The June 22 issue of Future magazine shows that she enjoys taking selfies with the dead corpses. At least she won't eat them like some church members in Africa do - whom you learned about - when after church they go into the cemetery and dig up a friend or loved one who was buried that day, and eat on him raw in the church sanctuary under the pulpit.

Hope: When people of society are controlled by demons - by their own choice - what can we expect?

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Greetings in the name of dear Jesus!

Faith: The Bible verse says, "Your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand." Isa. 28:18. Death is all around us now, and millions are dying. What can we do to avoid the devil's death traps here in the end of the world?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go - -

Can you guess what the pope is doing on the front cover of this magazine?

Future magazine asks, 1 - “Why are we scared to die?” 2 - “What does it feel like to die?” 3 - “Why is it important to talk about death?” [Concerning that, the Bible says, “A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one’s birth. It is better to go to the house of mourning [a funeral] than to go to the house of feasting [a party]: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.” Eccl. 7:1,2. 4 - Concerning a community of Greeks, the article says that the family sets the dead loved one at the dinner table and they eat with him as they’ve done when they were in happy times. 5 - And it describes a custom in Ghana where, “The family continues to care for and chat with their dead relative, bringing him meals and dressing him as if he were still alive.”

The dictionary says that “Death is the irreversible cessation of all biological functions that sustain an organism. Death is an inevitable and universal process that eventually occurs in all organisms.”

Hope: What good is death? Why doesn’t our kind Father do away with it?

Pastor Jan: He has been doing that very thing!

Charity: How?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - “The human family have scarcely begun to live when they begin to die, and the world’s incessant labor ends in nothingness unless a true knowledge in regard to eternal life is gained. The man who appreciates time... will fit himself for a mansion and for a life that is immortal. It is well that he was born. [Praise God! You and I can do it. Let’s “appreciate time.”]

“We are admonished to redeem the time. Time squandered can never be recovered. We cannot call back even one moment. The only way in which we can redeem our time is by making the most of that which remains, by being co-workers with God in His great plan of redemption.

“In him who does this, a transformation of character takes place. He becomes a son of God, a member of the royal family, a child of the heavenly King. [Praise God!] He is fitted to be the companion of the angels.” COL 3:43.

“And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.” Rev. 20:14.

Faith: How can hell be cast into the lake of fire?

Pastor Jan: There are four words in the Bible for our English word “hell.” They are 1) Hades = the grave; 2) Sheol = the grave; 3) Gehenna = a place of burning; and 4) Tartaros = a place of darkness = outer space. Tartaros is where Satan and his angels were cast when kicked out of heaven. Tartaros is in the verse that says that Satan was cast down to hell - - “For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment.” II Peter 2:4. Notice the word “darkness.” That’s the way it is in outer space - where Satan was “cast.”

Rev. 20:14,15 is telling us that both death and hell [“hades” = the grave] will cease to exist. “This is the second death.” Rev. 20:14. “Whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.” Rev. 20:15. There are five verses that use Gehenna = “a place of burning” for the word “hell.” They are in Matt 5:29, Matt 5:30, Mark 9:45, Mark 9:47, and Luke 12:5. The wicked will never wake up from the second death. After that, there will be no death.

Praise God! Because of the death of dear Jesus, both death and hell [hades = the grave] will cease to exist. That is how “hell” will be “cast into the lake of fire.” Rev. 20:14.

In the U.S. in just one year {2020}, 996,962 people died of heart attacks; over 600,000 died of cancer; over 200,000 died from accidents; over 160,000 died from strokes; over 150,000 people died from chronic respiratory diseases; over 130,000 people died of Alzheimer’s disease; over 102,000 people died of diabetes; over 53,000 died of flu and pneumonia; and over 52,000 people died from kidney disease. Most of those deaths were caused by the liquids, solids, and smoke which they put into their bodies. Thus, whether knowingly, or innocently; unknowingly, or joyfully, they killed themselves. At the Orlando hospital, an M.D. told me that 90% of the patients in the hospital were there because of alcohol and tobacco.

We praise God that the death that will bring the end of all death is the death that dear Jesus died on the cross of Calvary - dying and paying the penalty for the sins of the world - and for you. And me.

