that can squeeze through tight spaces to come and see how you're doing.

Do you see his smile? What else do you see?

Rome and her boyfriend have to do with anything?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "As the people of God approach the perils of the last days, Satan holds earnest consultation with his angels as to the most successful plan of overthrowing their faith. [The prophet of God was allowed to see and hear a counsel meeting of Satan with his angels!] He sees that the popular churches are already lulled to sleep by his deceptive power. By pleasing sophistry and lying wonders he can continue to hold them under his control. Therefore he directs his angels to lay their snares especially for

"As it was in the days of Noah." Is this what robots did? Are people controlled by more demons now than they were then? "

Faith: While scientists are making wonderful inventions for "peace and safety" what else is happening?

"The world is literally deluged with violence and corruption as in the days of Noah. And yet at this fearful period of our world's history many are asleep..."

"Too late will sinners realize that they have sold their birthright. The crown that they might have had shines upon the brow of another. The inheritance which they might have had is lost. Beware how you trifle with temptation. Beware how you boast of your strength. Christ is your everlasting strength; confide in God, lay hold of His strength, and He will bring you off conqueror and you will wear the crown of victory." HP 382. Praise God!

Hope: Is it now "as it was in the days of Noah?" In the days of Noah, would they send robots into the ark to kiss the ladies? Would the masses surround the ark and drill holes in it with their battery powered screw drivers? Would they shoot the animals that were walking into the ark? Would they set it on fire? Would they blow a hole in it with dynamite? Would they bring a 100 ton crane and lift up the end of it so they could go under it and have a party? Were they as full of demons as "the generation now living?" And what does

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I greet you in the mighty name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I am 22 years old and am patiently waiting the soon return of our Lord Jesus. After reading your book "National Sunday Law," I was astonished! This book has entirely changed my life! The facts in this book are undeniable. To reject these truths is perilous. May God enable you to continue to expose the masterpiece of Satan, [and reveal the beauties of our Lord Jesus.] I want to share this book with many others. Your brother in Christ, F.C.

those who are looking for the second advent of Christ, and endeavoring to keep all the commandments of God.

“Says the great deceiver: ‘We must watch those who are calling the attention of the people to the Sabbath of Jehovah; they will lead many to see the claims of the law of God...’

“‘We must exalt the Sabbath of our creating... We must work by signs and wonders to blind their eyes to the truth, and lead them to lay aside reason and the fear of God, and follow custom and tradition. That which the Scriptures declare to be a perfect law of liberty shall be represented as a yoke of bondage... By working through the ministers, I can control the people according to my will.

“‘But our principal concern is to silence this sect of Sabbath-keepers. We must excite popular indignation against them... Then the Sabbath which I have set up shall be enforced by laws the most severe and exacting. Those who disregard them shall be driven out from the cities and villages, and made to suffer hunger and privation. When once we have the power, we will show what we can do with those who will not swerve from their allegiance to God. We led the Romish Church to inflict imprisonment, torture, and death upon those who refused to yield to her decrees, and now that we are bringing the Protestant churches and the world into harmony with this right arm of our strength we will finally have a law to exterminate all who will not submit to our authority. [The “right arm” of Satan’s “strength” is the church of Rome. In most everything Satan does, his “right arm” has a part, with much of it under the table.] When death shall be made the penalty of violating our Sabbath [Sunday], then many who are now ranked with commandment-keepers will come over to our side.

“‘But before proceeding to these extreme measures, we must exert all our wisdom and subtlety to deceive and ensnare those who honor the true Sabbath. We can separate many from Christ by worldliness, lust, and pride. They may think themselves safe because they believe the truth, but indulgence of appetite or the lower passions, will cause their fall.

“Go, make the possessors of lands and money drunk with the cares of this life. Present the world before them in its most attractive light, that they may lay up their treasure here, and fix their affections upon earthly things. We must do our utmost to prevent those who labor in God’s cause from obtaining means to use against us. Keep the money in our own ranks. The more means they obtain, the more they will injure our kingdom by taking from us our subjects. Make them care more for money than for the upbuilding of Christ’s kingdom and the spread of the truths we hate...

“‘Through those that have a form of godliness but know not the power, we can gain many who would otherwise do us great harm. Lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God will be our most effective helpers...

