

Imagine driving a vehicle that is 4 city blocks long! The mammoth engines produced 46,000 horse power. The article says that the giant was the largest moving thing on earth that had ever been made by man. What did the monster have to do with Rev. 18:24? And why did a Jesuit priest get on board, take pictures of certain people, and then get off? What did his Jesuit superior command him to do? In this letter, you'll get a hint.

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.”

Captain Edward Smith

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Live forever! Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

A CNN Special

Faith: The verse says, “Thrust in thy sickle and reap.” What will it be like when that happens? It says that dear Jesus wears a golden crown. Why does the pope wear a triple crown? And after being warned 6 times, why did the captain have the giant ship race at full speed through a field of icebergs when the Californian was brought to a full stop? Who was Captain Edward Smith? What connection did he have with Rome? And what does the monster ship have to do with the three great goals of Rome, and the end of the world, and you and me?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Some of the documentation on this subject comes from the Bible; the Spirit of Prophecy; research of the historian, Eric Jon Phelps; from TIME and LIFE magazines; the DVD, "Listen to the Experts;" and from the books, The Secret Terrorists, pp. 60-63; Vatican Assassins, p. 427; The Footprints of the Jesuits, pp. 54, 72, 73; and The Book of the Titanic.

Hope: Where does it all start?

Pastor Jan: It all starts with this - "And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Rev. 18:24. Notice the word, "all."

Charity: Does the "all" include all the wars that the Vatican has secretly started and financed?

Pastor Jan: Yes. And it includes the 3 great goals of Rome described in GC 565,566 - "The Roman Church is far-reaching in her plans and modes of operation. She is employing every device to extend her influence and increase her power [notice the word, "every"] in preparation for a fierce and determined conflict 1) to regain control of the world, 2) to re-establish persecution, and 3) to undo all that Protestantism has done."

Here's the great Titanic - one of the pieces. She had 3 engines. The two larger ones each weighed 720 tons, and were powered by steam produced in 29 boilers from 159 furnaces. Each boiler weighed 91.5 tons, and was capable of holding 48.5 tons of water. The 29 boilers were heated by over 7,500 tons of burning coal. The furnaces required over 600 tons of coal each day to be shoveled into them by hand, requiring the services of 176 firemen working around the clock with no letup. The work was relentless, dirty, and dangerous, and once in a while, some of them killed themselves. But the passengers didn't need to know all that.

Faith: Her name is "MYSTERY." Rev. 17:5. How would Rome get rid of those three men without anyone suspecting that the mother church had anything to do with it?

Pastor Jan: Plans were laid by J.P. Morgan, and others, to 1) build a monster with 46,000 horsepower - - the largest, and most powerful vehicle the world had ever seen, 2) invite these three men to take a ride in it. 3) J.P. Morgan would also be invited, but at the last minute, he would back out. 4) The floating city would accidentally crash and sink, killing as many of the three men as possible, 5) and the Jesuits could then hopefully get a central bank in the U.S., and would have the financing they wanted to help finance wars, and whatever else they and the devil wanted to do to "regain control of the world," GC 565,566. Who would ever believe such a preposterous thing? Hopefully nobody.

As it turned out, the documentation reveals that the three influential men were forbidden to get into a lifeboat. So they all died, and Rome's forces were able to prevail upon President Woodrow Wilson to sign the act that would bring a central bank, to open the way for papal agents to divert funds to finance wars, and work to achieve her goals as prophecy had predicted.

Dancing at midnight on the Titanic! The floating palace had a gymnasium, a swimming pool, libraries, high-class restaurants, and gorgeous cabins for the high and mighty. What more could a person want? Death? For more than 1,500 of them, they didn't know that in about 2 hours, they would all be dead. "In such an hour as ye think not, the son of man cometh."

Faith: So how does the Titanic fit into this picture? And what does it have to do with the United States? For the Vatican to take over the U.S. did they need to set up a central bank so funds could be diverted to the Vatican Bank to finance wars and help Rome achieve her 3 great goals?

Pastor Jan: Yes. Many of you have already seen and heard Karen Hudes - the 20 year senior attorney for the World Bank - reveal on the DVD that I have, that money from the IRS has been diverted to the Vatican Bank.

