

Now, 73 years after the death of Adolf Hitler, how long will it be until the world is "as it was in the days of Noah?"

Here, Adolf Hitler and his girlfriend look at the beautiful mountains from their back yard. In the peaceful country, they are deprived of junk mail, junk T.V., junk internet, junk computers, junk food, junk music, and junk salesmen.

Eva spends much of her time finding what amusement she can while waiting for her lover to come and see her.

"And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely... All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations... Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

Amen."

Eva picks lovely flowers for the table. In their quiet country home, she has no clue of all the exciting and shocking things that her boyfriend is involved with.

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Faith: Why do you show the rainbow lady along with Hitler's girlfriend? Is it to indicate that our society is now like it was in Sodom and Gomorrah?

Hope: The verse says, "teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." With the devil and his troops getting more powerful, how will the saints ever do it before Satan's army stops them?

Paster Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Adolf Hitler spent his last 10 days in the bunker 60 feet beneath the chancellery in Berlin, where he, Eva, and some of his top leaders celebrated his 56 birthday on April 20, 1945. From the birthday party, Adolf and Eva would live another 10 days as the Russians were closing in.

Rittmeister Gerhard Boldt was in the “fuehrerbunker” with Hitler during that time, and revealed the following information, which was verified by Hugh T. Roper, Regis Professor of History at the University of Oxford -

From loudspeakers in the streets of Berlin were heard the words – “People of Germany: this is your propaganda minister, Joseph Goebbels. Today, April 20, our Furor is 56 years old. We can only say that the times in which we live have found in the Furor the only man worthy of this tragic hour. We have to thank him, and only him for the fact that Germany is still alive this day.”

While eating cake at his birthday party - Hitler said, “You know Goebbels, some of our most talented musicians have allowed themselves to become absurdly fat. It takes away half the joy of going to the opera. If the German people would only rise to the position of complete superiority, the great operas could be performed by all our singers completely naked.

“Devotion to a man is the highest virtue in a woman. Intelligence is not very important. This cake is really excellent, but I eat too much of it. I’m sure that all of you, following my orders not to smoke, feel a lot better. Just think of how many famous men have been drugged by tobacco. Think of that inveterate drunkard Churchill - dragging his country and all Europe down to ruin before the Bolshevik avalanche while he puffs on his fat cigar, egged on Eva's sister, Ilsa, is being interviewed by a U.S. official.

Anni Winter - Hitler's housekeeper

For his birthday, they present Hitler with a swastika flag.

“miracle weapons” like the 262 jet fighter, and the V1 & V2 rockets.

https://youtu.be/hu2U17D_HA This article says, “Eva Braun first met Adolf Hitler in 1929 when she was 17 and working for a Nazi photographer. [Her name is pronounced Ava Brown]. Eva was Hitler’s mistress for 14 years. But all this was kept from the German people.”

U.S. official: “Madam Braun, what was Hitler’s health like when you last saw him?”

Ilsa Braun [Eva’s sister]: His face was gray as ashes. His hands were in a constant state of agitation. And his eyes were glassy. He was like an old man. It seemed that he did not have the energy to live much longer.

U.S. official: Mrs. Winter, how long did you keep house for Adolf Hitler?

Anni Winter: For 15 years. Hitler told Eva Braun that he will never get married, but that she may continue to be his girlfriend. She was very unhappy over this situation and attempted suicide.

He talks about his plans

In his easy chair.

Pastor Jan: At 10 p.m. on Saturday night, April 28, 1945, Hitler dictates his last will and testament as the Russians are getting close. It was then that he told Eva that he would marry her. One hour after midnight - at 1 a.m. Sunday morning, April 29, Hitler emerges from his room - arm in arm with Eva Braun. She wears a black, sequined dress, and her eyes are radiant with happy tears. Joseph Goebbels acts as best man for the ceremony. When the nervous minister asks the Furor if he has any hereditary deficiencies or diseases, Hitler’s eyes get big, and he shouts, “NO!”

