Dear SDA friends around the world,

Live forever! Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: Isa. 24:1 says, "Behold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof." Why? How? What good will it do the wicked? What good will it do God's dear people? What tools will He use? After it's over, what will happen then? Is it happening now? And how will it affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

A gift of death from the devil, saying, Happy new year to all! And to all a good night!

The following account is from the Palm Beach Post, by Kimberly Miller.

“A deafening roar drove 17-year-old Katrina Coleman into the bathroom Wednesday night. Crouched with a friend, she put her fingers in her ears and shut her eyes tight. She prayed so as not to scream and she never lost consciousness.

“Next door, Donna Faye Reed flew into the bathtub, sandwiching her 16-year-old daughter Tiffany between herself and a cousin who lay on top of them for protection.

“A mile away, 11-year-old Reid Barton and his family also ran to the bathroom, but only five people could fit, and seven more spilled into the hallway.

“The tornado tossed a mobile home onto the house Wednesday evening. Reid tucked his face between his knees and held a pillow over his head. Someone covered him with his grandmother’s thick quilt. With winds pushing as high as 157 mph, the tornado buzzed through trees and brush in the darkness before coming to a small cluster of homes. There, it killed four people.

“James Terry, 55, and his daughter Donna Faye Reed, 35, were killed in a double-wide trailer when the tornado turned it over, picked it up, and dropped it on top of the wood-frame home of Melissa and Danny Houghs, where Coleman cowered in the bathroom.

Some of the hail was larger than four inches in diameter. Citizens were seen frantically running red lights and stop signs in an effort to get under some form of hail protection. The huge hail caused great destruction, punching holes in cars and houses, demolishing vegetation, smashing out skylights at a Wal-Mart Supercenter, and breaking the windows out of one side of a hospital. When the people choose the devil as their master, dear Jesus will sadly allow the fiend to give them this wedding gift - “And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: [about 60 pounds.] And men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.” Rev. 16:21.

“James Marshall, 41, and his wife, Mary Lee, 37, were killed when their mobile home was flung from its foundation, and landed across the street.

“Coleman thought she was in a safe place Wednesday night. She watched from the sofa as tornado warnings were issued in counties all around Calhoun. But she didn’t see the one that said a tornado was headed her way. She just reacted to the noise. It was so loud, she said, that she couldn’t hear anything else, even as glass was breaking and wood was splintering all around her. ‘The noise just got closer and closer, and then the house started shaking, and then we just got picked up and flung,’ said Coleman, who would learn later that the Terry home was pitched on top of the house she was in.

“Mary Folsom, sister of James Terry, learned from Tiffany of how her relatives had tried to save themselves by going to the bathroom. She and three other relatives survived. Tiffany, who suffered a dislocated shoulder, doesn’t remember anything after getting into the bathtub. After the tornado, the roof was gone, and Coleman lay on her side, covered with so much debris that she couldn’t feel the wind or rain pelting her. She screamed in the dark, but her voice was muffled by a closet that sat sideways in front of her. A friend who was in the bathroom with her lay nearby, and the two told each other to hang on and wait for help.

“People were screaming when Sgt. Terry arrived at the scene. He couldn’t tell whether they were male or female or make out what they were saying. The yells came from the piles of wreckage. Phinney, who arrived next, said the beams from their flashlights were nearly useless as wind-driven rain smothered the light. He just picked an area and started moving debris.

“‘It was like you just took a bunch of toothpicks and slung them out,’ Phinney said about what was left of the homes. ‘There wasn’t a house in sight, just piles.’ Phinney saw a young girl sitting up and another man calling for help. He helped the girl stand and then realized that under the debris he was straddling was a dead woman.

“Relatives picked through the debris scattered along a path the size of a football field. Strawn across the site were stuffed animals, a Christmas stocking, textbooks from Chipola Junior College. A soggy Bible lay open to Romans 1:21, with purple highlighter marking the chapter which spoke of ‘God’s righteous judgment.’

Our kind Father is letting the devil show the world that time is short now before dear Jesus appears in the sky. Fierce storms, floods, and fires have obliterated large areas. Meteorologists say that 35 tornadoes blew across the state in one week, killing hundreds.

Here’s the church sanctuary. 26 tornadoes spun off of the hurricane. In the vast disaster area, covering several states, SDA churches and other churches opened their doors to give food to hundreds of homeless and hungry people who had lost their homes just days earlier. One man had walked for 2 days with no food. When they gave him a nice sandwich, he was so touched that he started crying - thankful to God and to them. Many members unselfishly came from various locations to SDA churches which opened their doors - to help the people. It was wonderful of the churches to open to the poor and needy in this emergency. But in one church, most of the degraded members wouldn’t give food to the hungry people because they said that it wasn’t part of their church activity. How ashamed they will be in the judgment of God! It was observed that these same saints didn’t mind filling their own bellies at the pot luck dinner.

