

“Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his estate shall he honour the god of forces... He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown... But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.”

Hope: Who are these? Are they Bible instructors at the seminary?
Pastor Jan: “The God of forces” gives great POWER.
Charity: They look powerful to me. Is this the start of the new kind of revival the prophet wrote about?
Pastor Jan: In this letter, you’ll get a hint.

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Greetings in Jesus’ holy name. Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we’ll talk about what’s happening.

Faith: The Bible verse reveals that the King of the North 1) does not honour the God of his fathers. 2) He doesn’t honour “the desire of women.” [He forces his poor priests to remain single all their lives so they can practice sodomy among themselves, and rape the poor nuns in the cloistered convents.] 3) He doesn’t “regard any god.” 4) He “magnifies himself above all.” 5) He honours “the god of forces.” “The god of forces” gives the fiend and his slaves great POWER.

Hope: We can see that our kind Father is allowing “the god of forces” to give super POWER to the King of the North; and to people like super movie stars, super politicians, powerful business fiends, and to those who have power over the minds of others.

Charity: Would the “god of forces” give great POWER to super Bible instructors at the seminary? And what about this article concerning the internet? What will the god of forces and the King of the North use the internet to help them get - the mark of the beast? And how will it all affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

The title of the Time magazine article is called “Battle for the Soul of the Internet.” It says – “The world’s largest computer network, once the playground of scientists, hackers, and gearheads, is being overrun by lawyers, merchants, and millions of new users. Is there room for everyone?”

Faith: The article tells about Lawrence Cantor and Martha Siegel, and says that they are the most hated couple on the Internet. Why were they hated? What did they do wrong?

Pastor Jan: It reveals that what they did wrong was to advertise themselves as lawyers and invite people to use their services.

Faith: What’s wrong with that? People do it all the time!

Pastor Jan: That is correct.

Hope: Then why did Time reveal that what they did was a big deal which started spam going all over the Internet?

Pastor Jan: Because this issue of Time magazine was written in 1994 when most people didn’t use the Internet and knew almost nothing about it. Back in those days {15 years ago} people on the Internet were more polite, courteous, and mainly used it for sending messages to each other, sending files to each other, and talking to each other in “chat rooms,” etc.

The article revealed that scientists were working to make “Cancel Bots” so that if a person sends a solicitation to people to buy his product, a “Cancel Bot” would immediately go out and zap it and make the advertisement disappear [as mentioned in the picture above] so that no one would receive spam.

Charity: That was a nice thought. But “Cancel Bots” were never made. In 1994, nobody would dream that now, the internet is used not only on computers, but in smart phones, in cars, trucks, airplanes, trains, wrist watches, smart chips in plastic cards, or with a chip under your skin; etc. And people use the internet to drive unmanned cars, trucks, drones; to guide military smart missiles; to know where millions of people are; to regulate appliances in the home and business; to purchase almost anything; to order almost anything; to sell almost anything; to learn almost anything; to navigate almost anywhere, to download and watch movies by the hundreds, to advertise almost anything; to translate major languages into other languages in an instant. Etc.

Pastor Jan: Concerning the end of time, the Bible says, “And knowledge shall be increased.” Daniel 12:4. I met a man who is living with his Chinese girl friend. He doesn’t understand Chinese, and she doesn’t understand English. But with the internet in their phones, he simply speaks a sentence in English, and his phone repeats it to her in Chinese. She speaks Chinese, and the phone repeats it to him in English.

Faith: So will the internet be used by “the god of forces,” and the “King of the North” to help enforce the mark of the beast at the Sunday law?

Pastor Jan: Why not? Internet computers are not the mark of the beast, but they can be used to help enforce that law by revealing to authorities 1) who is complying with it, 2) who is not, and 3) where many of them are. In my recent letter, we learned that 1) our kind Father will have most of us together in groups for encouragement. 2) We need not worry one bit about having enough money to buy what we need because our money will be worthless. That’s in Rev. 13:17. But who cares? “While God’s judgments are visited upon the earth, and the wicked are dying from hunger and thirst, angels provide the righteous with food and water.” 4SP 446. Praise God! Look at them! They’re giants! Look at their faces. They’re so kind!