He and Eva are pronounced man and wife, and then sign the marriage certificate. Eva writes her first name, and then, after writing the letter B for Braun, she marks it out and writes the word "Hitler."

U.S. Official: What happened at the end? Was there a wedding celebration?

Heinz Lorenz; Press Attache: "There was a little party. And then they prepared for suicide."

After the party, the guests take turns telling each other of their thoughts concerning the best way to do it. Hitler hands everyone a little present; a box containing a cyanide capsule. Goebbel's wife Magda, asks if he has more little boxes for their children. Hitler said, "yes, I haven't forgotten."

Monday at 2 p.m., April 30. Eva puts on her husband's favorite dress. It's black with white roses around the neck. She does her hair and paints her nails. Now the Furor will carry out his final act.

[When the Vatican saw that Hitler was losing the war, they turned against him. To further distance themselves from him, a certain papal order has been given the hard job of convincing the world that the holocaust never existed. At this time, people think that anyone saying such a ridiculous thing is "coo coo." But they don't know that papal infiltrators are writing new history books which leave it out, and which picture the Roman church in a favorable light. And you've already learned that Catholics have been assigned to go into libraries and make books that contain a record of it, disappear. If time lasted long enough, this effort - with a generation whose brains are, to varying degrees, mentally retarded - would succeed.]

All of a sudden, a gunshot is heard. Hitler's officers go into his room and find the Furor and his new bride.

Heinz Lorenz; Press Attache: "We found Eva laying on the sofa. She was dead, but she had no marks of violence on her body."

Goebbels said, "The heart of Germany has ceased to beat. The Furor is dead."

Dear Pastor Jan,
I gave a copy of "National Sunday Law" to a Muslim man whose name is Mohammed Kone.
He is married to a Christian woman who is a preacher. His wife called and said that she had started reading the NSL book that afternoon, and just finished it. She had no more questions about God's Sabbath! They were all answered for her in "National Sunday Law."
Her Muslim husband, my wife and myself, all went to our church that Sabbath together! In church the lady stood up and gave her testimony about how she is keeping God's Sabbath now, and how she found it. Praise the

be found in that palace of loveliness. Israel as a nation had divorced herself from God... [Faith: Will that happen to Laodicea when the great "test" comes at the Sunday law? Jesus said to Laodicea, "I will spew you out of my mouth." Rev. 3:16. Will she repent, or will Jesus do what He said? Pastor Jan: Page 180 of Last Day Events, says, "The majority forsake us." Dear Jesus will do what He said to those who don't repent - but not until the mark of the beast is enforced by law. But His obedient, remnant people will live forever! In Rev. 7 we see that Jesus gives them a special name. Why? Because they choose the seal of God instead of the mark of the beast. In the end, every intelligent person will have one or the other. The prophet continues -]

"The day of Peter's execution was at last appointed, but still the prayers of the believers ascended to heaven... [This is why our kind Father permits trials. It's to drive us {in constant prayer} closer to God than we would come to Him in easy times.]

"Remembering the former escape of the apostles from prison, Herod had taken double precautions. To prevent all possibility of Here's the Furor with Roman Catholic Cardinals. Most of you know that Hiram Dukes, the U.S. ex-spy who became an SDA minister, revealed that the papacy had a concordat with Germany, and was using her, along with Japan and Italy, to hopefully sweep around the world, and conquer it, and then hand it to the Vatican in fulfillment of GC 565,566, which reveals that one of her main goals is to "regain control of the world." Churchill said to Roosevelt, "If England goes down, Hitler has a very good chance of conquering the world." Now that our kind Father defeated that papal plot of the devil, Rome is seeking to "regain control of the world" by infiltrating and taking over the U.S. Congress [most of them are Catholics] the U.S. Senate [most of them are Catholics], the Pentagon [most of them are Catholics], the Supreme Court [most of them are Catholics], and the "Deep State" [controlled by papal agents]. Archbishop Quigley said, "When the United States rules the world, the Catholic Church will rule the world." The Chicago Tribune, 1903.

