Did they shave the Pope's eyebrows off and paint them in a different place? In this letter, you're going to see what he said about Saturday being the seventh day, and about the seventh day being the holy day of rest to worship God as we see in the Bible. So what will he have to do with the coming Sunday law?

Do you see the cross?

Hope: Is this the great whore of Rev. 17? Is it a new church member who doesn't understand the spiritual battle? Is it the pastor's wife? What does she have to do with the three angels' messages, and God's medical missionary work?

Dear SDA friends around the world,

The quote says that "Jesus rejoiced in spirit and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes."

Faith: What is it in our day that our kind Father has hid from the wise and prudent and revealed unto babes? And how will it affect us?

Paster Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

The prophet of God declared - "In the seventeenth of Revelation is foretold the destruction of all the churches who corrupt themselves by idolatrous devotion to the service of the papacy... Thus is represented the papal power, which with all deceivableness of unrighteousness, by outside attraction and gorgeous display, deceives all nations; promising them, as did Satan our first parents, all good to those who receive its mark, and all harm to those who oppose its fallacies." Letter 232, 1899.

Revelation 17:5 reveals that the papacy is two things - 1) the "Mother" of all the fallen churches; 2) the "Mother" of the "ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." "For by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Rev. 18:23,24.

So it's no wonder that the word, Vatican, means, "Divining Serpent." And it's no wonder that the word, sorceries in that quote is the Greek word,

. And it's no wonder that the Greek Dictionary reveals that that Greek word means - " , " pronounced - far-mak-i'-ah; medication; pharmacy; (by extension) magic --sorcery, witchcraft. far-mak-yoos'; "pharmakon" (a drug, that is, a spell giving potion); a druggist ("pharmacist") or poisoner, that is, (by extension) a magician; - sorcerer." !!!

So, you're going to learn in a minute that it's no wonder that after the lady on page 1 swallowed what the kind sorcerers gave her, she turned into a "zombie."

And It's no wonder that the ex-Jesuit priest, [Alberto Rivera] revealed that the Vatican owns more than 50% of the stocks in the pharmaceutical companies, thus controlling them. And it's no wonder that Readers' Digest, among others, reported that over 100,000 people in the U.S. die every year from what their AMA approved doctors give them. How does that sound?

I've seen the drug pushing their new drugs on the poor doctor right before my eyes while visiting the practice of an M.D. friend of mine. And I'm also thankful for all that faithful doctors and nurses have done for me and for millions more. The Vatican controlled pharmaceutical companies with their drugs are like the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. You can get a lot of good, and you can get a lot of evil.

You've already learned that if you, as a doctor, deviate from the authorized pharmaceutical regimen by giving people a program of God's 8 natural remedies, you will be called before the medical board [if you are caught], and will be disciplined, punished, kicked out, or worse.

In my little book, Two Months to Live, you learned about the godly M.D. to whom this horror {his trial before the medical board} became a startling reality; and what happened to him. In the book, I call him Dr. Mitchell. You learned what Dr. Mitchell did for people with cancer after other doctors had given up to die, and why most of them were being healed. He used a scientific application of God's 8 natural remedies. I interviewed the man who was cured after his surgeon gave him 2 months to live. [And keep in mind that dear Jesus does not always heal everyone instantly for reasons given in Isa. 57:1,2,18-21.] Those who get a box of 100 NSL preachers to help save souls from hell and eternal death, will receive a free copy of my little book, Two Months to Live.

Faith: So what happened to the lady on page one? What good things did the faithful sorcerers do for her?

Pastor Jan: In the 4/17/17 issue of US, she said, "When I was 13, I had my tonsils taken out and the doctors gave me a prescription for Vicodin to help with the pain as I recovered. After that, I would have had my tonsils out once a week if it would have gotten me more Vicodin. When I took it, the relentless screams of my insecure chattering [from her sinful nature and guilty conscience] were silenced. [Pastor Jan: Many of you already know that a guilty conscience is the main reason why many take alcohol, drugs, and go to mental institutions.

