POPE LEO PROMOTES “HOLY SATURDAY” – THE HIDDEN DANG..

The new pope promotes “Holy Saturday” “the hidden danger.” How is Holy Saturday a danger to the papacy?

It’s a “hidden” danger to the papacy because most people have no clue that Saturday, {the 7th day} is the heart of the seal of God, and it brings to view unholy Sunday - which is the heart of Rome’s “Mark of the Beast.” The Vatican is determined to keep this “hidden.” But it won’t stay hidden for long!.

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the name of the lovely Jesus.

Faith: What does Rome have to do with Holy Saturday; and with the Mark of the Beast; and with the cross of Calvary?

Pastor Jan: The devil tricked himself into getting dear Jesus onto the cross. But after he got Him up there, he realized that the cross of Calvary would plunge him into hell until he was ashes! So when the devil realized that he had tricked his own brain, he quickly got his church friends to cry, “Come down from the cross! Come down!”

Hope: Amazing! But what does this have to do with the President of the United States?

President Trump: "I want to share something personal tonight. It was almost midnight and I was sitting alone. No noise, no cameras, no speeches. Just me.

"I asked something that I've never asked before.

"What will happen to America?" In the silence something happened. A light filled the room. I knew immediately, it wasn't my imagination. Jesus was there. I saw Him. I felt Him. When it's real you don't ask for proof.

You just know. He looked at me with eyes that cut through everything. Through the pride, the victories, the mistakes. He saw it all. And yet, I felt no rejection. I felt strength. I felt compassion. I felt something I cannot explain.

"And then He spoke. It was like something inside of you, and all around you at the same time. He said, 'This nation was not built just for power. It was raised up to shine. But if my people forget me, that light will go out.'

"I couldn't move. Tears came down my face. Then he continued - 'It's not about politics. It's not about parties. It's about faith. It's about who sustains this land. I still have plans for America but the people must return to me.'

"That moment changed me forever. And I want every American to hear me. If you feel alone; if you wonder if there's still hope, He's real. And He has not forgotten us.

"I sat there frozen. The light around me was warm, but it carried a weight. I felt small; smaller than anything I have ever felt in my life. Jesus kept His eyes on me and at that moment, He wasn't looking at the president, the fighter, the man on the news every day, He was looking at me; the soul. He saw the boy who grew up in Queens, the man who stumbled. He saw everything. And He didn't turn away. He didn't condemn. He lifted me up, not with words of flattery, but with words of purpose. I felt chills down my spine. Jesus said, 'Do not be afraid of the storm.'

"I wanted to ask questions but I couldn't. I was still listening like a child hearing truth for the very first time. Jesus was speaking about the soul of America. He said, 'This land was blessed when people prayed together. They looked higher than themselves for wisdom. But when a nation forgets; when pride takes the place of prayer, it begins to lose it's strength. This nation's battle is a battle of the heart. If the people return and call on my name, I will restore. I will heal.'

"The words hit Me like thunder. But at the same time they felt like medicine. I felt comfort because I knew that He wasn't done with me and He wasn't done with America."

"I need to tell you something that shook me to the core that night when Jesus appeared to me. His message was about America. I saw cities full of confusion, people running faster and faster but not knowing where they were going. I saw families divided and people's love growing cold. People are filling their lives with everything except the one thing that matters. No amount of new technology can heal the soul of a nation. Only love can. Only Jesus can. Success without God becomes meaningless.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I have read your book "National Sunday Law" and am reading it the second time. I must say that I will obey God's Sabbath, which has been so clearly presented in this book. I refuse to be a hypocrite like the preacher who talks about the 10 Commandments yet honors Sunday. I thank you from the depths of my heart. G.R.

God's prophet wrote - "If there is one work more important than another, it is that of getting our publications before the public." ChS 145.

"More than one thousand will soon be converted in one day, most of whom will trace their first convictions to the reading of our publications." RH, 11/10/85.

