any man
will hurt
them, fire
proceedeth out
of their mouth,
their enemies...

“And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.”
Rev.11:15. What will it be like?

And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.”

On the left, you can see the front door of the church and the front steps. “Thou shalt see greater things than these.” God gets all the praise.

Dear SDA friends around the world;

The above Bible verse says, “And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged.”

Faith: Is the wickedness of men so great that God’s “wrath is come” now? Is the time of the dead now? Or is it later? How will it affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

It was a quiet October evening. It had been a pleasant fall day in eastern Wisconsin. There was a drought in the northern Midwest. The woods and creeks were dry and the Peshtigo river was low. But a massive cold front moved in from the west, bringing strong winds that fanned the remnants of a little, smoldering brush fire out of control and escalated it to massive proportions. A firestorm ensued. People are in bed sleeping. Some are awake - turning over; feeling the softness of the pillow; looking at the ceiling; and thinking about today and tomorrow. They see the orange colored glow on their wall, but they don't know that in that very night, they will cease to exist.

The wall of fire is a thousand feet high; five miles wide; and is going 100 miles per hour.

When it's over, nearly 1,900 square miles - an area twice the size of Rhode Island - will be ashes. Twelve towns will be gone.

There's no need to be excited because everyone around there will become skeletons. There's no place to hide. All of a sudden, it hits!

The people are cremated. Two hundred drunken souls in the large beer tavern turn into a pile of bones. Is this what hell is like? Some on the outskirts of Peshtigo flee to the nearby river, where a number of them were drowned or died from hours in the frigid water. Three people jumped for safety into a large tank of water until both they and the water boiled away. A mass grave of nearly 350 people was later established because no one knew who the skeletons were.

The fire was on a direct path towards the town of Peshtigo. Some from other areas rushed to battle it with buckets of water, but quickly realizing the horrors of the situation, they threw the buckets down and fled to jump into the river.

Soon the gigantic wall of flames overtook Peshtigo. The extreme heat whipped the air into a flurry of superheated tornadoes. A scorching hail of embers, and white hot sand, peppered the town. Rooftops were blown off, and most everything quickly turned to ashes. Peshtigo is about 250 miles north of Chicago.

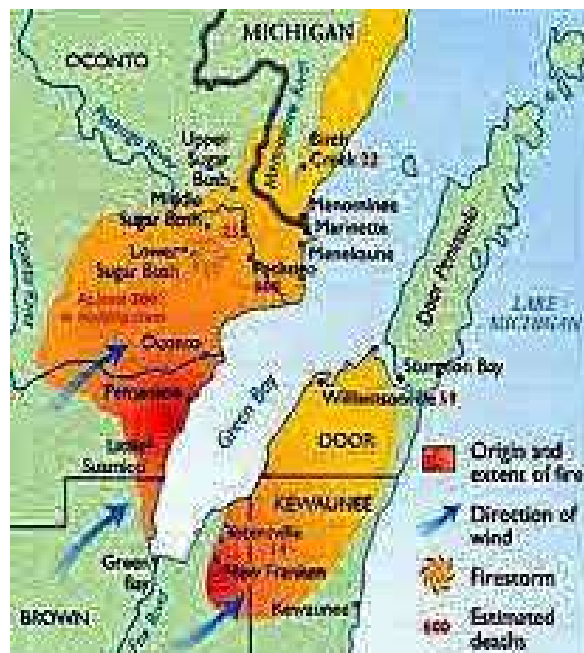

Some tried to escape the inferno. As the fire approached, the frantic citizens did everything they could. Many jumped down into wells and were boiled alive. As people inhaled the superheated air, they dropped dead. Men, women, and children rushed for the wooden bridge that spanned the Peshtigo River, but the bridge burst into flames, and with it's burden of screaming souls, it collapsed into a fiery abyss. Even more had rushed into the river itself, hoping the cold water would protect them from the inferno; but the fire bombarded the people with burning wreckage, and the river was soon littered with lifeless bodies.

Why did our kind Father allow Satan to do it? Because, by their stylish lifestyle, they had chosen the devil as their leader, and dear Jesus - giving love and free choice to all, had to honor their final decision. The Lord allowed the devil to do it - "Because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate." Isa. 24:1-8. "And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence." Amos 8:3.

The fire tornado threw train cars and houses into the air. The devil caused the people inside to turn into skeletons in time for the Roman Catholic holy day = Halloween.

"Be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Matt. 24:44.

