the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake... And every mountain and island were moved out of their places.”

“As it was” in the days of Carnivore magazine. He grasps the gun in one hand. He clutches the hunk of a dead carcass in his other hand. He grips a knife between his teeth. Concerning our day “as it was,” the prophet said, “Men exulted in their deeds of violence. They delighted in destroying the life of animals; and the use of flesh for food rendered them still more cruel and bloodthirsty, until they came to regard human life with astonishing indifference.” PP 91.

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the holy name of Jesus.
Faith: The Bible quote says, “And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.” Rev. 6:5. The prophet said, “Then I saw Jesus throw down the censer. He raised His hands, and with a loud voice said, ‘It is done.’” Mar. 242. How will the thrown censer affect everyone in the world?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

The sun didn't blacken, nor the moon turn red, but the world did come to an end, just as their prophet had promised. The End drove up to their doorstep in a tank, spitting gas, fulfilling prophecies. And if anyone wants to harm them, says the Book of Revelation, fire pours from their mouth and consumes their foes.

Buzzards circled overhead and the wind blew hard on the day the Branch Davidians died. Before the sun came up, state troopers went door to door to the houses near the compound, telling people to stay inside, there might be some noise. Over their loudspeakers, the tired negotiators called one last time for David Koresh and his followers to surrender peacefully. Then they got on the phone and told him exactly where the tear gas was coming, so he could move the children away. The phone came sailing out the front door. They will make war on the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them.

The pounding began a few minutes after 6 a.m., when an armored combat engineer vehicle with a long, insistent steel nose started prodding a corner of the building. Shots rang out from the windows the moment agents began pumping in tear gas. A second CEV joined in, buckling walls, breaking windows, nudging, nudging, as though moving the building would move those inside. "This is not an assault!" agent Byron Sage cried over the loudspeakers. "Do not shoot. We are not entering your compound." Ambulances waited a mile back; the local hospital, Hillcrest Baptist Medical Center, was on alert.

TIME, May 3, 1993

I saw it on the news. When there was nothing left but smoldering rubble, Sweet Vennita and I went there and learned some things. As you saw on the CCA video, the death decree against the Davidians was carried out by federal agencies. The death decree of Rev. 13:15 against God's commandment-keeping people will also be carried out by federal agencies. God's people around the world could see the parallel.

Neither the federal agents, nor the TIME article, nor the Davidians were without fault. One example is the picture on page 3 showing that the poor demon controlled man signed the letter he had written to someone with the words, "God Koresh."

People of the world have an awesome choice to make; either the seal of God with persecution, or the mark of the beast with the seven last plagues and the fire of hell. At that time - for good or for evil - the characters of people in the whole world will be "fully ripe." Rev. 14:18.

for His people and blotted out their sins. The number of His subjects is made up...

"When He leaves the sanctuary, darkness covers the inhabitants of the earth. In that fearful time the righteous must live in the sight of a holy God without an intercessor. The restraint which has been upon the wicked is removed, and Satan has entire control of the finally impenitent. God's long-suffering has ended. The world has rejected His mercy, despised His love, and trampled upon His law. The wicked have passed the boundary of their probation; the Spirit of God, persistently resisted, has been at last withdrawn. Unsheltered by divine grace, they have no protection from the wicked one. Satan will then plunge the inhabitants of the earth into one great, final trouble. As the angels of God cease to hold in check the fierce winds of human passion, all the elements of strife will be let loose. ["All" includes nuclear power.] The whole world will be involved in ruin more terrible than that which came upon Jerusalem of old...

"Those who honor the law of God have been accused of bringing judgments upon the world, and they will be regarded as the cause of the fearful convulsions of nature and the strife and bloodshed among men that are filling the earth with woe. The power attending the last warning has enraged the wicked; their anger is kindled against all who have received the message, and Satan will excite to still greater intensity the spirit of hatred and persecution...

"When the irrevocable decision of

"When the third angel's message closes, mercy no longer pleads for the guilty inhabitants of the earth. The people of God have accomplished their work. They have received 'the latter rain,' 'the refreshing from the presence of the Lord,' and they are prepared for the trying hour before them. Angels are hastening to and fro in heaven. An angel returning from the earth announces that his work is done; the final test has been brought upon the world, and all who have proved themselves loyal to the divine precepts have received 'the seal of the living God.' Then Jesus ceases His intercession in the sanctuary above. He lifts His hands and with a loud voice says, 'It is done.'