Hope: So who or what was preventing the setting up of a central bank in the U.S. in 1912 when the Titanic sank?

Pastor Jan: There were three rich and influential men who were standing in the way. They were John Jacob Astor; Isador Strauss; and Benjamin Googenheim.

Charity: So who hatched the plan to get rid of these three men, to open the way for President Woodrow Wilson to sign the Federal Reserve Act on December 23, 1913 - to get the central bank as a Christmas present for the devil and the Bishop of Rome? And what did Captain Edward Smith have to do with anything? Who was he?

Pastor Jan: Though Captain Edward Smith was a member of a Protestant denomination, the historian Eric Jon Phelps also revealed that he was a "Jesuit tempore coadjutor." The owner of the White Star line was Rome's faithful servant J.P. Morgan. He was "a Jesuit of the short robe." These men were not priests, but were Jesuits who served and obeyed the Jesuits while working in their own

The night was black. Some are in the lifeboats. Most are in the water. In ice water, you have a very short time. It was reported that one man swam around pleading with people to give their lives to Jesus in the few moments they had. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." Rev. 14:13,14.

Charity: Would our kind Father allow Rome to insinuate herself into the affairs of nations; and having gained a foothold, to further her own aims even at the ruin of princes and people?

Pastor Jan: The prophet said - "History testifies of her persistent efforts to insinuate herself into the affairs of nations; and having gained a foothold, to further her own aims, even at the ruin of princes and people." GC 580.

Faith: What about Titanic's passengers? How did they feel about the high honor of riding on the world's greatest monster? And if you could interview some of those who died from breathing ice water, what would they say about their experience?

Pastor Jan: Not one of those who died can we ever interview in this life, for God says, "The living know that they shall die: but the dead know not anything... Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun. Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy... Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life... Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest." Eccl. 9:5-10. When they wake up, then they'll see something that they could never have dreamed of!

But we can learn a little of what some of the survivors experienced.

In this picture to the right is Charlotte and her 8 year old daughter, Marjorie. They were going from Hampshire, England, to Idaho. You can tell by the mother's face that her husband went down with the ship. Though destitute, she determined to press on to Idaho. She wrote home to England - "Oh mother, how can I live without him? I wish I had gone with him! But they threw Marjorie into the lifeboat and pulled me in with her. The poor mite was frozen! I will work for her as long as she needs me. Oh, she is a comfort to me, but she does not realize that her daddy is gone. The agony of that night can never be told."

Soon, they both returned to England, and in two years, Charlotte died of T.B. Her darling mite was raised by her dear uncle. If she was living now, the precious mite would be 114 years old. "Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. O LORD, truly I am thy servant... I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD." Ps. 16:15-17.

And here's 19 year old Anna Sophia Turja. She said, "The ship was a floating city. The main deck, with all its shops and attractions, was indeed bigger than the main street in my home town. The atmosphere in third class was quite lively: a lot of talking, singing, and fellowship. In 3rd class steerage {where I was} the men were kept in the front part of the ship, the women in the rear. Late that Sunday night, I felt a shudder and a shake. Shortly thereafter, my roommate's brother knocked on the door and told us that "something was wrong," that we should wear warm clothing and put on our life jackets. Our little group started heading for the upper decks. A crew member tried to keep us down and ordered us back - but we refused to obey and he didn't argue with us. I remember however, that the doors were closed and chained shut behind us to prevent others in third class from coming up. [That became their tomb.] We continued up to a higher deck, but out of pure curiosity I remained on the boat deck. I thought it was too cold to go up further, and I was intrigued by the activity and by the music being

The documentation reveals that after Jesuit "Father" Browne took pictures of the victims, he received a telegram from his Jesuit provincial saying, "GET OFF THAT SHIP -- PROVINCIAL"

Here's poor J.P. Morgan - the owner of the White Star Line. He died in the Grand Hotel in Rome, Italy with his papal friends only about 9 months after his lovely Titanic, went down. "All they that go down to the dust shall bow before Him: and none can keep alive his own soul." Ps. 22:29.