“‘Until the great decisive blow shall be struck, our efforts against commandment-keepers must be untiring. We must be present at all their gatherings... We must cause distraction and division. We must lead them to criticize, and to accuse one another... and to cherish selfishness and enmity. For these sins, God banished us from his presence; and all who follow our example will meet a similar fate.” 4SP 337-340.

“As it was in the days of Noah?” Indeed!

After the election, their banner says, “America is Over!” Do you comprehend that?

Other websites revealed pictures of thousands packed together, celebrating and dancing in the streets like they did in Paris after the announcement that God is dead. Some internet messages said - “Washington feels like one massive party with people packed together, honking and yelling.” The masses, the media, and their great leaders don’t much care about giving Covid 19 to grandma. Concerning the packed masses, one commentator said, “It’s perfectly fine.”

The book “Making America Catholic” reveals that the destruction of the U.S. as we know it is Rome’s goal, so that the mother of harlots can - as soon as possible - help to enforce the mark of the beast. What should we do? The testimony of Jesus has revealed it.

Did anyone go to Rome to get instructions? Happy day!

May our kind Father help us do it - is our prayer!

Dear Pastor Jan,

I was born into a family of atheists. Sometimes I would wonder if God really exists. One day I was involved in a horrific accident - and I walked away untouched. I knew that only supernatural power could have protected me. Soon I ran across a book entitled “National Sunday Law.” From it, I was convinced that the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord and that the Seventh-day Adventist people are God’s remnant people who keep the commandments of God. Thank you for that wonderful book! David N. New Jersey

Dear Pastor A.J. Marcussen,

I studied your book “National Sunday Law,” and I was amazed at your boldness in presenting biblical truths that have eluded the world for years. The question of when to observe the Lord’s Sabbath has troubled my soul. Your exposition from the Bible is very enlightening! Your book has made the truth of God very clear! Here in Africa, occultism, cults, witchcraft, and wizardry, are taking the best of the people. May God Almighty bless you for the good work you are rendering to humanity! Your son in Christ, Charles P.

“Surrounded by popular contempt and ridicule, Noah distinguished himself by his holy integrity and unwavering faithfulness. A power attended his words, for it was the voice of God to man through His servant. Connection with God made him strong in the strength of infinite power, while for one hundred and twenty years his solemn voice fell upon the ears of that generation in regard to events, which, so far as human wisdom could judge, were impossible...

Vennita's Corollary: "It is not what is around us, but what is in us; not what we have, but what we are, that makes us really happy." IHP 245.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen, I received your book "National Sunday Law" in the mail, but I put it on the shelf. One day I started reading it. I read it several times. It was shocking, yet, for the first time, it all made sense to me. Since reading "National Sunday Law," I have renewed my relationship with Christ and I now live in a way which honors Him. I'm also sharing this book with others in hopes that their eyes will be opened! Thank you for writing such an incredible book! It's just what the people need! W.S.

“The ark was finished in every part as the Lord had directed, and was stored with food for man and beast. And now the servant of God made his last solemn appeal to the people. With an agony of desire that words cannot express, he entreated them to seek a refuge while it might be found. Again they rejected his words, and raised their voices in jest and scoffing. Suddenly a silence fell upon the mocking throng. Beasts of every description, the fiercest as well as the most gentle, were seen coming from mountain and forest and quietly making their way toward the ark. A noise as of a rushing wind was heard, and lo, birds were flocking from all directions, their numbers darkening the heavens, and in perfect order they passed to the ark. Animals obeyed the command of God, while men were disobedient. Guided by holy angels, they went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, and the clean beasts by sevens. The world looked on in wonder, some in fear. Philosophers were called upon to account for the singular occurrence, but in vain. It was a mystery which they could not fathom. But men had become so hardened by their persistent rejection of light that even this scene produced but a momentary impression. As the doomed race beheld the sun shining in its glory, and the earth clad in almost Eden beauty,

