'Harassed' for asking off on sabbath: suit

You'll read about it on page 2. This October 15, 2023 issue of the New York Post will shock you. It talks about Seventh-day Adventists and what we believe. It paints before our eyes a hint of what's coming in fulfillment of Prophecy. It helps us better understand Rev. 13:15-17. And it explains why God's prophet said, "The majority forsake us." LDE 180. How could it be?

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: What does Spiritualism, the mark of the beast, and God's three angels' messages, have to do with the end of the world, and with us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

“As it was in the days of Noah.”

By TINA MOORE
Police Bureau Chief

A Brooklyn cop and Seventh Day Adventist was derided as a “scammer” after she requested to be off on Saturdays to worship, according to a lawsuit.

When she signed onto the job in 2016, Johanne Saint-Jean claims she was told she’d be able to adhere to her faith, a Christian sect that observe the sabbath from sundown Friday to sundown Saturday.

Instead, Saint-Jean told The Post she spent the next eight years being chastised by superiors who asked her, “You’re not Jewish. Why are you practicing like you’re Jewish?”

Bosses told Saint-Jean, “There is no place for her in the police department” because of her religion, according to the Manhattan Supreme Court suit.

Saint-Jean, 37, who lives in Baldwin, LI, said she joined the NYPD at age 29 because it had been a dream of hers, but that dream quickly turned into a nightmare.

She was initially granted religious accommodations to have her required days off — but bosses told her other cops were angry a newbie would get a weekend day and began criticizing her beliefs.

“I don’t understand your religion,” one boss told her, according to court papers. “Your religion is messed up.”

A supervisor also said her religion was “not for black people” and she starting being assigned to work Saturdays, she said. As a result, she was forced to use her own accrued time off for the sabbath and has lost out on valuable overtime and transfers to specialized units, she claims.

Her problems multiplied in 2020

when Sgt. Robbin Abrams became her new boss, she contends.

He allegedly told her, “No cop wants to work with you because you are a scammer.”

That same year, her bosses decided she was absent without leave on a Saturday and sent Nassau County cops to her Long Island home “to harass her,” she claims in the litigation seeking unspecified damages.

“When the officers arrived they informed her that she was AWOL and stated that her supervisors had not been able to reach her,” the suit states. “This was preposterous as plaintiff was off on that day.”

She has filed four or five formal complaints, but they only led to more bullying, she said.

Saint-Jean, who has three children — ages 6, 14 and 16 — hopes the suit will force the NYPD to change.

“I’m asking for a change so nobody else who comes on has to deal with this, especially as a black woman,” she said. “Some days I get to work and I sit in my car and I think, ‘Should I go in? I can’t do it.’”

“Publicly, the NYPD champions their diversity as a tool necessary to protect the diverse population of New York City,” said her attorney, John Scola. “In practice, officers like Johanne Saint-Jean are denied advancement within the department and openly harassed for asserting their religious beliefs.”

“Ms. Saint-Jean is a proud member of our Seventh Day Adventist church,” Pastor Marcus Hypolite of the Canaan French SDA Church in Brentwood said. “She’s been faithfully coming every Saturday along with her husband and kids.”

The NYPD said in a statement it “does not tolerate discrimination in any form.” It declined to comment on pending litigation. Abrams couldn’t be reached for comment.

Hope: So what are we going to do about these horrors? Will we give the besotted world an example of what a sweet and kind follower of Jesus is like - amid persecution?

Pastor Jan: Yes.

Charity: And what else can we do?

Pastor Jan: We can joyfully do what our Saviour said to do in the last days.

Here it is - “In a special sense Seventh-day Adventists have been set in the world as watchmen and light bearers. To them has been entrusted the last warning for a perishing world... [Wicked teachers say that God’s last message contains no warning] They have been given a work of the most solemn import—the proclamation of the first, second, and third angels’ messages. There is no other work of so great importance. They are to allow nothing else to absorb their attention.” 9T 19.

Faith: The poor fiend told the godly SDA lady - “Your religion is messed up.” Will our kind Father ever allow the eyes of the poor souls to be opened - who pressurize people into disobeying the commandments of God?

Dear Pastor Jan,

My sister and I are so thrilled to be able to have the “National Sunday Law” book bulk mailed to people. Most people have never been exposed to God’s 3 angels’ messages. God is using you to do a great work before the Great Tribulation comes. I am so happy that I learned about this work. I know that God has led me to find out about it so we can be a part of it. Thank you! H.L.