Charity: The great Nazi battle, and the papal inspired battles of the world [Rev. 18:24] are for the purpose of advancing the Roman church and stopping God's people from getting His three angels messages to the world. [You've already learned that Hiram Dukes, the former U.S. spy, said, "The Vietnamese war was for the main purpose of getting Catholicism into Vietnam."] God stopped the Vatican plot to take over the world in Hitler's day. What kind of people will our kind Father use to thwart the devil's plans to stop God's people in our day? Does the Bible give us a hint?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely – "Herod's act in putting James to death was applauded by the Jews... Herod therefore held Peter in custody, meaning to gratify the Jews by the public spectacle of his death..."

"Meanwhile worshipers from every nation sought the temple which had been dedicated to the worship of God. Glittering with gold and precious stones, it was a vision of beauty and grandeur. But Jehovah was no longer to

Dear Pastor Marcussen, We rejoice greatly in the Lord to see how one entire church congregation here accepted the truth of God's Sabbath as a direct result of the powerful book "National Sunday Law!" At first the members of this church did not do anything. But upon seeing on TV [here in Mexico] the pope announcing the coming Sunday prophecies, this church made a decision and called our SDA Pastor

- asking him to come and baptize them all! Praise God! And what's more, within a short distance from too. God is working on many hearts release, Peter had been put under the charge of sixteen soldiers, who guarded him day and night. He was placed between two soldiers and was unable to move without their knowledge. With the prison doors securely fastened, and a strong guard before them, all chance of rescue or escape through human means was cut off...

"It is the last night before the proposed execution.

[Notice the word, "last." God will also choose what appears to be the "last" minute to save us at the death decree of Rev. 13:15.] A mighty angel is sent from heaven to rescue Peter. The strong gates that shut in the saint of God open without the aid of human hands. The angel of the Most High passes through, and the gates close noiselessly behind him. He enters the cell, and there lies Peter, sleeping the peaceful sleep of perfect trust. [Tonight, you have the privilege of staying on your knees until - when you go to bed - you can also sleep "the peaceful sleep of perfect trust."]

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,
I am Pentecostal, and have been for the last 13 years. A close friend of mine who is a Seventh-day Adventist gave me a copy of your newsletter. It has encouraged and inspired me to learn more about Seventh-day Adventists. It has made me want to become a Seventh-day Adventist. I am about to make a transition. I want to keep reading about other people in your letters who have made this transition. Thank you, and God bless you. Tamika Cleveland, OH.

Mechanically he obeys the word spoken to him, and as in rising he lifts his hands he is dimly conscious that the chains have fallen from his wrists.

"Again the voice of the heavenly messenger bids him, 'Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals,' and again Peter mechanically obeys, keeping his wondering gaze riveted upon his visitor and believing himself to be dreaming or in a vision. Once more the angel commands, 'Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.' He moves toward the door, followed by the usually talkative Peter, now dumb from amazement. They step over the guard and reach the heavily bolted door, which of its own accord swings open and closes again immediately, while the guards within and without are motionless at their post.

"The second door, also guarded within and without, is reached. It opens as did the first, with no creaking of hinges or rattling of iron bolts. They pass through, and it closes again as noiselessly. In the same way they pass through the third gateway and find themselves in the open street. No word is spoken; there is no sound of footsteps. The angel glides on in front, encircled by a light of dazzling brightness, and Peter, bewildered, and still believing himself to be in a dream, follows his deliverer.

[Notice that the angel does not walk, but he "glides" over the ground. One of the friends of this angel is beside you now. He loves you! He's been with you since you were born. He also glides, and goes in and out through the walls of your house.] Thus they pass on through one street, and then, the mission of the angel being accomplished, he suddenly disappears.

"The heavenly light faded away, and Peter felt himself to be in profound darkness; but as his eyes became accustomed to the darkness, it gradually seemed to lessen, and he found himself alone in the silent street, with the cool night air blowing upon his brow. He now realized that he was free, in a familiar part of the city...