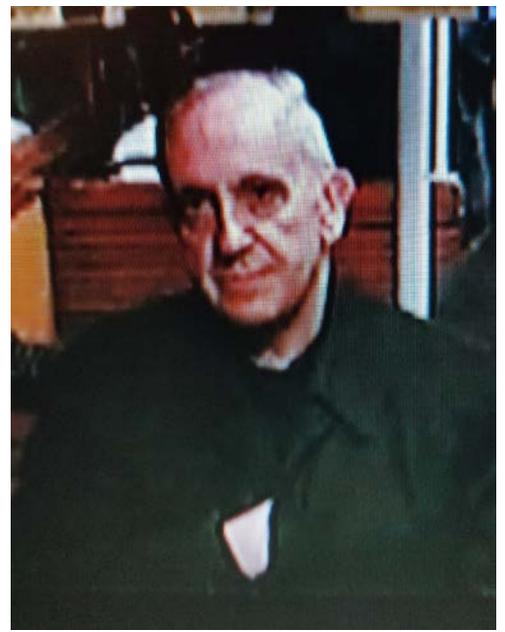

To the unconverted person, the guilty conscience is the Holy Spirit pleading with them, to flee to dear Jesus for perfect peace, life, and joy forever.

She tells how she kept going back to the doctors for more of this drug, and that they kindly handed it out to her like candy. Soon, they gave her not only Vicodin, but also Klonopin, and Valium. She said, "Everything got worse as I got older. As a user, I was a trash can; someone who would do anything and everything. Pills became my way of coping. I would wake up every day in a new kind of hell, one that wouldn't let me crawl back under the covers and hide. The only way I could face my life was by opening the pill bottle, shaking out a few pills, or a handful, and throwing them down my throat. Every pill I took ruined me.

[She tells of how she got a tick bite, and her father got it off with a lighted match. Her elderly father is Ozzie Ozbourne. She said that after getting Lyme's disease from the tick, she suffered from pain that moved around her body, from a sore throat, to stomach aches, until she had a seizure. She said -] "The doctors kept changing my prescription, until it turned me into a zombie.

"My prescriptions from the doctors kept piling up. I couldn't sleep, so they gave me Ambien. When Ambien made me nauseated, they switched me to Trazodone, but that gave me acid reflux, so they gave me antacids. I took painkillers to deal with the pain, and I took pills to deal with the anxiety that I had from taking so many pills. When I got yet another prescription, it left me barely able to talk. I was reduced to a lump on the couch. I lined up all my pills [on the counter like toy cars] until they covered the length of the counter. I said to myself, 'I'm a vegetable.'"

Faith: Why is the Pope dressed in black like a Jesuit instead of white? And why is his right hand on his breast like they do in pictures of sports teams and masonic orders around the world?

Pastor Jan: Because he is also a Jesuit priest, and a high mason. In fact, as the white pope, he wears the ephod, and is the head of masons and many secret societies. The masonic secret societies control the great sports teams. [Competition is the foundation of Satan's kingdom. Anyone who tries to beat others, like they are taught to do in our schools, reveals that he is an unwitting member of that kingdom. Those in God's kingdom let others beat them {and might be called "sissies" like boy Jesus might have been} as they live by the golden rule of God's love]. The vast papal network of masonic secret and un-secret societies control Pharmaceutical companies, the U.S. health care system, government agencies, Holy Wood, mammoth corporations, the "deep state." etc. The conglomeration is being slowly manipulated like a vast colossus toward the enforcement of the mark of the beast, and the decree of Rev. 13:15.

Dear Sir;

I'm getting out of the state penitentiary here in Ohio this month! I recently ran across your book, "National Sunday Law." Through the Bible and your powerful book, the Lord has used me to bring non-believers to Christ! There are many godless religions, and I can use "National Sunday Law" to help point many people in the right direction! God bless. Willie Allen Jr.