"Every case has been decided for life or death. Christ has made the atonement

"A man appeared on the roof, his clothes aflame, rolling in pain. Agents moved toward him, but he waved them off. He fell off the roof, and the agents ran over, tore off his burning clothes and got him safely into the armored vehicle.

the sanctuary has been pronounced and the destiny of the world has been forever fixed, the inhabitants of the earth will know it not.

“The forms of religion will be continued by a people from whom the Spirit of God has been finally withdrawn; and the satanic zeal with which the prince of evil will inspire them for the accomplishment of his malignant designs, will bear the semblance of zeal for God.

[Look at them parking their cars and walking into the church. Many things will be like they are now. Though doomed to hell and totally controlled by demons, people will still be shopping at shopping centers, going to the doctor’s office, washing the dishes, driving their children to school; ball games; watching T.V; and eating meals. But wherever you look, faces are deeply sad because “joy is withered away from the sons of men.” Joel 2:12.]

“As the Sabbath has become the special point of controversy throughout Christendom, and religious and secular authorities have combined to enforce the observance of the Sunday, the persistent refusal of a small minority to yield to the popular demand will make them objects of universal execration. It will be urged that the few who stand in opposition to an institution of the church and a law of the state ought not to be tolerated; that it is better for them to suffer than for whole nations to be thrown into confusion and lawlessness. [That will lead to the death decree of Rev. 13:15.]

“The people of God will then be plunged into those scenes of affliction and distress described by the prophet... ‘Thus saith the Lord: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace... All faces are turned into paleness. Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob’s trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.’ Jer. 30:5-7...

“As Satan accuses the people of God on account of their sins, the Lord permits him to try them to the uttermost. Their confidence in God, their faith and firmness, will be severely tested. As they review the past, their hopes sink; for in their whole lives they can see little good. They are fully conscious of their weakness and unworthiness. Satan endeavors to terrify them with the thought that their cases are hopeless, that the stain of their defilement will never be washed away. He hopes so to destroy their faith that they will yield to his temptations and turn from their allegiance to God...

“They afflict their souls before God, pointing to their past repentance of their many sins, and pleading the Saviour’s promise: ‘Let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he shall make peace with Me.’ Isa. 27:5. Their faith does not fail because their prayers are not immediately answered. Though suffering the keenest anxiety, terror, and distress, they do not

Dear Sir;

While here in this prison in PA, I talked with a prisoner who was walking around. He told me that his crime was 1st Degree Murder. I offered him your book “National Sunday Law” - - my only copy. A few days later, he said, “I BELIEVE EVERYTHING IN THIS BOOK!” He then said that he wanted some of these books to send to his family. I was very shocked. He was a different man! He said, “YOU GAVE ME JUST WHAT I WAS SEARCHING FOR!” It is so amazing how people are searching for God. This man is really a changed man! He said that he has become a child of God and wants to help save people for the kingdom of Christ. I wanted to share this with you. God bless, M. Palmer

In Hebrew, Yahweh is the name of God. So David Koresh {Vernon Howell} the blaspheming sex fiend signed his letter as “God Koresh.” In the letter he said, “I AM your God and you will bow under my feet. I AM your life and your death.” After the fiery Davidian “holocaust,” I was invited to speak in the SDA church where Vernon Howell was a member. David {Vernon Howell} commanded the SDA pastor that he was going to marry his daughter. We thank our kind Father that he never did. Not only David Koresh, but many of the Davidians also had membership in Conference churches. So do many of the homosexuals in “SDA Kinship International.” The G.C. men took them to court over that, but the poor G.C. men lost. The judge ruled in favor of the sodomites because she found out that a great many of them were members of Conference churches. Now the sodomite fiends can use the name “SDA” all they want. The solution is not in lawsuits. It’s in Matt. 18. But almost nobody considers that. Neither do they consider the Bible command not to take professed Christians to court. You may pity those who violate this Bible command in I Cor. 6:1-7. It’s the responsibility of the local church to lovingly deal with each member according to the words of dear Jesus in Matt. 18.

God’s prophet said, “Our people have been regarded as too insignificant to be worthy of notice, but a change will come. The Christian world is now making movements which will necessarily bring commandment-keeping people into prominence.

“The whole world is to be stirred with enmity against Seventh-day Adventists, because they will not yield homage to the papacy by honoring Sunday, the institution of this antichristian power. It is the purpose of Satan to cause them to be blotted from the earth, in order that his supremacy of the world may not be disputed.” Maranatha, p. 217.