Dear Pastor Marcussen, In the past, we printed 2600 "National Sunday Law" books here in Bulgaria. Praise God that more and more church people are realizing the importance of the three angels' messages, as well as the shame of church leaders being silent about it. God bless you and your dear wife. Valko V. Ziatanov they banished their rising fears by boisterous merriment, and by their deeds of violence they seemed to invite upon themselves the visitation of the already awakened wrath of God. “God commanded Noah, ‘Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before Me in this generation.’ Noah’s warnings had been rejected by the world, but his influence and example resulted in blessings to his family... “Mercy had ceased its pleadings for the guilty race. The beasts of the field and the birds of the air had entered the place of refuge. Noah and his household were within the ark, ‘and the Lord shut him in.’ A flash of dazzling light was seen, and a cloud of glory more vivid than the lightning descended from heaven and hovered before the entrance of the ark. The massive door, which it was impossible for those within to close, was slowly swung to its place by unseen hands. Noah was shut in, and the rejecters of God’s mercy were shut out. The seal of Heaven was on that door; God had shut it, and God alone could open it. So when Christ shall cease His intercession for guilty men, before His coming in the clouds of heaven, the door of mercy will be shut. [Do we comprehend that?] Then divine grace will no longer restrain the wicked, and Satan will have full control of those who have rejected mercy. They will endeavor to destroy God’s people; but as Noah was shut into the ark, so the righteous will be shielded by divine power. [Praise God!]

“For seven days after Noah and his family entered the ark, there appeared no sign of the coming storm. The apparent delay confirmed them in the belief that Noah’s message was a delusion, and that the Flood would never come... They gathered in crowds about the ark, deriding its inmates with a daring violence which they had never ventured upon before. But upon the eighth day dark clouds overspread the heavens. There followed the muttering of thunder and the flash of lightning. Soon large drops of rain began to fall. The world had never witnessed anything like this, and the hearts of men were struck with fear. All were secretly inquiring, ‘Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed?’

Is it an Egyptian girl? No, it's Sweet Vennita. She's pulling on the freezer door. Hi Sweetheart! We love to see you!

Dear Pastor Jan, A friend of mine here in Namibia, S.W. Africa, became a Seventh-day Adventist after picking up the book "National Sunday Law" from the seat of a bus. After reading it, he decided to look for our church. Finally I met him, and he works for the Lord as one of the translators in Bushman Land after he got baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist! [Praise the Lord] Pastor Pitman Siamanber

Dear A. Jan Marcussen, I read your book "National Sunday Law" and I agree with it! Because of reading it, I have left the Sunday churches that I was attending. None of those churches are guiding their people to live by the teachings of Jesus and the holy Bible. I praise God that He has His remnant people who live by the pure truth of the Bible. Sincerely, V.L.

Darker and darker grew the heavens, and faster came the falling rain. The beasts were roaming about in the wildest terror, and their cries seemed to moan out their own destiny and the fate of man. Then 'the fountains of the great deep' were 'broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.' Water appeared to come from the clouds in mighty cataracts. Rivers broke away from their boundaries, and overflowed the valleys. Jets of water burst from the earth with indescribable force, throwing massive rocks hundreds of feet into the air, and these, in falling, buried themselves deep in the ground.

"As the violence of the storm increased, trees, buildings, rocks, and earth were hurled in every direction. The terror of man and beast was beyond description. Above the roar of the tempest was heard the wailing of a people that had despised the authority of God. Satan himself, who was compelled to remain in the midst of the warring elements, feared for his own existence. [The power of God held the mad fiend down amid the roaring, horrible destruction!] He now uttered imprecations against God, charging Him with injustice and cruelty. Many of the people, like Satan, blasphemed God, and had they been able, they would have torn Him from the throne of power. Others were frantic with fear, stretching their hands toward the ark and pleading for admittance. But their entreaties were in vain. Conscience was at last aroused to know that there is a God who ruleth in the heavens. [It will be the same when the seven last plagues fall.] They called upon Him earnestly, but His ear was not open to their cry. In that terrible hour they saw that the transgression of God's law had caused their ruin.

"Some in their desperation endeavored to break into the ark, but the firm-made structure withstood their efforts. Some clung to the ark until they were borne away by the surging waters, or their hold was broken by collision with rocks and trees. The massive ark trembled in every fiber as it was beaten by the merciless winds and flung from billow to billow. The cries of the beasts within expressed their fear and pain. But amid the warring elements it continued to ride safely...