Dear Sir,

I have never seen anything that has explained so clearly God's word in such a plain, understandable way as "National Sunday Law!" I want more for others! Thank you. And may God bless you all! Anne Pastor Jan: She finally went to Germany where she was given a program of natural remedies so her body [by the power of God] could heal itself. When the treatments were over, she was free from disease and from addictions. Praise God! She had to go to another country to get this treatment because in the U.S., someone has worked hard to make programs of natural remedies illegal.

Hope: What fiends would work hard to make God's natural remedies illegal while the drugs their servants give are killing over 100,000 a year and turning millions into toadstools?

Pastor Jan: Here they are - "For by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Rev. 18:23,24.

Charity: What did the Pope say on the T.V. program "60 Minutes" about God's holy Sabbath being on Saturday, the 7th day of the week? Why would he say such a true thing? And what does the pope have to do with a Sunday law?

Pastor Jan: Here's what the Pope said on a May edition of "60 minutes" - and recorded on Youtube before they took it off - "We live with the accelerator pushed down from morning to night. This ruins mental health, spiritual health, and physical health. More so, it affects and destroys the family, and therefore, society. Families quarrel. And sometimes plates fly. On the seventh day God rested. It's what the Jews followed and still observe. It was to be considered as holy. On Saturday you rest. One day of the week. That's the least. Out of gratitude. To worship God. To spend time with the family. We are not machines. But those difficulties are overcome with love. We need to learn to listen. Differences always scare us. We have so much to do."

Faith: What is the "so much" that they have to do? Did he say that the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Jews so that he can then point to Rome's Sunday when Catholics and fallen Protestants go to church and give their money?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "All need wisdom carefully to search out the mystery of iniquity that figures so largely in the winding up of this earth's history... In the very time in which we live, the Lord has called His people and has given them a message to bear. He has called them to expose the wickedness of the man of sin who has made the Sunday law a distinctive power, who has thought to change times and laws, and to oppress the people of God who stand firmly to honor Him by keeping the only true Sabbath, the Sabbath of creation, as holy unto the Lord."

Dear Pastor Jan,
A Seventh-day Adventist gave me a book entitled "National Sunday Law." I determined to sit down with my Bible and let the Holy Spirit show me everything wrong with keeping the Sabbath. After 12 hours of studying your book, and comparing everything with the Bible, I was converted and am now a Seventh-day Adventist! Praise the Lord! H.S.

Testimonies to Ministers, pp. 117, 118. [I praise our mighty God that thousands of His dear people are not just sitting in a stupor watching T.V. and lining their pills up like toy cars, but are lovingly exposing "the wickedness of the man of sin," and uplifting dear Jesus by laying little "National Sunday Law" preachers on doorsteps, benches, parking lots, laundromats, restrooms, and any place people sit, walk, wait, or go. Let the devil leap up and down!]

"The time is coming when God's people will feel the hand of persecution because they keep holy the seventh day... The man of sin, who thought to change times and laws, and who has always oppressed the people of God, will cause laws to be made enforcing the observance of the first day of the week. But God's people are to stand firm for Him." FLB 291. In view of these statements, we can see why the Pope said, "We have so much to do."

"That gigantic system of false religion is a masterpiece of Satan's power — a monument of his efforts to seat himself upon the throne to rule the earth according to his will. It is one of the leading doctrines of Romanism that the pope is the visible head of the universal church of Christ, invested with supreme authority over bishops and pastors in all parts of the world. More than this, the pope has been given the very titles of Deity. He has been styled 'Lord God the Pope' and has been declared infallible. He demands the homage of all men [including you!]" GC 50.

"Wickedness is reaching a height never before attained, and yet many ministers of the gospel are crying, 'Peace and safety.' [Have you ever heard it?] But God's faithful messengers are to go steadily forward with their work. Clothed with the panoply of heaven, they are to advance fearlessly and victoriously, never ceasing their warfare until every soul within their reach shall have received the message of truth for this time." Acts of the Apostles, pp. 219, 220. Praise God!

