The June 16 issue of the New York Post reveals that here in the end of the world, miserable, empty people are fascinated with death. It's thought that many - to experience what death is like - end up killing themselves for the fun of it. They can't get enough of death. Why? The dead person looks so peaceful that they wish they could be like them. They don't realize that sin is what robbed them of peace. The instant they look to Jesus for help, they have "perfect peace." But most don't want dear Jesus, and so - "There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked." Isa. 57:21.

So they fill their minds with 1) death parties, 2) death clubs, 3) death retreats; 3) they gather at graveyards to eat among the gravestones in "Cemetery Dining" parties. They even become "Death Doulas" who creep around and help train other lost souls how to become "Death Doulas" themselves. In this picture above, we see millionaire Barbara Corcoran, the "Shark Tank" T.V. star. She turned her living room into a funeral parlor. Here, she poses for a picture lying in a coffin. Why is a Catholic nun there? In the picture below, you see that the worship of death comes from papal Rome! And where did they get it?

Do you see the dressed up skeleton? It's the Roman Catholic "Saint Muerte." "Muerte" means "death." They pray to the god of death [Satan] as they venerate other dead saints. In this letter, you're going to learn that here in the end of the world, many things are different than what they appear to be.

Faith: This Bible verse says, "They shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it." Isa. 47:13,14. Since the fire of hell will burn them, and no one can put the fire out, why does it say that "there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it?" What will make this "eternal," "everlasting," "unquenchable" fire of hell go out? And how will this awesome thing affect us?

1) Adolf Hitler was raised as a Roman Catholic. 2) As a boy, he sang in the Abby choir. 3) He saw a swastika on the wall of the church - which he later used as the symbol of his NAZI party. 4) He incorporated the principles of the Jesuits into his deadly SS troops, which he called "the high principles of the papacy." 4) His father was cruel and would beat him. 5) His mother was kind, and would try to protect little Adolf from his father. successful as an artist, Adolf drifted for years - in and out of homes for homeless men - earning a meager living by painting pictures he saw on post cards, etc. Hitler tried to enlist as a soldier - but was rejected - being "classified as unfit because of inadequate physical vigour." He was puny just like Lucifer is when compared with dear Jesus - Who is God.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
The "National Sunday Law" book I received helped me to come out of the Baptist Church and become a faithful Seventh-day Adventist. I pass them out wherever I go. I'm thankful to know the truth. Sincerely, H.F.

Dear A Jan Marcussen,
Having grown up as a Roman Catholic, you can imagine the shock I felt when learning the truth from your book, "National Sunday Law." I fear for my family - whom I love. I don't want them to be lost. Maybe you can see that I desperately needed your book! And I am ready to give my life for God and for our Lord Jesus Christ. God truly is filling my heart with love, joy, and hope. This past Saturday I felt overjoyed to honor God's holy Sabbath, Saturday for the first time! I can already see that the beast {whom I was worshipping} thinks he is God! Oh how I wish that all the people who love God could see what I now see. I must get this truth out to the people! The people are blind. Oh, how many are dying without the truth! May God bless you! M.C.

When World War I broke out he immediately volunteered for the German army and was accepted in the 16th Bavarian Reserve Infantry Regiment. He was wounded and gassed, and ended up in the hospital at the end of the war, but he had won two iron crosses for his bravery. When he earned his first iron cross, he said, "it was the happiest day of my life." 7) While talking and blustering with the drunks in the Munich beer halls - he discovered that he had a rare gift for public speaking. The time came when he brought his friends out of the beer halls, and tried to take over the government by marching them down the streets. When shots rang out, his followers scattered, and he spent 9 months in jail. 8) But his daring attracted the smiling papal church leaders. They saw in him a man they could use as a pawn - to mold as a leader who could make stooges of the people and aide Rome in her goal to "regain control of the world" GC 565. Hiram Dukes revealed {in my CCA DVD series, as well as in the book Vatican Assassins} that while in the prison, a Jesuit priest wrote Hitler's book Mein Compf. The name of it means, "My Struggle." 9) Hiram Dukes {the SDA man who later worked as a spy for the U.S. government} revealed that church leaders groomed him to be a future leader who would carry out their plans to "restart persecution, and undo all that Protestantism has done." GC 566.

