

“And
the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil and Satan... And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.
Therefore rejoice ye heavens,

Does it have a pouch for a baby like a kangaroo? Why does it have only 3 toes? Did they mate a human with a gigantic bird? Why doesn't it blink its eyes? As we get closer to the close of probation, will we see 1) human mutations? (2) AI robots? and (3) transgender morons? Has our society descended to the degree of evil and chaos that surrounded Noah?

and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.”

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in Jesus' holy name.

Faith: The Bible quote says, “The devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.” Rev. 12:12. How short? What will be happening? And how will it affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

“What should we do with him? Such a man was placed in one of our state prisons. He hated everyone – especially the guards. When ordered to do anything, he reacted in rage. Several guards were injured during his violent outbursts.

“Each time the prisoner attacked someone they put him into ‘The Hole.’ This was a small underground cell 8' x 8.' The solid concrete walls were 3 feet thick! The 16 foot high ceiling was constructed of cement and steel. In the center of the ceiling there was a small door made of steel bars and this was heavily bolted. No man has ever escaped from ‘The Hole.’

“The prisoner’s entry into ‘The Hole’ was without fanfare. Guards opened the ceiling door and lowered a ladder. The prisoner edged his way down into ‘The Hole’ and watched, no doubt, with trepidation as the ladder disappeared through the small square of light above him.

“What should we do with a man who is more animal than human?”

“State laws have set the maximum stay in such total isolation at seven days per visit. Guards lowered food and water through the ceiling door and into the prisoner’s hands. For most men the seven-day treatment was sufficient. From then on they usually follow the rules. But a guard told me that this particular prisoner seemed to have no control over his hatred for all men. When a guard told him to do anything he would lash out at the guard with his fists, feet, or any weapon he could find. Within 24 hours of his being removed from the hole ‘The Animal’ was again forced through the steel door and down into the cement tomb. There he bothered no one for another seven days.

“After weeks and months of seven day trips to this gruesome pit, the inmate became more like an animal than a man, and he eventually was known as, ‘The Animal.’

“One day a guard who was reading a book thought to himself that this wretched man needed this book. But the guard despised ‘the animal’ so much that he did not want to bother to pick up the book, bend over, and drop it through the bars. So he aimed with his foot, and just kicked the book through the bars and hollered, ‘Here Animal, read this!’

“With nothing to do, ‘The Animal’ read the book using the faint light that came between the steel bars 16 feet above him.

“As ‘The Animal’ read the book, he mocked at everything that was written. He scoffed at the idea of thanking God for things that had happened to him. In derision and scorn he said ‘Okay God, I thank you for that 3 foot thick cement wall. See, it’s still there!’

The May, 2026 issue of The New American reveals that this “International Criminal Court” is one of dozens and scores of International, National, State, City, County, and local organizations, which, on the surface, promote “liberty and justice for all,” but on the inside are ravenous wolves in wolves clothing. They work - under the table - hand in hand with papal Rome - that Rome might rule again. Here it is -

“The Roman Church is far-reaching in her plans and modes of operation. She is employing every device to extend her influence and increase her power in preparation for a fierce and determined conflict {1} to regain control of the world, {2} to re-establish persecution, and {3} to undo all that Protestantism has done. Catholicism is gaining ground upon every side.” GC 565,566.

Thanking you didn’t do anything!

“By item after item the prisoner thanked God for each wall, for the floor, for the 16th foot high ceiling, and for the steel door. Laughing and mocking, he continued to challenge God. ‘Why don’t you do something, God?’ Then he thanked God for the damp coldness, for the cockroaches, for his hunger pangs, and for his aching bones.

“‘The Animal’ exhausted his thankfulness for everything he could see, so now he started thanking God for the guards whom he hated; he thanked God for the prisoners who despised him; for the judge who had sentenced him; he thanked God for his worthless attorney; he thanked God for the witnesses who lied about him; and for the policeman who arrested him.