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - “And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image. And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy... And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat, [global warming] and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory. And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, and blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds. And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty... And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done... and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.” Rev. 16:1-17.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

Greetings from a new creature in Christ. God has used your book “National Sunday Law” in such a way that my eyes have been anointed to see the truth, and I have accepted this awesome truth and hold it close to my heart!! It’s such a blessing to help spread God’s truth to as many as I can. I wish I had a million dollars to get “National Sunday Law” books out to the people. I can’t thank you enough for all that I have learned. Praise the Lord! God is awesome!! Yours in Christ, R.E.

Dear Sir,

I would like to get a ton of “National Sunday Law” books to send to people. A friend of mine received one in the mail when they were bulk mailed to this area. Even though he was an alcoholic, and drunk all the time, he read the book and fell under conviction of the Holy Spirit, and accepted Jesus as his Saviour and began keeping God’s true Sabbath holy on Saturday. My Roman Catholic neighbor also got the book in the mail and called me wanting to know if I sent it. I told her “no,” and told her how thrilled I was to have gotten a copy of my own. That book has made a tremendous difference in her life and she is now obeying the commandments of God. She is campaigning to get the rest of her family to wake up to the truth about what God’s holy word says about the beast power. So I thank you for the book and for making it affordable. May God bless you immensely. In Him, R.M.

There's no greater work than that of a mother. But whoever we are, we can give people a glimpse of what Jesus is like.

Though I'm a 5th generation Seventh-day Adventist, it wasn't until I was 18 that I surrendered all to Jesus. Then I sat in church expecting the pastor to announce that whoever wants to learn how to get God's last message to the people, to meet him after church, and he would teach us how to do it. It never happened!

Vennita's Corner: "Remember you have a Heaven to gain, an open path to perdition to shun." 5T 365.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I found a book called "National Sunday Law" in the laundromat. Since I read it, my life has changed completely! I have been a very fervent Catholic. Now I have renounced the Catholic Church. I want to get many "National Sunday Law" books to give to others. God has really given you His inspiration to save souls! I will be giving God's truth to my fellow Catholics. Cordially R.R.

Hope: So then what?

Pastor Jan: Years went by. I became a physical therapist at Loma Linda where I met Sweet Vennita. Then we got married. I like her! Then God called me to the ministry and so I went back to school and majored in theology. The day came when I received a call to be a pastor in the Florida Conference. One night I went to bed praying that God would teach me how to teach many others the best ways to get His last message to the people. I didn't want anyone to look at me and say "It never happened."

The next morning, while I was still half asleep, the words intruded themselves into my mind, "Write a book. Make the three angels' messages so simple that a child can see it."

I prayed, "Lord, is this from You? Write a book? That's it. That's what I'll do! Thank you dear Father, in Jesus holy name, Amen."

Hope: Did you start writing the National Sunday Law book with an old computer?

Pastor Jan: No.

Charity: With a word processor?

Pastor Jan: No.

Faith: With an electric typewriter?

Pastor Jan: No.

Faith: Then what did you write the book with?

Pastor Jan: I wrote the National Sunday Law book with an old pencil. ☺

Faith: And what else?

Pastor Jan: An eraser.

Faith: And what else?

Pastor Jan: A plastic pencil sharpener that I got for 5¢.

Faith: And what else?

Pastor Jan: Notebook paper with lines on it. I wrote and copyrighted both the book and the cover with my name on both of them so that no hackers can ever fool any ignorant souls. No one can steal it.

Hope: How long did it take you?