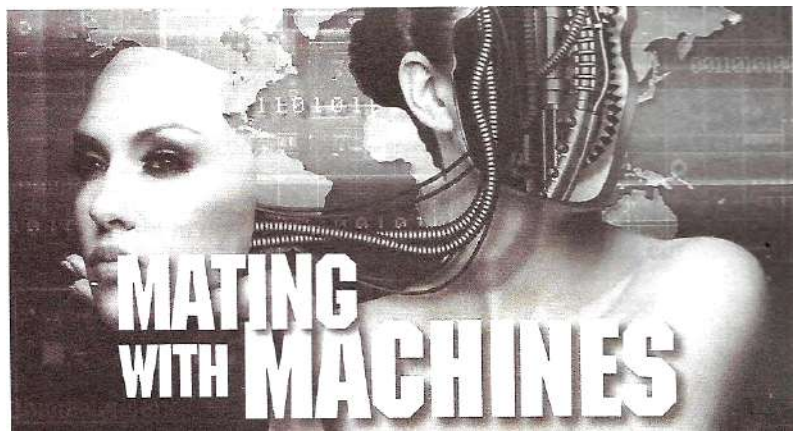

The vast extent of it. It extended even into Michigan.

One survivor said, "The air was literally on fire. Men, women, and children, clad in nightgowns, shrieked with horror. The entire town was a blazing inferno; there was only one escape; the river! Thousands pressed on to the river with terror in their eyes. Yet even the river wasn't safe. Swooping sparks and bits of fire dropped out of the sky and burned people in an instant sweep!"

The great Peshtigo fire happened on October 8, 1871. It's estimated that as many as 2,500 people perished on that day. But most people have never heard of it because on that same day, 250 miles to the south, the great Chicago fire destroyed much of that wicked city. The media reported on that fire instead because they said that Chicago was more "newsworthy."

"When probation ends, it will come suddenly, unexpectedly [like the great Peshtigo fire] at a time when we are least expecting it. But we can have a clean record in heaven today, and know that God accepts us." 7BC 989.

“Now that the definition of marriage has been undone by the U.S. Courts, some are already calling for human-robot ‘marriage.’ During the marriage battle of the last decade, the institution’s defenders warned again and again of the slippery slope of gay marriage, which would lead to 1) marrying many wives or husbands, 2) marrying animals. Now, author David Levy wrote Love and Sex with Robots. The article says that one company announced that it’s developing a sex robot which can talk back and express emotion.” The New American, Sept. 7, 2015.

Did people in Sodom and Gomorrah mate with machines?

No wonder the prophet of God cries out -

“Men will reach a point that the Lord will not permit them to pass, and they will learn that there is a limit to the forbearance of Jehovah. Plagues and judgments are already falling upon the despisers of the grace of God... The Spirit of God is gradually but surely being withdrawn from the earth. The agencies of evil are combining their forces and consolidating. They are strengthening for the last great crisis. Great changes are soon to take place in our world, and the final movements will be rapid ones.” 9T 11,12. Have you seen great fires and floods lately?

Charity: Do both Satan’s angels and God’s angels bring plagues?

Pastor Jan: Here it is - “The same destructive power exercised by holy angels when God commands, will be exercised by evil angels when He permits. There are forces now ready, and only waiting the divine permission, to spread desolation everywhere,” GC 614. Satan and his angels bring plagues by God’s “permission,” whereas God’s angels bring plagues by God’s “command.” These two things were seen in the fires of Chicago, San Francisco, Peshtigo, and Battle Creek. Here’s an eye witness account of the fire in Battle Creek -

“I was not surprised by the sad news, for in the visions of the night I have seen an angel standing with a sword as of fire stretched over Battle Creek. Once, while my pen was in my hand, I lost consciousness, and it seemed as if this sword of flame was turning first in one direction and then in another. Disaster seemed to follow disaster because God was dishonored by the devising of men to exalt and glorify themselves.

“Prediction Regarding a Purging of Institutions.— The Lord will work to purify His church. I tell you in truth, the Lord is about to turn and overturn in the institutions called by His name. Just how soon this refining process will begin I cannot say, but it will not be long deferred. He whose fan is in His hand will cleanse His temple of its moral defilement. He will thoroughly purge His floor...

“Before the fire came which swept away the Review and Herald factory I was in distress for many days.... I saw the representation of danger—a sword of fire turning this way and that way. I was in an agony of distress. The next news was that the Review and Herald building had been burned by fire, but that not one life had been lost. In this the Lord spoke mercy with judgment. The mercy of God was mingled with judgment to spare the lives of the workers, that they might do the work which they had neglected to do, and which it seemed impossible to make them see and understand...

