that they may behold thee. therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes UPON the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee... thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.”

Here's one of the “terrified people” upon whom the ash fell. He's holding up his arm to shield him from the fast falling death. But it was no use. The word of God reveals that to the wicked, it will happen again.

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in Jesus' holy name. Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.
Faith: To Satan, the Lord said, “I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth... Thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.” Ezekiel 28:18,19. How will that happen? When will it happen? Where will it happen? What will happen before that? And what will happen to us?

Swine fever could kill quarter of world's pigs

Ryan W. Miller
USA TODAY

At least a quarter of the world's pig population could die as a mass outbreak of African swine fever spreads, a global animal health organization says.

The die-off would spark global pig shortages, spiking prices of pork and products that rely on the animals to be produced, said Mark Schipp, president of the World Organization for Animal Health.

According to Reuters, the disease has killed hundreds of million pigs in 50 countries.

Pompeii.

When Pliny the Elder arrived on shore, he found that the people of the town were beginning to panic [as it was on the Titanic when they learned that the ship was sinking, and that there were no more lifeboats.] First, he tried to calm the people down, but after the ground started shaking, while the pumice was falling on his head, he decided that they must leave immediately. Holding a pillow over his head to protect himself from the falling debris, he made his way to the coast.

Meanwhile, the enormous volcanic cloud had collapsed and released burning avalanches - rushing over the whole region like waves - called pyroclastic surges. They were made of volcanic ash, gas, and rock. In a letter, Pliny the Younger described the hysteria at this point. He had tried to escape with his mother, but he feared being trampled by the terrified crowds. He said that they watched 'a terrifying black cloud, burst by twisting, and quaking flickers of flame' with "long fiery tongues, like lightning, only bigger."

Amidst the screaming and wailing, [as it will be on the day that dear Jesus appears in the sky] he saw people lift their hands to the gods, although most of them, he said, "reasoned that there were no gods anywhere, and that this night would be the last night for ever and ever across the universe."

The town of Herculaneum, at the base of Mount Vesuvius, was engulfed by the first two pyroclastic surges. Hundreds of people had tried to take cover inside the boat houses along the shore, only to be greeted by currents of magma and gas hurtling toward them at a temperature as high as 1,300 degrees. They perished quickly in the heat, and those in Pompeii suffered the force of three further surges. This killed everyone who was left, and completed the burial of the city.

Standing on the coast, Pliny the Elder had found the sea too wild to escape, and he quickly died from the terrific heat and gas of the rushing surge. Pliny the Younger later wrote two letters to his friend, the historian Tacitus, in which remain the only first-hand accounts of the eruption. Those who perished in Pompeii were buried under a layer of pumice and ash 12 or more feet deep. The decomposition of their bodies over the centuries left cavities in the volcanic deposit into which a 19th century archaeologist poured plaster in order to make casts of their bodies. Many victims were found to be huddled together to comfort one another as the end came. Well over 1000 bodies have been discovered at Pompeii. Two of them were holding hands. One was clutching a little bag of gold. "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of Man cometh."

Like the Titanic, Pompeii was a flourishing place for wealthy and high-class people, as well as the lower classes. In the city were well built roads, baths, theaters, bakeries, and food bars [like hamburger joints today.] In Pompeii was a large laundromat where people sent their dirty laundry to be cleaned and pressed. To help the laundry to be brighter and more lovely, they soaked it in urine. While the poor members of society went to the bars, the well-to-do preferred to dine in their own dining rooms where they leaned on couches to feast on delicacies such as mice stuffed with small pieces of a dead pig.

The October issue of the BBC magazine entitled, "History Revealed," tells us that early one afternoon in the year 79 A.D., an enormous cloud began to rise from Mount Vesuvius in the Bay of Naples. The cloud was initially white, but steadily turned gray. It was shaped like an umbrella pine tree, causing one onlooker - the 17-year-old Pliny the Younger - to observe: "It was raised high on a kind of very tall trunk spread out into branches."

The teenager was staying with his mother and uncle in a port town about 19 miles from Mount Vesuvius. His uncle, Pliny the Elder, was the commander of a fleet of Roman navy ships. As he saw the volcano erupting, he decided that he wanted to get a closer look. At the time, with the monster so far away, they felt that they were in no danger [as it would be with many people today.] As he was preparing to set out, he received a message from a friend pleading with him for help. She lived near Mount Vesuvius and was trapped. The only means of escape, she said, was by boat. So Pliny the Elder launched his fleet of vessels to begin evacuating people.

