

“And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil;”

Hope: The sign says, “We Are Ungovernable.” Is it true? Would the poor Blue people like to do away with law so they can do their own thing? Are they like the masses who laughed at Noah? And what about the dictators?

Pastor Jan: Only Congress can pass laws. But here in the end of the world, the dictators dictate their whims and call it law. This Roman Catholic procedure has greatly accelerated since January 20.

The prophet of God cries out - “The agencies of evil are combining their forces and consolidating. They are strengthening for the last great crisis. Great changes are soon to take place in our world, and the final movements will be rapid ones.” 9T 11.

Charity: So what will happen?

Pastor Jan: In this letter, you'll get a hint.

for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor

The headline says, “How I learned to Love the New World Order.”

Charity: Who is this man who loves it?

Pastor Jan: Only God knows for sure. The March issue of The New American says “He [the Roman Catholic man] is pushing the WEF plan to use COVID-19 and global warming as pretexts to ‘reset’ the entire global... social, spiritual system.” Notice the word, “Spiritual.”

the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.”

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the name of dear Jesus!

Faith: The Bible verse says, “And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.” Who gives that “cry?” - the ten Virgins? How can they give it when they’re asleep? And what about the condition of the people soon before the bridegroom appears? Who are the Blue people, and what do they want? Will they get their wish? And how will it all affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Mark Dice: One of Hillary’s campaign promises is that she has vowed to repeal the Bill of Rights to help with the new world order. Do you think it’s time that we get rid of the Bill of Rights?

Blue person: I think it is! We can’t have old rules now. We live in a different world. I support getting rid of the Bill of Rights. I sure do!

Criminals are Taking Over the Streets

“Every day reports are coming in from major cities in the nation of a terrible crime wave sweeping through the land. Every year the violence and corruption escalate and the authorities seem unable to do anything about it. Criminals are out of control while our cities are being transformed into war zones.

- Oakland Police Chief LeRoone Armstrong reported that the City of Oakland experienced 12 hours of non-stop chaos, shootings, and homicides during the 4th of July.

- In San Francisco, retailers and businesses are being looted by criminal gangs, while the authorities [seem helpless.] Walgreens had to close its 17 stores in the city. [Droves of people rush in and then rush out with what used to be on the shelves - like a swarm of ants - and the armed guard stands paralyzed.]

- In Portland, Oregon, a man who installed a swimming pool in a community for the homeless, to help them stay cool during a 116-degree heat wave, was stabbed to death by the people he was trying to help.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I greet all of you in the mighty name of Jesus Christ. I am 22 years old and am patiently awaiting the soon return of our Lord Jesus. After reading your book “National Sunday Law,” I was astonished! This book has entirely changed my life! The facts in this book are undeniable. To reject these truths is perilous. May God enable you to continue to expose the masterpiece of Satan, [and to reveal the beauties of our Lord Jesus.] People need to be well versed in the topics in your book. I plan to share it with many others! Your brother in Christ, F.C.

Mark: Do you think we should get behind this effort to repeal the Bill of Rights? Do you think it's a good idea?

Blue person: I do! Yes. I think it's a good idea! Let everyone do their own thing!

Mark Dice: And do you think that having no law and doing our own thing is a good idea?

Blue person: Yeah, yeah, yeah!

- Chicago and New York City had a “staggering” number of shootings and deaths on that day. [The murderous fiends were comforted with the thought that the noise of the fire crackers blended with the sound of their guns.]

“Sin is being decriminalized, laws are not being enforced, law enforcement is being defunded, elected officials are refusing to do anything, and crime is increasing.”

Hope: Crime increasing? How do you think Noah felt? What do these shocking things have to do with the persecution, the plagues, and the coming of Jesus in the sky?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - “The wickedness of men was open and daring, justice was trampled in the dust, and the cries of the oppressed reached unto heaven... Neither the marriage relation nor the rights of property were respected. Whoever coveted the wives or the possessions of his neighbor, took them by force, and men exulted in their deeds of violence. They delighted in destroying the life of animals; and the use of flesh for food rendered them still more cruel and bloodthirsty until they came to regard human life with astonishing indifference.

“The world was in its infancy; yet iniquity had become so deep and widespread that God could no longer bear with it...”

“A hundred and twenty years before the Flood, the Lord by a holy angel declared to Noah His purpose, and directed him to build an ark... Those who would believe the message, and would prepare for that event by repentance and reformation, should find pardon and be saved...”

“It was not multitudes or majorities that were on the side of right. The world was arrayed against God's justice and His laws [as it is now] and Noah was regarded as a fanatic...”

“The world made merry at

Mark Dice: You probably heard on the news that President John F. Kennedy just died this morning after being hit by a car while crossing the street in Washington DC.

Blue person: It's unfortunate, but sometimes these things happen. You can't live forever.

Mark: Do you think it's time to go with the progressive agenda to repeal the Bill of Rights?