Now, here's part 2 of what we saw in my last letter - "On the 19th of May I met Abraham Lincoln for the first time. He was a giant in stature; but I found him still more a giant in his noble mind and heart. It was impossible to converse five minutes with him without loving him. There was such an expression of kindness and honesty in that face, and such an attractive magnetism in the man, that after a few moments one felt tied to him by all the noblest affections of the heart. When pressing my hand he told me: 'You were mistaken when you telegraphed that you were unknown to me. I know you by reputation as the stern opponent of the tyranny of your bishop, and the fearless protector on your countrymen in Illinois.' [The Catholic bishops tried to destroy Priest Chiniquy because he taught his Catholic church members from the Bible.]

"I told Mr. Lincoln that an unknown friend had advised me to have Abraham Lincoln for one of my lawyers, for the reason that 'he was the best lawyer and the most honest man in Illinois.' He smiled at my answer and said - 'That unknown friend would surely have been more correct had he told you that Abraham Lincoln was the ugliest lawyer in the country!' and he laughed outright.

"I spent six long days at Urbana as a criminal, in the hands of the sheriff, at the feet of my judges. All that human language can express of abuse and insult was heaped upon my poor head. God only knows what I suffered in those days; but I was providentially surrounded, as by a strong wall...

"I never heard anything like the eloquence of Abraham Lincoln when he demolished the testimonies of the two perjured priests, who, with ten or twelve other false witnesses, had sworn against me... Every day my Bible was becoming dearer to me. It enabled me to remain calm in the very lions' den. Every time I bathed my soul in its Divine light, I heard my merciful heavenly Father's voice, saying, 'Fear thou not, for I am with thee.' (Isaiah 43:5). [After one of the drunken priests swore that priest Chiniquy did something evil with Madame Bossey, Mr. Lincoln said -] "That woman is evidently in the hands of the bishop, ready to swear anything they order her, and I know of nothing so difficult as to

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Thank you so much for your marvelous book "National Sunday Law." I was so affected and inspired while reading it that I could not hold back the tears. Now, I will, with all my heart, honor God's law and keep His Sabbath day holy. God bless you and thank you again for sending the book to me. Love in Christ, Nancy K. Phoenix refute such female testimonies. The only way to be sure of a favorable verdict tomorrow is that God Almighty would take our part and show your innocence! Go to Him and pray, for He alone can save you!

“Mr. Lincoln was exceedingly solemn when he addressed those words to me, and they went deep into my soul. But I confess it seemed to me at certain moments that it was useless to pray and cry, for though innocent, I was doomed to perish. I was in the hands of my enemies!

“What an awful night I spent! I had no other expectation than to be forever dishonored, and sent to the penitentiary the next morning!

“At 3 a.m. I heard three knocks at my door, and I quickly went to open it. Who was there? I could hardly believe my eyes. It was one of the noblest men Heaven had given to earth! It was Abraham Lincoln, with a face beaming with joy! On seeing me bathed with tears, he exclaimed, ‘Cheer up, Mr. Chiniquy, I have the perjured priests in my hands. Their diabolical plot is all known, and if they do not fly away before the dawn of day, they will surely be lynched.

Bless the Lord, you are saved!’ [Praise God!]

“The sudden passage of extreme desolation to an extreme joy came near killing me; unable to utter a single word, I took his hand, pressed it to my lips, and bathed it with tears of joy. I said: ‘May God forever bless you, dear Mr. Lincoln. But please tell me how you can bring me such glorious news!’

“Mr. Lincoln said, ‘As soon as Lebel had given his perjured testimony, one of the agents of the Chicago press telegraphed to some of the principal papers of Chicago these words: ‘It is probable that Mr. Chiniquy will be condemned; for the testimony of Rev. Mr. Lebel seems to leave no doubt that he is guilty.’ And the little Irish boys, to sell their papers, filled the streets with cries: ‘Chiniquy will be hung! Chiniquy will be hung!’ The Roman Catholics were so glad to hear that, that ten thousand extra copies have been sold. Among those who bought those papers was a friend named Terrien, who went to his wife and told her that you were to be condemned. When the woman heard that, she said, ‘It is too bad, for I know Mr. Chiniquy is not guilty.’