“Sorrow filled Heaven, as it was realized that man was lost, and the world that God created was to be filled with mortals doomed to misery, sickness, and death, and there was no way of escape for the offender. The whole family of Adam must die. I saw the lovely Jesus, and beheld an expression of sympathy and sorrow upon his countenance. Soon I saw him approach the exceeding bright light which enshrouded the Father. Said my accompanying angel, He is in close converse with his Father. The anxiety of the angels seemed to be intense while Jesus was communing with his Father. Three times he was shut in by the glorious light

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

This book “National Sunday Law” is so shocking that I could not believe what I was reading! I stopped, and went back and reread the page. It was so shocking that I put the book away, and then went back and found it again. I tried to forget what I had read, but I couldn't. Now, I believe it! I'm reading it again along with my Bible. I'm going to give these books out to the people! I use to go to church on Sunday. No more! All this truth took a while to sink in, but it has. I want everyone else to believe it too! God is so good! And Jesus is our wonderful Saviour! Thank you so much for the book! G. Davis about the Father, and the third time he came from the Father his person could be seen. His countenance was calm, free from all perplexity and trouble, and shone with loveliness, such as words cannot express. He then made known to the angelic host that a way of escape had been made for lost man. He told them that he had been pleading with his Father, and had offered to give his life a ransom, and take the sentence of death upon himself, that through him man might find pardon; that through the merits of his blood, and obedience to the law of God, they could have the favor of God, and be brought into the beautiful garden, and eat of the fruit of the tree of life...

“The angels prostrated themselves before him.

They offered their lives. Jesus said to them that he should by his death save many; that the life of an angel could not pay the debt. His life alone could be accepted of his Father as a ransom for man...

Dear Pastor Jan,

I have become a Seventh-day Adventist. I remember when I first read your book “National Sunday Law.” God guided me. My Baptist wife is now accepting God's truth and worshiping with me on Sabbath also. I want to pass out this book to people so that they may also know the truth! I pray that God will use me in such a way as to give these books to the people. I want to order a large amount of them. May God bless you! Continue to stay faithful and close to our heavenly Father. He deserves all the praise and glory. His Spirit has been upon you to spread his Third Angel's Message. Your brother in Christ, Luke

Vennita's Corner: "He wants us to carry light in our countenances and joy in our hearts." TMK 142

Here's Sweet Vennita picking a pomegranate in the tree just across the street from the Hill Church in Loma Linda where we were married. Hi Sweetheart! We love to see you!

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

I've read your book “National Sunday Law,” and all I can say is “All glory and praise to God for inspiring you with the Holy Spirit to reveal His truths to the nations! I was so shocked when I realized that Satan had kept my eyes closed through all these years. My heart is crying to God to bless your work so that all the false teachings and idolatry in churches may be revealed to others, and Jesus can save them. Your brother in Christ, H.H.

“With a holy sadness Jesus comforted and cheered the angels, and informed them that hereafter those whom he should redeem would be with him, and ever dwell with him; and that by his death he should ransom many, and destroy him who had the power of death... Jesus bade the heavenly host be reconciled to the plan that his Father accepted, and rejoice that fallen man could be exalted again through his death, to obtain favor with God and enjoy Heaven.

“Then joy, inexpressible joy, filled Heaven. And the heavenly host sung a song of praise and adoration. They touched their harps and sung a note higher than they had done before for the great mercy and condescension of God in yielding up his dearly Beloved to die for a race of rebels.

“Praise and adoration were poured forth for the self-denial and sacrifice of Jesus...

“Said the angel, Think ye that the Father yielded up his dearly beloved Son without a struggle? No, no. It was even a struggle with the God of Heaven, whether to let guilty man perish, or to give his beloved Son to die for them.” EW 149-151.

“Satan rejoiced with his angels that he could, by causing man’s fall, pull down the Son of God from his exalted position... PP 66.

“I was shown Satan as he was, a happy, exalted angel. Then, I was shown him as he now is. He still bears a kingly form. His features are still noble, for he is an angel fallen. But the expression of his countenance is full of anxiety, care, unhappiness, malice, hate, mischief, deceit, and every evil. That brow which was once so noble, I particularly noticed. His forehead commenced from his eyes to recede backward [like the forehead of a dog.] His eyes were cunning and sly, and showed great penetration. His frame was large; but the flesh hung loosely about his hands and face. As I beheld him, his chin was resting upon his left hand. He appeared to be in deep thought. A smile was upon his countenance, which made me tremble, it was so full of evil and Satanic slyness. This smile is the one he wears just before he makes sure of his victim; and as he fastens the victim in his snare, this smile grows horrible.” EW 152.

