What kind of wars will God allow? In this picture, you get a glimpse of the future star wars. The prophet said, “The Lord is removing His restrictions from the earth... Those who are without God’s protection will find no safety in any place... Human agents are being trained and are using their inventive power to put in operation the most powerful machinery to wound and to kill.” CCh 335,336.

This projectile weapons system also uses molten metal to penetrate enemy armoured vehicles, increasing lethality and effectiveness on the battlefield.

Microsoft won a multi-year contract to supply the U.S. Army with HoloLens devices. Since then the company has collected 80,000 hours of user data from soldiers.

The data has been used to improve the technology (known as Integrated Visual Augmentation System (IVAS)) in order to assist soldiers in combat like never before.

This augmented reality system can make it so that soldiers can see through smoke and see around corners without putting themselves in danger.

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the holy name of Jesus.

Faith: This Bible quote says, “Many shall run to and fro.” Daniel 12:4. “And at that time thy people shall be delivered.” Daniel 12:1. What time shall they be delivered? What shall they be delivered from? What does war have to do with it?

“In the last scenes of this earth’s history, war will rage.” Maranatha p. 174.

<https://coffeordie.com/sr-71-blackbird>

Brian Shul was one of the pilots who flew the SR-71 Blackbird spy plane.

He wrote - “Qaddafi had established a ‘line of death,’ a territorial marking across the Gulf of Sidra, swearing to shoot down any intruder that crossed the boundary. On the morning of April 15, I rocketed past that line at 2,125 mph. ☺ I was piloting the SR-71 spy plane, the world’s fastest jet, accompanied by a Marine Major (Walt), the aircraft’s reconnaissance systems officer (RSO). We had crossed into Libya, and were approaching our final turn over the bleak desert landscape, when Walt informed me that he was receiving missile launch signals.

“I quickly increased our speed, calculating the time it would take for the weapons, most likely SA-2 and SA-4 surface-to-air missiles, capable of Mach 5 - to reach our altitude. I estimated that we could beat the rocket-powered missiles to the turn, and we stayed our course, betting our lives on the plane’s performance.

“After several agonizingly long seconds, we made the turn and blasted toward the Mediterranean. ‘You might want to pull it back’ Walt suggested. It was then that I noticed that I still had the throttles full forward.

“The plane was flying a mile every 1.6 seconds, well above our Mach 3.2 limit. It was the fastest we would ever fly. I pulled the throttles to idle just south of Sicily, but though idling, we still overran the refueling tanker, awaiting us over Gibraltar...

“Aircraft such as the F-86 Sabre Jet, and the P-51 Mustang, are among the important machines that have flown our skies. But the SR-71, also known as the Blackbird, stands alone as a significant contributor to Cold War victory, as the fastest plane ever flown.

“After the Soviets shot down Gary Powers’ U-2 in 1960, Johnson began to develop an aircraft that would fly three miles higher, and five times faster than the U2 spy plane, and still be capable of photographing your license plate.

Its two engines can drive the Queen Mary. It’s going so fast that when it finishes making a simple U-turn, it has gone 100 miles. To jump-start it takes two 454 cubic inch Chevy engines. From 85,000 feet up, it can read your license plate.

The hypersonic missile! You already learned that the most highly technical military secrets of the U.S. were given to the Chinese by the U.S. president - the great Jesuit Georgetown University Bill Clinton. Now, many believe that China is using it and is planning to attack the U.S. Their military is piling up hundreds of these “hypersonic” missiles that can travel 1,500 miles at speeds far beyond the speed of sound. This has moved the American Air Force Research Laboratory to develop and test a hypersonic propulsion system with plans to create a missile capable of Mach 6 (4,000 mph). But the Chinese have been developing hundreds of these hypersonic weapons that can blast our forces in such great numbers - all at once - that our forces will be overwhelmed. So, this moved the U.S. military to work toward developing the most lethal and massive weapon which can burn through the titanium shell on hypersonic missiles - the 1 million watt Laser!

“However, flying at more than 2,000 mph would create intense heat on the aircraft’s skin. Lockheed engineers used a titanium alloy to construct more than 90 percent of the SR-71, creating special tools, and manufacturing procedures to hand-build each of the 40 planes. Special heat-resistant fuel, oil, and hydraulic fluids, that would function at 85,000 feet, and higher, also had to be developed.

“Walt would ride four feet behind me, working all the cameras, radios, and electronic jamming equipment. On a typical training mission, we would take off near Sacramento, refuel over Nevada, accelerate into Montana, obtain a high Mach speed over Colorado, turn right over New Mexico, speed across the Los Angeles Basin, run up the West Coast, turn right at Seattle, WA, then return to Beale in CA - all in two hours and forty minutes.

