Hope: Is this the new pastor? What will people be doing “as it was in the days of Noah?” Will most pastors and church members choose the mark of the beast? Are they moving that direction?

In the end of the world, the masses - seeking all the fun they can get - crowd in to see 36,000 horsepower monsters from hell. What else are they doing?

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The Bible verse says, “Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.” How is it happening? How will it lead to the great fulfillment of prophecy? And how will it all affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

In the year 1900, people had never heard of radios, movies, or crossword puzzles. There were no tractors, trucks, or tanks. There were no amplifiers or electronics. There was no such thing as propaganda, cafeterias, or vaccinations. There were no aviators, realtors, or hijackers. There was no income tax, no primaries, and no city managers. There were no Bolchevists, fascists, or feminists. They had never seen a neon light or heard of a schizophrenic or a psychotic. They didn't have neuroses or complexes. They didn't wear polyester or synthetics of any kind. They had never heard of sunglasses, lipstick, or bras. No one used pesticides, or fluorides. West of the Mississippi, they had never seen a street light, or an indoor toilet.

But on the banks of Niagara Falls, a great hydroelectric generator was being built that would turn nearby Buffalo into a city of lights. Tons of steel began to pour out of mills in Ohio and Pennsylvania.- paving the way for skyscrapers of unheard of height.

Meanwhile, Thomas Edison was making inventions that amazed the public - the electric light, a type of television, the record player, moving pictures, and many others. In 1900 the whole country had less than 10 miles of paved roads, and there were only about 8,000 cars. By 1910, there were over 200,000 cars in the nation.

In the middle of the 19th century, a new wave of immigrants came from Europe - mainly Roman Catholics. Their priests had instructed them to settle in the cities and not in the country. In a minute, you'll see why. The Vatican was already preparing for her future "strike" {GC 581} to control the United States, and then, the world. {This shocking goal is spelled out in GC 565,566.} In a meeting of the Catholic priests and bishops, the papal leader said -

"We are determined to take possession of the United States and rule them; but we cannot do that without acting secretly. What does a skillful general do when he wants to conquer a country? Does he scatter his soldiers over the farmlands, and plough the fields? No! he marches to the conquest of the rich and powerful cities. [Pastor Jan: Now you know why the "new wave" of Catholic immigrants settled in the cities. Their offspring are still there, controlling them. They not only control cities, but the leaders of the entire nation are now Roman Catholics, and they are determined to keep it that way until the Mark of the Beast can be enforced by law.] Silently and patiently, we must mass our Roman Catholics in the great cities, remembering that the vote of a poor journeyman, though he be covered with rags, has as much weight in the scale of power as the millionaire Astor, and that if we have two votes against his one, he will become as powerless as an oyster. Let us then multiply our votes; let us call our poor but faithful Catholics from every corner of the world, and gather them into the very hearts of Washington, New York, Boston, Chicago, Buffalo, Albany, Cincinnati, San Francisco, etc. Under the shadows of their great cities, the Americans consider themselves an unconquerable race. Let no one awake those sleeping lions. How sad will their awakening be, when, with our out-numbering votes, we will turn the Americans forever from the highest positions of power! [That "sad awakening" started to dawn upon the citizens of the land when they woke up Wednesday morning, November 4.]

"What will those sons and daughters of the fanatical Pilgrim Fathers say, when not a single judge, Senator, or member of Congress will be chosen, if he be not submitted to our holy father the Pope! What a sad figure those Protestants will cut when we will not only elect the President, but command the armies, navies, and hold the keys of the public treasury? It will then be time for our faithful people to become the judges and governors of the land. [Pastor Jan: In the largest states and cities of the nation - they've done it!]

"Then yes! then, we will rule the United States, and lay them at the feet of the Vicar of Jesus Christ, that he may put an end to their liberty of conscience, which is an insult to God and man!

Here at the Capitol we see the papal controlled Congressman with some of his friends celebrating the wicked "Equality Act" which has now been passed by the blue Congress, to be passed by the blue Senate, to be signed into law by Roman Catholic ██████████

Faith: What's the danger of it? How will it affect you and me? How will it lead to the mark of the beast?

Pastor Jan: In a minute, you'll get a hint.

Here is the leader of the beast which comes up out of the sea, and the leader of the beast which comes up out of the earth {Rev. 13}. Since January 20, they work together in harmony to do to America what the Roman Catholic priest reveals in this letter.

Hope: Is the lesser laying the United States at the feet of the greater - as a free gift? Which one is the greater? Which one is the lesser?

