Faith: This Bible verse says, “And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints.” Rev. 17:4,5.

Why is the name “MYSTERY” on her forehead? And how is this whore church the “mother” of abominations and also the “mother” of the churches? And why does she love to drink the blood of God’s people? And how will it all affect us?

Dear SDA friends around the world; Greetings in the holy

Young Robert meets the pope. Together they wear purple and scarlet. Why? “The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour... having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.” Rev. 17:24,15.

According to the tradition of the papal church, the first point concerning the succession of the popes is this - "And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT." Rev. 17:5. The word "Babylon" means confusion. This Bible verse concerning the popes reveals that the office of the popes was filled with confusion and mystery. How so? According to Roman Catholic tradition, the second pope - after the deaths of Peter and Paul - was Linus. But church tradition also says that it was Christopher. But of Christopher, church tradition says that he was removed from the list because of the way that he got to be pope - [as a "monster too vile to be tolerated." GC 59, 60] He was considered as pope #2 for a time until He was replaced by Stephen II because of the monstrous corruption of Christopher. There's so much confusion and mystery as to who the first demon pope was, that even the Vatican can't deny it. Concerning this smiling pope system, God's prophet said -

"The prince of darkness wrought with the leaders of the papal hierarchy. In their secret councils Satan and his angels controlled the minds of evil men, while unseen in the midst stood an angel of God, taking the fearful record of their iniquitous decrees and writing the history of deeds too horrible to appear to human eyes. 'Babylon the great' was 'drunken with the blood of the saints.' The mangled forms of millions of martyrs cried to God for vengeance upon that apostate power.

Here's Pope Francis ordaining Robert Prevost as a cardinal {now Pope XIV}. This would pave the way for Robert to be the next pope. Concerning Pope Francis, he said earlier, "I'm going to die." He went as far as he was able in Rome's ecumenical unity movement, and now, Robert will take it farther. In order to work with Protestants toward enforcing the mark of the beast at the Sunday law, Rome must trick the Protestants into uniting with her. God's prophet describes it thus - "The Protestant churches are in great darkness, or they would discern the signs of the times. The Roman Church is... employing every device to extend her influence and increase her power in preparation for a fierce and determined conflict to regain control of the world, to re-establish persecution, and to undo all that Protestantism has done. Catholicism is gaining ground upon every side." GC 565, 566.

"When the United States rules the world, the Catholic Church will rule the world." Archbishop Quigley, "The Chicago Tribune," 1903.

Elon Musk is the richest man in the world. The other day he said, "America is the new Rome."

"Poperly had become the world's despot. Kings and emperors bowed to the decrees of the Roman pontiff. The destinies of men, both for time and for eternity, seemed under his control. For hundreds of years the doctrines of Rome had been extensively and implicitly received, its rites reverently performed, its festivals generally observed...

"But 'the noon of the papacy was the midnight of the world.' - J. A. Wylie, The History of Protestantism, b. 1, ch. 4. The Holy Scriptures were almost unknown, not only to the people, but to the priests. Like the Pharisees of old, the papal leaders hated the light which would reveal their sins. God's law, the standard of righteousness, having been removed, they exercised power without limit, and practiced vice without restraint. Fraud, avarice, and profligacy prevailed. Men shrank from no crime by which they could gain wealth or position. The palaces of popes and prelates were scenes of the vilest debauchery. Some of the reigning pontiffs were guilty of crimes so revolting that secular rulers endeavored to depose these dignitaries of the church as monsters too vile to be tolerated." GC 59,60. Concerning this fearful time, the Bible says -

"Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God... And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness." II Thess. 2:3-12.

"The May 26 issue of TIME reveals some things about the new pope -

1 - He was born in Chicago. 2 - According to Alberto Rivera, the cardinals were told what the new pope was expected to accomplish. Those cardinals who did not agree 100% would "not survive." If the new pope failed in his duty, he too, sooner or later, would not survive. Maybe

Pope Leo XIV will be the first American to lead the Roman Catholic Church and its 1.4 billion followers that's why Pope Francis said, "I'm going to die." 3 - Pope XIV is the first pope from the U.S. Now, Rome has a special interest in the U.S. - for, this new American pope must maneuver this Protestant nation as well as all the churches, to unite with Rome so the mark of the beast can move toward enforcement. 4 - Like Martin Luther, the new pope belongs to the order of the Augustinians. It would be fitting for the Augustinian whom God used to start the Protestant Reformation, to be opposed by an Augustinian who would help to end it. 5 - The article says, "As an American, he is uniquely poised to balance the demands of a global church against the worst impulses of an isolationist America." According to the Catholic book, Making America Catholic, the new pope is to help make America Catholic enough to be able to enforce her deadly "mark." 6 - God's prophet said, "The people need to be aroused to resist the advances of this most dangerous foe to civil and religious liberty." GC 565.