Dear Pastor Jan:

I know that what you wrote in the book “National Sunday Law” is the truth. Because of this, I’ve started going to church on Saturdays, and I will continue doing so for the rest of my life. I want to spread the word about what is going on. I will share this book with as many people as I can. I’m going to make it my mission in life to get these books to the people, to alert everyone! Thank you, and God bless. William Amarillo, TX

Dear Pastor Jan,

A friend of mine [Ralph] found the book “National Sunday Law.” He read it and the Holy Spirit convicted him that the seventh day Sabbath of the Bible is the Sabbath of God. Since then, Ralph has gotten your whole CCA video series, and has already ordered “National Sunday Law” books to give out! Praise the Lord! He has also accepted God’s health message and is now a vegetarian. He poured all of his liquor down the drain and has taken off all of his jewelry. He used to be a Nazarene and now he is a Seventh-day Adventist. God gets all the praise and glory for this wonderful event! We’re praying for you and your ministry! Your brother and sister in Christ, S.P.

“When Adam and Eve realized how exalted and sacred was the law of God... they pled to die themselves rather than that the beloved Son of God should make this great sacrifice. The anguish of Adam was increased. He saw that his sins were of so great magnitude as to involve fearful consequences.

And must it be that Heaven’s honored Commander, must be brought down from his exalted position to die because of his transgression?” 1 SP 50. Here’s the result of it all - -

“I saw Jesus leading His people to the tree of life, and we heard His lovely voice saying, ‘The leaves of this tree are for the healing of the nations. Eat ye all of it.’... Language is altogether too feeble to attempt a description of heaven. As the scene rises before me, I am lost in amazement. Carried away with the surpassing splendor and excellent glory, I lay down the pen, and exclaim, ‘Oh, what love! what wondrous love!’ The most exalted language fails to describe the glory of heaven or the matchless depths of a Saviour’s love...

“My attention was again directed to the earth. The wicked had been destroyed, and their dead bodies were lying upon its surface. The wrath of God in the seven last plagues had been visited upon the inhabitants of the earth, causing them to gnaw their tongues from pain and to curse God. The false shepherds had been the signal objects of Jehovah’s wrath. Their eyes had consumed away in their holes, and their tongues in their mouths, while they stood upon their feet. [That’s in Zech. 14:12.]

“After the saints had been delivered by the voice of God, the wicked multitude turned their rage upon one another. The earth seemed to be deluged with blood, and dead bodies were from one end of it to the other. [Then dear Jesus comes and takes us home to heaven. Meanwhile - ]

“The earth looked like a desolate wilderness. Cities and villages, shaken down by the earthquake, lay in heaps. Mountains had been moved out of their places, leaving large caverns. Ragged rocks, thrown out by the sea, or torn out of the earth itself, were scattered all over its surface. Large trees had been uprooted and were strewn over the land. Here is to be the home of Satan with his evil angels for a thousand years. Here he will be confined, to wander up and down over the broken surface of the earth and see the effects of his rebellion against God's law. For a thousand years he can enjoy the fruit of the curse which he has caused. Limited alone to the earth, he will not have the privilege of ranging to other planets, to tempt and annoy those who have not fallen. During this time, Satan suffers extremely...

"I heard shouts of triumph from the angels and from the redeemed saints, which sounded like ten thousand musical instruments, because they were to be no more annoyed and tempted by Satan and because the inhabitants of other worlds were delivered from his presence and his temptations.

"Then I saw thrones, and Jesus and the redeemed saints sat upon them; and the saints reigned as kings and priests unto God. Christ, in union with His people, judged the wicked dead, comparing their acts with the statute book, the Word of God, and deciding every case according to the deeds done in the body. Then they meted out to the wicked the portion which they must suffer, according to their works; and it was written against their names in the book of death. Satan also and his angels were judged by Jesus and the saints. Satan's punishment was to be far greater than that of those whom he had deceived. His suffering would so far exceed theirs as to bear no comparison with it. After all those whom he had deceived had perished, Satan was still to live and suffer on much longer...

"After the judgment of the wicked dead had been finished, at the end of the one thousand years... Jesus descended upon a great mountain, which as soon as His feet touched it, parted asunder and became a mighty plain... [That's described in Zech. 14:4.]