“‘How do you know that?’ said her husband. She answered: ‘I was there when the priest Lebel made the plot, and promised to give his sister two eighties of good land if she would swear a false oath and accuse him of a crime which that woman said he had not even thought of with her.’

“‘If it be so,’ said Terrien, ‘we cannot allow Mr. Chiniquy to be condemned. Come with me to Urbana.’ But being quite unwell, she said, ‘You know I cannot go; but Miss Philomene Moffat was with me then. She knows every particular of that wicked plot as well as I do. She is well; go and take her to Urbana. There is no doubt that her testimony will prevent the condemnation of Mr. Chiniquy.’

“Narcisse Terrien started immediately, and when Chiniquy was praying for God to come to his help, He was sending his deliverer at the full speed of the railroad cars.

“But what was priest Lebel doing in that very moment? Unable to sleep after the awful perjury he had just made, he had watched the arrival of the trains from Chicago with an anxious mind; for he was aware, through the confessions he had heard, that there were two persons in that city who knew his plot and his false oath; and though he had the promises from them that they would never reveal it to anybody, he was not without fearful apprehension. Not long after the arrival of the trains from Chicago, what was his dismay when he saw that the first name entered was ‘Philomene Moffat!’ A deadly presentiment chilled the blood in his veins! He immediately sent for her when she was just coming from meeting Mr. Lincoln.

“‘Miss Philomene Moffat here!’ he exclaimed when he saw her. ‘What are you coming here for this night?’ he said. ‘You will know it, Sir, tomorrow morning,’ she answered.

“‘Ah! wretched girl! you come to destroy me?’ he exclaimed. She replied: ‘I do not come to destroy you, for you are already destroyed. Mr. Lincoln knows everything.’

“‘Oh! he exclaimed, striking his forehead with his hands. Then taking a big bundle of bank notes from his pocket book, he said: ‘Here are one hundred dollars for you if you take the morning train and go back to Chicago.’

“‘If you would offer me as much gold as this house could hold, I would not go,’ she replied. He then left her abruptly, ran to the sleeping room of Spink, and told him: ‘Withdraw your suit against Chiniquy; we are lost; he knows all.’

“Without losing a moment, Spink went to the sleeping room of his co-priest, and told him: ‘Make haste — dress yourself and take the train; Chiniquy knows all our secrets.’

“When the hour of opening the court came, there was an immense crowd, not only inside, but outside its walls. Mr. Spink, pale as a man condemned to death, rose before the judge and said: ‘Please the court, allow me to withdraw my prosecution against Mr. Chiniquy. I am now persuaded that he is not guilty of the faults brought against him before this tribunal.’

“Abraham Lincoln, having accepted that reparation in my name, made a short, but one of the most admirable speeches I have ever heard on the cruel injustices I had suffered from my merciless persecutors. His terrible denouncement of the rascality of the priests who had perjured themselves proved how wise they had been to fly away and disappear before the opening of the court, for the whole city was ransacked for them by hundreds of people. [At the end of the court session, Priest Chiniquy sat in the courtroom alone and quiet, no doubt exhausted. After a while, Mr. Lincoln

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Thank God for your book "National Sunday Law!" Thank God for making it so easy to understand. Now my eyes are opened to the truth! I am ordering more to give out to people so they can learn the truth of God too. Thank you Jesus!! I would like more information about your religion. I want to worship God on His Sabbath. I want to keep all the commandments of God. Thank you so much, and may God bless you to get this book "National Sunday Law" out to the people of this world before it's too late! Keep going! God bless! Tammie T.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
My name is Ronald McClendon. I've been a backslidden Christian, but I was blown away at reading your book "National Sunday Law!" I was woken up by the revelation of events soon to come, and I have asked God to forgive me and help me to obey Him by His Holy Spirit. I will share this new knowledge with all that I come in contact with!
Yours in Christ, Ron Alden, N.Y.