Dear Jan Marcussen,

My sincere gratitude goes out to the Almighty God for his extreme care. What a great day it was when I received the book "National Sunday Law!" That book broadened my spirituality to such an extent that I was soon baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist. I have accepted the Almighty to take total possession of my life! I'm sure that this good news gives you the same joy that it gives me!

Yours faithfully, Joel T.

“Those who, after a second admonition, remain obstinate in their errors, must be delivered to the secular power to be exterminated.” 50 Years in the Church of Rome, chapter 59. That is seen in Rev. 13:15.

In chapter one of Charles Chiniquy’s book, 50 Years in the Church of Rome, he reveals how dear Jesus prepared him for the horrors of his future as a Catholic priest.

Priest Chiniquy: After the ABC’s, the Bible was the first book in which I was taught to read. My mother selected the chapters which she considered the most interesting for me; and I read them every day with the greatest attention and pleasure. When eight or nine years of age, I had learned by heart the history of the creation; and fall of man; the deluge; the life of Jesus, and many chapters.

How many delicious hours I have spent by my mother’s side, in reading to her the sublime pages of the divine book. One day, while I was reading aloud the history of the sufferings of our Saviour, my young heart was so much impressed that I could hardly enunciate the words, and my voice trembled. My mother, perceiving my emotion, tried to say something, but her voice was suffocated by her sobs. She leaned her head on my forehead, and I felt two streams of tears falling from her eyes on my cheeks. I could not contain myself any longer. I wept also; and my tears were mixed with hers. I threw myself into my dear mother’s arms. No human words can express what was felt in her soul and in mine in that most blessed hour! No! I will never forget that solemn hour, when my mother’s heart was perfectly

This sign is seen on page 27 of the April 19 issue of The New American. Did you think that you would live long enough to see demons and law-making sex fiends in Congress - as in the days of Lot - allowing everyone to enjoy Sodom and Baal Peor in restrooms? Since the sign says, “anyone can use this restroom,” maybe the “Equality Act” could also allow - “Since all are equal under the Equality Act, there is no limit to the number of beings who can occupy each stall and sit together on each toilet seat.”

“In the last days perilous times shall come... For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts... But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.” II Tim. 3:1-13.

“Be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh.” Matt. 24:44.

blended with mine at the feet of our dying Saviour. There was a real perfume from heaven in my mother’s tears which were flowing on me. It seemed that there was a celestial harmony in the sound of her voice and in her sobs. My heart leaps with joy every time I think of it.”

Pastor Jan: Oh that mothers or fathers would have their sons and daughters read the Bible to them here in the end of the world! While young friends are leading many SDA children toward hell - with no thoughts or words about Jesus - those who follow the example of Charles and his dear mother are led to the gates of heaven! They would grow to love the divine music in the words of dear Jesus, especially in the KJV Protestant Bible, and it would mean eternal life to them instead of eternal death.

Dear Pastor Marcussen, I’ve read your book “National Sunday Law,” and all I can say is “All glory and praise to God for inspiring you with the Holy Spirit to reveal His truths to all the nations across our planet! I was so shocked when I realized that Satan had kept my eyes closed through all these years! My heart is crying to God to bless your work so that all the false teachings and idolatry in churches may be revealed to others, and Jesus can save them. I want more “National Sunday Law” books to spread to many people here! Your brother in Christ, Hilton Priest Chiniquy tells about the day when the short and fat priest came to their home and told his father and mother that - according to the Council of Trent - he came to take their Bible and burn it. He told them that it was against the law for their child to read the Bible. And Charles described his father pacing back and forth in the room, until finally, with the voice of a king, the father asked the wicked priest if he could see the door through which he had entered their home. The priest, trembling with fear, said, “Yes.” As the roar of a lion of the tribe of Judah, the father tells the poor man to “go back through it, and be gone!”

The trembling fiend rushed out, and everyone was happy, and praised our kind Father in heaven. “Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.”

Faith: We’ve already learned that in the Vatican are seen - 1) 666, 2) sex, and 3) snakes. Does this “Equality Act” have any of those things?