In the late 1980s and early 1990s, the devil was pushing for it - which I showed you in various newspaper and magazine articles. Etc. But the fiend saw that he was shooting himself in the foot because such things were opening the eyes of God’s people, and it was moving them to action - to get God’s mighty three angels’ messages to the masses. So the devil could see that he had to back off from that approach. Now he would secretly lay the groundwork for it by working behind the scenes to bring Rome more and more into power 1) by infiltrating governments [as seen in GC 234,235} and 2) by infiltrating the Protestant churches, and controlling their leaders to manipulate their members toward Satan’s goal. And he would 3) work through the media to prepare the minds of hundreds of millions to be ready for the devil’s law by conditioning their brains to talk with dead loved ones [Satan’s angels in disguise] saying that while in heaven, they learned that God changed His Sabbath to Sunday. That tactic will convert even liberals and atheists - especially when Satan appears as Jesus - and “he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do.” Rev. 13:13,14.

Hope: What other evidence is there that we are in the end of time?

The Time article predicts that the time would come when if anyone sent a solicitation to sell anything to anyone, “Cancel Bots” would immediately go out and zap it so that no one would ever get any “spam.” How does that sound? Do you think that they will do it?

The wedding! Satan’s unquenchable desire is to be loved and worshiped as the “greatest.” So he loves to fill everyone he can with the same craving. As the close of probation gets closer and closer, the world will see more and more people taking selfies of their selves. Collette, the bride to be, is joyfully driving this car with her friend before the wedding. And her friend takes the best selfie. Then they crash and die. They didn’t expect that. Where’s the wedding? “Be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.” Matt. 24:44.

Do you see the young man holding the bottle of alcohol? He’s at his 21st birthday party, and he’s happy that now he’s a real man who can drink, smoke, gamble, and hopefully be happy forever. More guests come in. He looks at his lovely cake and gang members shoot him dead. Before he can take a bite, he sees the face of God. What happened? He doesn’t know. “Be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.” Matt. 24:44.

Pastor Jan: In the year 1900 the English language was smaller than it is now. People had never heard of radios, movies, cell phones, radar, or crossword puzzles. There were no tractors, trucks, or tanks. There were no amplifiers, modulators, or electronics. They didn't know about camouflage or propaganda. There were no cafeterias, or vaccinations. There were no chauffeurs, aviators, or hijackers. There was no income tax, no primaries, and no referendums. There were no Bolsheviks, modernists, fascists, or feminists. There was no jazz, bluegrass, or rock & roll. They had never seen a neon light. They didn't wear polyester, synthetics, sunglasses, lipstick, or bikinis. No one used pesticides, or fluoride. They never heard the names of 100's of new things in the world now. In 1900 it would be impossible to describe an "average American life" of today because no such thing existed. The simplicity of the daily life most people had before 1900 is much the way our kind Father will have it to be for the 144,000 who will be translated to heaven after fleeing from the cities - after the death decree brought to view in Rev. 13:15-17.

Now we see things accelerating quickly toward the end. Various articles reveal that 1) Six of the ten worst fires in California have happened just since a poor lesbian ran for president. 2) Ready or not - 900,000 people in the U.S. are addicted to heroin. 3) 300 of those poor souls die every single week from it. But much of what they think is heroin has been mixed with Fentanyl - which is brought in from papal controlled nations to the south. The devil worked with his fiends to make the deadly poison - which is hundreds of times more potent than heroin or cocaine. The fiends are mixing it with heroin, and the people - thinking they're getting heroin, are dropping dead. The article in the Healthday Reporter said, - "The number of Americans dying from overdoses of the powerful narcotic Fentanyl rose 12 fold in recent years, health officials reported Thursday."

From 2013 to 2014, the deaths from Fentanyl doubled. From 2014 to 2015, the number of people who dropped dead from it doubled again. From 2015 to 2016, the number of the poor souls who died from Fentanyl doubled again! And so on.