Dear Sir,
I found the book "National Sunday Law" one of the best books I have ever read! I was trying to get my life right with God, and He brought me to this book! The information in "National Sunday Law" has changed my life! I want to give these books to those who are looking for a better life! Thank you! C.L.

"Jesus wept..." With prophetic eye Christ saw the enmity of the Pharisees and the Sadducees. He knew that they were premeditating His death. He knew that some of those now apparently so sympathetic would soon close against themselves the door of hope and the gates of the city of God. A scene was about to take place, in His humiliation and crucifixion, that would result in the destruction of Jerusalem, and at that time none would make lamentation for the dead. The retribution that was coming upon Jerusalem was plainly portrayed before Him. He saw Jerusalem compassed by the Roman legions. He knew that many now weeping for Lazarus would die in the siege of the city, and in their death there would be no hope.

"It was not only because of the scene before Him that Christ wept. The weight of the grief of ages was upon Him. He saw the terrible effects of the transgression of God's law. He saw that in the history of the world, beginning with the death of Abel, the conflict between good and evil had been unceasing. Looking down the years to come, He saw the suffering and sorrow, tears and death, that were to be the lot of men. His heart was pierced with the pain of the human family of all ages and in all lands. The woes of the sinful race were heavy upon His soul, and the fountain of His tears was broken up as He longed to relieve all their distress.

"Jesus therefore again groaning in Himself cometh to the grave.' Lazarus had been laid in a cave in a rock, and a massive stone had been placed before the entrance. 'Take ye away the stone,' Christ said. Thinking that He only wished to look upon the dead, Martha objected, saying that the body had been buried four days, and corruption had already begun its work. This statement, made before the raising of Lazarus, left no room for Christ's enemies to say that a deception had been practiced...

"When the Lord is about to do a work, Satan moves upon someone to object. [Remember that statement. It means that when you are going to reach people with God's 3 angels' messages, if you tell someone what you are about to do, more often than not, someone will object, and will be so "concerned" for the sake of mankind, and will give a loving, devilish reason why you should not do it. This has been happening by secret church members. This type of thing is the reason

Dear Sir;
I was raised as a Roman Catholic. I've read "National Sunday Law" and I fell in love with the truth within its pages. The Lord is truly wonderful! He sent His angels to open my eyes to the truth. why Jesus has not yet come. God has already given permission and has told us to sweetly do it! So if you “do it” without asking permission from the devil or the antichrist, Satan will be disappointed and will not be able to do the evil that he was hoping to do.] ‘Take ye away the stone,’

Christ said. As far as possible, prepare the way for My work. But Martha’s positive and ambitious nature asserted itself. She was unwilling that the decomposing body should be brought to view. The human heart is slow to understand Christ’s words, and Martha’s faith had not grasped the true meaning of His promise.

“Christ reproved Martha, but His words were spoken with the utmost gentleness. ‘Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?’ Why should you doubt in regard to My power? Why reason in opposition to My requirements? You have My word.

If you will believe, you shall see the glory of God. Natural impossibilities cannot prevent the work of the Omnipotent One. [Praise God!] Skepticism and unbelief are not humility. Implicit belief in Christ’s word is true humility, true self-surrender.

“‘Take ye away the stone.’ Christ could have commanded the stone to remove, and it would have obeyed His voice. He could have bidden the angels who were close by His side to do this. At His bidding, invisible hands would have removed the stone. But it was to be taken away by human hands. Thus Christ would show that humanity is to co-operate with divinity. What human power can do divine power is not summoned to do. God does not dispense with man’s aid. He strengthens him, co-operating with him as he uses the powers and capabilities given him.

“The command is obeyed. The stone is rolled away. Everything is done openly and deliberately. All are given a chance to see that no deception is practiced. There lies the body of Lazarus in its rocky grave, cold and silent in death. The cries of the mourners are hushed. Surprised and expectant, the company stand around the sepulcher, waiting to see what is to follow.

“Calmly Christ stands before the tomb. A sacred solemnity rests upon all present. [God is there!] Christ steps closer to the sepulcher. Lifting His eyes to heaven, He says, ‘Father, I thank Thee that Thou hast heard Me.’ Not long before this, Christ’s enemies had accused Him of blasphemy, and had taken up stones to cast at Him because He claimed to be the Son of God. They accused Him of performing miracles by the power of Satan. But here Christ claims God as His Father, and with perfect confidence declares that He is the Son of God.

“In all that He did, Christ was co-operating with His Father... It was by faith and prayer that He wrought His miracles... ‘Father,’ He said, ‘I thank Thee that Thou hast heard Me. And I knew that Thou hearest Me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that Thou hast sent Me.’ Here the disciples and the people were to be given the most convincing evidence in regard to the relationship existing between Christ and God...

