Faith: How are these things a parallel to our day?
What will happen to the people in the world and in the churches? And what will happen to us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

America! A new world, seemingly without limits. As the buildings grew ever higher, the millionaires became ever richer. In 1861 there were only three millionaires in the United States. By 1900 there were nearly 4000. If they had been godly Seventh-day Adventists, they could have reached many of the homes of America with God's three angels' messages - thus hastening the Lord's return. But alas, they were not such godly disciples. If dear Jesus cannot use His professed people to reach the public, then, He will use the devil and his carnal slaves to shock and awe the masses, and drive them into His loving arms.

Hope: How did He do that?

Pastor Jan: Three thousand men would labor for more than two years. They were building a monster.

A first class bedroom for the high and mighty. After they hit the iceberg, there were some who never left their room. They may have been denying that the ship was sinking. They stayed warm under the covers and imagined that everything was alright. When the ice water came up to the mattress and into the bed, the covers weren't warm anymore. "Be ye also ready for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh."

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "When the third angel's message closes, mercy no longer pleads for the guilty inhabitants of the earth. The people of God have accomplished their work. They have received 'the latter rain,' 'the refreshing from the presence of the Lord,' and they are prepared for the trying hour before them. Angels are hastening to and fro in heaven. An angel returning from the earth announces that his work is done; the final test has been brought upon the world, and all who have withdrawn. Unsheltered by divine grace, they have no protection from the wicked one. Satan will then plunge the inhabitants of the earth into one great, final trouble." FLB 215. [Notice the words, "Satan will." "He hurls destruction among men." Maranatha. P. 176.]

Here are the dear men who didn't try to save themselves, but played "Nearer My God to Thee" to bless the dying people. They kept playing 'till the lights went out, and they slid across the floor - into the blackness - to feel the pins and needles of the ice water. May we soon see them in the kingdom of God - happy forever!

Each of Titanic's two colossal engines was the size of a three story building. It was the largest moving object ever made by man. It was not only the biggest ocean-liner, it was by far the most luxurious. It weighed 66,000 tons and was four city blocks long. Aboard Titanic it was hard to remember that this was indeed a ship. The White Star Line called Titanic a "floating palace."

In an age that worshiped wealth, the 325 first class passengers were an awesome assembly. Titanic sailed from South Hampton at noon. She was expected to reach New York in just seven days with 2,228 people aboard. One commentator said, 'For the ladies in the upper deck, fashion and gossip was the main sport.' Have you ever heard any church members talking together about fashion and gossip? Have you ever heard them talking about Jesus?

On April 10, 1912, Titanic's maiden voyage began. But when the giant hit the iceberg, neither technology nor wealth would make any difference. The ice water didn't care who they were. It's the same today.

Hope: If it's the same today, does that mean that most people on earth will be killed by the seven last plagues? How can that proved themselves loyal to the divine precepts have received 'the seal of the living God.' Then Jesus ceases His intercession in the sanctuary above. He lifts His hands and with a loud voice says, 'It is done;' Every case has been decided for life or death. Christ has made the atonement for His people and blotted out their sins. The number of His subjects is made up...

"The world has rejected His mercy, despised His love, and trampled upon His law. The wicked have passed the boundary of their probation; the Spirit of God, persistently resisted, has been at last

Dear Pastor Jan,

If it weren't for your book, there's no telling what I would be doing today. The "National Sunday Law" books are opening many eyes, and helping people to return to the Lord. Praise God! The ones we have received from you are being placed all over - at bus stop benches, park benches, into people's hands, doorsteps, etc. My husband and I pray that the Holy Spirit speaks to these people! And thanks for the newsletters which really keep us informed on the signs of the times. We love reading the letters you receive from others in response to the NSL book. God bless you, your family, and ministry. R.S.

Our kind Father permits the mad fiend to do it, but God takes credit for it - calling the plagues - “The judgments of God” - so that the people won’t worship Satan out of fear.