As his fleet got closer to the volcano, it was clear that carrying on as normal was no longer an option for the people in this area. The volcanic cloud had blocked out the sun as it released a vast quantity of pumice, which, although light and porous by nature, was soon raining down at such a rate that it floated, and clogged the surface of the water. The ships could not reach as far as they had hoped and so they pulled into port at a town just south of

The October 21 issue of The New American magazine says, “The UN, in conjunction with national governments and private organizations, is pulling off a smoke-and-mirrors charade to project a fake image of popular support for the UN.”

by William F. Jasper

How does one go about organizing a worldwide protest involving millions of grade-school, high-school, and college students in hundreds of cities on the same day, such as, say, the recent Global Climate Strike that coincided with the United Nations Youth Climate Summit on September 20? While the central stage for this mass spectacle was New York City, parasymphetic events miraculously materialized in London, Paris, Tokyo, Bangkok, Bogota, Budapest, Bucharest, San Salvador, Belgrade, Zagreb, and virtually every other major city.

Anyone who has ever organized a kindergarten birthday party, a church bingo, or a high-school homecoming football game can appreciate the fact that global events such as these mammoth UN-generated climate extravaganzas do not come together without massive preparation, organization, coordination, promotion — and funding. The global spectacles surrounding this latest campaign to stampede the world into empowering the United Nations as the planetary environmental regulator and policeman are prime examples of stage-managed AstroTurf events made to appear to be spontaneous, grassroots efforts. We are witnessing a huge “Civil Society” charade in which over 5,000 nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) — most of which are unapologetically “progressive” and reliably support an ever-expanding role for the UN — claim to be “stakeholders” who speak for all humanity.

Climate (mob) science: New York City’s public schools excused 1.1 million students to support Greta Thunberg’s Climate Strike and attend the UN’s Youth Climate March on September 20.

“The article asks questions which indicate that some vast, world-wide power is orchestrating an almost super-human effort at “world takeover.” The magazine points to the U.N. But what’s behind that? From prophecy, we know that that universal power is papal Rome = the Vatican = the Holy See. As you know, the great “MOTHER OF HARLOTS” of Rev. 17 must, like her father the devil, do her work under the table - using global agencies like the U.N. as mediums. At this time, the source of the global movement must remain to the masses, a “MYSTERY.” “And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her.” Rev. 17:5-7.

UN INCITING YOUTH RENT-A-MOBS FOR GLOBALISM

For years, Rome stayed aloof from the U.N. But now, she indirectly controls and uses it to aid her in achieving her great goals revealed by the prophet of God. What are the great goals that the U.N. is aiding her in achieving? Here they are - “The Protestant churches are in great darkness, or they would discern the signs of the times. The Roman Church is far-reaching in her plans and modes of operation. She is employing every device to extend her influence and increase her power in preparation for a fierce and determined conflict to 1) regain control of the world, to 2) re-establish persecution, and to 3) undo all that Protestantism has done.” GC 565,566. Notice the words, “every device.” “Every device” includes the U.N.

What gigantic, humongous, secret, universal power has enough billions of dollars sitting around to be able to organize the ignorant, screeching millions in nations and cities around the world - as they will do again in the coming universal thrust for the enforcement of the mark of the beast? The sign on the left says, “You’ll die of old age. I’ll die of climate change.” When the poor souls realize that they’ve been tricked and fooled into mental slavery to the great “universal network” brought to view in Rev. 17, they may well fall on their faces and screech with even more vehemence. From prophecy, we know that this gigantic farce of a movement is leading to the larger farce of enforcing the devil’s law.

Charity: Notice the word “universal.” What word means “universal?”

Pastor Jan: The word that means “universal” is the word “Catholic.”

Faith: What does the destruction of the people of Sodom and Pompeii have in common with the destruction of the devil and his slaves today?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "What source of enjoyment could heaven offer to those who are wholly absorbed in selfish interests? Its purity and peace would be torture to them... They would long to flee from that holy place. They would welcome destruction, that they might be hidden from the face of Him who died to redeem them. The destiny of the wicked is fixed by their own choice. Their exclusion from heaven is just and merciful on the part of God." Last Day Events, p. 279.