10) From that point on, his public actions and words were a reflection of the Jesuits who were carefully instructing and guiding him.

Hitler talks to his cabinet about his plans for world dominion. Lucifer talks to the angels about his plans for universal dominion. He wants to be above Jesus and be equal with the Father. He said, "I will be like the Most High."

"For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars [angels] of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north [that's where God's throne is.] I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High! Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit." Isa. 14:13-15. In this verse, the old testament Hebrew "hell" and "pit" mean the grave.

Hitler makes a pact with Japan and Italy - as Rome looks on - planning to use the Fuhrer and his Axis friends to conquer the allies and the free world. Then, hopefully, through them, the papacy could "regain control of the world" {See GC 565,566}. But when they saw that Hitler was losing the war, they disowned him.

Hitler was losing the war, they disowned him.

Eva, waiting for Adolf to come

“Lucifer, ‘son of the morning,’ was first of the covering cherubs, holy and undefiled. He stood in the presence of the great Creator, and the ceaseless beams of glory enshrouding the eternal God rested upon him. [God’s faithful people - including you - are soon going to be sitting in God’s throne, closer to God than Lucifer had been or ever could be - as God’s spotless wife - sitting with Him - looking at His face! Talking with Him. Reigning with Him. Happy with Him. Smiling with Him. Just picture it! It’s overwhelming!]

“Little by little Lucifer came to indulge the desire for self-exaltation. The Scripture says, ‘Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness.’ Eze. 28:17.

Dear Pastor Jan,

I believe everyone in the world should read “National Sunday Law.” Surely God has blessed you greatly with this insight. I’m writing to advise you that I have become a Seventh-day Adventist. Jesus is Lord! May God bless you greatly for revealing to the people the truth of God! Your brother in Christ, Vincent Angola, Louisiana

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

Greetings from a new creature in Christ. Your book “National Sunday Law” is a real blessing. My eyes have been anointed to see the truth as it is laid before me, and I have accepted this awesome truth!! It’s such a blessing to help spread this truth to as many as I can. I want to get “National Sunday Law” books out to the people. I can’t thank you enough for all that I have learned. Praise the Lord! God is awesome!! Yours in Christ, R.S.

my Father in his throne. He that hath an ear, let him hear.” Rev. 3:21. and the glory of the eternal, self-existent One encircled both. [So now Satan is not only jealous of Jesus, but He is jealous of us, for as God’s bride - we will sit where Lucifer could never sit.] About the throne gathered the holy angels, a vast, unnumbered throng— ‘ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands’ (Rev 5:11.) the most exalted angels, as ministers and subjects, rejoicing in the light that fell upon them from the presence of the Deity. Before the assembled inhabitants of heaven the King declared that none but Christ, the Only Begotten of God, could fully enter into His purposes, and to Him it was committed to execute the mighty counsels of His will. The Son of God had wrought the Father’s will in the creation of all the hosts of heaven; and to Him, as well as to God, their homage and allegiance were due. Christ was still to exercise divine power, in the creation of the earth and its inhabitants...

“Leaving his place in the immediate presence of the Father, Lucifer went forth to diffuse the spirit of discontent among the angels. [His wicked people are doing the same today! You see it on the evening news, and on news programs during the day.] He worked with mysterious secrecy, and for a time concealed his real purpose under an appearance of reverence for God. He began to insinuate doubts concerning the laws that governed heavenly beings, intimating that though laws might be necessary for the inhabitants of the worlds, angels, being more exalted, needed no such restraint, for their own

A poor vampire. She was tricked into Satan’s kingdom. “All they that hate me love death.” Satan and his angels will see their final reward. It will rush in upon them like a mighty mountain = billions of dead corpses and a long long time in hell. They’ll burn to ashes and forever cease to exist. “They shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.” Obed. 1:16.

“Though all his glory was from God, this mighty angel came to regard it as pertaining to himself. Not content with his position... This prince of angels aspired to power that was the prerogative of Christ alone.