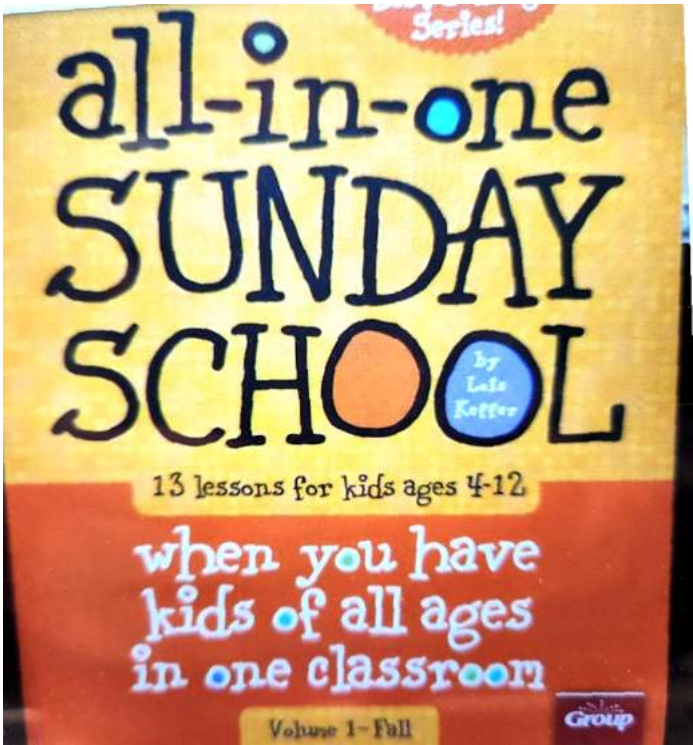

God’s prophet said - “As the angels of God cease to hold in check the fierce winds of human passion, all the elements of strife will be let loose. The whole world will be involved in ruin more terrible than that which came upon Jerusalem of old. The same destructive power exercised by holy angels when God commands, will be exercised by evil angels when He permits. [Notice the words, “will be.”]

“There are forces now ready, and only waiting the divine permission, to spread desolation everywhere.

“Those who honor the law of God will be regarded as the cause of the fearful convulsions of nature and the strife and bloodshed among men that are filling the earth with woe. The power attending the last warning has enraged the wicked; their anger is kindled against all who have received the message, and Satan will excite to still greater intensity the spirit of hatred and persecution.

“When God’s presence was finally withdrawn from the Jewish nation, priests and people knew it not. Though under the control of Satan, and swayed by the most horrible and malignant passions, they still regarded themselves as the chosen of God... So, when the irrevocable decision of the sanctuary has been pronounced and the destiny of the world has been forever fixed, the inhabitants of the earth will know it not. The forms of religion will be continued by a people from whom the Spirit of God has been finally withdrawn; and the satanic zeal with which the prince of evil will inspire them for the accomplishment of his malignant designs, will bear the semblance of zeal for God.

Charity: What is this?

Pastor Jan: It’s a book of 13 lessons for Sunday School teachers to teach children on Sundays.

Notice the words at the top - “All in one.” The teachers and students are innocent, but Rome’s leaders envision all religions [“all in one”] under one head. Here it is - “The world is filled with storm and war and variance. Yet under one head – the papal power – the people will unite to oppose God in the person of His witnesses. Maranatha, p. 187

Hope: What kind of a book store is selling this innocent looking tool?

Pastor Jan: I’d rather not say.

Faith: Why not?

Pastor Jan: Because it makes me tremble.

Hope: What was the name of the book store?

Pastor Jan: Out front it says, “Adventist Book Center.”

Faith: Which ABC is this lesson book in?

Pastor Jan: It doesn’t matter because the same books go to many ABCs around the country. By the time you are reading this, they may have removed them from the shelves in your area. Or maybe they have not removed them.

Charity: The book was written for Sunday keepers. So who was behind getting them into the ABCs for Sabbath keepers? The foolish virgins might say, “It’s no big deal! It’s just for children!” Do you think that papal fiends will ever plan to help Laodicians to slowly get used to being “all in one” with Sunday Schools and Sunday laws? Is tricking people into receiving the mark of the beast a hidden agenda of Rome? Are these some of the “books of a new order” God’s prophet warned against? Or do you think that dear Jesus likes them? Do you think that the managers of the ABCs want to remove them?

Pastor Jan: I don’t know.