“Cleansing From Commercial Work.— Three nights before the Review office burned, I was in an agony that words cannot describe. I could not sleep. I walked the room, praying to God to have mercy upon His people. Then I seemed to be in the Review office with the men who have the management of the institution. I was trying to speak to them and thus to help them. One of authority arose and said, ‘You say, The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord are we; therefore, we have authority to do this thing and that thing and the other thing. But the word of God forbids many of the things that you propose to do.’ At His first advent, Christ cleansed the Temple. Prior to His second advent He will again cleanse the temple. [Our kind Father is so good! He will allow the devil’s Sunday law to help accomplish it.] He was there cleansing the temple. Why? Because commercial work had been brought in, and God had been forgotten. [Faith: Is commercial work done there now? Pastor Jan: If you ask them, they’ll tell you.] With hurry here and hurry there and hurry somewhere else, there was no time to think of heaven. The principles of God’s law were presented, and I heard the question asked, ‘How much of the law have you obeyed?’ Then the word was spoken, ‘God will cleanse and purify His temple in His displeasure.’ In the visions of the night I saw a sword of fire hung out over Battle Creek.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
As your book “National Sunday Law” says, it was no accident that I picked up your book! As I was walking out the door - there it was - lying on the floor. Reading this book lifts you up to heaven. Praise the Lord! Now I’ve started to keep God’s Sabbath day holy. God pulled me out of the fire, and I was born again. May God bless you. Jay

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I am writing to you in behalf of the Seventh-day Adventist church here. We are grateful for your diligence in sending your letters to us. It reveals many truths that need to be told to all. Your book “National Sunday Law” is the best presentation for witnessing to the people. They have a very dramatic impact on those who are hungry for truth. Satan knows that time is short. May God continue to bless your ministry and may this letter find you well.
Sincerely, R.E.

“Brethren, God is in earnest with us. I want to tell you that if after the warnings given in these burnings the leaders of our people go right on, just as they have done in the past, exalting themselves, God will take the bodies next... [Hope: Who are “the bodies?” Pastor Jan: Only God knows. The bodies of the people in those days are now all dead.] No decided change was made. The

Dear Pastor Jan, I have shared your book “National Sunday Law” with so many people in both English and Spanish! I just want you to know that your book has changed many lives, and is continuing to do so by the day! Sincerely Jesse apprentices in the office were not being prepared to go as missionaries into various places, as they might be called...

“Everyone connected with the office should ask himself: ‘Wherein have I walked contrary to a ‘Thus saith the Lord?’... God declares, ‘Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out’ (John 6:37). Those who in sincerity present themselves before Him will be pardoned and justified, and will receive power to become the sons of God. [Praise God!]

“Why did He permit His people to be overcome by their enemies and carried into heathen lands? It was because they had failed to be His missionaries. [Amazing! Have the pastors and we ourselves been teaching church members how to be God’s missionaries to win souls for Him? That’s what the NSL preachers are for. Our kind Father gets all the praise.] The Lord scattered His people that the knowledge of His truth might be carried to the world.” PM 170-178. After the Sunday law, will our kind Father allow Satan to “scatter” us Seventh-day Adventists for the same reason?

Pastor Jan: You might have noticed that at certain times, our Father uses Satan to do His bidding. God uses the wrath of the mad fiend to drive people to Jesus. In fact, Satan’s cruelty and insane wrath have driven more people to dear Jesus than anyone on the earth! Now watch what will happen -

“Fearful is the issue to which the world is to be brought. The powers of earth, uniting to war against the commandments of God, will decree that ‘all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond’ (Rev. 13:16), shall conform to the customs of the church by the observance of the false sabbath... [Dear Jesus will use that to purify His church.] The great work of the gospel is not to close with less manifestation of the power of God than marked its opening...

“Servants of God, with their faces lighted up and shining with holy consecration, will hasten from place to place to proclaim the message from heaven. By thousands of voices, all over the earth, the warning will be given. [Praise God!] Miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and signs and wonders will follow the believers.

Satan also works, with lying wonders, even bringing down fire from heaven in the sight of men. Rev. 13:13. Thus the inhabitants of the earth will be brought to take their stand.” GC 604-612.

Then what will happen? “When the protection of human laws shall be withdrawn from those who honor the law of God, there will be, in different lands, a simultaneous movement for their destruction. As the time appointed in the decree draws near, the people will conspire to root out the hated sect. It will be determined to strike in one night a decisive blow, which shall utterly silence the voice of dissent and reproof.

“The people of God—some in prison cells, some hidden in solitary retreats in the forests and the mountains—still plead for divine protection, while in every quarter companies of armed men, urged on by hosts of evil angels, are preparing for the work of death.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Your book “National Sunday Law” was given to me by a co-worker. It blew my mind! I’ve been worshipping God on Sunday. Now, after you have opened my eyes, I don’t want to go to church on Sunday anymore. I will be giving these books to many others! I wish everyone in the world could read your book! When the Lord comes, I want to hear the words, “Well done, good and faithful servant.” I ask God every day to help me to obey His commands. We must pray at all times. Please keep me in your prayers and I’ll be praying for you too. I truly love your book! May the Lord bless you and may heaven smile upon you. Your friend in the Lord, Ethel S. New York

Dear Pastor Jan,
I was converted and became a Seventh-day Adventist because of your book “National Sunday Law!” Thank you for your service to God! Alice.