Blue person: I do agree with repealing the Bill of Rights. The Bill of Rights is unjust. That's my honest opinion.

Hi!

Reading “National Sunday Law” has changed my life. I cannot go back to Sunday worship. Now I will attend the church that keeps God's Sabbath day holy. Thank you so much for the revelation of this truth! God is so on time! A sister in Christ, Alicia K.

the folly of the deluded old man... But Noah stood like a rock amid the tempest. [Praise God!] Surrounded by popular contempt and ridicule, he distinguished himself by his holy integrity and unwavering faithfulness. A power attended his words, for it was the voice of God to man through His servant. Connection with God made him strong in the strength of infinite power, [Praise God!] while for one hundred and twenty years his solemn voice fell upon the ears of that generation in regard to events, which, so far as human wisdom could judge, were impossible...

Mark Dice: Hillary has promised to lower the standard of living. Do you think this is a good idea?

Blue person: Yea! I think it's good. Then we can all do our own thing!

Mark Dice: And do you think having no law and everyone doing their own thing is a good idea?
Blue person: Yeah. Why not?

“The period of their probation was about to expire. Noah had faithfully followed the instructions which he had received from God. The ark was finished in every part as the Lord had directed, and was stored with food for man and beast. And now the servant of God made his last solemn appeal to the people. With an agony of desire that words cannot express, he entreated them to seek a refuge while it might be found. Again they rejected his words, and raised their voices in jest and scoffing. Suddenly a silence fell upon the mocking throng.

“Beasts of every description, the fiercest as well as the most gentle, were seen coming from mountain and forest and quietly making their way toward the ark. A noise as of a rushing wind was heard, and lo, birds were flocking from all directions, their numbers darkening the heavens, and in perfect order they passed to the ark. Animals obeyed the command of God, while men were disobedient. Guided by holy angels, they ‘went in two and two unto Noah into the ark,’ and the clean beasts by sevens. The world looked on in wonder, some in fear. Philosophers were called upon to account for the singular occurrence, but in vain. It was a mystery which they could not fathom...

“As the doomed race beheld the sun shining in its glory, and the earth clad in almost Eden beauty, they banished their rising fears by boisterous merriment, [as they do now at jolly pot lucks, frivolous picnics, screaming ball games, etc.] and by their deeds of violence they seemed to invite upon themselves the visitation of the already awakened wrath of God.

“Mercy had ceased its pleadings for the guilty race... A flash of dazzling light was seen, and a cloud of glory more vivid than the lightning descended from heaven and hovered before the entrance of the ark. The massive door, which it was impossible for those within to close, was slowly swung to its place by unseen hands. Noah was shut in, and the rejecters of God’s mercy were shut out. The seal of Heaven was on that door; God had shut it, and God alone could open it. So when Christ shall cease His intercession for guilty men, before His coming in the clouds of heaven, the door of mercy will be shut. Then divine grace will no longer restrain the wicked, and Satan will have full control of those who have rejected mercy. [Our society hasn’t seen anything yet!] They will endeavor to destroy God’s people; but as Noah was shut into the ark, so the righteous will be shielded by divine power.

Mark Dice: Hillary has promised to lower the standard of living. Do think that’s long overdue?

Blue person: Yes. I think the standard of living should be lowered because I like to go to the bars and drink the alcohol.

“For seven days after Noah and his family entered the ark, there appeared no sign of the coming storm. It was a time of triumph to the world without. The apparent delay confirmed

Dear Sir,

Your book “National Sunday Law” was left on the steps of my church. I wish to thank you for the clear explanation to a lot of questions I’ve had for years. This book is dynamite! I can see that the issue in this book is going to be the deciding factor for the two classes of people in the entire world. It needs to be read far and wide to show people the evil that’s in our very midst. I can see that Rome is working in disguise as Satan always does. I’m planning to get many of these books to give to others. There are many who need to be reached with this message! May God bless you! Don

Dear Author,

I don’t know why or how I was mailed this book “National Sunday Law,” but I am ever so grateful that it was sent to me! I have read the Bible but have never really understood it. My eyes are now open!! I understand now, and am no longer ignorant about God’s holy Sabbath. Thank you!! Wanda them in the belief that Noah’s message was a delusion, and that the Flood would never come.

“They gathered in crowds about the ark, deriding its inmates with a daring violence [like they will do to us] which they had never ventured upon before.

“But upon the eighth day dark clouds overspread the heavens. There

“God has formed laws which govern our constitutions... For every transgression there is affixed a penalty, which must be realized... [Many] seem indifferent in regard to the matter of health, and work perseveringly to tear themselves to pieces, and when broken down and debilitated in body and mind, send for the doctor and drug themselves to death.” CD 19.

Pastor Jan: I told that to a doctor [M.D.] at the VA hospital, and she said, “You nailed it.” As I told her about God’s eight laws of health, she said, “I’ve never had a patient like you.” She said, “The patients who come to me are all on five million drugs.”