"His wrists, swollen from wearing the cruel irons, were free from the manacles. He realized that his freedom was no delusion, no dream or vision, but a blessed reality. On the morrow he was to have been led forth to die; but, lo, an angel had delivered him from prison and from death...

"The apostle made his way at once to the house where his brethren were assembled and where they were at that moment engaged in earnest prayer for him... Joy and praise filled the hearts of the believers, because God had heard and answered their prayers and had delivered Peter from the hands of Herod. [Dear Jesus will also save His 144,000 from death at the death decree of Rev. 13:15, and use them {as well as the angels} to finish God's work on the earth.]

"In the morning a large concourse of people gathered [like the ignorant mobs that glob into the sports arenas]

Vennitz's Corner: "Dare to be singular because you love Jesus better than the world, and righteousness with persecution better than disobedience with worldly prosperity." TMK 318

"The light that surrounds the angel fills the cell, but does not rouse the apostle. Not until he feels the touch of the angel's hand and hears a voice saying, 'Arise up quickly,' does he awaken sufficiently to see his cell illuminated by the light of heaven, and an angel of great glory standing before him.

Pastor Jan: When I was just a boy, the most amazing thing happened in church. I'll never forget it! I was sitting there when all of a sudden, a lady stood up in the congregation. She didn't interrupt anyone, because it was between services. But everyone was there, and the speaker was about ready to get up - when she stood up and spoke in a voice that everyone could hear.

She said, "You all know that Sister [REDACTED] and I haven't been getting along." Then she spoke directly to that sister, and said, "I want to publicly ask you to forgive me for all that I've done or said to hurt you."

Immediately, everyone felt something AWESOME. I hadn't felt it for a long time. Everyone could sense it. It was the immediate presence of God! I was in awe. Right away the lady she was talking to stood up and said, "And will you please forgive me!" Please forgive me!"

Then another person stood up and said, Brother [REDACTED] will you please forgive me for what I've said and done to hurt you."

That other brother stood up and said, "Oh yes. Please forgive me for what I've said or done to hurt you. And I ask the Lord to forgive me."

God was there! If you've ever wanted to "sense" what the sweet, loving atmosphere is like in heaven - that was it! One after another stood up and confessed directly to whomever they needed to, and the Holy Spirit of God "moved!" It was awesome! And, it's going to happen again! Those who take part in it will be among God's 144,000. What a taste of heaven that was! May we all be part of it, is my prayer!

Dear Pastor Jan,
I was raised in a Roman Catholic - alcoholic home; with drunken priests, and abusive nuns and family. I couldn't find my way out of a tortured conscience. After quitting one addiction, another would take hold of me. I was searching for the truth and relief from the weight and guilt of sin. Then, after calling out for God to please show Himself, I was led to our local thrift shop. After rooting through some junk, I found a book. It felt electrified in my hands. I knew that this book was the reason I was led to the thrift shop. I couldn't put it down! I devoured it like a starving person devours food. I told Jesus that I would start keeping His Sabbath if He would deliver me from my addictions. I started keeping His Sabbath holy, and within three weeks I was free of all addictions! I left AA, and all Roman Catholic programs. I was baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist. I am very happy!

Even though I was shocked to find that most church members are food addicts, and are no different from worldly people; and that almost no one accepts health reform, or dress reform; and that they strongly warn against quoting from the Spirit of Prophecy; and though they try to stop anyone from reaching the people with the very 3 angels' messages that God used to save me; yet, all of this doesn't stop me from doing God's work. I give out National Sunday Law books by the hundreds wherever I go. I leave them at supermarkets, doctor's offices, hospitals, benches, health clubs, diners, in rest rooms under the toilet where people don't have much to do. I get up early to pray and study God's word. I'm on fire for God to get His saving message out so He can save precious souls. So today I got your newsletter. Praise God! It was an answer to my prayer. It was so encouraging! I am willing to put my money on the altar for God, and keep just enough to live on. I have many obstacles, but our strong God is able to knock them down! All I know is that I want to reach souls. I want to meet people who actually do what God says. Thank you for helping me. May God bless you! S.N.

to the prison for Peter, who was to be brought with a great display of arms and guards in order not only to ensure against his escape, but to intimidate all sympathizers and to show the power of the king.