“It is now, in the hour of utmost extremity, that the God of Israel will interpose for the deliverance of His chosen. It is at midnight that God manifests His power for the deliverance of His people. The sun appears, shining in its strength. Signs and wonders follow in quick succession. The wicked look with terror and amazement upon the scene, while the righteous behold with solemn joy the tokens of their deliverance. Everything in nature seems turned out of its course... Dark, heavy clouds come up and clash against each other. In the midst of the angry heavens is one clear space of indescribable glory, whence comes the voice of God like the sound of many waters, saying: ‘It is done.’ Rev. 16:17.

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.

“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

The lovely Jesus tasted hell death to pay for our sins and to make us happy forever. In view of this, God's prophet wrote -

“It is an alarming fact that the love of the world predominates in the minds of the young. They decidedly love the world. Frivolity and fashion characterize the life of the youth generally, and God is dishonored... “They are not aware that even the thoughts and intents of the heart stand faithfully delineated... Those vain, frivolous words are all written in the book... Every selfish act is exposed. The young generally conduct themselves as though [life] was one grand holiday, and that they are placed in this world simply for their own amusement.

“Words and acts testify plainly what is in the heart.” Our High Calling, p. 283.

To us all, God's perfect peace and joy are offered with these words, “Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” Matt. 6:33.”

“That voice shakes the heavens and the earth.

There is a mighty earthquake, ‘such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great...’ The glory from the throne of God seems flashing through... The sea is lashed into fury. There is heard the shriek of a hurricane like the voice of demons upon a mission of destruction. The whole earth heaves and swells like the waves of the sea. Its surface is breaking up. Its very foundations seem to be giving way... The seaports that have become like Sodom for wickedness are swallowed up by the angry waters... Great hailstones, every one ‘about the weight of a talent,’ are doing their work of destruction. Verses 19,21... The lordly palaces, upon which the world's great men have lavished their wealth in order to glorify themselves, are crumbling to ruin before their eyes. Prison walls are rent asunder, and God's people, who have been held in bondage for their faith, are set free. Said the prophets of old, as they beheld in holy vision the day of God: ‘Howl ye; for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.’ Isa. 13:6.

Dear Amazing Truth,
I came across the book called “National Sunday Law” by Jan Marcussen. It was fascinating and powerful! This material is very important. I would like to study more! I don't want to waste a moment of time. May the Lord bless you abundantly. In Christ,
Robert

“The cross of Christ will be the science and the song of the redeemed through all eternity... Never will it be forgotten that He whose power created and upheld the unnumbered worlds through the vast realms of space, the Beloved of God, the Majesty of heaven, He whom cherub and shining seraph delighted to adore—humbled Himself to uplift fallen man; that He bore the guilt and shame of sin, and the hiding of His Father's face, till the woes of a lost world broke His heart and crushed out His life on Calvary's cross. That the Maker of all worlds, the Arbiter of all destinies, should lay aside His glory and humiliate Himself from love to man will ever excite the wonder and adoration of the universe. As the nations of the saved look upon their

Dear Pastor Jan,
One day I found the book “National Sunday Law.” I thought that the Sunday law is just what the world needs to bring society into unity! And I would be the one in charge of petitioning everyone in my area to be in favor of the Sunday law! So I started reading the book. A few hours later I was converted! I was converted to Jesus and to God's holy 7th day Sabbath! I am so grateful for this book! Soon, my husband and daughter followed my lead. What a lot of lives this one little book has changed! We need to get many more NSL books into the people's hands! My friends and I will be getting together to go and cover the doorsteps with these little preachers. Please pray for us as we are for you. In Christ,
P.N.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Wow! I just finished reading “National Sunday Law.” It really hit home. It makes a lot of sense why the world is the way it is. We've been fooled and lied to again and again by the devil! I can't wait to help spread this vital information by getting these books out to people! I've also just read your newsletter, and what a shocker! I am “Hungry” for the “truth.” Thank you & God bless. Redeemer and behold the eternal glory of the Father shining in His countenance; as they behold His throne, which is from everlasting to everlasting, and know that His kingdom is to have no end, they break forth in rapturous song: 'Worthy, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by His own most precious blood!'

"The mystery of the cross explains all other mysteries. In the light that streams from Calvary the attributes of God which had filled us with fear and awe appear beautiful and attractive. Mercy, tenderness, and parental love are seen to blend with holiness, justice, and power.