To the Author,

I don't know why or how I was sent this book "National Sunday Law" but I am ever so grateful that it was sent to me! I have read the Bible but have never really understood it. My eyes are now opened! I understand now, and am no longer ignorant about God's Sabbath. Thank you!!

played by the band. I remember seeing the lights of another ship from the deck. [That ship didn't come to the rescue of Titanic, because, instead of red emergency rockets, they shot up white party rockets, so the other ship thought they were just having a party.] It was on that deck that I met the Panula family from Finland. Mrs. Panula asked, "Must we all die by water?" Eventually, a sailor physically threw her into a lifeboat.

"The oarsmen of our lifeboat immediately rowed away from the Titanic, fearing that we would get sucked down when it went under. I heard loud explosions as the lights went out. For the first few minutes in the water the men in our boat beat people off who were trying to get into our boat. We were in the lifeboats for eight hours. The men burned any scraps of paper they could find - money, or anything else - so that the boats could see each other and stay together. My most haunting memory was that of the screams and cries of dying people in the water. Every time I get to this part of the story I start crying. They were in the water, and we couldn't help them. I can never understand why God spared a poor Finnish girl like me when all those

Dear Pastor Jan,
I believe everyone in the world should read "National Sunday Law." Surely God has blessed you greatly with this insight! Because of it, I am now a Seventh-day Adventist! Jesus is Lord! May God bless you greatly for sharing God's truth with the people! Your brother in Christ, Vincent. LA people drowned." Anna died in Long Beach, California, in 1982 at the age of 89. She would now be 125.

Here's little 7 year old Eva Hart. She said - "From the moment the arrangement was made for us to sail across the Atlantic to New York, my mother was horror-stricken. She had this dreadful premonition. My mother was quite a remarkable woman. She met my father, married him, and they were divinely happy. He was so good to her. We had a lovely home. My father had a motor car - which in those days, was rather remarkable. Everything was wonderful until this night.

"My mother said, 'No! We can't do this. It's quite wrong. Something dreadful will happen.' She was the sort of woman who had both feet on the ground, and for her to behave like that was absolutely unbelievable to everyone. But she just had that premonition.

"My father said, 'Oh nonsense.' Time went by, and the house was sold, and we got a reservation on a ship sailing to Philadelphia. Then this coal strike came, and the ship didn't sail. It was then that we were offered a place on a ship by the name of 'Titanic.' This absolutely delighted my father. He thought it was wonderful! The whole world was talking about that ship. I'd never been on a ship at all before, so it didn't mean very much to me. I remember the school children saying, 'Aren't you lucky to go on the Titanic!'

"We were in cabin #3. It was a second class cabin. There were two beds on one side, and two on the other.

"My mother said, 'My mind is made up. I will not go to bed in this ship. I shall sleep in the daytime, and I shall sit up at night.' She sat up Wednesday night, Thursday night, Friday night. On Saturday night she heard an odd sound. She awakened my father and made him go up on the deck. He came back and told her that it was ice flows grinding against the side of the ship, and not to be so silly. My mother said that if there was ice in abundance in the sea, there could be icebergs. An officer at our breakfast table said, 'Oh nonsense! If there are icebergs, we should see them; they are enormous things. There's nothing to be afraid of.' That was on Sunday morning.

"For the first time my mother didn't get up from breakfast and go straight to bed. She went to church. And we ate dinner together before she went to bed, and I remember that meal so well because that was the last meal the three of us ever had together.

"Everybody was gambling on this Sunday night when we struck the iceberg. My father didn't gamble because his father had died absolutely penniless from gambling. And so my father went to bed early."

Sunday, April 14, 11:40 p.m. - Crow's nest - "There's ice ahead! Iceberg right ahead!"

"A little before 12 midnight, my mother felt a slight bump. It was very slight, but she said she knew that it was this dreadful something, and she awakened my father. She literally pulled him out of bed and made him go up. My father came back very quickly. He came up and wrapped his blanket tightly around me as if I were a baby. My mother didn't say anything to him at that time. I couldn't understand why she didn't say, 'What was it?' Later, when I asked her why she didn't say anything, she said, 'I didn't have to say 'what was it,' because I knew it was this dreadful something that I had to live with. There was nothing more I could say.'