Another well-to-do church {like the picture of the one you see above} would not give food, {or anything else in this emergency} to the hungry people because they didn’t want to get their nice carpet dirty. What could dear Jesus do to help them to be unselfish - ready to sit on thrones with Him instead of sharing in the devil’s reward? He knew just what to do. He gave the OK for the greatest evangelist on earth to come and bring a nice storm to rip the church roof off and cover the pretty carpet with 9 inches of healing water - to give the members some hydrotherapy.

Faith: Who is that greatest evangelist on earth? Pastor Jan: It’s the devil! While he’s working to destroy billions, God has overruled the mad fiend to drive - like a roaring lion - more millions to dear Jesus than any preacher on earth. Let the fiend leap up and down.

The prophet of God cries out - "As men depart further and further from God, Satan is permitted to have power over the children of disobedience. He hurls destruction upon men. There is calamity by land and sea. Property and life are destroyed by fire and flood. Satan resolves to charge this upon those who refuse to bow to the idol Sabbath which he has set up. The Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world. Hurricanes, storms, tempests, disasters... follow one another in quick succession.

"Calamities will come--calamities most awful, most unexpected; and these destructions will follow one after another... God [in His tender love for them] allows them to suffer calamity, that their senses may be awakened. [If they would only cry out to Him, He would gladly save them! He loves them so much!]

"The judgments will be according to the wickedness of the people and the light of truth that they have had." Mar. 176.

"The great master of evil conceals himself, working behind the scenes. [Is that a "conspiracy?"] He lays his plans with wonderful ingenuity, so arranging matters that men will not have time to think of the things of eternity. He can keep mind and hand employed. He fills those under his guidance with ambitious hopes for worldly greatness. Thus Satan is playing the game of life for the souls of men, and he is succeeding in a way surprising even to himself." RH 7/16/01.

Dear Pastor Jan,

The main book that I have ever distributed is National Sunday Law. I PRAISE GOD that He has used this book so that many people have accepted God's holy Sabbath. Because of National Sunday Law, I myself became a Seventh-day Adventist, to keep God's Bible Sabbath instead of the pagan day of the Sun. I leave your book everywhere. I have put the NSL preachers in laundromats, libraries, post offices, book stores, restaurants, parking lots, restrooms, schools, flea markets, doctor's offices, hospitals, dry cleaners, car dealerships, auto mechanic shops, florist shops, police departments, government buildings, department stores, and everywhere you could think of. I have set up newspaper stands, holding NSL books, at convenience stores. When people enter the store to buy their poisonous cigarettes; and waste Gods' money on lottery tickets, they can pick up a National Sunday Law book. Then, i go back once a week to re-stock the book stands. There are millions that need to be warned. The "man of sin," the pope, has made it clear that he is doing what he can to bring a Sunday law. May God bless you! Ruth

Rockin' In The ROCK!

POWDER KEG™
A BLAST IN THE WILDERNESS

Welcome to the Catholic Charismatic Celebration where all are one! The "Rockin' in the Rock" road is broad enough for everyone! Free jokes, free laughs, free love. Everyone has a blast! No prejudice here! All are one! Catholics, Protestants, Spiritualists, Buddhists, Confucionists, Hindus, Lesbians, Bisexuals, Transgenders, Queers, Jesuits, bishops, cardinals, popes, animal sex fiends, sodomites, "dogs, sorcerers, whoremongers, murderers, idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie." Rev. 22:15. All are one in the big church fun! For the Rockin' Celebration Movement has begun!

"In the broad road all are occupied with their dress, their persons, and the pleasures in the way. They indulge freely in hilarity, and think not of the certain destruction at the end of the path. Every day they approach nearer their destruction; yet they madly rush on faster and faster. Oh, how dreadful this looked to me!

"I saw many traveling in this broad road who had the words written upon them: 'Dead to the world. The end of all things is at hand. Be ye also ready.' But they looked just like all the vain ones around them, except a shade of sadness which I noticed upon their countenances. Their conversation was just like that of the gay, thoughtless ones around them; but they would occasionally point with great satisfaction to the letters on their garments, [can you guess what those letters said?] calling for the others to have the same upon theirs. They were in the broad way, yet they professed to be of the number who were traveling the narrow way. I saw them decorating their poor mortal bodies, which are liable at any moment to be touched by the finger of God, and laid upon a bed of anguish. Oh, then, as they approach their last change, mortal anguish racks their frames, and the great inquiry then is, 'Am I prepared to die? prepared to appear before God in judgment?' Ask them then how they feel about decorating their bodies...