“Then he moved on to the people who had kicked and beaten him when he was a little boy, and for his drunken, abusive parents. “the animal” listed all the people that he should hate. The list of people he hated seemed endless.

Dear Sir;

I had just graduated from nursing school and I was waiting to take the state exam when I received the book “National Sunday Law.” The first few paragraphs really intrigued me to continue. I was preparing for the state exam in the daytime, and I was reading “National Sunday Law” at night. From reading it, I left the Baptist church and went straight to the Seventh-day Adventist church. I thank God for having chosen you to write such a book to help bring me to our Saviour! I was baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist thanks to the message in that great little book. What a God we serve! Thank you for allowing God to use you to preach His three angels’ messages. Now, I give these books out to others. Your brother in Christ, C. Tervil

When 'The Animal' finished his list, he went back and started all over. Hour after hour he laughed at God and dared Him to do something - to do anything - as he gave mocking praise and thanksgiving.

"On the seventh day, the ladder was again lowered, and 'the animal' crawled out. The guard was totally flabbergasted when 'The Animal' came out through the trapdoor. He was smiling!

"The guard had never seen him smile. Even his eyes looked happy. He was a different man!

"After days of thanking God, something occurred which defies natural explanation. There appeared in his cell a MAN who said only three words - 'I love you!'

"The Animal' said 'The eyes of the MAN were full of love for me and I knew it was true.

"The following hours were filled with genuine thanksgiving to God. 'The Animal' realized that he had waited his entire life to have that one moment with the MAN - whom he knew to be Jesus! [Praise God!]

Dear Sir, I have read "National Sunday Law" twice now, and the more I read it, the more convicted I become. When I look upon the immorality of society it can be clearly seen that the hand writing is on the wall. I am a Sunday worshiper, but after reading this book and comparing it with my Bible, I am made aware of how serious the consequences are in keeping God's law. I am going to change. I am going to start keeping God's Bible Sabbath holy. I do not want to fall short of God's grace, especially now when the time is at hand. I pray that the people will see the truth and come to the full knowledge of God's commandments. It is time for God's people to stand up against evil and separate themselves from the world. I will do my part, first with myself, and then to enlighten others. I am disgusted with the position that Christians hold today. We need more warriors who will stand up for Christ no matter what the cost. Life has no meaning to me unless Christ is in it. Respectfully yours, Y. Young Father - an unselfish life - to bless others, and to help save souls. In Jesus' holy name. Amen."

"Christ did not yield up His life till He had accomplished the work which He came to do, and with His parting breath He exclaimed, 'It is finished.' John 19:30. The battle had been won. His right hand and His holy arm had gotten Him the victory. As a Conqueror He planted His banner on the eternal heights. Was there not joy among the angels? All heaven triumphed in the Saviour's victory. Satan was defeated, and knew that his kingdom was lost. [Praise God!]

"To the angels and the unfallen worlds the cry, 'It is finished,' had a deep significance. It was for them as well as for us that the great work of redemption had been accomplished. They with us share the fruits of Christ's victory.

"Not until the death of Christ was the character of Satan clearly revealed to the angels or to the unfallen worlds. The archapostate had so clothed himself with deception that even holy beings had not understood his principles. They had not clearly seen the nature of his rebellion.

"It was a being of wonderful power and glory that had set himself against God. Of Lucifer the Lord says, 'Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.' Eze. 28:12... After he had sinned, his power to deceive was the more deceptive, and the unveiling of his character was the more difficult... God could have destroyed Satan and his sympathizers as easily as one can cast a pebble to the earth...