"And now the last night of Sodom was approaching. Already the clouds of vengeance cast their shadows over the devoted city. But men perceived it not. While angels drew near on their mission of destruction, men were dreaming of prosperity and pleasure. [As they are now.] The last day was like every other that had come and gone. Evening fell upon a scene of loveliness and security. A landscape of unrivaled beauty was bathed in the rays of the declining sun. The coolness of eventide had called forth the inhabitants of the city, and the pleasure-seeking throngs were passing to and fro, intent upon the enjoyment of the hour...

"The angels revealed to Lot the object of their mission: 'We will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the Lord; and the Lord hath sent us to destroy it...' The solemn command was given to hasten, for the fiery storm would be delayed but little longer... The sons-in-law of Lot were making merry at the fears and warnings of the weak-minded old man. Suddenly and unexpectedly as would be a thunder peal from an unclouded sky, the tempest broke. The Lord rained brimstone and fire out of heaven upon the cities and the fruitful plain; its palaces and temples, costly dwellings, gardens and vineyards, and the gay, pleasure-seeking throngs that only the night before had insulted the messengers of heaven—all were consumed. The smoke of the conflagration went up like the smoke of a great furnace [like Mt. Vesuvius], a witness to all generations of the certainty of God's judgments upon transgression.

"The flames that consumed the cities of the plain shed their warning light down even to our time. Apostasy and sensualism prevail. [If you don't believe it, just read the shocking letter you see in the box above. Sweet Vennita just now handed it to me. It's from a godly, retired SDA lady.] The world is fast becoming ripe for destruction. Soon the judgments of God are to be poured out, and sin and sinners are to be consumed...

"As in the days of Noah and Lot, there must be a marked separation from sin and sinners. There can be no compromise between God and the world, no turning back to secure earthly treasures. The people are dreaming of prosperity and peace. 'Escape for thy life,' is the warning from the angels of God; but other voices are heard saying, 'Be not excited; there is no cause for alarm.' The multitudes cry, 'Peace and safety,' while Heaven declares that swift destruction is about to come upon the transgressor. On the night prior to their destruction, the cities of the plain rioted in pleasure and derided the fears and warnings of the messenger of God; but those scoffers perished in the flames; that very night the door of mercy was forever closed to the wicked, careless inhabitants of Sodom. God will not always be mocked; He will not long be trifled with.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
The book "National Sunday Law" is one of the best books I have ever read! Please keep your newsletters coming so I can share them with others. May God bless you for the effort you are putting forth to glorify God's holy name. Warmest regards, Bob J. New Jersey

Dear Pastor Jan,
Rock Rave concerts are here where girls go dressed in [redacted]! Then they are driven to a motel with [redacted] on them. I looked out the window and saw a girl in [redacted] get into a car with a young man! He saw me and knew that I had witnessed this atrocity. His eyes grew big and his mouth dropped open. Then they went to the Rave concert [where the demons rule.] Time is short!

Do you see it?

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Thank God for your book "National Sunday Law!" Thank God for making it so easy to understand! Now my eyes are opened to the truth. I want more to give out to people so they can learn the truth of God too. Thank you Jesus!! I want to worship God on His Sabbath. I want to keep all the commandments of God. Thank you so much, and may God bless you to get this book "National Sunday Law" out to the people of this world before it's too late! God bless! T.R

“Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and He shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.’ Isa. 13:9. The great mass of the world will reject God’s mercy, and will be overwhelmed in swift and irretrievable ruin. But those who heed the warning shall dwell ‘in the secret place of the Most High,’ and ‘abide under the shadow of the Almighty.’... PP 157-167. Praise God!