The article says that we are now in an opioid epidemic. At this moment, about 60,000 people are dropping dead from Fentanyl each year. Every year from now until doomsday, the death rate from it may increase so fast that government and medical leaders will just shake their heads. Is it a sign that we are in the end of time?

Meanwhile, the May issue of The New American reveals that, "As pornography has become more available over the internet, it has been destroying a huge number of lives through addiction."

Faith: Does the devil look at pornography? Is time so short now that there are poor wenches creeping around who paint verbal pornographic pictures for the dear people? Where would such a person teach? Would he or she teach in the Seminary at Andrews University?

Pastor Jan: It's a secret. I received this letter below from a lady. It will give you a hint -

Pastor Hyveth [redacted] in a sermon to the Womens Ministries Group: "God wants us to lay down by His side, uncover His private parts, and say 'I'm ready, lets get it on'"
I wrote to the G.C. - received a letter back from Larry Evans - admitting that this was true and that it shouldn't have been said.
"How low can one go?"

Yet she is being held in high esteem by the church -

<http://www.sdadefend.com/MINDEX-U-Z/Williams.pdf>

The website above documents the above quote. In this website below, <https://www.andrews.edu/sem/dmin/faculty/williamshyveth.html>

you see that Hyveth Williams teaches in the Theological Seminary at Andrews University. She teaches future pastors how to preach.

If you can't read the lady's writing too well, she says, "Pastor Hyveth Williams in a sermon to the Women's Ministries Group [said]: "God wants us to lay down by His side, uncover His private parts, and say, "I'm ready, Let's get it on." I wrote to the G.C. - received a letter back from Larry Evans - admitting that this was true and that it shouldn't have been said.

"How low can one go! Yet she is being held in high esteem by the church."

Hope: Has anyone ever heard such horrible blasphemy as this?!!! Satan and his demons wouldn't dare utter it, for they tremble before the awful majesty of the MOST HIGH! {Heb. 12:29.} There is a line that even the devil doesn't dare to cross. To utter such shuddering blasphemy, would it take someone more ignorant than Satan?

Pastor Jan: Dear Jesus loves the poor soul. Please pray for her and for her dear loved ones. And pray for the poor students who are drinking in emanations from her mind, before one of them comes to pastor your church.

Vennita's Corner: "True reverence for God is inspired by a sense of His infinite greatness and a realization of His presence." PK 48.

Hope: The lady's letter says - "Yet she is being held in high esteem by the church."

Which church is she being held in high esteem by?

Is she being held in high esteem by God's pure and holy Seventh-day Adventist church [which we all can be proud to belong to] which dear Jesus is the head of - and where the 144,000 will abide until God's people are taken to heaven? Or is the poor soul being held in high esteem by the church of Laodicea, to which Jesus said, "I will spew thee out of my mouth," {Rev. 3:16}? After they receive the mark of the beast because they go along with the devil's Sunday law, will dear Jesus keep His word to them, and spew them out?

Pastor Jan: The answer is found in Last Day Events, p. 180. The prophet of God reveals that there are only two churches in the world. That's in 7 BC 974; Acts of the Apostles, p. 11; & Upward Look, p. 315. It's so simple that a child can see it. Acts of the Apostles, p. 11 says, "From the beginning, faithful souls have constituted the church on earth." That includes "faithful souls" from Adam and Eve to the end of time. That's the way God sees it. {Heb. 12:22,23.} The second quote says, "God has a church. [The name which God gave it in the last days is the name "Seventh-day Adventist.""] It is not the great cathedral, neither is it the national establishment, neither is it the various denominations; it is the people who love God and keep His commandments. 'Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them' Matt. 18:20. Where Christ is, even among the humble few, this is Christ's church, for the presence of the High and Holy One who inhabiteth eternity can alone constitute a church." Upward Look, p. 315. Have you ever thought of that?

Charity: Do you think that the leaders at the seminary knew what Hyveth Williams said in that meeting?

Pastor Jan: I like to believe that they are totally innocent of it, and that they've never heard of it since they were not at that Women's Ministry meeting.