I told her that the second drug is to counteract the side affects of first drug. And the third drug is to counteract the side affects of the second drug.”

followed the muttering of thunder and the flash of lightning. Soon large drops of rain began to fall. The world had never witnessed anything like this, and the hearts of men were struck with fear. All were secretly inquiring, ‘Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed to destruction?’ Darker and darker grew the heavens, and faster came the falling rain. The beasts were roaming about in the wildest terror, and their discordant cries seemed to moan out their own destiny and the fate of man. Then ‘the fountains of the great deep’ were ‘broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.’ Water appeared to come from the clouds in mighty cataracts. Rivers broke away from their boundaries, and overflowed the valleys. Jets of water burst from the earth with indescribable force, throwing massive rocks hundreds of feet into the air, and these, in falling, buried themselves deep in the ground.

Do you see Mark anywhere? Poor blue people! We know why he’s laughing his head off. But if he knew what we know, he would be crying.

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.” John 3:16.

“Christ looked with compassion upon those who were being corrupted, murdered, and lost. They had chosen a ruler who chained them to his car as captives. Bewildered and deceived, they were moving on in gloomy procession toward eternal ruin — to death in which is no hope of life, toward night to which comes no morning.” DA 36.

“There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” Matt. 8:12.

“Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.” Matt. 24:44.

“The people first beheld the destruction of the works of their own hands. Their splendid buildings, and the beautiful gardens and groves where they had placed their idols, were destroyed by lightning from heaven, and the ruins were scattered far and wide. The altars on which human sacrifices had been offered were torn down, and the worshipers were made to tremble at the power of the living God, and to know that it was their corruption and idolatry which had called down their destruction.

“Some in their desperation endeavored to break into the ark, but the firm-made structure withstood their efforts. Some clung to the ark until they were borne away by the surging waters, or their hold was broken by collision with rocks and trees. The massive ark trembled in every fiber as it was beaten by the merciless winds and flung from billow to billow. The cries of the beasts within expressed their fear and pain. But amid the warring elements it continued to ride safely. Angels that excel in strength were commissioned to preserve it.

“Some of the people bound their children and themselves upon powerful animals, knowing that these were tenacious of life, and would climb to the highest points to escape the rising waters. Some fastened themselves to lofty trees on the summit of hills or mountains; but the trees were uprooted, and with their burden of living beings were hurled into the seething billows. One spot after another that promised safety was abandoned. As the waters rose higher and higher, the people fled for refuge to the loftiest mountains. Often man and beast would struggle together for a foothold, until both were swept away.

“From the highest peaks men looked abroad upon a shoreless ocean. The solemn warnings of God’s servant no longer seemed a subject for ridicule and scorning. How those doomed sinners longed for the opportunities which they had slighted! How they pleaded for one hour’s probation, one more privilege of mercy, one call from the lips of Noah! But the sweet voice of mercy was no more to be heard by them. Love, no less than justice, demanded that God’s judgments should put a check on sin. The avenging waters swept over the last retreat, and the despisers of God perished in the black depths.

““By the word of God... the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.’ 2 Peter 3:5-7. Another storm is coming. The earth will again be swept by the desolating wrath of God, and sin and sinners will be destroyed.

“The sins that called for vengeance upon the antediluvian world exist today. The fear of God is banished from the hearts of men, and His law is treated with indifference and contempt. The intense worldliness of that generation is equaled by that of the generation now living. Said Christ, ‘As in the days that were before the Flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and knew not until the Flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.’ Matt. 24:38,39.

“As the time of their probation was closing, the antediluvians gave themselves up to exciting amusements and festivities. Those who possessed influence and power were bent on keeping the minds of the people engrossed with mirth and pleasure, lest any should be impressed by the last solemn warning. Do we not see the same repeated in our day? While God’s servants are giving the message that the end of all things is at hand, the world is absorbed in amusements and pleasure seeking. There is a constant round of excitement that causes indifference to God and prevents the people from being impressed by the truths which alone can save them from the coming destruction.

Dear Sir,

My faith has found a resting place. Not in the pope with his number 666, but in King Jesus! After carefully studying the book “National Sunday Law” I was electrically moved and shocked. I have now come to trust and obey King Jesus - [including His true, Bible Sabbath.] Thanks be to Almighty God for the plain message you are carrying in your book. And bravo to the brother who put this book into my hands. God bless both of you. Paul

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I want to encourage you to keep witnessing for our Lord Jesus. He can use us to make a difference. I’m sending your NSL books to people. For years I have attended a Sunday keeping church – the Apostolic Faith Mission Church. But now the whole church has switched and is keeping God’s true Sabbath holy. Isn’t our Lord Jesus wonderful! Please keep us in your prayers as we keep you in ours. Scott

Dear Pastor Jan,

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus. I was on vacation and visited a church in Florida. They were baptizing people that day, and when a young man gave his testimony, he stated that he became a Seventh-day Adventist because he received a “National Sunday Law” book in the mail. This made me feel so good! God is blessing your work. Perry