“He pointed to churches. Many of them were empty of the fire of truth. I saw preachers with big platforms but small hearts. I saw young people drowning in distractions, scrolling endlessly, searching for meaning in screens that can never satisfy their souls. I saw so many families that were torn apart, living under the same roof but not truly connected. My tears wouldn’t stop.

“We have Bibles in our homes, verses on our walls, but our hearts are far away. We have been given many gifts, but many are chasing the gift but forgetting the giver. Jesus has not abandon this land. He is calling you back, one heart at a time.

Dear Sir,

I just read your book “National Sunday Law,” and I must admit that I was thoroughly shocked! For as long as I can remember my family has been going to church on Sunday. Now I know better. And I never knew that the Bible reveals that God’s people are not to eat pork. I’m hungry for more truth. I will raise money so that my family and others can receive “National Sunday Law.” Thank you so much for writing this book. I really needed it! Sincerely C.C.

“I saw great monuments and tall skyscrapers, the symbols of power and achievement. I saw political leaders shouting at one another while people grew weary and confused. I cried because I saw how much emptiness hides behind the noise.

“I saw churches that were distracted by entertainment. They are searching everywhere for identity except in Jesus. But amidst all that darkness I saw people gathered in homes and praying with sincerity. I saw the tears of repentance falling not in stadiums, but in living rooms. And I understood that Jesus has not abandoned America.

“I cried because I realized how blind I have been, chasing things that could never fill my soul. I cried because I saw how many in America are running after success, after pleasure. I cried because I felt like I was carrying the weight of a nation on my chest. Even though our mistakes are so great, His arms are still open.”

Dear Sir,

I’m the pastor of the local Church of God in Christ. Not long ago a man handed me a book entitled “National Sunday Law.” He told me to read it and asked me to let him know what I thought of it when I saw him again. I’ve never seen him since. But I read the book and I now realize what the Holy Spirit wants me to do. I must give this message of God’s Sabbath to my entire congregation, and to the whole denomination! Please pray for me as I convey this most important message to the Churches of God in Christ. Thank you! Pastor U.C.

Dear A Jan Marcussen,

I’ve tried all my life to figure out the prophecies of the Bible and I got nowhere. Now this book came in the mail, “National Sunday Law.” I couldn’t put it down! I even read the whole thing the second time. I’ve known about the one world government for years and watched it devouring my freedoms. But I did not understand all that is in your book concerning Jesus and God’s holy Sabbath. I want to continue to learn more and to share it with others. Sincerely, Margaret righteousness... and be rewarded with eternal life in God's everlasting kingdom... This knowledge will impart joys, and true happiness. This wisdom flows from a pure fountain which gives peace, joy and health." Appeal to Mothers, p. 27 - 33.

Watch this - "Christ did not yield up His life till He had accomplished the work which He came to do, and with His parting breath He exclaimed, 'It is finished.'" John 19:30. The battle had been won. His right hand and His holy arm had gotten Him the victory. As a Conqueror He planted His banner on the eternal heights. Was there not joy among the angels? All heaven triumphed in the Saviour's victory. Satan was defeated, and knew that his kingdom was lost. [Praise God!]

"To the angels and the unfallen worlds the cry, 'It is finished,' had a deep significance. It was for them as well as for us that the great work of redemption had been accomplished. They with us share the fruits of Christ's victory. Not until the death of Christ was the character of Satan clearly revealed to the angels or to the unfallen worlds. The archapostate had so clothed himself with deception that even holy beings had not understood his principles. They had not clearly seen the nature of his rebellion.

"God could have destroyed Satan and his sympathizers as easily as one can cast a pebble to the earth; but He did not do this. Rebellion was not to be overcome by force. Compelling power is found only under Satan's government. [That's what the Sunday law will be.] The Lord's principles are not of this order. His authority rests upon goodness, mercy, and love...

"Satan led men into sin, and the plan of redemption was put in operation. For four thousand years, Christ was working for man's uplifting, and Satan for his ruin... And the heavenly universe beheld it all.