Faith: Do you think that the committee that hired the poor soul to teach future pastors how to preach, hired her while being ignorant of her? Or do you think that they know her quite well, and that they like it?

Pastor Jan: The angels know. You learned on the CCA video series that another Bible instructor at Andrews Univ. told the students that he was going to fight more and more against the teaching of sanctification. When a student reminded him that the Bible says, "This is the will of God, even your sanctification," I Thess. 4:3, he indicated that he didn't care what the Bible says. He teaches that once a person says that he believes in Jesus, that's it! There need be no change in the person's life after that. No change at all. Come as you are to sing, swing, sin, and celebrate. That type of thing is the new Catholic Charismatic Attack against God's church, and against God Himself. It's the "New Revival."

Many of you saw on the CCA video series that when I asked the ex-Jesuit priest {Alberto Rivera} if the Jesuits have ever heard of Andrews University, he said, "They're doing a lot of work there. They're also doing a lot of work at Loma Here's Sweet Vennita kissing a kangaroo. Hi Sweetheart! You're so nice. We love to see you!

Rome thought "to change" God's Sabbath to the pagan Sunday. The antichrist likes that teaching because it puts him above the Bible and above God. "For he shall magnify himself above all." Daniel 11:37. The pope and the Holy See liked his book so much that the pope endorsed it. The name of the book was, From Sabbath to Sunday.

Concerning the king of the north, the prophet of God said, "He has insulted Jehovah by refusing to obey a 'Thus saith the Lord.' He has 'thought to change times and laws.'" RH April 17, 1900).

Hope: The internet article said that Hyveth Williams taught at Loma Linda, and was the senior pastor of the Loma Linda Hill church for 13 years. Do you know anything about that church?

Pastor Jan: It's where Sweet Vennita and I were married! Happy day!!! ☺ I have such sweet memories of us standing up on the platform with Elder Lehman and saying, "I do." Then another sweet memory came to me as I pictured myself walking down the aisle and coming out to the front of the church - before going to our reception where someone hit me in the head with a hand full of rice. My joy was full. Then, as we stood in the front yard, Vennita's father called out with words that thrilled my heart. He joyfully yelled, "Come out Mrs. Marcussen!"

So you can imagine my joy as, years later, I again sat in the Loma Linda Campus Hill church when the poor soul was the senior pastor. She announced that after the sermon, all who wanted to, could go together for a Sabbath activity - working at the Walmart. The church members would leave church and work with Walmart employees, helping people to find things like Gorilla tape, plumbing fixtures, etc., and putting products on the shelves for people to buy.

Charity: Would the poor soul teach the people to break God's holy Sabbath? Would she send poor ignorant church members to sin against God and break His Sabbath by sending them to work at the Walmart after church?

Pastor Jan: The whole front of the church was beautifully lined with many pots of gorgeous, red poinsettias. At the end of the sermon, the poor soul announced that, before they went to work at the Walmart, the congregation could get right up from their pews and purchase the pots of poinsettias. If my memory is correct, she was asking for $15 per pot.

Faith: Do church leaders, and leaders at Andrews University know who and what the poor soul is? Are they ignorant of her? Are they fond of her? How much does dear Jesus love the "new revival?"

Pastor Jan: You haven't seen anything yet.

(Natural News) The well-known health benefits of exercise seem almost incredible: improved blood sugar levels, a stronger heart, resilient muscles — the list goes on. But this silver bullet does a lot more than just improving your physical well-being. [Walking is the best.] Research proves that it can even help you beat depression. Exercise is also proven to influence the production of feel-good hormones. ☺

"Ministers of the gospel, statesmen, authors, men of wealth and talent, men of vast business capacity and power for usefulness, are in deadly peril because they do not see the necessity of strict temperance in all things." Councils on Health, p. 15.
The word "temperance" means to have "restraint." It means to "abstain from excess."

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I will soon be a Seventh-day Adventist. The Lord has placed you in this hour. I thank God for all the contacts he has given you to help sound the "alarm" here in America. I am intrigued by your letters and the "accuracy" of the understanding you have for this generation.