Pastor Jan: It took four months. Then I gave a rinky dink print shop $1,000 of offering money that I had saved up, and they gave me 1,000 NSL preachers. One of the two churches where I pastored was in the little town of Homosassa. I wrote the book at home and typeset it in a Sabbath-school room. Each day when I turned off of busy route 19 on my way to the church, I noticed that a white bird, that looked like a dove, flew along beside me until I got to the church. When I pulled into the parking lot, the white bird landed in a tree, and then flew away. When I pulled out of the parking lot to go home to eat lunch, and again at the end of the day, there was the white bird flying beside me again until I got to busy route 19. One time I reached out my hand to see what it would do. It just moved over beyond my reach, and when I pulled my arm back, it flew back beside me again. It was a curiosity to me. I've never told people about this. Could it have been just a coincidence? Only Sweet Vennita has known. This has been my secret. And I've been afraid that if I told this to

Dear Sir,
I was given a copy of "National Sunday Law" which I read in one evening. I was more than impressed. I was convinced. I am a church pastor. Our church will now be honoring God's true Sabbath from now on. Thank you! Rev. R.M.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I've been a member of a church which is keeping Sunday. But through reading your book "National Sunday Law," I am now enlightened as to the will of God in keeping the Seventh day Sabbath holy. I highly thank God for giving me this wonderful message, and also for the way He has used you to publish this fascinating book. I am using it to study this wonderful, saving truth with many others. I'm so proud to be working for the soon returning of our Redeemer and King. I have a great desire to know more of the Seventh-day Adventist message. Your Sister, Lucy anyone, someone might get the impression that I think that there is something special about me. Paul said, “In my flesh dwelleth no good thing.” Romans 7:18. All you and I can say is, “God be merciful to me the sinner.”

I’ve already told you about the SDA publishing company that wanted to publish it, and why God impressed me to publish it myself. It was because I was told that the author must sign a contract giving the book to the publishing company. If I had done it, no one would have heard of it today. If I had done it, they would have owned it forever, with “all rights reserved” and I could do nothing. After about a year, most books go out of print. Then, the little NSL preachers would have been dead - to never rise again.

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Pastor Jan,

Greetings in the name of the most high God. Satan wants us sitting and wasting time because he knows that he has a very little time and he must move fast. It's a blessing from God to be part of His remnant church and I want to be a part of winning souls for Jesus. Keep doing what God has blessed you to do! I have passed out “National Sunday Law” books while traveling on the bus. I've put them on seats, doorsteps, doctors offices, coffee shops, sidewalks, and handed them to people. I call on all brothers and sisters to come together as a body of believers and get this “National Sunday Law” book out to the people! It's a privilege that we have God's end time message. I will continue to get God's three angels' messages to the people by the power of God! Sincerely, R.A.

Charity: But isn't it true that without a publishing company printing them, and advertizing them, and putting them in the book stores, almost no one will ever get them because people won't know that they exist?

Pastor Jan: Really? The Bible says, “Who hath despised the day of small things?” Zech. 4:10.

Faith: What does that mean?

Pastor Jan: By the end of that year 800 of the thousand had gone out by word-of-mouth. A year later it was 8,000. The next year it was 80,000. Since 1998, over a million have gone out every year until there are now 50.8 million NSL preachers in 76 languages. “To God be the glory!” The saints in the other countries get them out to the people there.

I ask them for no royalties. I ask them for nothing. Those who live for money now will die with their money. Those who live for ease and pleasure will end up with the mark of the beast. Those who live for Christ will live forever.

Faith: Would any fiends try to stop the little preachers from going out? Since our kind Father has used them to help many Roman Catholics and Protestants to become faithful Seventh-day Adventists, why haven't theologians at the Vatican found any errors?

Pastor Jan: The latest gossip that fiends have enjoyed is that Jan Marcussen is dead.

Hope: How does it feel to be dead? Do you like it?

Pastor Jan: Yes, I like it very much. Sweet Vennita and I learned that I'm dead just this afternoon while we were talking with her brother on the phone. He told us about it. If he hadn't told us, we might still not know that I'm dead.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

What is heaven like? What will it be like with us there? God’s prophet said -

“The peace and harmony of the heavenly courts will not be marred by the presence of one who is rough... Everything in heaven is noble and elevated. All seek the interest and happiness of others... It is the chief joy of all holy beings to witness the joy and happiness of those around them... [Through endless eternity no one will ever hear family members quacking at each other. Those poor people will have melted away forever. Zech 14:12. Enemies will not exist.]

Dear Sir,
I'm the pastor of the local Church of God in Christ here in California. Not long ago a man handed me a book entitled "National Sunday Law." He told me to read it and asked me to let him know what I thought of it when I saw him again. I've never seen him since. But I read the book and I now realize what the Holy Spirit wants me to do. I must give this message of God's Sabbath to my whole congregation! Please pray for me as I convey this most important message to my church. Thank you! Pastor U. Cooper