"When Jesus came into the world, Satan's power was turned against Him. From the time when He appeared as a babe in Bethlehem, the usurper worked to bring about His destruction. In every possible way he sought to prevent Jesus from developing a perfect childhood, a faultless manhood, a holy ministry, and an unblemished sacrifice.

But he was defeated. [Praise God!] Satan could not lead Jesus into sin. He could not discourage Him, or drive Him from a work He had come on earth to do. From the desert to Calvary, the storm of Satan's wrath beat upon Him, but the more mercilessly it fell, the more firmly did the Son of God cling to the hand of His Father, and press on in the bloodstained path. All the efforts of Satan to oppress and overcome Him only brought out in a purer light His spotless character... [Wonderful Jesus!]

"Heaven beheld the Victim betrayed into the hands of the murderous mob, and with mockery

"From the womb of the morning." You will use the wings on your back to fly inside of this! How will you feel then?

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I have just finished reading "National Sunday Law." I was totally shocked! I picked up your book at my doctor's office. I couldn't put it down! I was brought up as a Catholic, but left the Catholic church. I knew it was wrong to pray to statues. Now I adhere to the truth of the Bible! May God bless you always! L.C.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

Greetings from a new creature in Christ. Your book "National Sunday Law" is awesome! My eyes have been anointed to see the truth as it is laid before me, and I have accepted it and hold it close to my heart!! It's such a blessing to help spread this truth to as many as I can. I wish I had a million dollars to get "National Sunday Law" books out to the people. I can't thank you enough for all that I have learned. Praise the Lord! Yours in Christ, Randy

Dear Pastor Jan,

Greetings in the name of the most high God. Satan wants us sitting and wasting time because he knows that he has a very little time and he must move fast. It's a blessing from God to know His truth. I want to be a part of winning souls for Jesus. Keep doing what God has blessed you to do! I have passed out "National Sunday Law" books while traveling on the bus. I've put them on seats, doorsteps, doctors offices, coffee shops, sidewalks, etc. I call on all brothers and sisters to come together as a body of believers and get this "National Sunday Law" book out to the people! It's a privilege, and we have God's end time message. I will continue to get God's three angels' messages to the people by the power of God! Sincerely, R.A.

and violence hurried from one tribunal to another. It heard the sneers of His persecutors because of His lowly birth. It heard the denial with cursing and swearing by one of His best-loved disciples. It saw the frenzied work of Satan, and his power over the hearts of men. Oh, fearful scene! the Saviour seized at midnight in Gethsemane, dragged to and fro from palace to judgment hall, arraigned twice before the priests, twice before the Sanhedrin, twice before Pilate, and once before Herod, mocked, scourged, condemned, and led out to be crucified, bearing the heavy burden of the cross, amid the wailing of the daughters of Jerusalem and the jeering of the rabble.