“Now the perfect harmony of heaven was broken... In heavenly council the angels pleaded with Lucifer. The Son of God presented before him the greatness, the goodness, and the justice of the Creator, and the sacred, unchanging nature of His law. God Himself had established the order of heaven; and in departing from it, Lucifer would dishonor his Maker and bring ruin upon himself. But the warning, given in infinite love and mercy, only aroused a spirit of resistance. Lucifer allowed his jealousy of Christ to prevail, and became the more determined...

“The King of the universe summoned the heavenly hosts before Him, that in their presence He might set forth the true position of His Son and show the relation He sustained to all created beings. The Son of God shared the Father’s throne, [So will we! Here it is - “To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with

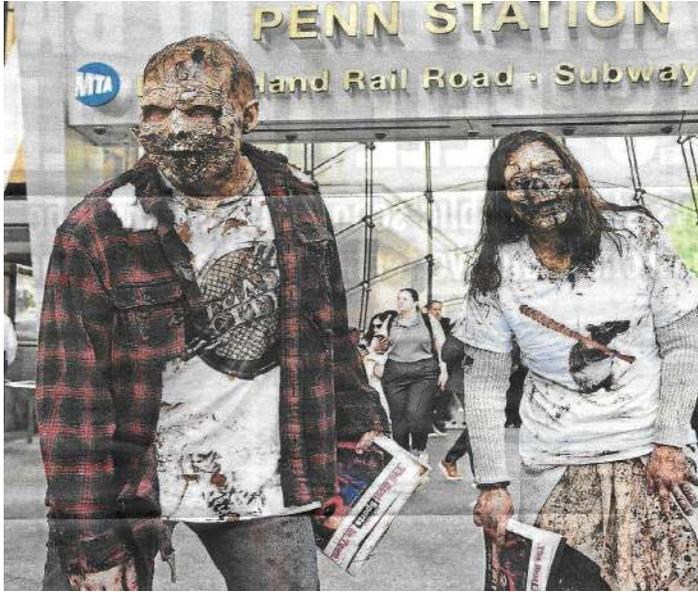

Dear Sir,

I can’t say thank you enough for writing this book “National Sunday Law.” It has all the answers to the whole Bible that I’ve been seeking. I can’t wait to receive my copies so that I can pass them out. It was so easy to understand - nothing I’ve ever read has come close. On page 45 it says: This very book may be one method God has chosen for you to find these fantastic facts! It’s no coincidence that you are reading it now.” I’m a firm believer in that!! I was driving out of my driveway, and about 3 feet away from my mailbox was the book. Yes, it was no coincidence! Praise God!!! Thank you – Best regards & God bless. Debbie wisdom was a sufficient guide...

"In great mercy, according to His divine character, God bore long with Lucifer. The spirit of discontent and disaffection had never before been known in heaven. It was a new element, strange, mysterious, unaccountable. Lucifer himself had not at first been acquainted with the real nature of his feelings... He did not see whither he was drifting. But such efforts as infinite love and wisdom only could devise, were made to convince him of his error. His disaffection was proved to be without cause, and he was made to see what would be the result of persisting in revolt. Lucifer was convinced that he was in the wrong. He saw that 'the Lord is righteous in all His ways, and holy in all His works' (Ps 145:17); that the divine statutes are just, and that he ought to acknowledge them as such before all heaven. Had he done this, he might have saved himself and many angels...

In the end of the world, they love death so much that they dress up like the dead and creep around in the city. The April 13, 2025 article in the New York Daily News, shows the doomed fiends walking around as dead zombies that were dug up out of the graveyard. Here, they appear right at Penn Station; in the stores; and on the streets. Now, the devil and the masses of the doomed know more than ever the meaning of the words, "And there was war in heaven."

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

The book "National Sunday Law" was handed to me, and it was that book that made a major impact on my life! I have had a rather wild life and have spent most of the last five years engulfed in drugs and alcohol. Because of "National Sunday Law," and the Spirit of God working in my life, I am now a Seventh-day Adventist. Thank you for allowing God to use you to write this book. May God bless you! Sincerely, H.M.

"The time had come for a final decision; he must fully yield to the divine sovereignty or place himself in open rebellion. He nearly reached the decision to return, but pride forbade him.