“The Blackbird always showed us something new, each aircraft possessing its own unique personality. In time, we realized we were flying a national treasure. Cars and people congregated near the airfield fences, because everyone wanted to see and hear the mighty SR-71. One moonless night, while flying a routine training mission over the Pacific, I wondered what the sky would look like from 84,000 feet if the cockpit lighting were dark. While heading home on a straight course, I slowly turned down all of the lighting, reducing the glare and revealing the night sky. Within seconds, I turned the lights back up, fearful that the jet would know, and somehow punish me. But my desire to see the sky overruled my caution, and I dimmed the lighting again. To my amazement, I saw a bright light outside my window. As my eyes adjusted to the view, I realized that the brilliance was the broad expanse of the Milky Way, now a gleaming stripe across the sky. [He didn't know that in the center of it is God's throne and heaven itself! I gave you the documentation for that in my January, 2011 letter.] Where dark spaces in the sky had usually existed, there were now dense clusters of sparkling stars. Shooting Stars flashed across the canvas every few seconds. It was like a fireworks display with no sound. I knew I had to get my eyes back on the instruments, and reluctantly, I brought my attention back inside. To my surprise, with the cockpit lighting still off, I could see every gauge, lit by starlight. In the plane's mirrors, I could see the eerie shine of my gold spacesuit, incandescently illuminated in a celestial glow. I stole one last glance out the window. Despite our speed, we seemed to be standing still before the heavens, humbled in the radiance of a much greater Power. For those few moments, I felt a part of something far more significant than anything we were doing in the plane. The sound of Walt's voice on the radio brought me back to the tasks at hand as I prepared for our descent.

"The SR-71 was an expensive aircraft to operate. The most significant cost was tanker support, and in 1990, confronted with budget cutbacks, the Air Force retired the SR-71. It had served six presidents, protecting America for a quarter of a century. Un-be-known to most of the country, the plane flew over North Vietnam, Red China, North Korea, the Middle East, South Africa, Cuba, Nicaragua, Iran, and Libya.

"On a weekly basis, the SR-71, kept watch over every Soviet Nuclear Submarine and Mobile Missile Site, and all of their troop movements. It was a key factor in winning the Cold War. I am proud to say I flew about 500 hours in this aircraft. I knew her well. She gave way to no plane, proudly dragging her Sonic Boom through enemy backyards with great impunity. She defeated every missile, outran every MiG, and always brought us home.

They're looking into making a 1,000,000 watt laser weapon that can shoot down hundreds or thousands of enemy guided missiles each going over 4,000 mph to hit our cities. A North Korean missile could reach the U.S. in 33 minutes if we fail to intercept it.

But such missiles are no match for a laser beam traveling at the speed of light. And more important than that - is this - "Four mighty angels hold back the powers of this earth till the servants of God are sealed in their foreheads. The nations of the world are eager for conflict, but they are held in check by the angels. When this restraining power is removed there will come a time of trouble and anguish. Deadly instruments of warfare will be invented. Vessels with their living cargo will be entombed in the great deep. All who have not the spirit of truth will unite under the leadership of satanic agencies, but they are to be kept under control till the time shall come for the great battle of Armageddon." 7BC 967.

"The Blackbird had outrun nearly 4,000 missiles, not once taking a scratch from enemy fire. On her final flight, the Blackbird, destined for the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum, sped from Los Angeles to Washington D.C. in 64 minutes. It averaged 2,145 mph, and set four speed records.

Pastor Jan: The blackbird went right into the heart of enemy territory to help save our nation. Thousands of enemy missiles were hurled at her - rising from their pads, and screaming up to the Blackbird's elevation - then accelerating to over 3,500 mph.

But before they got to the Blackbird at 85,000 feet, she had escaped. Dear Jesus came right into the heart of the enemy's camp - lying on some hay in a barn - with Satan, the cows, and evil angels looking at Him.

When Walt told the pilot of the deadly missile, he slammed the two throttles all the way forward. He pushed them as far as they would go! He pushed them "WIDE OPEN!" And the mighty engines gave it all they had! - - blasting forward with all their might! When dear Jesus saw the missiles of the devil's death, He pushed the throttles all the way forward! He blasted through the universe faster than the speed of light. To save you and me, He gave it all He had!

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I have read the book "National Sunday Law." I am reading it again. I will obey God's Sabbath, which has been so clearly illustrated in this book. I refuse to be a hypocrite like the preacher who talks about the 10 Commandments yet honors Sunday - the 1st day of the week instead of the 7th. I thank you from the depths of my heart. Blessed love and grace to you, Michael King hands so often reached out in blessing, nailed to the wooden bars; those feet so tireless on ministries of love, spiked to the tree; that royal head pierced by the crown of thorns; those quivering lips shaped to the cry of woe. Father's face—speaks to each child of humanity, declaring, It is for thee that the Son of God consents to bear this burden of guilt; for thee He spoils the domain of death, and opens the gates of Paradise. The throttles were wide open! He was the snake on the pole that Moses set up. And "SIN" hung there on the cross. And it died.]