So few ministers speak with boldness the "real truth." So few show the fire and passion of their love for Jesus by "feeding" His sheep. I commend the Seventh-day Adventist denomination for taking a "stand" for the Sabbath of our God. I am convicted by the vision you have concerning our nation and the world. I agree that the Antichrist will be taking his position in the wake of the crisis. So many will perish. We must be "READY" Pastor. Keep on doing what you're doing!! Stay true to Him and your stars will be many! A.N.

“As Jesus came into the temple, He took in the whole scene... He saw the outer court of His temple converted into a place of unholy traffic...

“Christ saw that something must be done... Spiritual worship was fast disappearing. No link bound the priests and rulers to their God. [Notice the words, “no link.”]

“With searching glance, Christ takes in the scene before Him as He stands upon the steps of the temple court. With prophetic eye He looks into futurity, and sees not only years, but centuries and ages. He sees how priests and rulers will turn the needy from their right, and forbid that the gospel shall be preached to the poor. He sees how the love of God will be concealed from sinners, and men will make merchandise of His grace. As He beholds the scene, indignation, authority, and power are expressed in His countenance. [Wonderful Jesus!] The attention of the people is attracted to Him. The eyes of those engaged in their unholy traffic are riveted upon His face. They cannot withdraw their gaze. They feel that this Man reads their inmost thoughts, and discovers their hidden motives. Some attempt to conceal their faces, as if their evil deeds were written upon their countenances, to be scanned by those searching eyes.

“The confusion is hushed. The sound of traffic and bargaining has ceased. The silence becomes painful. A sense of awe overpowers the assembly. It is as if they were arraigned before the tribunal of God to answer for their deeds. Looking upon Christ, they behold divinity flash through the garb of humanity. [Praise God!] The Majesty of heaven stands as the Judge will stand at the last day... His eye sweeps over the multitude, taking in every individual. His form seems to rise above them in commanding dignity, and a divine light illuminates His countenance. He speaks, and His clear, ringing voice—the same that upon Mount Sinai proclaimed the law that priests and rulers are transgressing—is heard echoing through the arches of the temple: ‘Take these things hence; make not My Father’s house an house of merchandise.’

“A panic sweeps over the multitude, who feel the overshadowing of His divinity. [Praise God!] Cries of terror escape from hundreds of blanched lips. Even the disciples tremble. They are awestruck by the words and manner of Jesus, so unlike His usual demeanor. They remember that it is written of Him, ‘The zeal of Thine house hath eaten Me up.’ Ps. 69:9. Soon the tumultuous throng with their merchandise are far removed from the temple of the Lord. [It will happen again in our day - 9T 228. Here it is - God’s love for His church is infinite. His care over His heritage is unceasing. He suffers no affliction to come upon the church but such as is essential for her purification, her present and eternal good. He will purify His church even as He purified the temple at the beginning and close of His ministry on earth. [There it is! When He did it in Jerusalem, He had a whip in His hand.

Faith: What will be the whip in our day that will panic the unconverted masses and again cause them to run out?

Pastor Jan: The devil’s law will do it. At that point, the prophet said, “The majority forsake us” [LDR 180] God’s church will then be pure, and ready for the “latter rain,” the “loud cry,” the “close of probation,” the “7 last plagues,” and the coming of Jesus in the sky.] All that He brings upon the church in test and trial comes that His people may gain deeper piety and more strength to carry the triumphs of the cross to all parts of the world. He has a work for all to do. There must be constant enlargement and progress. The work must extend from city to city, [Yes!] from country to country, [Yes!] and from nation to nation, [Yes!] moving continually onward and upward, established, strengthened, and settled.” 9T 228.]

“The courts are free from unholy traffic, and a deep silence and solemnity settles upon the scene of confusion. The presence of the Lord, that of old sanctified the mount, has now made sacred the temple reared in His honor.