Dear Sir;

I always wondered why I felt negative when attending church. The Bible truth in your book “National Sunday Law” has put love into my heart! Yes, I have broken God’s 10 Commandments, and this hurts my heart. I attended a university and the study of theology put unbelief in my mind. But after reading your book, I know that I was on target when I received a low grade on my thesis concerning the Catholic church. I will not go there anymore! I really want to thank you for “National Sunday Law!” I took the book out of the mailbox and I could not put it down! I can say that I truly love God and have repented for not obeying His 4th commandment. God has placed you in this world to help his children which are being led in the wrong direction. God placed your book in my mailbox for a reason! I’m stepping out in faith so that this very day I’m going to call my employer and let him know that I will no longer work on Saturday, God’s 7th day Sabbath. By God’s grace I will make a fresh start in the right direction to follow Jesus in obeying God’s laws. Praise God! Sincerely, Gloria

“As the Sabbath has become the special point of controversy throughout Christendom, and religious and secular authorities have combined to enforce the observance of the Sunday, the persistent refusal of a small minority to yield to the popular demand will make them objects of universal execration. It will be urged that the few who stand in opposition to an institution of the church and a law of the state ought not to be tolerated; that it is better for them to suffer than for whole

Dear Sir,

A man gave me a book called "National Sunday Law." I never saw him again. Your book laid around in my room for a while. Then something happened which made me read it. I read it 5 or 6 times. It changed my life! After reading your book I searched for a church. Now I am a Seventh-day Adventist. I learned about God's Sabbath, and I found peace of mind. Thanks for your book! H.M.

nations to be thrown into confusion and lawlessness. The same argument eighteen hundred years ago was brought against Christ by the 'rulers of the people.' 'It is expedient for us,' said the wily Caiaphas, 'that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.' Jn. 11:50. This argument will appear conclusive; and a decree will finally be issued against those who hallow the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, denouncing them as deserving of the severest punishment and giving the people liberty, after a certain time, to put them to death. Romanism in the Old World and apostate

Protestantism in the New will pursue a similar course toward those who honor all the divine precepts.

"The people of God will then be plunged into those scenes of affliction and distress described by the prophet as the time of Jacob's trouble. 'Thus saith the Lord: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace... All faces are turned into paleness. Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.' Jer. 30:5-7...

"Now, while our great High Priest is making the atonement for us, we should seek to become perfect in Christ. Not even by a thought could our Saviour be brought to yield to the power of temptation...

"Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens {UFOs}, in token of the power of miracle-working demons... As the crowning act in the great drama of deception, Satan himself will personate Christ. The church has long professed to look to the Saviour's advent as the consummation of her hopes. Now the great deceiver will make it appear that Christ has come. In different parts of the earth, Satan will manifest himself among men as a majestic being of dazzling brightness, resembling the description of the Son of God given by John in the Revelation. Rev 1:13-15. The glory that surrounds him is unsurpassed by anything

Dear Sir, Mrs, Ms, or Miss,

I am not sure what you are. But it doesn't matter! It is with great interest that I am writing to you. Your book "National Sunday Law" captured my attention! I have just finished reading it for the second time. The first time, I was in a state of shock! My daughter and I have been deceived all of our lives. In "National Sunday Law" we finally found the truth!!!

I was always proud to be a Catholic. I'm thinking of all the people who have been betrayed over the years.

I'm so glad that I learned God's truth before it's too late! Since reading your book I have thrown out all of our rosaries, prayer books, holy cards, etc. We now keep God's Sabbath on Saturday and follow the dietary laws of the Bible – not the Catholic version. I will be sending for more "National Sunday Law" books to spread God's truth! Sincerely, Bonnie

Dear Pastor Jan,

I was a Methodist who had become disenchanted with my church. I visited many churches of various denominations but could not find a new home. One Saturday afternoon I opened my front door and found the book "National Sunday Law" on my doorstep. I read it over and over for two weeks, looking up every scripture and reference to be sure there was no error. Not only could I find no error, but I was overwhelmingly convicted of God's Sabbath truth! I knew I had to get this book to others! My mother and I were baptized as Seventh-day Adventists, and now I'm teaching other people. We go out on Sabbath afternoons and give out "National Sunday Law" books! Praise God for his wonderful Seventh Day Sabbath! D.S.