“Why is it so hard to lead a self-denying, humble life? Because professed Christians are not dead to the world. It is easy living after we are dead... [Notice the word, “easy.” And notice the word, “after.” Do people know what this means? Gal. 2:20 explains it.] Childlike simplicity is rarely seen; the approbation of man is more thought of than the displeasure of God.

“Those who travel in the narrow way are talking of the joy and happiness they will have at the end of the journey. Their countenances are often sad, yet often beam with holy, sacred joy. They do not dress like the company in the broad road, nor talk like them, nor act like them. [Have you met many people like that?] A pattern has been given them. A Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief opened that road for them, and traveled it Himself. His followers see His footsteps, and are comforted and cheered. He went through safely; so can they, if they follow in His footsteps.” MYP 127-130.

The volcano in Iceland exploded to life, spewing lava, magma, rock, and clouds of ash into the sky. The disaster grounded airlines, stranding holiday travelers and business passengers across Europe and North America.

Praise God!] Satan tries to deceive them, but God lifts up for them a standard against the enemy. Those who work righteousness have an ever-present help in time of trouble. [Praise God!] In every time of need He is near. When they are tempted, He stands as their defense, saying, ‘I will guide thee with mine eye.’

“The cause is the Lord’s. He is on board the ship as commander-in-chief. He will guide us safely into port. He can command the winds and the waves, and they will obey Him. If we follow His directions, we have no need to be anxious or troubled. In Him we may trust. He bestows His richest endowments upon those who love Him and keep His commandments. He will never forsake those who work in His lines...

Dear Sir,

I’m a waitress in a restaurant. My friend loaned me a copy of your book “National Sunday Law.” It’s so interesting that I can’t put it down! It’s teaching me things that I’ve needed to understand in the Bible! Please send me as many more of these books for others as my donation will cover. I want to give them to many! I’m so thankful that my sister in the Lord loaned me hers. It’s so fantastic! I praise God that He has inspired you to write it for the people. I would like to give one to every person in my whole church! I praise God for the wonderful ministry He placed you in! Sincerely, strings to produce different sounds. [You can soon do that yourself! Dear Jesus will hand you, with a smile, your own harp. Then how will you feel?] There is one angel who always leads, who first touches the harp and strikes the note, then all join in the rich, perfect music of heaven. It cannot be described. It is melody, heavenly, divine, while from every countenance beams the image of Jesus, shining with glory unspeakable.” 1T 146. Praise God!

The choir of angels in heaven stand in two columns.

“The redeemed cast their glittering crowns at the feet of Jesus; and then the angelic choir strikes the note of victory, and the angels in the two columns take up the song, and the redeemed host join as though they had been singing the song on the earth, and they have been... Oh, what music! There is not an inharmonious note. Every voice proclaims, ‘Worthy is the Lamb that was slain.’ He sees of the travail of His soul, and is satisfied.” Ms 18, ‘94.

Vennita's Corner: "If every moment were valued and rightly employed, we should have time for everything that we need to do for ourselves and for the world." ST 12-15-1909 915

“As God’s people approach the final crisis, they must with increasing power proclaim the message He has given them [in the three angels of Rev. 14.] The warning must be given. [Dear Jesus will help us do it! What else is there to do?] God’s requirements must be laid before those who are transgressing His law. They must be made to understand that this is a life and death question. God’s remnant people are to fill the earth with the cry of the third angel. [That message lovingly exposes Rome and the mark of her authority at the Sunday law. The devil can’t stop it! Let the fiend leap up and down!]

“God watches over these faithful witnesses, and abundantly rewards their confidence. The way to His throne is always open to them. [You can fly up to God’s throne in prayer any time you want!] He sees and supplies their wants. They find their safety in looking to Him. When Jehovah gives them His protection, and says of them, ‘Ye are laborers together with me,’ they are safe in the midst of the greatest danger. [Believe it!

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I received your book “National Sunday Law” in the mail, but being a student with much reading to do, I put it on the shelf. I did go to church, but I found it dull and hypocritical. One day, I found your book, and started reading it. I read it several times. It was shocking, yet, for the first time, it all made sense to me. Since reading “National Sunday Law,” I have renewed my relationship with Christ! I’m also sharing this book with others in hopes that their eyes will be opened! Thank you for writing such an incredible book! It’s just what the people need! W.S.