"The beasts, exposed to the tempest, rushed toward man, as though expecting help from him. Some of the people bound their children and themselves upon powerful animals, knowing that these were tenacious of life, and would climb to the highest points to escape the rising waters. Some fastened themselves to lofty trees on the summit of hills or mountains; but the trees were uprooted, and with their burden of living beings were hurled into the seething billows... As the waters rose higher and higher, the people fled for refuge to the loftiest mountains. Often man and beast would struggle together for a foothold, until both were swept away.

"Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy - a life of undimmed happiness - awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ." HP 262.

"When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned." SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

"From the highest peaks men looked abroad upon a shoreless ocean. The solemn warnings of God's servant no longer seemed a subject for ridicule... How those doomed sinners longed for the opportunities which they had slighted! How they pleaded for one hour's probation, one more privilege of mercy, one call from the lips of Noah! But the sweet voice of mercy was no more to be heard by them. Love, no less than justice, demanded that God's judgments should put a check on sin. The avenging waters swept over the last retreat, and the despisers of God perished in the black depths.

"By the word of God... the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished.' 2 Peter 3:5-7. Another storm is coming. [Do you believe that?] The earth will again be swept by the desolating wrath of God, and sin and sinners will be destroyed.

"The sins that called for vengeance upon the antediluvian world exist today. The fear of God is banished from the hearts of men, and His law is treated with indifference and contempt.

"The intense worldliness of that generation is equaled by that of the generation now living... Appetite is indulged without restraint. Professed followers of Christ are today eating and drinking with the drunken, while their names stand in honored church records... Multitudes feel under no moral obligation to curb their sensual desires, and they become the slaves of lust.

Dear Author,

I'm a woman truck driver. While carrying a load of orange juice from Florida to Chicago, I was sitting at a rest stop doing some paperwork. I looked down and saw a man standing by my truck. I rolled down the window and he held a book up and said, "You are due to have this." I took it and opened it to see what it was, and then looked back down to say "Thank you," but he was gone. I looked all around, but he had vanished. This got my attention! The book was entitled, "National Sunday Law." I quit doing my paper work and read the first chapter before pulling out again. Every time I stopped, I felt drawn to the book, and would read more.

I ended up at my sister's house in Indiana with your book. I was sitting on the couch looking out the big picture window, when I saw the mail man coming. He dropped the mail through the mail slot in the front door. I yelled, "Thank you," and he went on his way. A few minutes later, I heard something else drop through the mail slot, but heard no one walking. I got up and looked, but no one was there. There, lying on top of the mail was the book "National Sunday Law." I picked it up and the hair on the back on my neck stood up! I opened it to the page where I had left off, and I started reading again. I left the book in my bedroom and went to the laundry room to change loads. When I came into the living room, your book was on the table by the couch where I'd been sitting. Now you really have my attention! So I started reading it again. That night I had a dream that I was talking to my grandson about your book, and I dreamed that I gave one of them to him. So the next morning I gave it to him. He read the whole thing. "National Sunday Law" has confirmed to us that the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord our God. Thank you! I'm thankful that it has come into my life! Nothing would give me more joy than to give my grandchildren a copy of "National Sunday Law." I see every day that the things that you wrote in the book are coming true. I will feel honored to donate to your cause. This book has opened my eyes to the things of God, and I thank you from my heart! Sincerely, Mary M.

“As the time of their probation was closing, the antediluvians gave themselves up to exciting amusements and festivities... There is a constant round of excitement [even at church socials].

“When religious teachers are pointing forward to peace and prosperity, and the world are absorbed in their rounds of business, feasting, and pleasure... then it is that sudden destruction cometh upon them, and they shall not escape. 1 Thess. 5:3.” PP 92-103.

Faith: What will happen to God’s dear people?

Pastor Jan: Here it is - “The precious Saviour will send help just when we need it. The way to heaven is consecrated by His footprints...

“The eye of God, looking down the ages, was fixed upon the crisis which His people are to meet, when earthly powers shall be arrayed against them... But the Holy One who divided the Red Sea before Israel, will manifest His mighty power and turn their captivity. [Praise God!]

“The redeemed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away...

“Glorious will be the deliverance of those who have patiently waited for His coming and whose names are written in the book of life.” GC 613-634.

And all the inhabitants of Heaven respond in the ascription, ‘Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God forever and ever.’ Rev. 7:10,12.” GC 650,651. Praise God friend! Praise God!