Dear Sir,
I was completely breathless while reading your book, "National Sunday Law." You don't know me but that doesn't matter. I'm writing to let you know that I found your book full of truth, and I'm excited with what is yet to come! I went to a Catholic school when I was a child, and then to a Baptist school as a teenager, and none of them satisfied my thirst. Thank you for taking time to send out this information!

came in. He continues -]

“After thanking him for the great services he had rendered me, I requested him to show me his bill, assuring him that I would pay him to the last cent.

“He answered me with a smile and an air of kindness: “My dear Mr. Chinoquy, I feel proud and honored to have been called to defend you. Your case is unique. I have never met a man so cruelly persecuted as you have been, and who deserves it so little. Your enemies are devils incarnate. The plot they had concocted against you is the most hellish one I ever knew. But the way you have been saved from their hands, the appearance of that young and intelligent Miss Moffat, who was really sent by God in the very hour of need, when, I confess it again, I thought everything was nearly lost, is one of the most extraordinary occurrences I ever saw. It makes me remember what my mother often told me when young — that our God is a prayer-hearing God. This good thought, sown into my young heart by that dear mother’s hand, was in my mind when I told you, ‘Go and pray, God alone can save you.’ But I confess to you that I had not faith enough to believe that your prayer would be so quickly and so marvelously answered.

“Now let us speak of what you owe me. Well! Well! How much do you owe me? You owe me nothing! For I suppose you are quite ruined. The expense of such a suit, I know, must be enormous. Your enemies want to ruin you. Will I help them to finish your ruin?

“‘You are right,’ I answered him, ‘I am nearly ruined. But you are the father of a pretty large family; you must support them.’ [Mr. Chinoquy had paid his two lawyers $1000 each.] Mr. Lincoln then wrote a note and gave it to Priest Chinoquy. It said, ‘Urbana, May 23, 1857. Due A. Lincoln, $50 for value received - C. Chinoquy’

“He handed me the note, saying, ‘Can you sign that?’ “After reading it, I said, ‘Dear Mr. Lincoln, this is a joke. He then tapped me with the right hand on the shoulder and said: ‘Sign that; it is enough.’

“The relaxation of the great strain upon my mind, the great kindness of my defender, and the terrible presentiment that he would pay with his life, caused me to break into sobs and tears.

“‘Father Chinoquy, what are you crying for?’

“‘Dear Mr. Lincoln,’ I answered, ‘allow me to tell you that the joy I should feel for such a victory is destroyed in my mind by the fear of what it may cost you. There were in the courtroom not less than ten or twelve Jesuits from Chicago and St. Louis, who came to hear my sentence of condemnation to the penitentiary. But it was on their heads that you have brought the thunders of heaven and earth! Nothing can be compared to the expression of their rage against you, when you not only wrenched me from their cruel hands, but you were making the walls of the courthouse tremble under the awful and superhumanly eloquent denunciation of their diabolical malice in the plot they had formed for my destruction. What troubles my soul just now and draws my tears, is that it seems to me that I have read your sentence of death in their fiendish eyes!’

“He tried to divert my mind with a joke. ‘Sign this,’ he said, ‘it will be my warrant of death.’ But after I had signed, he became more solemn, and said, ‘I know that Jesuits never forget nor forsake. But man must not care how and where he dies, provided he dies at the post of honor and duty,’ and he left me.

Six years earlier, Priest Chinoquy had attended a large assembly of priests who met at Buffalo. One of them said, ‘We are determined to take possession of the United States; but we must proceed with the utmost secrecy and wisdom... Silently and patiently, we must mass our Roman Catholics in the great cities of the United States, remembering that the vote of a poor journeyman, though he be covered with rags, has as much weight in the scale of power as the millionaire Astor, and that if we have two votes against his one, he will become as powerless as an oyster. Let us then multiply our votes and call our poor but faithful Catholics from every nation.’