It’s good that God’s obedient people will be brought “into prominence” because they obey God’s holy law rather than because of a few demon controlled criminals and sex fiends.

cease their intercessions. They lay hold of the strength of God as Jacob laid hold of the Angel; and the language of their souls is: ‘I will not let Thee go, except Thou bless me.’

“Satan leads many to believe that God will overlook their unfaithfulness in the minor affairs of life; but the Lord shows in His dealings with Jacob that He will in no wise sanction or tolerate evil. All who endeavor to excuse or conceal their sins, unconfessed and unforgiven, will be overcome by Satan...

“Those who delay a preparation for the day of God cannot obtain it in the time of trouble... The case of all such is hopeless...

“Jacob’s history is also an assurance that God will not cast off those who have been deceived and tempted and betrayed into sin, but who have returned unto Him with true repentance. [Praise God!] While Satan seeks to destroy this class, God will send His angels to comfort and protect them in the time of peril. The assaults of Satan are fierce and determined, his delusions are terrible; but the Lord’s eye is upon His people, and His ear listens to their cries...

Dear Sir,

I have read "National Sunday Law." Now I know why the Lord brought me out of my Sunday church! This same church had to be sold because many left after years of being deceived. All churches in my area worship on Sunday. I constantly hear the verse quoted to me, "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together." I say to them, True, but "We ought to obey God rather than man." Acts 5:29. Thank you, S.H

“We should now acquaint ourselves with God by proving His promises. Angels record every prayer that is earnest and sincere. We should rather dispense with selfish gratifications than neglect communion with God. The deepest poverty, the greatest self-denial, with His approval, is better than riches, honors, ease, and friendship without it. We must take time to pray. If we allow our minds to be absorbed by worldly interests, the

“Our precious Saviour invites us to join ourselves to Him, to unite our weakness to His strength, our ignorance to His wisdom, our unworthiness to His merits. God’s providence is the school in which we are to learn the meekness and lowliness of Jesus... [If we look carefully, we see how our kind Father is working to help us to be “meek and lowly.”]

“As the crowning act in the great drama of deception, Satan himself will personate Christ. The church has long professed to look to the Saviour’s advent as the consummation of her hopes. Now the great deceiver will make it appear that Christ has come. In different parts of the earth, Satan will manifest himself among men as a majestic being of dazzling brightness, resembling the

Dear Sir;

I was given a "National Sunday Law" book to read. I finished reading it at 1 o'clock in the morning, and when I finished reading it, I knew that the seventh day is the Sabbath of God! It has changed our lives! I was so happy that I prayed and sang. A glorious peace - which I had sought for a very long time - came into my soul that early Friday morning. When my husband awoke, I shared with him my experience and decision. Thankfully, he was in agreement for us to head down this new path! What a blessing it was! May God bless you! R.S.

description of the Son of God given by John in the Revelation. Rev 1:13-15. The glory that surrounds him is unsurpassed by anything that mortal eyes have yet beheld. The shout of triumph rings out upon the air: ‘Christ has come! Christ has come!’ The people prostrate themselves in adoration before him, while he lifts up his hands and pronounces a blessing upon them, as Christ blessed His disciples when He was upon the earth. His voice is soft and subdued, yet full of melody. In gentle, compassionate tones he presents some of the same gracious, heavenly truths which the Saviour uttered; he heals the diseases of the people, and then, in his assumed character of Christ, he claims to have changed the Sabbath to Sunday, and commands all to hallow the day which he has blessed. He declares that those who persist in keeping holy the seventh day are blaspheming his name by refusing to listen to his angels sent to them with light and truth. This is the strong, almost overmastering delusion.

desolate and solitary places. Many will find refuge in the strongholds of the mountains. Like the Christians of the Piedmont valleys, they will make the high places of the earth their sanctuaries and will thank God for 'the munitions of rocks.' Isa. 33:16. But many of all nations and of all classes, high and low, rich and poor, black and white, will be cast into the most unjust and cruel bondage. The beloved of God pass weary days, bound in chains, shut in by prison bars, sentenced to be slain, some apparently left to die of starvation in dark and loathsome dungeons. No human ear is open to hear their moans; no human hand is ready to lend them help.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I have just now discovered the truth of God by reading your book "National Sunday Law." I must say that it is truly fascinating how God's truth all fits together! I was raised a Roman Catholic but have always felt that it was not right to confess my sins to a man. Now that I can see the truth of God, I choose to be a complete follower of God's word.