“The courts of the temple at Jerusalem, filled with the tumult of unholy traffic, represented all too truly the temple of the heart, defiled by the presence of sensual passion and unholy thoughts. In cleansing the temple from the world’s buyers and sellers, Jesus announced His mission to cleanse the heart from the defilement of sin,—from the earthly desires, the selfish lusts, the evil habits, that corrupt the soul. ‘The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. But who may abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when He appeareth? for He is like a refiner’s fire, and like fullers’ soap: and He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver.’ Mal 3:1-3.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
It was no accident that I picked up your book “National Sunday Law!” As I was walking out the door - there it was - lying on the floor. Reading this book lifts you up to heaven. Praise the Lord! Now I’ve started to keep God’s Sabbath day holy. God pulled me out of the fire, and I was born again. May God bless you. Jay

“Only Christ can cleanse the soul temple. [Live in our hearts dear Jesus!] Overpowered with terror, the priests and rulers had fled from the temple court... [Poor things.] Christ looked upon the fleeing men with yearning pity for their fear, and their ignorance of what constituted true worship. In this scene He saw symbolized the dispersion of the whole Jewish nation for their wickedness and impenitence. [He saw a similar thing in our day after the Sunday law is passed, and Laodicea is spewed out [Rev. 3:16] when “the majority forsake us.” Last Day Events, p 180.

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Sir,

I was getting ice for our ice chest and there was this book lying there named “National Sunday Law.” I picked the book up, and then put it down again. But something told me to take it, so I did. After reading it I was shocked. But when I compared what is in the book with my Bible, I was shocked again! Your book says just what the Bible says! Now I’m not going to church on Sunday any more! I am honoring God’s Sabbath day on Saturday, the seventh day. I will get more of these books to give to my family and friends! Thanks again. Mary

“And why did the priests flee from the temple? Why did they not stand their ground? He who commanded them to go was a carpenter’s son, a poor Galilean, without earthly rank or power. Why did they not resist Him? Why did they leave the gain so ill acquired, and flee at the command of One whose outward appearance was so humble?

“Christ spoke with the authority of a king, [Praise God!] and in His appearance, and in the tones of His voice, there was that which they had no power to resist. At the word of command they realized, as they had never realized before, their true position as hypocrites and robbers. When divinity flashed through humanity, not only did they see indignation on Christ’s countenance; they realized the import of His words. They felt as if before the throne of the eternal Judge, with their sentence passed on them for time and for eternity... The Holy Spirit flashed into their minds the utterances of the prophets concerning Christ. Would they yield to this conviction?

“Slowly and thoughtfully, but with hate in their hearts, they returned to the temple. But what a change had taken place during their absence! When they fled, the poor remained behind; [the same kind of dear people will remain behind in our day] and these were now looking to Jesus, whose countenance expressed His love and sympathy. With tears in His eyes, He said to the trembling ones around Him: Fear not; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me. For this cause came I into the world. [Praise God!]

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I have just finished reading your amazing book for the last days entitled, “National Sunday Law.” I’m stunned! This little book was mailed to me, and in just one day you have given me an extraordinary challenge! I am Roman Catholic. I attend mass on Sunday, yet, your book resonates in my heart as the truth! I will give these books to my family, friends, and fellow members of the Catholic church. We will carefully study the implications of what you have written. I believe that only God could have revealed this information that’s in your book. It certainly cannot be taken lightly! Thank you for having the love of God in your heart to search for the truth, and for having the courage to share it. Sincerely, A.E.

“The people pressed into Christ’s presence with urgent, pitiful appeals: Master, bless me. His ear heard every cry. With pity exceeding that of a tender mother He bent over the suffering little ones. All received attention. Everyone was healed of whatever disease he had. [Wonderful Jesus!] The dumb opened their lips in praise; the blind beheld the face of their Restorer. The hearts of the sufferers were made glad...” Praise God!

“The sacrificial service that had pointed to Christ passed away; but the eyes of men were turned to the true sacrifice for the sins of the world. The earthly priesthood ceased; but we look to Jesus, the minister of the new covenant, and ‘to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel...’ Christ... by His own blood entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.’ Heb 12:24; 9:8-12.

“Wherefore He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them.” Heb. 7:25. [Praise God!] “Seeing then that we have a great high priest... Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.