"In terrible, fearful majesty, Jesus called forth the wicked dead; and they came up with the same feeble, sickly bodies that went into the grave. What a spectacle! At the first resurrection all came forth in immortal bloom; but at the second [1,000 years later] the marks of the curse are visible on all... Those who spit upon Him in the hour of His trial now turn from His piercing gaze and from the glory of His countenance. Those who drove the nails through His hands and feet now look upon the marks of His crucifixion. Those who thrust the spear into His side behold the marks of their cruelty on His body. And they know that He is the very one whom they crucified and derided in His expiring agony. And then there arises one long protracted wail of agony, as they flee to hide from the presence of the King of kings and Lord of lords.

"Satan consults with his angels, and then with those kings and conquerors and mighty men. Then he looks over the vast army, and tells them that the company in the city is small and feeble, and that they can go up and take it, and cast out its inhabitants, and possess its riches and glory themselves.

"Satan succeeds in deceiving them, and all immediately begin to prepare themselves for battle. There are many skillful men in that vast army, and they construct all kinds of implements of war. Then with Satan at their head, the multitude move on. Kings and warriors follow close after Satan, and the multitude follow after in companies. Each company has its leader, and order is observed as they march over the broken surface of the earth to the Holy City. Jesus closes the gates of the city, and this vast army surround it, and place themselves in battle array, expecting a fierce conflict. Jesus and all the angelic host, and all the saints, with the glittering crowns upon their heads, ascend [you'll use your wings] to the top of the wall of the city.

"Jesus speaks with majesty, saying, 'Behold, ye sinners, the reward of the just! And behold, My redeemed, the reward of the wicked!' The vast multitude behold the glorious company on the walls of the city. And as they witness the splendor of

To Whom it May Concern,
I don't like to read, but once I started reading "National Sunday Law" I couldn't put it down! I read the whole thing. It's an amazing book and I immediately decided that I have to share this wonderful truth with others!
Yours truly, M. Hall

Dear Pastor Jan,

May God bless you and keep you safe because of all the people who will go to heaven as a result of you telling the truth about God's love, His law, and about the devil's STUFF he is trying to get away with. I love Jesus with all my heart. I want to get more "National Sunday Law" books to give out! I may not see you in this life, but when I get to heaven I will. I became a Seventh-day Adventist, to keep all the commandments of God, and then my family turned against me. But it's OK because I have God our Father, and our wonderful Jesus, and I have some Seventh-day Adventist friends I've gotten to know. Thanks again. Your sister in Jesus, Karol Kansas City their glittering crowns and see their faces radiant with glory, reflecting the image of Jesus, their courage fails. A sense of the treasure and glory which they have lost rushes upon them, and they realize that the wages of sin is death. They see the holy, happy company whom they have despised, clothed with glory, honor, immortality, and eternal life, while they are outside the city with every mean and abominable thing.

“Satan rushes into the midst of his followers and tries to stir up the multitude to action. But fire from God out of heaven is rained upon them, and the great men, the noble, the poor and miserable, are all consumed together. [Their weapons melt.] I saw that some were quickly destroyed, while others suffered longer. They were punished according to the deeds done in the body. Some were many days consuming. [like Hitler?]

“Satan and his angels suffered long... Then I saw that Satan and all the wicked host were consumed, and the justice of God was satisfied; and all the angelic host, and all the redeemed saints, with a loud voice said, ‘Amen!’

“Said the angel... ‘They have died an everlasting death. They are never to have a resurrection, and God will have a clean universe.’ I then looked and saw the fire which had consumed the wicked, burning up the rubbish and purifying the earth. Again I looked and saw the earth purified. There was not a single sign of the curse... God’s entire universe was clean, and the great controversy was forever ended.

Dear Pastor Jan,
I had studied the Bible and I didn’t want to accept the Sabbath. The book “National Sunday Law” was the single most convincing factor that led me back to the Bible for more study and eventually my conversion to be a Seventh-day Adventist. Praise God! G.M.

Wherever we looked, everything upon which the eye rested was beautiful and holy. And all the redeemed host, old and young, great and small, cast their glittering crowns at the feet of their Redeemer, and prostrated themselves in adoration before Him, and worshiped Him that liveth forever and ever. The beautiful new earth, with all its glory, was the eternal inheritance of the saints. The kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, was then given to the saints of the Most High, who were to possess it forever, even forever and ever.” EW 289-297. Praise God friend. Praise God!