"When the keepers before the door found that Peter had escaped, they were seized with terror. It had been expressly stated that their lives would be required for the life of their charge, and because of this they had been especially vigilant. When the officers came for Peter, the soldiers were still at the door of the prison, the bolts and bars were still fast, the chains were still secured to the wrists of the two soldiers; but the prisoner was gone.

"When the report of Peter's escape was brought to Herod, he was exasperated and enraged. Charging the prison guard with unfaithfulness, he ordered them to be put to death. Herod knew that no human power had rescued Peter, but he was determined not to acknowledge that a divine power had frustrated his design, and he set himself in bold defiance against God.

"Not long after Peter's deliverance from prison,

Herod went to Caesarea. While there he made a great festival designed to excite the admiration and gain the applause of the people. This festival was attended by pleasure lovers from all quarters, and there was much feasting and wine drinking [as they do now]. With great pomp Herod appeared before the people and addressed them in an eloquent oration. Clad in a robe sparkling with silver and gold, which caught the rays of the sun in its glittering folds and dazzled the eyes of the beholders, he was a gorgeous figure. The majesty of his appearance and the force of his well-chosen language swayed the assembly with a mighty power. Their senses already perverted by feasting and wine, they were dazzled by Herod's decorations and charmed by his deportment and oratory; and wild with enthusiasm they showered adulation upon him, declaring that no mortal could present such an appearance or command such startling eloquence. They further declared that while they had ever respected him as a ruler, henceforth they should worship him as a god...

"Some of those whose voices were now heard glorifying a vile sinner had but a few years before raised the frenzied cry, Away with Jesus! Crucify Him, crucify Him! The Jews had refused to receive Christ, whose garments, coarse and often travel-stained, covered a heart of divine love. Their eyes could not discern, under the humble exterior, the Lord of life and glory... But they were ready to worship as a god the haughty king [like Hitler] whose splendid garments of silver and gold covered a corrupt, cruel heart.

"Herod knew that he deserved none of the praise and homage offered him, yet he accepted the idolatry of the people as his due. His heart bounded with triumph, and a glow of gratified pride overspread his countenance as he heard the shout ascend, 'It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.'

"But suddenly a terrible change came over him. His face became pallid as death and distorted with agony. Great drops of sweat started from his pores. He stood for a moment as if transfixed with pain and terror; then turning his blanched and livid face to his horror-stricken friends, he cried in hollow, despairing tones, 'He whom you have exalted as a god is stricken with death.'