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
Your book "National Sunday Law" really got me! Glory be to God Almighty for the way He has been using faithful men like you to reach the unreached and the lost. I was switching from one denomination to another until the Lord arrested me with your book. Now I have been baptized and have become a Seventh-day Adventist. Glory be to God for your ministry. Amen! I can see that Rome is making her attack against God's Seventh-day Adventist church. Since I was baptized I have been sharing the NSL book with so many people. I'm active in soul-winning in my local church. The material you send us will really help us to prepare ourselves for the coming of our Lord Jesus. EC

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I have had a wild life, and have spent recent years engulfed in drugs and alcohol. The book "National Sunday Law" was handed to me, and it has made a major impact on my life! It is because of "National Sunday Law," that I am now a Seventh-day Adventist. I spend much time now reading my Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy. Thanks again, and May God bless you. N.C.

but He did not do this. Rebellion was not to be overcome by force. Compelling power is found only under Satan's government. The Lord's principles are not of this order.

His authority rests upon goodness, mercy, and love; and the presentation of these principles is the means to be used...

"It was God's purpose to place things on an eternal basis of security, and in the councils of heaven it was decided that time must be given for Satan to develop the principles which were the foundation of his system of government. He had claimed that these were superior to God's principles. Time was given for the working of Satan's principles, that they might be seen by the heavenly universe.

"Satan led men into sin, and the plan of redemption was put in operation. For four thousand years, Christ was working for man's uplifting, and Satan for his ruin and degradation. And the heavenly universe beheld it all.

"When Jesus came into the world, Satan's power was turned against Him. From the time when He appeared as a babe in Bethlehem, the usurper worked to bring about His destruction. In every possible way he sought to prevent Jesus from developing a perfect childhood, a faultless manhood, a holy ministry, and an unblemished sacrifice. But he was defeated. [Praise God!] He could not lead Jesus into sin. He could not discourage Him, or drive Him from a work He had come on earth to do. From the desert to Calvary, the storm of Satan's wrath beat upon Him, but the more mercilessly it fell, the more firmly did the Son of God cling to the hand of His Father, and press on in the bloodstained path. All the efforts of Satan to oppress and overcome Him only brought out in a purer light His spotless character... [Wonderful Jesus!]

"Heaven viewed with grief and amazement Christ hanging upon the cross, blood flowing from His wounded temples, and sweat tinged with blood standing upon His brow. From His hands and feet the blood fell, drop by drop, upon the rock drilled for the foot of the cross. The wounds made by the nails gaped as the weight of His body dragged upon His hands. His labored breath grew quick and deep, as His soul panted under the burden of the sins of the world. All heaven was filled with wonder when the prayer of Christ was offered in the midst of His terrible suffering - 'Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.' Luke 23:34. Yet there stood men, formed in the image of God, joining to crush out the life of His only-begotten Son. What a sight for the heavenly universe!" DA 760.

"Satan with his angels, in human form, was present at the cross. The archfiend and his hosts were co-operating with the priests and rulers." DA 749. [These mad men were Satan's "princes."]
Pastor Jan: There's dear Jesus and the devil looking at each other. The devil had tricked himself! Before he got Jesus on the cross, the fiend moved upon the holy church mob to cry "Crucify Him!" "Crucify Him!" But after they nailed Him to the cross, Satan saw that that very act was what will destroy his own kingdom and seal his own fiery death in hell! So Satan and his princes quickly changed their tune, and started crying "Come down from the cross! Come down from the cross!" But for the devil - to save his own neck - it was too late - too late to get Jesus down! The devil now saw what he had done!!! He had doomed his own wicked self. Here's what would have happened if Satan and his princes had understood it - "Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory." See I Cor. 2:2-8. There it is.]