Our kind Father wants "to make His children happy." Steps to Christ, p. 10. Very happy!!! ☺ Most people don't know how to receive such wonderful happiness. When they try to be happy, it just makes them more sad and empty! Why? How can everyone receive such peace and happiness that nothing can destroy? Here it is -

"There must be deep, faithful searching of heart. The light, frivolous spirit indulged by the majority of professed Christians must be put away... All who would have their names retained in the book of life, should now, in the few remaining days of their probation, afflict their souls before God by sorrow for sin, and true repentance." 4SP 314. This brings happiness! Why? Those who seek for happiness will never find it. But those who work with Jesus to bless others, will find that they are happy.

"In silence the beholders watched for the end of the fearful scene. The sun shone forth; but the cross was still enveloped in darkness... Suddenly the gloom lifted from the cross, and in clear, trumpetlike tones, that seemed to resound throughout creation, Jesus cried, 'It is finished.' 'Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit.' A light encircled the cross, and the face of the Saviour shone with a glory like the sun. He then bowed His head upon His breast, and died.

"Amid the awful darkness, apparently forsaken of God, Christ had drained the last dregs in the cup of human woe... He was acquainted with the character of His Father; He understood His justice, His mercy, and His great love. By faith He rested in Him whom it had ever been His joy to obey. And as in submission He committed Himself to God, the sense of the loss of His Father's favor was withdrawn. By faith, Christ was victor. [Praise God!]

Dear Pastor Jan,

God has been putting information in my path about the New World Order. Having prayed for wisdom to understand things relating to Bible prophecy, I was amazed when I found a copy of the book National Sunday Law. God is bringing His remnant together and equipping them for the final chapter of His plan! It is wonderful to have found in the SDA church such an astute knowledge of Scripture and respect for prophecy as is in National Sunday Law. May God bless you as you continue your very important ministry. Sincerely, J.L. Canada breath gazed upon the Saviour. Again darkness settled upon the earth, and a hoarse rumbling, like heavy thunder, was heard. There was a violent earthquake. The people were shaken together in heaps. The wildest confusion and consternation ensued. In the surrounding mountains, rocks were rent asunder, and went crashing down into the plains. Sepulchres were broken open, and the dead were cast out of their tombs. Creation seemed to be shivering to atoms. Priests, rulers, soldiers, executioners, and people, mute with terror, lay prostrate upon the ground.

“When the loud cry, ‘It is finished,’ came from the lips of Christ, the priests were officiating in the temple. It was the hour of the evening sacrifice. The lamb representing Christ had been brought to be slain. Clothed in his significant and beautiful dress, the priest stood with lifted knife, as did Abraham when he was about to slay his son. With intense interest the people were looking on. But the earth trembles and quakes;

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy - a life of undimmed happiness - awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.

“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

for the Lord Himself draws near. With a rending noise the inner veil of the temple is torn from top to bottom by an unseen hand, throwing open to the gaze of the multitude a place once filled with the presence of God.

In this place the Shekinah had dwelt. Here God had manifested His glory above the mercy seat. No one but the high priest ever lifted the veil separating this apartment from the rest of the temple. He entered in once a year to make an atonement for the sins of the people. But lo, this veil is rent in twain. The most holy place of the earthly sanctuary is no longer sacred.

“All is terror and confusion. The priest is about to slay the victim; but the knife drops from his nerveless hand, and the lamb escapes. Type has met antitype in the death of God's Son. [Wonderful Jesus!] The great sacrifice has been made. [The throttles of God's love are pushed wide open!] The way into the holiest is laid open. A new and living way is prepared for all... It was as if a living voice had spoken to the worshipers: There is now an end to all sacrifices and offerings for sin. The Son of God is come according to His word, ‘Lo, I come (in the volume of the Book it is written of Me,) to do Thy will, O God.’ ‘By His own blood’ He entereth ‘in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.’ Heb.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
My husband found a book entitled “National Sunday Law.” I am a new believer and am learning so fast! Now I know that Sunday is not God's holy Sabbath of the Bible. And I know that Rome is the power that changed it to Sunday. After reading your book, I am shocked. We are so easily deceived by the great deceiver! This burden has been on my heart for some time and our family no longer recognizes Sunday and the other papal festivities. We left our Sunday church. Thank you for making God's truth available to the people!

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I don't know if you are a man or a woman, but it doesn't matter. I thank you with my heart for being open to our Lord in writing the book “National Sunday Law.” Something awesome happened. I was sitting at my table reading God's word and I got to Isaiah 58:11-14, concerning those who uphold God's Sabbath being the “repairers of the breach.” I didn't understand it until I found your book “National Sunday Law” on my car in a parking lot. Praise God! Now I see that repairing the breach is what you are doing. The book “National Sunday Law is repairing the breach made in God's broken law by repairing and restoring God's Sabbath in the minds of the people. After this, I started to notice that everything seemed wrong in my Sunday church. I heard deep down within me the word, “Separate.” “Separate from the Sunday church.” I told some of the people there about God's Bible Sabbath, and they looked at me like I was crazy. I realized that sometimes you have to stand alone for God. [But you're never really alone.] I would like to have several truckloads of your books to give to others! In Jesus' name, Rita W.