Dear Pastor Jan,
I have Cerebral Palsy, but I am happy in the Lord. I want more people to read your book "National Sunday Law." On Christmas day my friend took me out in the falling snow in my wheel chair. I got to wish people "Marry Christmas" as I was pushed up to their doors and handed them a copy of the NSL book {all wrapped up as a present.} We gave out 25 in one hour. When Jesus comes, I'll walk. I've made up my mind to be happy in Jesus the way I am until I'm in heaven with Him. I don't want to be pitied for my body's sake. Most of all, I want Jesus to shine through me. I enjoy seeing your videos very much. Love, Ellen WA

The fiend is limited by our kind Father. When probation closes, the devil will no longer be limited, and he can then kill or torture the wicked as he pleases. Then they will see what kind of a master they have chosen. Please cling to dear Jesus! He is our only hope!

"I remember the school children saying, 'Aren't you lucky to go on the Titanic!'"

"My father put this very thick coat on my mother, and he put one on himself. Without a word at all we left the cabin and went up on the boat deck. If we hadn't done it at that time, I very much doubt I'd be talking to you today. As you know, there was accommodation for less than 800 people in the lifeboats, and there were over 2200 on board. So it was a question of who was there on time to get into them.

“They weren’t launched right away because at first, nobody thought anything was going to happen. An officer said, ‘They are going to launch the lifeboats, but you’ll be back on board for breakfast.’

“Some of the young men on board were playing with the ice that was strewn on the deck. They kept saying, ‘It’s unsinkable! It’ll never sink!’

“So they launched these boats, and my father helped. He put me in a lifeboat and told me to be good. He told me to hold Mummy’s hand. I thought that he was coming back. Then it dawned on me - that he wasn’t coming, and that I would not see him anymore! The collision was a little before 12, and the Titanic sank at twenty past 2. [It was very cold.]

“So we rowed away from the ship as fast as we could. I didn’t close my eyes at all - - I saw that ship sink! And I saw that ship break in half. For many years, people argued with me about that. But now at last it has been proved that she did break in half. The back part of the ship stood up in the water for quite a while before it went down.

“They played ‘Nearer My God to Thee.’ The Americans said that they just played ragtime, but it wasn’t. It wasn’t. It was the same ‘Nearer My God to Thee’ that they played in church some months later. When I heard it in church, I was so frightened that I ran out.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

My wife and I are Roman Catholics. I received a catechism as a graduation gift, but didn’t read it until I finished reading your book, “National Sunday Law.” What a shock! I was shocked at the material in the catechism that does not align with scripture!!! For years I bought into the lies about Sunday and other pagan traditions. After I finished your book I had the blinders taken off my eyes! I am now accountable to the Almighty! Thank you for opening my eyes to the facts that were hidden from me! Sincerely, Daniel

“I can only tell you that I’m a terrible coward. I never look at pictures of it going down. Ever! I can’t bear to look at it. Looking at it from way down on the sea in that little boat, it was dreadful! I don’t like looking at pictures of ships at all. I don’t like pictures of the Titanic in particular because I can see it happening.

“We were picked up as you know by a sister ship Carpathia. The rescue of people in lifeboats in mid-ocean is quite a terrifying thing. These little boats draw up alongside of what looks like an enormous vessel. And then how do you get on board? They opened the hatch in the side of the ship. They threw down rope ladders for people like my mother. And they had to climb up in mid ocean – on the swaying rope ladder – which she said was the most terrifying thing. And what could we children do? We couldn’t climb up a rope ladder. So they got these big luggage nets. The mesh is very wide apart. Small children could have slipped through it. So each child was put into a sack. I remember being petrified when I was put in that sack - then the sack full of these children were put into these huge nets, and hauled on board. That was quite terrifying.

“Having gotten on board, I couldn’t find my mother. And I didn’t find her for hours. One of the most pathetic things was that all the next day, these poor women roamed about the ship looking to see if they could find the husband they left behind. But none of them found anyone.

“The Carpathia with its tragic cargo steamed to New York, and the legend of the Titanic became public property. My father’s sister met us, and we were whisked straight off to her home. And I was ill. When they threw me from one boat into the other, they bruised me very badly. My mother’s first words were, ‘How soon can I go home?’

Dear Pastor Jan,

I had a NSL book sitting around my house but never read it. Well, last week I started reading it, and I couldn’t put it down! It helped me so much and answered so many questions about Revelation. I fell away from the Lord for many years. After reading your book, my life changed forever! I feel comforted by God and His promises. In Christ, N.B.