“John saw the remnant people of God when they had gained the victory over the Beast, and over his Image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name. Redeemed and glorified, they stood on the sea of glass, having the harps of God... As they surround the throne of God, they see their Saviour bearing upon His glorified body the marks of the crucifixion, and from myriads of voices peals forth the chorus of praise, ‘Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.’ RH 7/16/01.

“I have been shown the order, the perfect order, of heaven, and have been enraptured as I listened to the perfect music there. After coming out of vision, the singing here has sounded very harsh and discordant. I have seen companies of angels, who stood in a hollow square, everyone having a harp of gold. At the end of the harp was an instrument to turn to set the harp or change the pitch. Their fingers did not sweep over the strings carelessly, but they touched different

Dear Sir,

Wow! The book “National Sunday Law!” All I can say is, “What dynamite!” I just loved it and could not stop reading it! My joy is so great that I have this bubbling feeling inside. I feel so happy. I want to know more. A lot of my questions got answered, and it’s a great feeling, especially when you know that God is here all the time right next to you! Yours truly, Amanda

“For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.” Romans 10:3,4. Notice the word, “end.” Believe it or not, this is good news.

One time, a lady on the phone quoted that verse and said, “Doesn’t that show that Christ is the end of the law, so that now we don’t have to keep God’s law anymore?”

I told her that the Greek word for “end” is “telos.” It’s where we get our word, “telescope.” It means to totally reach the utmost limit. It means to totally fill up. To totally reach the goal. To totally fulfill. “Fulfill” means to fill full. Dear Jesus filled God’s law totally full of perfect obedience to the very “end.” On the cross, He also totally drained the sufferings of hell in our place to the very “end” - until there was nothing left to suffer for. Concerning the total perfection of dear Jesus, the Bible says, “I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.” Ps. 119:96. Praise God! Now watch this -

1) The desire of our kind Father and dear Jesus to have you happy in heaven forever is infinitely greater than your desire to be there. He literally made you to live there! The Lord is doing everything He can to get you there! Every day you may look up and say, “Yes dear Jesus!”

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

2) The only people who won’t be in heaven are those A) who have allowed Satan to be their master to give them money, pleasure, fun, power, etc. B) who would hate to perfectly obey God’s law of love; and C) who would hate it in heaven because dear Jesus is there. That will be almost everyone on earth. How can it be? The mad fiend is working so that - “Human lives will be sacrificed by millions. Fires will break out unexpectedly and no human effort will be able to quench them. The palaces of earth will be swept away in the fury of the flames. Disasters by rail will become more and more frequent. Confusion, collision, and death without a moment’s warning will occur on the great lines of travel. The end is near, probation is closing. Oh, let us seek God while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near!” Last Day Events, p. 24.

3) God knows that to live in heaven, we must cooperate with Him to make us sin proof. This is the reason that everything comes to us in A) great blessings, B) answers to prayers, and C) loving trials - to show us how evil we are so we can cry to God to cleanse us - to become “dead to self” and unselfish like He is. With constant prayer, Bible study, and seeking to share your faith, you are growing more and more like Him. If you - while loving and trusting Him - and doing your best to obey - drop dead in one hour, His perfect righteousness and eternal life are yours.

4) God’s commandments are so “exceeding” “broad” that they take in every thought, every motive, every word, every second of time, every penny, every action, everything we should have done, the tones of our voice at all times - when speaking to friends, strangers, animals, or enemies.

5) God’s law of love is so broad that we fall short continually without even knowing it. If dear Jesus had not perfectly obeyed God’s law, we’d all be doomed to eternal death.

6) People who try to be saved by God’s grace in willful disobedience to God’s law are in one ditch of death. People who are not abiding in dear Jesus, and who are trying to be saved by their obedience to God’s law, are in the other ditch of death - for the prophet said, “He who is trying to reach heaven by his own works in keeping the law is attempting an impossibility.” DA 172. Notice the words, “his own.” The saving truth of God is between those two ditches - where dear Jesus is. Here it is - “It was possible for Adam, before the fall, to form a righteous character by obedience to God’s law. But he failed to do this, and because of his sin our natures are fallen and we cannot make ourselves righteous. Since we are sinful, unholy, we cannot perfectly obey the holy law. [That’s just what the devil has been saying for 6,000 years. But there’s more, because the fiend mixes truth and error.] We have no righteousness of our own with which to meet the claims of the law of God. [The devil agrees with that too.] But Christ has made a way of escape for us. [The devil doesn’t tell you that part.] He lived a sinless life. He died for us, and now He offers to take our sins and give us His righteousness.” SC 62. Notice the word, “His.”