Dear Pastor Jan,

When I told my friend Tony about Jesus and about His seventh-day Sabbath, he just laughed at me and made fun of God’s Sabbath. Years went by. Then one day Tony received the book “National Sunday Law” in his mail box. He asked if I had sent it, and I said, “No.” He read the whole book! And he learned about God’s love, His law, and His Sabbath. He learned about the mark of the beast, and he accepted God’s truth and was soon baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist. Now Tony is also spreading God’s truth in “National Sunday Law” to many people! Praise God! Allen B. California

Pastor Jan: 1) Concerning the wicked Equality Act, The New American says, "It is anti-religion, anti-woman, and anti-child." 2) "If it is signed into law, the federal mandate will force women to allow men into their bathrooms, shelters, and likely into their dorms." 3) Christian charities could be forced to hand little children over to be raised by sex fiends, lesbians, gays, bi-sexuals, transgenders, queers, pan-sexuals, ["dogs, sorcerers, whoremongers, murderers, idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie." Rev. 22:15.] 4) The article reveals that Christian hospitals could be required to perform abortions and sex changes - or be forced to close down. 5) "This barely begins to scratch the surface of the destructive mischief this Equality Act legislation could cause." 6) The Equality Act "represents a deadly blow... aimed at the very heart of American society." 7) The papacy can be proud of the Equality Act as it shows her "silent but rapid progress" in the destruction of society since the Vatican II Council ended, and since January 20. That such a monster could actually be passed by the papal controlled blue Congress shows the advanced intelligence of both law-makers and the masses, and the level of success they have finally achieved in becoming controlled by demons. Under the Equality Act, the article reveals that any man in women's prisons, women's dorms, women's shelters, etc. could gain access to women in their beds simply by saying that he is a woman. When the woman sees the demon possessed man slowly and gently crawling under the covers with her in the darkness, she will be comforted when he tells her that two people together under the covers have more heat than just one.

Vennita's Corner: "Angels have far more to do with the human family than many suppose." 7BC 922

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

My brother gave me your book "National Sunday Law." I couldn't stop reading it! The facts you gave really opened my eyes to the truth! I was really shocked to learn that Rome was inspired by Satan to change God's Sabbath to Sunday. I asked my family what they thought about it. One of them accepted God's Sabbath. I've made my choice to be on the Lord's side and keep His Bible Sabbath no matter what my family does. I'm not afraid to die for the Lord. I want to commend you on your book. Though I'm only 14 years old, you helped me to understand the book of Revelation. You really changed my way of seeing things! I'm sure that God will bless you. Amen.

The prophet of God cries out - "And now the last night of Sodom was approaching. Already the clouds of vengeance cast their shadows over the devoted city. But men perceived it not. While angels drew near on their mission of destruction, men were dreaming of prosperity and pleasure. The last day was like every other that had come and gone. Evening fell upon a scene of loveliness and security. The coolness of eventide had called forth the inhabitants of the city, and the pleasure seeking throngs were passing to and fro, intent upon the enjoyment of the hour.

"In the twilight two strangers drew near to the city gate. They were apparently travelers coming in to tarry for the night. None could discern in those humble wayfarers the mighty heralds of divine judgment, and little dreamed the gay, careless multitude that in their treatment of these heavenly messengers that very night they would reach the climax of the guilt which doomed their proud city...

"The angels revealed to Lot the object of their mission: 'We will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the Lord; and the Lord hath sent us to destroy it.' The strangers whom Lot had endeavored to protect, now promised to protect him, and to save also all the members of his family who would flee with him from the wicked city. The mob had wearied themselves out and departed, and Lot went out to warn his children. He repeated the words of the angels, 'Up, get you out of this place; for the Lord will destroy this city.' But he seemed to them as one that mocked. They laughed at what they called his superstitious fears. His daughters were influenced by their husbands. They were well enough off where they were. They could see no evidence of danger. Everything was just as it had been. They had great possessions, and they could not believe it possible that beautiful Sodom would be destroyed.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I received your book "National Sunday Law" in the mail. Who sent it to me, I have no idea. I am in awe of what you have written. You have definitely opened my eyes!

Dear Pastor Jan,

We have been sending out NSL books to a city near where we live. A lady called on the phone after receiving the book, and was very excited. She said that she got her Bible out and is comparing everything in the NSL book with her Bible. She was so exited and said, "Everything here is straight from the Bible." She thanked me for sending the book and said that everyone in her area had also received a book and she was going to be discussing what she was learning with her friends. Sincerely,
E.S. Oregon

"Lot returned sorrowfully to his home and told the story of his failure. Then the angels bade him arise and take his wife and the two daughters who were yet in his house and leave the city. But Lot delayed... He had no true conception of the debasing and abominable iniquity practiced in that vile city. [Neither do we!] He did not realize the terrible necessity for God's judgments to put a check on sin... The thought of leaving those whom he held dearest on earth seemed more than he could bear. It was hard to forsake his luxurious home and all the wealth acquired by the labors of his whole life, to go forth a destitute wanderer. [It will be the same with most church members when the mark of the beast is enforced by the Sunday law. To keep their homes, jobs, and comforts, they will choose that dreaded mark - which will bring to them the seven last plagues and the lake of fire.] Stupefied with sorrow, he lingered, loath to depart. But for the angels of God, they would all have perished... The heavenly messengers took him and his wife and daughters by the hand and led them out of the city...