“As the time of their probation was closing, the antediluvians gave themselves up to exciting amusements and festivities. Those who possessed influence and power were bent on keeping the minds of the people engrossed with mirth and pleasure [as they’re doing now] lest any should be impressed by the last solemn warning. While God’s servants are giving the message that the end of all things is at hand, the world is absorbed in amusements and pleasure seeking... When the fears of the people were quieted, when all regarded Noah’s prophecy as a delusion, and looked upon him as a fanatic—then it was that God’s time had come, and the scoffers were overwhelmed in the waters of the Flood. With all their boasted philosophy, men found too late that their wisdom was foolishness, and that Omnipotence is at no loss for means to accomplish His purposes. ‘As it was in the days of Noah,’ ‘even thus shall it be in the days when the Son of man is revealed.’ Lk. 17:26,30. ‘The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.’ 2 Peter 3:10. When the reasoning of philosophy has banished the fear of God’s judgments; when religious teachers are pointing forward to long ages of peace and prosperity, and the world are absorbed in their rounds of business and pleasure, planting and building, feasting and merrymaking, rejecting God’s warnings and mocking His messengers—then it is that sudden destruction cometh upon them, and they shall not escape.” PP 103.

“We are homeward bound. He who loved us so much as to die for us hath builded for us a city. The New Jerusalem is our place of rest. There will be no sadness in the city of God. No wail of sorrow, no dirge of crushed hopes and buried affections, will evermore be heard. Soon the garments of heaviness will be changed for the wedding garment. Soon we shall witness the coronation of our King. Those whose lives have been hidden with Christ, those who on this earth have fought the good fight of faith, will shine forth with the Redeemer’s glory in the kingdom of God.

“It will not be long till we shall see Him in whom our hopes of eternal life are centered. And in His presence, all the trials and sufferings of this life will be as nothingness... Look up, look up, and let your faith continually increase. Let this faith guide you along the narrow path that leads through the gates of the city of God into the great beyond, the wide, unbounded future of glory that is for the redeemed.” Mar. 352.

“It was Satan’s purpose to bring about an eternal separation between God and man; but in Christ we become more closely united to God than if we had never fallen. In taking our nature, the Saviour has bound Himself to humanity by a tie that is never to be broken. Through the eternal ages He is linked with us. ‘God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son.’ John 3:16...

“He who is ‘holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners,’ is not ashamed to call us brethren. In Christ the “Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Greetings!

I just read your book “National Sunday Law” and I couldn’t put it down! I’m amazed at what your book reveals! I’ve wondered about all of these things for many years. I’m definitely going to seek a church that keeps God’s Sabbath day holy like God said to do! What prophecy reveals about the work of the Roman church is not shocking to me. What about all those people who have been misled? I feel sorry for those who are deceived! Thanks for giving the amazing truths about what God has said! God bless.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

I never heard of a Seventh-day Adventist before I got locked up. I didn’t know anything about the Sabbath day of God. Well, after reading your book “National Sunday Law,” it’s like a whole world has opened up to me! In that light, I now have a much better understanding of the Bible. I pass your monthly letters on to others as I study them, but I try to make sure I get them back. I just wanted to let you know that I’m VERILY THANKFUL to God! I’m in prison, but I’m freer than I’ve ever been! Ron

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I was fully amazed when I read “National Sunday Law.” I praise God for the inspiration and knowledge that God has given you! After reading it I was very courageous. It gave me courage and joy. God has made me happy in the knowledge of His truth. Now I realize that God loves me. He loves me!! Praise God! I learned that from reading your book. I now desire to follow and obey God all the way. Your book answered many questions. J.P.

family of earth and the family of heaven are bound together. Christ glorified is our brother. Heaven is enshrined in humanity, and humanity is enfolded in the bosom of Infinite Love...

“The work of redemption will be complete. In the place where sin abounded, God’s grace much more abounds. The earth itself, the very field that Satan claims as his, is to be not only ransomed but exalted. Our little world, under the curse of sin, the one dark blot in His glorious creation, will be honored above all other worlds in the universe of glory lived and suffered and died,—here,

God. [Praise God!] Here, where the King of

when He shall make all things new, the tabernacle of God shall be with men, ‘and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and

God Himself

shall be with them, and be their God.’ And through endless ages as the redeemed walk in the light of the Lord, they will praise Him for His unspeakable Gift,—

Immanuel, ‘God with us.’”

Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I'm 31 years old and now I have read your book "National Sunday Law." It is the best book I have ever read! I want to be in God's "Remnant church" so bad. I'm thanking God for this book that helped to save my life! I praise God! I don't want to worship the sun god any more. It doesn't even feel right! I have looked up every scripture in "National Sunday Law." This book gives the pure truth! Sincerely, Keith Campbell.