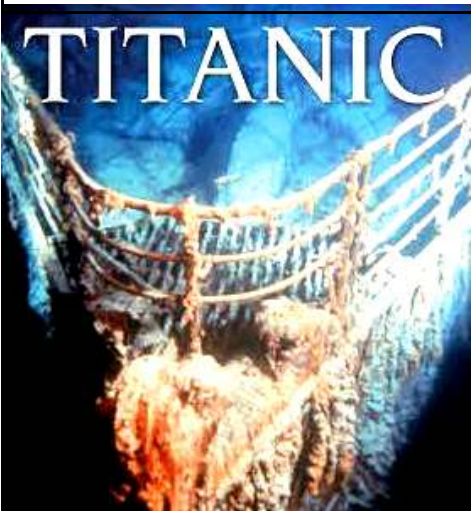

that mortal eyes have yet beheld. The shout of triumph rings out upon the air: 'Christ has come! Christ has come!' The people prostrate themselves in adoration before him, while he lifts up his hands and pronounces a blessing upon them, as Christ blessed His disciples when He was upon the earth. His voice is soft and subdued, yet full of melody. In gentle, compassionate tones he presents some of the same gracious, heavenly truths which the Saviour uttered; he heals the diseases of the people, and then, in his assumed character of Christ, he claims to have changed the Sabbath to Sunday, and commands all to hallow the day which he has blessed. He declares that those who persist in keeping holy the seventh day are blaspheming his name by refusing to listen to his angels sent to them with light and truth. This is the strong, almost overmastering delusion...

"Could men see with heavenly vision, they would behold companies of angels that excel in strength stationed about those who have kept the word of Christ's patience. With sympathizing tenderness, angels have witnessed their distress and have heard their prayers. They are waiting the word of their Commander to snatch them from their peril. But they must wait yet a little longer. The people of God must drink of the cup and be baptized with the baptism. The very delay, so painful to them, is the best answer to their petitions. As they endeavor to wait trustingly for the Lord to work they are led to exercise faith, hope, and patience, which have been too little exercised during their religious experience. Yet for the elect's sake the time of trouble will be shortened.

"The heavenly sentinels, faithful to their trust, continue their watch. Though a general decree has fixed the time when commandment keepers may be put to death, their enemies will in some cases anticipate the decree, and before the time specified, will endeavor to take their lives. But none can pass the mighty guardians stationed about every faithful soul. [Praise God!] Some are assailed in their flight from the cities and villages; but the swords raised against them break and fall powerless as a straw...

Dear Amazing Truth,
I asked God to lead me and use me. He guided me to get "National Sunday Law" books to distribute. Then I started receiving Pastor Marcussen's monthly letter. It was then that I learned of the worldwide scope of his work! I realized that this book contains the issues for the last days, and that the people of the whole world need this book! They need it to make them aware of these life and death issues! I want to help many people to know which side to be on when the mark of the beast is enforced! I have come to realize that the work which God wants me to do is to help distribute the "National Sunday Law" books to many people! Thank you so much, and may God bless you!
Sincerely, A.C.

have fought the battle in your behalf, and in My name you are more than conquerors.'

"As the wrestling ones urge their petitions before God, the veil separating them from the unseen seems almost withdrawn. The heavens glow with the dawning of eternal day, and like the melody of angel songs the words fall upon the ear: 'Stand fast to your allegiance. Help is coming.'

Christ, the almighty Victor, holds out to His weary soldiers a crown of immortal glory; and His voice comes from the gates ajar: 'Lo, I am with you. Be not afraid. I am acquainted with all your sorrows; I have borne your griefs. You are not warring against untried enemies. I

Dear Pastor Jan,
After reading your book "National Sunday Law," I'm converted to God's three angels messages! I'm committed to keeping God's Sabbath day holy, and I've accepted His Seventh-day Adventist Bible truth! After seeing the signs in the Sunday news, I'm with you! Praise God! Sincerely

Dear Sir,
I am the Bishop of my church here in Zambia. We have been assembling on Sundays. I happened to come across a book written by you entitled “National Sunday Law.” It is a book that, when you start reading it, you don’t want to stop. You are carried away with it. Now, upon finding no basis in the Bible for meeting on Sunday, our church has switched to meeting on Saturday, the seventh-day of the week. We have a membership of 100. May God richly bless you.