“The bright rays of the morning seemed to speak only prosperity and peace to the cities of the plain. The stir of active life began in the streets; men were going their various ways, intent on the business or the pleasures of the day. The sons-in-law of Lot were making merry at the fears and warnings of the weak-minded old man. Suddenly... as would be a thunder peal from an unclouded sky, the TEMPEST

BROKE. The Lord rained brimstone and fire out of heaven upon the cities... and the gay, pleasure-seeking throngs ... were all consumed. The smoke of the conflagration went up like the smoke of a great furnace. And the fair vale of Siddim became a desolation, a place never to be inhabited—a witness to all generations of the certainty of God’s judgments upon transgression.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
Greetings! When I read “National Sunday Law,” I grasped the meaning of it right away. My Catholic neighbor also received one. He brought up these issues with his priest, who didn’t give him good answers. Then, he and I talked about the teachings in the book, and researched the scriptures. Knowing that the Catholic Church is a lie, my neighbor became angry with himself for believing a lie all his life. God has used you to bring another soul to the light of God. Thank you. Sincerely, A.H.

Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.’ Luke 21:34-36...

“Like the dwellers in the vale of Siddim, the people are dreaming of prosperity and peace. ‘Escape for thy life,’ is the warning from the angels of God; but other voices are heard saying, ‘Be not excited; there is no cause for alarm.’ The multitudes cry, ‘Peace and safety,’ while Heaven declares that swift destruction is about to come upon the transgressor. On the night prior to their destruction,

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,
I was born a Roman Catholic, and have been going to church all my life. I’ve heard sermons on the book of Revelation, but never has anything touched my heart like the book “National Sunday Law!” I’m hungry for God’s truth! God bless you and your ministry. Your brother in Christ, M.A.

the cities of the plain rioted in pleasure and derided the fears and warnings of the messenger of God; but those scoffers perished in the flames; that very night the door of mercy was forever closed to the wicked, careless inhabitants of Sodom. God will not always be mocked; He will not long be trifled with. ‘Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and He shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.’ Isa. 13:9. The great mass of the world will reject God’s mercy, and will be overwhelmed in swift and

“The flames that consumed the cities of the plain shed their warning light down even to our time. We are taught the fearful and solemn lesson that while God’s mercy bears long with the transgressor, there is a limit beyond which men may not go on in sin. When that limit is reached, then the offers of mercy are withdrawn, and the ministration of judgment begins... Soon the judgments of God are to be poured out, and sin and sinners are to be consumed...

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I was given the book “National Sunday Law” by a friend. After I read it, I gave it to another friend who is a strong Catholic. After he read it, he gave it to other members of his Catholic family. I have given these books to others as well. Surely you are helping to get God’s last message to many people! Through this book, I can spread the three angels’ messages to many homes. May God be with you! Yours in Christ, Z.K

1) Here in the end of the world, will the devil stop God's work with calamities? Never! Even though the fiend may enjoy having UPS raise their rates from charging $13 a box, to charging about $26 a box to send the NSL preachers to you, yet, I still like the simplicity of "free shipping." So I told all the saints that in my letter to you I am going to again say "Free shipping!" The devil used the virus and the papacy to attack the nation, bringing twists and turns to get the prices of most everything raised, so I told the saints that I would raise the suggested donation to keep from sinking, but that I would also restore "free shipping." So the new suggested donation for 1000 little NSL preachers for soul-winning is 64¢ each with free shipping! And the suggested donation for a box of 100 for soul-winning is 74¢ each - with free shipping.

A good friend with a printing press looked into printing the books himself. But he said that the cheapest he could print each one is $1.50 per book. People can't print the books for as little as 74¢ or 64¢ each, and on top of that, pay $26 per box to send them to you with free shipping - because we have as many as 200,000 up to one million printed at a time. Our kind Father gets all the praise. He knows that His last message must reach the dear people, and dear Jesus knows that the devil can't stop it.

2) Charity: Will you still dare to say that you will still give all 16 CCA DVDs free to those who get 1000 little NSL preachers to help save souls - with free shipping?

3) Pastor Jan: Yes! Let the devil leap up and down.

4) We now have about 20% of what we need to reach another million souls in the Capital cities of Alabama, Connecticut, Delaware, Mississippi, Nevada, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, & South Dakota, in the great 100 Million Man March. If our kind Father impresses you to help us reach this goal, mark it below.