"He persistently defended his own course, and fully committed himself to the great controversy against his Maker. Thus it was that Lucifer, 'the light bearer,' the sharer of God's glory, the attendant of His throne, by transgression became Satan, 'the adversary' of God and holy beings...

"Rejecting with disdain the arguments and entreaties of the loyal angels, he denounced them as deluded slaves... His own work must condemn him... Satan had claimed from the first that he was not in rebellion. The whole universe must see the deceiver unmasked. PP 42.

"Even when he was cast out of heaven, Infinite Wisdom did not destroy Satan... Had he been immediately blotted out of existence, some would have served God from fear rather than from love. The influence of the deceiver would not have been fully destroyed, nor would the spirit of rebellion have been utterly eradicated. For the good of the entire universe through ceaseless

Dear Pastor Jan,

A man gave me a "National Sunday Law" book at work. I was not interested at the time so I put the book in my bottom drawer. About 2 years later, I was cleaning out my desk and found it. I gave it to a friend of mine. A short time later, I was surprised that he, his wife, and three kids all became Seventh-day Adventists! I asked for the book back, and I finally read it. I also was convicted to keep God's Sabbath day holy. So later, I was also baptized into God's SDA church. My friend and I are now both elders in the church here. The Lord has blessed! The "National Sunday Law" book has changed our lives! Thank you for writing it, and may all glory go to God. Joe Angels were engaged in the battle; Satan wished to conquer the Son of God and those who were submissive to His will. But the good and true angels prevailed, and Satan, with his followers, was driven from heaven. EW 145.

“After Satan and those who fell with him were shut out of heaven, and he realized that he had forever lost all its purity and glory, he repented, and wished to be reinstated in heaven. He was willing to take his proper place, or any position that might be assigned him. But no; heaven must not be placed in jeopardy. All heaven might be marred should he be taken back; for sin originated with him, and the seeds of rebellion were within him. Both he and his followers wept, and implored to be taken back into the favor of God. But their sin--their hatred, their envy and jealousy--had been so great that God could not blot it out. It must remain to receive its final punishment. EW 146.

“When Satan became fully conscious that there was no possibility of his being brought again into favor with God, his malice and hatred began to be manifest. He consulted with his angels, and a plan was laid to still work against God’s government. When Adam and Eve were placed in the beautiful garden, Satan was laying plans to destroy them.” EW 146,147.

Dear Pastor Jan,
I thank God for having you put His Bible truth in the book “National Sunday Law” in such a loving format. Seeing the way that God is speaking through you lets me know that He loves the people on this planet with an everlasting love. God and His Son are crying out through you that His Spirit will not always strive with man. God brought me into His Seventh-day Adventist church, and I’m blessed to be in His truth-filled movement. May God bless you my brother.
Sincerely, Timothy New York

Eva picks lovely flowers for the table. In their quiet country home they have no idea what death awaits them. Dear Jesus said, “If any man walk in the day he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.” He who does the will of God, who walks in the path that God has marked out, cannot stumble and fall. The light of God’s guiding Spirit gives him a clear perception of his duty, and leads him aright till the close of his work.” DA 527.

“The two rival powers claimed supremacy. Jesus was stretching out His arms of love, inviting all who would to find pardon and peace in Him. The hosts of darkness saw that they did not possess unlimited control, and they understood that if Christ’s mission should be successful, their rule was soon to end. Standard after standard was left to trail in the dust, as company after company from the Lord’s army joined the foe, and tribe after tribe from the ranks of the enemy united with the commandment-keeping people of God. An angel flying in the midst of heaven put the standard of Emmanuel into many hands, while a mighty general cried out with a loud

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

“The battle raged. Victory alternated from side to side. Now the soldiers of the cross gave way, ‘as when a standard bearer fainteth.’ Isaiah 10:18. But their apparent retreat was but to gain a more advantageous position. Shouts of joy were heard. A song of praise to God went up, and angel voices united in the song, as Christ’s soldiers planted His banner on the walls of fortresses till then held by the enemy. The Captain of our salvation was ordering the battle, and sending support to His soldiers. His power was mightily displayed, encouraging them to press the battle to the gates. He taught them terrible things in righteousness as He led them on step by step, conquering and to conquer.