[Pastor Jan: This is happening at this moment. This secret working is one of the greatest factors leading to the devil’s Sunday law, for as soon as Rome has enough power over the Protestants, she, {manipulating them to do the work in the U.S.}, will “strike” within the “Protestant” front. The prophet said, “Let it be remembered, it is the boast of Rome that she never changes... Protestants little know what they are doing when they propose to accept the aid of Rome in the work of Sunday exaltation. While they are bent upon the accomplishment of their purpose, Rome is aiming to re-establish her power, to recover her lost supremacy... God’s word has given warning of the impending danger; let this be unheeded, and the Protestant world will learn what the purposes of Rome really are, only when it is too late to escape the snare. She is silently growing into power. Her doctrines are exerting their influence in legislative halls, in the churches, and in the hearts of men. She is piling up her lofty and massive structures in the secret recesses of which her former persecutions will be repeated. Stealthily and unsuspectedly she is strengthening her forces to further her own ends when the time shall come for her to strike. All that she desires is vantage ground, and this is already being given her. We shall soon see and shall feel what the purpose of the Roman element is. The great mass of poor church people who are not walking closely with dear Jesus, will cave in to the Sunday law when it comes, and will receive the mark of the beast. This is why the prophet said, "the majority forsake us." Last Day Events, p. 180.] Where will you stand? God's 144,000 will still be walking with dear Jesus - forever! "Let us strive with all the power that God has given us to be among the hundred and forty-four thousand." RH March 9, 1905. Let's do it! Praise God!

After President Lincoln's death, Priest Chinoquy said, "'After I had mixed my tears with those of the grand country of my adoption, I fell on my knees and asked my God to grant me to show to the world what I knew to be the truth. And, after twenty years of constant and most difficult researches, I come fearlessly today before the American people, to say and prove that President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated by the priests and the Jesuits of Rome. Booth was nothing but a tool of the Jesuits. It was Rome who directed his arm, after corrupting his heart and damning his soul... The priests of Rome knew and circulated the news of the death of Lincoln four hours before its occurrence in their Roman Catholic town of St. Joseph, Minnesota.'" 50 Years in the Church of Rome, pp. 308,309, 317.

learn more for a long time, but my Sunday pastor did not think that I needed to learn more. After reading your book, I could not believe that I have sat in false churches for so many years!
Many are doing the same right now! The message in "National Sunday Law" needs to get out to the people of the world! Now I have been baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist and I have never looked back. And five other members of my family have also become Seventh-day Adventists.
Praise God! Joan Florida

Why didn't our kind Father make the devil disappear after he murdered dear Jesus? Watch closely - "Christ did not yield up His life till He had accomplished the work which He came to do, and with His parting breath He exclaimed, 'It is finished.'" John 19:30. The battle had been won. His right hand and His holy arm had gotten Him the victory. As a Conqueror He planted His banner on the eternal heights. Was there not joy among the angels? All heaven triumphed in the Saviour's victory. Satan was defeated, and knew that his kingdom was lost... The warfare against God's law, which was begun in heaven, will be continued until the end of time. Every man will be tested. Obedience or disobedience is the question to be decided by the whole world. Here the dividing line will be drawn. Every character will be fully developed. Then the end will come. Satan and all who have joined him in rebellion will be cut off. Sin and sinners will perish... Well, then, might the angels rejoice as they looked upon the Saviour's cross; for though they did not then understand all, they knew that the destruction of sin and Satan was forever made certain, that the redemption of man was assured, and that the universe was made eternally secure.

[Wonderful Jesus!] Christ Himself fully comprehended the results of the sacrifice made upon Calvary. To all these He looked forward when upon the cross He cried out, "It is finished!" DA 758-764.
Praise God friend! Praise God!