If some pious church fiend said to God, “I’ve perfectly obeyed Thy law since January 1, so I can go to heaven now” - it would be accounted by the angels of God as treason! Here’s the quote - “If you would gather together everything that is good and holy and noble and lovely in man and then present it to the angels of God as acting a part in the salvation of the human soul, the proposition would be rejected as treason!” FW 24. Praise God!

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I was baptized as an infant in the Roman Catholic system. Then, I was stumbling around until a Christian woman brought me to Jesus Christ. I started attending church, and later asked the minister why our church observes Sunday. He could not give me an answer from the Bible. Then I got your book “National Sunday Law.” It certainly answered my questions! Now I’m going to be ordering NSL books to give to others! I feel so good! And yes, the truth has set me free! Glory to God! I thank God for you and God’s truth! I love God and want to share His truth with everyone! Thank you again for “National Sunday Law!” It is a blessing from the heavenly Father! May God bless you, in Christ our Saviour. Amen and amen!

Dear Pastor Jan,

Greetings from Kenya, East Africa. During Camp Meeting, a number of people living in the remote places of the country were able to watch your video series entitled “Catholic Charismatic Attack (on God’s SDA church).” After watching it, a number of them dedicated their lives to Jesus Christ. Also, we are having a prophecy class, which relies on literature which comes from you. After equipping themselves, these people are going out and are enlightening others here in Africa. Please remember us in your prayers because of the things which are happening all around us. Yours in Christ, E.M.

Dear Pastor Jan,

I’m writing to you because a friend of mine here in Namibia, S.W. Africa, became a Seventh-day Adventist after picking up the book “National Sunday Law” from the seat of a bus. After reading it, he decided to look for our church. Finally I met him, and he works for the Lord as one of the translators in Bushman Land after he got baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist! [Praise the Lord] Pastor Pitman Siamanber

The prophet of God cries out - "If you give yourself to Him, and accept Him as your Saviour, then, sinful as your life may have been, for His sake you are accounted righteous. [Praise God! You are happy! Very happy!!!] His character stands in place of your character, and you are accepted before God just as if you had not sinned. [Praise God!]

"More than this, Christ changes the heart. He abides in your heart by faith. You are to maintain this connection with Christ by faith and the continual surrender of your will to Him; and so long as you do this, He will work in you to will and to do according to His good pleasure. So you may say, 'The life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave Himself for me.' Ga 2:20." Praise God!

"Every act of obedience to Christ, every act of self-denial for His sake, every trial well endured, every victory gained over temptation, is a step in the march to the glory of final victory. If we take Christ for our guide, He will lead us safely. The veriest sinner need not miss his way. Not one trembling seeker need fail of walking in pure and holy light. Though the path is so narrow, so holy that sin cannot be tolerated therein, yet access has

Pastor Francis Njoroge

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,

This is a short note to let you know how grateful we are for what you have sent to us. You are really promoting our Missionary work with very great enthusiasm. Thank you for backing us up with the necessary materials that help to reach many unreached people in the remote areas. Dear Bro. Jan, I have also not told you that in our recent crusade, we baptized 100 people. Many of those who were baptized are those who read the "National Sunday Law" books as we supplied them in villages and in the streets. God richly blessed. May He also richly bless you and your Ministry! Yours in the blessed hope,
Pastor Francis Njoroge Kenya E. Africa

Announcements

1) You may make copies of this letter for others. In color would be best. If you do, someone will be in heaven who would have been lost.

2) By God's grace I have made a DVD sermon entitled, "The Close Encounter." It describes what happened to five different people who had no hope at all, but who then had a close encounter with dear Jesus. It's suitable to show in conference churches, non-conference churches, home churches, homes, etc. You can either send a donation for it, or receive it as a gift when you get a box of 100 NSL preachers for soul-winning. And you may copy it for others.

3) We now have over 35% of what we need to reach another million souls in the rural routes surrounding Washington D.C. in the great 100 Million Man March. If our kind Father impresses you to help us reach this goal, mark it below.

4) I will still give all 16 CCA DVDs free to all who get 1000 NSL preachers to help save souls for a donation of 49¢ each with free shipping in the U.S. God's people are having us to bulk mail them, and they're also putting them on doorsteps, sidewalks, benches, parking lots, laundromats, restrooms, and any place people sit, walk, wait, or go. God gets all the praise.

5) "Come join our happy crew, we're bound for Canaan's shore. The Captain says there's room for you! - and room for millions more."