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

“I remember being absolutely petrified on the dark night with a sinking ship, and people screaming. There wasn’t any panic until the lifeboats left, and then there was panic galore. We were down in the ocean. We could hear them running about on the decks, and screaming. You can imagine that people came up from their cabins and went onto the deck - finding no lifeboats - and tearing around to the other side! That’s when the panic was there!

“There wasn’t any panic at the time I got in the lifeboat because there weren’t many people up there. But when they found that there were no boats - there was panic - we could hear it!

“But the most dreadful sound of all was the sound of people drowning. The screams. My mother couldn’t get me to talk about it for years. Someone said, ‘Do you remember the silence that followed it?’ The whole world stood still that night! Once the lights had gone, and the ship had gone, the sound was gone. Oh it was dreadful! Dreadful!

Dear Sir,

Your book “National Sunday Law” is so interesting that I couldn’t put it down! It taught me things that I’ve needed to understand in the Bible! Please send me as many more of these books as this donation will cover. I want to give this book to many others! The book is so fantastic! And I praise God that He has inspired you to write it for the people! I’d like to give one to every person in my whole church! I praise God for the wonderful ministry He placed you in! Sincerely, Brenda Arkansas

“No one should have died. One life is worth more than the whole ship! I’m the only living survivor now who can remember it. I don’t think there’s anyone besides me who can really tell the story of it now. I met the Captain of the Titanic three or four times as my father spoke to him. The Captain took us to some room in the ship where passengers don’t normally go. And I, of course, wasn’t a bit interested at seven years of age. But he was very nice, I remember that. He greatly admired a doll I had. He was very nice to me. That is what I saw. That is what I remember.”

Now, little Eva would be 113 years old. I pray that we will see her and our loved ones in heaven soon - in the wonderful "home of the saved" - where Jesus is!

So the way was paved for the great whore of Rev. 17 to have a source of funds to finance World War I, then World War II. Then, later wars, and the wars raging now, for, "In her was found the blood of ... all that were slain upon the earth." Rev. 18:24. The prophet said - "In the last scenes of this earth's history war will rage." Maranatha, p. 174. What good is death? Why not do away with it? Here it is -

"It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation." Heb. 9:27,28. And here's another part of it -

"God made man perfectly holy and happy; and the fair earth, as it came from the Creator's hand, bore no blight of decay or shadow of the curse. It is transgression of God's law - the law of love - that has brought woe and death. Yet even amid the suffering that results from sin, God's love is revealed. It is written that God cursed the ground for man's sake. Gen. 3:17. The thorn and the thistle - the difficulties and trials that make his life one of toil and care - were appointed for his good as a part of the training needful in God's plan for his uplifting from the ruin and degradation that sin has wrought. The world, though fallen, is not all sorrow and misery. In nature itself are messages of hope and comfort. There are flowers upon the thistles, and the thorns are covered with roses. 'God is love' is written upon every opening bud, upon every spire of springing grass. The lovely birds making the air vocal with their happy songs, the delicately tinted flowers in their perfection perfuming the air, the lofty trees of the forest with their rich foliage of living green - all testify to the tender, fatherly care of our God, and to His desire to make His children happy." SC 9,10. Praise God!

"There is forgiveness for the penitent; for Christ is 'the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.' John 1:29. God's promise is: 'Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.' Isa. 1:18... Of the poor in spirit Jesus says, 'Theirs is the kingdom of heaven...' His subjects are the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted for righteousness' sake. The kingdom of heaven is theirs..."

"All who feel that they have nothing good in themselves, may find righteousness and strength by looking unto Jesus. [Praise God!] He says, 'Come unto Me.' Matt. 11:28. He bids you exchange your poverty for the riches of His grace. We are not worthy of God's love, but Christ is worthy, and is abundantly able to save all who shall come unto Him... He pleads before God in our behalf, saying: I have taken the sinner's place. Look not upon this wayward child, but look on Me. Does Satan plead loudly against our souls, accusing of sin, and claiming us as his prey? The blood of Christ pleads with greater power!" MB 8,9. Praise God friend! Praise God!