Annita's Corner: "Those who take Christ at His word, and surrender their souls to His keeping, their lives to His ordering, will find peace and quietude." DA 331

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I am so excited to share with my Sunday church what I read in your book "National Sunday Law." I couldn't put the book down! I just know that many will also accept God's truth when I share this book with them. Now I finally have peace in my heart knowing that Saturday, the 7th day, is God's Sabbath, and that God did not change it. Thanks, and God bless you. Debra Miller

Dear Jan Marcussen,

Please allow me to say that your book "National Sunday Law" is dynamite! It was very well written and it held my full attention to the very end. Not only did I read the book but I also did an in depth study of each of the Bible verses given. I enjoyed "National Sunday Law" so much! H. Stanley

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I'm writing to just say thank you for such a clear look into something that I was never taught. I'm thanking you for the book "National Sunday Law." I have rededicated my life to Jesus and am so glad to have come across your book which just captivated my interest and showed me how I should be worshiping God on His holy Sabbath day. Thank you for such great knowledge. God bless you. Jeff Wolfe Wyoming

“Satanic agencies confederated with evil men in leading the people to believe Christ the chief of sinners, and to make Him the object of detestation. Those who mocked Christ as He hung upon the cross were imbued with the spirit of the first great rebel. He filled them with vile and loathsome speeches. He inspired their taunts. But by all this he gained nothing. [Praise God!]

“Could one sin have been found in Christ, had He in one particular yielded to Satan to escape the terrible torture, the enemy of God and man would have triumphed. Christ bowed His head and died, but He held fast His faith and His submission to God. [Wonderful Jesus!] ‘And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.’ Rev. 12:10.

“Satan saw that his disguise was torn away. [Praise the Lord!] His administration was laid open before the unfallen angels and before the heavenly universe. He had revealed himself as a murderer. By shedding the blood of the Son of God, he had uprooted himself from the sympathies of the heavenly beings. Henceforth his work was restricted. Whatever attitude he might assume, he could no longer await the angels as they came from the heavenly courts, and before them accuse Christ’s brethren of being clothed with the garments of blackness and the defilement of sin. The last link of sympathy between Satan and the heavenly world was broken.

“Yet Satan was not then destroyed. [Here’s why.] The angels did not even then understand all that was involved in the great controversy... And for the sake of man, Satan’s existence must be continued. Man as well as angels must see the contrast between the Prince of light and the prince of darkness... [That’s why our kind Father is letting the fiend go hog wild - even to the killing of hundreds of millions of people - so that when Satan is turned to ashes after burning in hell for a long, long, long, long, long, long, long, long, long, long, time, no one will say that God is cruel or unfair. Satan will get all the punishment he deserves. Not one minute less...

Then, ashes for him - and he ceases to exist - forever! “And [the wicked] shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.” Obed. 16. “Therefore will I bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee. All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.” Eze. 28:18,19.

“Truth, passing by those who despise and reject it, will triumph... Endowed with divine energy, it will cut its way through the strongest barriers and triumph over every obstacle. [Wonderful Jesus!]

“What sustained the Son of God during His life of toil and sacrifice? He saw the results of the travail of His soul and was satisfied. Looking into eternity, [He could see it! He could “time travel” to whenever and wherever he pleased - for to God, “all time is present time.”] He beheld the happiness of those who through His humiliation had received pardon and everlasting life. His ear caught the shout of the redeemed. [Praise God!]

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy - a life of undimmed happiness - awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.

“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Sir,

Greetings from Central Africa. I am the Bishop of my church here in Zambia. We have been assembling on Sundays. I happened to come across a book written by you entitled “National Sunday Law.” It is a book that, when you start reading it, you don’t want to stop. You are carried away with it. Now, upon finding no basis in the Bible for meeting on Sunday, our church has switched to meet on Saturday, the seventh-day of the week. We have a membership of 100. May God richly bless you.

Yours fellow servant in Christ

Pastor Sandy Kawaya

Dear Sir,

One day I found a book named “National Sunday Law.” I picked the book up, and then put it down again. But something told me to take it, so I did. After reading it I was shocked! But when I compared what is in the book with my Bible, I was shocked again! Your book says just what the Bible says! Now I’m not going to church on Sunday anymore, but am honoring God’s Sabbath day on Saturday, the seventh day. I’m going to get more of these books to give to many others! Thanks again! Mary Andula