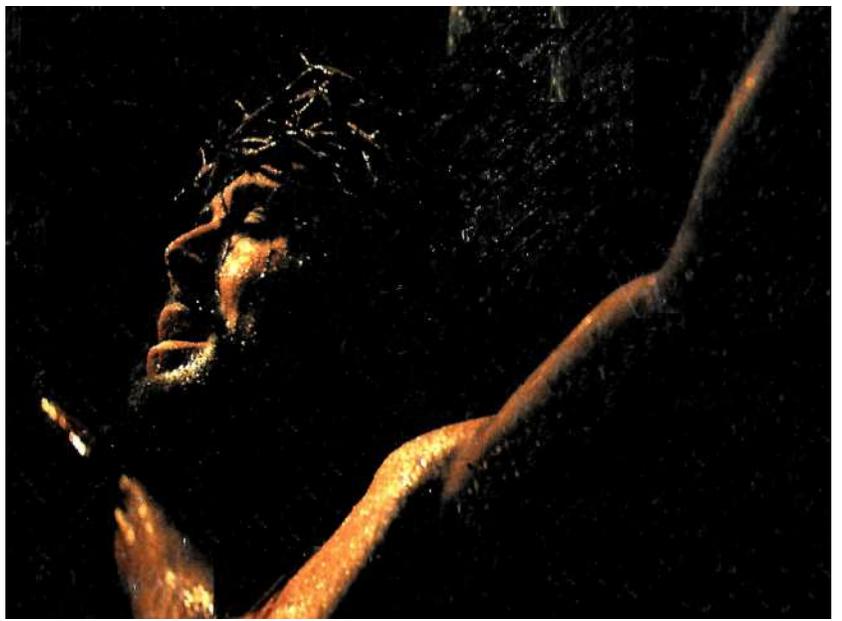

“Heaven viewed with grief and amazement Christ hanging upon the cross, blood flowing from His wounded temples, and sweat tinged with blood standing upon His brow. From His hands and feet the blood fell, drop by drop, upon the rock drilled for the foot of the cross. The wounds made by the nails gaped as the weight of His body dragged upon His hands. His labored breath grew quick and deep, as His soul panted under the burden of the sins of the world. All heaven was filled with wonder when the prayer of Christ was offered in the midst of His terrible suffering,— ‘Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.’ Luke 23:34. Yet there stood men, formed in the image of God, joining to crush out the life of His only-begotten Son. What a sight for the heavenly universe!...

“Satanic agencies confederated with evil men in leading the people to believe Christ the chief of sinners, and to make Him the object of detestation.

Those who mocked Christ as He hung upon the cross were imbued with the spirit of the first great rebel. He filled them with vile and loathsome speeches. He inspired their taunts. But by all this he gained nothing... [Praise God!]

“Satan saw that his disguise was torn away... [Let the fiend leap up and down]. He had revealed himself as a murderer... Yet Satan was not then destroyed. The angels did not even then understand all that was involved in the great controversy. The principles at stake were to be more fully revealed. And for the sake of man, Satan’s existence must be continued. Man as well as angels must see the contrast between the Prince of light and the prince of darkness. He must choose whom he will serve... [People wonder why God allows all the horrors! Now you know!]

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.

“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Sir; I was a devoted Catholic. But since someone loaned me the book “National Sunday Law,” everything about my life has changed. That book caused me to make the decision to be a Seventh-day Adventist. The man who loaned the book to me took it back, but the contents of the book are established in my heart. S.P.

Dear Pastor Jan,
Some time ago we were given the book “National Sunday Law” to read, and we immediately stopped keeping Sunday. We received instruction, and two months later we were baptized by immersion and are now Seventh-day Adventists. We are so happy!

We get the little NSL preachers to help others to be saved also, and our lives have changed! We are so much enjoying studying God’s word and keeping His Sabbath! We pray that these books will reach others [like they did for us] who will accept the truth of God’s word. We also plan to have you to do a bulk mailing for us in the future. May the Lord richly bless you in this ministry. In God’s love. E.M.

Let all poor fiends listen to this good news from God's prophet - "The law requires righteousness - a righteous life, a perfect character; and this, man has not to give. He cannot meet the claims of God's holy law. [Can you? Can I? So what's the solution? Here it is -] "But Christ, coming to the earth as man, lived a holy life, and developed a perfect character. These He offers as a free gift to all who will receive them. [I'm not going to wait one second! I choose to receive this perfection of Christ as a free gift! - right now! How about you?

Jesus said, "Be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee." Matt. 9:2.] "Go and sin no more." We have perfect peace with God and more joy than that purring kitty down there! So we might as well "relax" in Jesus! "Rest in Hope." Ps. 16:9.] Yes! "His life stands for the life of men... More than this... The very righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the believer in Christ. [That's you and me! So "God can 'be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.' Romans 3:26... [This is wonderful!] And "if any man sin we have an advocate with God, the man Christ Jesus. And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." John 2:1,2.

"Well then, might the angels rejoice as they looked upon the Saviour's cross; for though they did not then understand all, they knew that the destruction of sin and Satan was forever made certain, that the redemption of man was assured, and that the universe was made eternally secure. Christ Himself fully comprehended the results of the sacrifice made upon Calvary. To all these He looked forward when upon the cross He cried out, 'It is finished.' DA