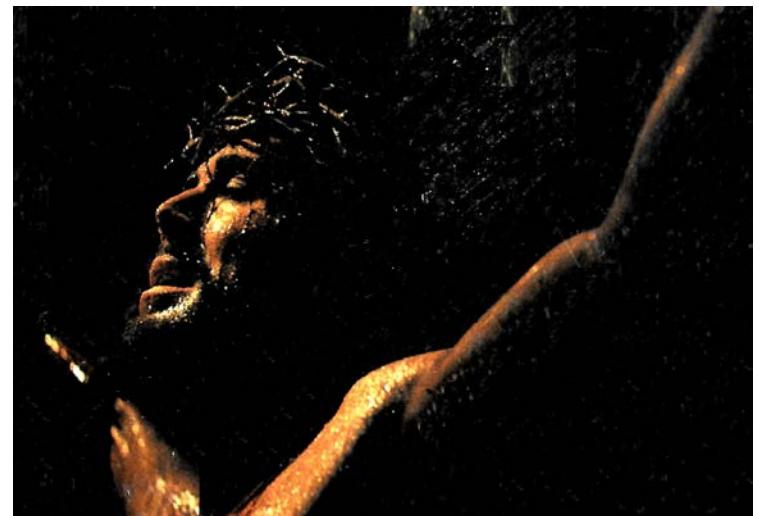

"Suffering the most excruciating anguish, he was borne from the scene of revelry and display. A moment before he had been the proud recipient of the praise and worship of that vast throng; now he realized that he was in the hands of a Ruler mightier than himself. Remorse seized him; he remembered his relentless persecution of the followers of Christ; he remembered his cruel command to slay the innocent James, and his design to put to death the apostle Peter; he remembered how in his disappointed rage he had wreaked an unreasoning vengeance upon the prison guards. He felt that God was now dealing with him... He found no relief from pain of body or anguish of mind, and he expected none...

"The same angel who had come from the royal courts to rescue Peter, had been the messenger of wrath to Herod... Herod died in great agony of mind and body, under the retributive judgment of God.

"This demonstration of divine justice had a powerful influence upon the people. The tidings that the apostle of Christ had been miraculously delivered from prison and death, while his persecutor had been stricken down by the curse of God, were borne to all lands and became the means of leading many to a belief in Christ... [this helps us to understand better why our kind Father allows the devil to do many things that he does - driving people to Jesus, and eternal life.]

"To the worker for God the record of these angel visits should bring strength and courage. Today, as verily as in the days of the apostles, heavenly messengers are passing through the length and breadth of the land, seeking to comfort the sorrowing, to protect the impenitent, to win the hearts of men to Christ. We cannot see them personally; nevertheless they are with us, guiding, directing, protecting. [Praise God!]

"Heaven is brought near to earth by that mystic ladder, [it's dear Jesus!] the base of which is firmly planted on the earth, while the topmost round reaches the throne of the Infinite. Angels are constantly ascending and descending this ladder of shining brightness, bearing the prayers of the needy and distressed to the Father above, and bringing blessing and hope,

"Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ." HP 262. "When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned." SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Sir,
Your book "National Sunday Law" is incredible! I'm a Roman Catholic, so I can't be but extremely shocked at this revelation. I got on my knees and thanked God that this book came into my hands! I want to share the knowledge that is in this book with my family and others, that they too, might receive the "seal of God" in their foreheads.
Sincerely, thank you again, and may our Blessed Lord and Saviour bless you always. HP.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
My wife and I were both raised in the Roman Catholic church, but we left it. Then we attended the Methodist church, but still felt unfulfilled. I was way off track. But then your book came in the mail. It opened my eyes! What's in your book all makes sense, and this is why I ordered more of them. I thank you, and look forward to spreading what I now know to be the truth! Sincerely, M. T. Davis

Dear Sir,
Never have I read a book like this one! "National Sunday Law" has answered questions that I longed to ask others, but was afraid to. May God richly bless the person who sent out this book for God's people! E.I.

courage and help, to the children of men. These angels of light create a heavenly atmosphere about the soul, lifting us toward the unseen and the eternal. We cannot behold their forms with our natural sight; only by spiritual vision can we discern heavenly things. The spiritual ear alone can hear the harmony of heavenly voices.

“‘The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him, and delivereth them.’ Ps. 34:7. God commissions His angels to save His chosen ones from calamity, to guard them from ‘the pestilence that walketh in darkness’ and ‘the destruction that wasteth at noonday.’ Ps. 91:6. Again and again have angels talked with men as a man speaketh with a friend, and led them to places of security. Again and again have the encouraging words of angels renewed the drooping spirits of the faithful and, carrying their minds above the things of earth, caused them to behold by faith the white robes, the crowns, the palm branches of victory, which overcomers will receive when they surround the great white throne.

“The principalities and powers of heaven are watching the warfare which, under apparently discouraging circumstances, God’s servants are carrying on. New conquests are being achieved, new honors won, as the Christians, rallying round the banner of their Redeemer, go forth to fight the good fight of faith. All the heavenly