“And when He thus had spoken, He cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.’ His voice, clear and penetrating, pierces the ear of the dead. As He speaks, divinity flashes through humanity. [My Lord and my God!] In His face,

Dear Pastor Jan,

I was raised in a Roman Catholic - alcoholic home; with drunken priests, and abusive nuns and family. I couldn't find my way out of a tortured conscience. After quitting one addiction, another would take hold of me. I was searching for the truth and relief from the weight and guilt of sin. Then, after calling out for God to please show Himself, I was led to our local thrift shop. After rooting through some junk, I found a book. It felt electrified in my hands. I could feel the electricity. I knew that this book was the reason I was led to the thrift shop. I couldn't put it down! I devoured it like a starving person devours food. I told Jesus that I would start keeping His Sabbath if He would deliver me from my addictions. I started keeping His Sabbath holy, and within three weeks I was free of all addictions! I left AA, and all Roman Catholic programs. I was baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist. I am very happy!

Even though I was shocked to find that most SDA church members are food addicts, and are no different from worldly people; and that almost no one accepts health reform, or dress reform; and that they strongly warn against quoting from the Spirit of Prophecy; and though they try to stop anyone from reaching the people with the very 3 angels' messages that God used to save me; yet, all of this doesn't stop me from doing God's work. I give out this book National Sunday Law, and I will give out these books by the hundreds wherever I go. I leave them at supermarkets, doctor's offices, hospitals, benches, health clubs, diners, in rest rooms under the toilet where people don't have anything to do except to read it. I get up early to pray. I'm on fire for God to get His saving message out so He can save precious souls and take us home. Today I got your newsletter. Praise God! It was an answer to my prayer. It was so encouraging! I am willing to put my money on the altar for God, and keep just enough to live on. I have many obstacles, but our strong God is able to knock them down! All I know is that I want to reach souls. I want to meet people who actually do what God says. Thank you for helping me. May God bless you! S.N.

which is lighted up by the glory of God, the people see the assurance of His power. Every eye is fastened on the entrance to the cave. Every ear is bent to catch the slightest sound. With intense and painful interest all wait for the test of Christ's divinity, the evidence that is to substantiate His claim to be the Son of God, or to extinguish the hope forever.

“There is a stir in the silent tomb, and he who was dead stands at the door of the sepulcher. His movements are impeded by the graveclothes in which he was laid away, and Christ says to the astonished spectators, ‘Loose him, and let him go.’ Again they are shown that the human worker is to co-operate with God. Humanity is to work for humanity. Lazarus is set free, and stands before the company, not as one emaciated from disease, and with feeble, tottering limbs, but as a man in the prime of life, and in the vigor of a noble manhood. His eyes beam with intelligence and with love for his Saviour. He casts himself in adoration at the feet of Jesus.

“The beholders are at first speechless with amazement. Then there follows an inexpressible scene of rejoicing and thanksgiving. The sisters receive their brother back to life as the gift of God, and with joyful tears they brokenly express their thanks to the Saviour. But while brother, sisters, and friends are rejoicing in this reunion, Jesus withdraws from the scene. When they look for the Life-giver, He is not to be found.” DA 534-536. Wonderful Jesus!

“The time has now come when the rebellion is to be finally defeated and the history and character of Satan disclosed. In his last great effort to dethrone Christ, destroy His people, and take possession of the City of God, the archdeceiver has been fully unmasked. Those who have united with him see the total failure of his cause. Christ's followers and the loyal angels behold the full extent of his machinations against the government of God. He is the object of universal abhorrence.

“Satan sees that his voluntary rebellion has unfitted him for heaven. He has trained his powers to war against God; the purity, peace, and harmony of heaven would be to him supreme torture. His accusations against the mercy and justice of God are now silenced. The reproach which he has endeavored to cast upon Jehovah rests wholly upon himself. And now Satan bows down and confesses the justice of his sentence. [Praise God!]

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy - a life of undimmed happiness - awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.
“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I decided to take your book apart verse by verse and prove that you are wrong. All my life I have been a devout Catholic. I compared your book with what is written in the Bible. After months of studying and looking for faults and false statements in your book and newsletters, I was not able to find any. I came to the conclusion that your book “National Sunday Law” and newsletters are truly inspired by the Holy word of God. The Catholic church contends that SDAs are just ignorant to the fact of Catholic views and that I should continue in my Catholic faith. Well, I don't want to continue in my Catholic faith! I want to know and obey the truth of God, and live my faith through Jesus Christ! I have made my decision to live for Jesus and not for the Catholic church! I plan to become a Seventh-day Adventist and be on the right path towards heaven. Please keep me in your prayers. Sincerely, Gil
