Here it is! Heaven! Do you see all the people? They love it! If most people were given the choice to either 1) live for self, pleasure, fun, sin, excitement, and then burn to ashes in hell and be dead forever; or to 2) give up sinful pleasures; walk and talk with dear Jesus - Who died for our sins - and live for Him in great joy, peace and perfect obedience; forgetting “self,” to bless others, and then live forever in perfect happiness in the paradise of God, which one would they choose? Both? This picture gives us a hint. They like heaven NOW - to sing, and swing, and sin, and celebrate. They don't know what kind of master they have. But soon, they'll see the gorgeous monster “in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons.” GC 624.

It's well known as “The Cash-Landrum Incident.” Do you see the helicopter? It doesn't matter whether avatars believe that this happened or not, because - “Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons.” GC 624.

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The text says that “the accuser of our brethren is cast down.” Praise God! And it says that we overcome him 1) by the blood of the Lamb, and 2) by the word of our testimony - in praise to dear Jesus. It also says that the devil is come down to us in great wrath because he knows that he has but a short time. What will the fiend do to show that time is very short? What kinds of attacks will he blast upon the world?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

The Battle of Los Angeles

It is very rare that there should appear a UFO case which involved the military. Such is the case of an event which took place over the Los Angeles area on February 25, 1942. As America was gathering its senses after the recent and shocking attack on Pearl Harbor, there was a heightened feeling of insecurity and anxiety. The skies were being watched as never before as a giant UFO moved toward California, alerting the military and civilian watchers as well. This case is known as the "Battle of Los Angeles."

The giant hovering object was soon lit up by gigantic spotlights of the Army's 37th Coast Artillery Brigade. Everyone who looked up was shocked by the sight of the massive UFO sitting above their city. One witness reported that it was larger than the shopping mall. [Many pictures were taken like the one you see here from the Los Angeles Times newspaper. You can see the oval shaped object in the center of the lights. Notice that instead of the lights going past it, all light is stopped within it, and goes no farther. If nothing was there, the lights would extend farther up into the sky.] The giant UFO would take direct hit after hit from the artillery shells, yet without damage. The 37th Brigade was relentless in its attempt to bring down the large object but found no success. No place was safe this night. Many were injured. It moved directly over the MGM studios. [The UFO demons enjoyed greeting the demons in Hollywood.]

The Woman Air Raid Warden Gives Testimony: "It was huge! It was just enormous! And it was practically right over my house. I had never seen anything like it in my life!" she said. "It was just hovering there in the sky and hardly moving at all. It was a lovely pale orange and about the most beautiful thing you've ever seen. [Angels can be very beautiful.] I could see it perfectly because it was very close. It was huge!" [It reminds many of the huge, gorgeous, UFO they saw in the 1996 movie entitled, "Independence Day." Satan likes to show the world what he is planning to do in advance because he copies God in showing what He is planning to do in advance in Bible prophecy.] The people of Los Angeles, with more than 1.5 million citizens were afraid their city was in the enemy's sights. Those fears were confirmed on the night of Feb. 23, when a Japanese submarine surfaced off California and fired on oil refinery installations north of Santa Barbara.

At 1:44 a.m. on Feb. 25, some 24 hours after the oil refinery attack, radar picked up an unidentified object flying 120 miles off the coast. For the next 45 minutes, three radar units tracked the object as it moved east toward Malibu before turning south and edging down the coast toward Los Angeles. At 2:21 a.m. Los Angeles was placed under a black-out, and gunners were put on green alert, a status to fire at will. [The sudden "blackness" led to the crash of three car drivers, and before they knew what was happening, they were dead. Two more would die that night of heart attacks. "And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory." Luke 21:25-27.]

At 2:43 a.m., the military made its first visual contact with the UFO, south of downtown. Within seconds, the air above Los Angeles was exploding with 50-caliber machine gun bullets, and 12.8 pound anti-aircraft shells. The barrage awakened citizens who emerged from their homes to find the landscape under a cloak of darkness, the only light coming from military searchlights trained on the sky. From sidewalks and yards, hundreds of thousands of the 1.5 million citizens watched as the spectacle unfolded above them.

Scott Littleton, who lived with his family in Hermosa Beach, described it to the History Channel as "A lozenge, a long oval. Shells were exploding all around it."

Bill Tompkins said that he saw a very large vehicle that "moved in and stopped right above us." He said, "There were smaller vehicles that were moving around and above it."

By 4:14 a.m., the object was gone. After a nearly two-and-a-half-hour visit, it hadn't moved away, it had just vanished. The next morning, the Los Angeles Times published an account of the encounter, with the picture showing the mammoth sized oval thing in the center.

This "battle" is shocking to many, but it doesn't surprise us at all. Why not? Because the prophet said, "Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons. [Satan will continue to use UFOs and other forms of spiritualism to accomplish this quote -] The spirits of devils will go forth to the kings of the earth and to the whole world, to fasten them in deception, and urge them on to unite with Satan in his last struggle against the government of heaven. By these agencies, rulers and subjects will be alike deceived.

"In different parts of the earth, Satan will manifest himself among men as a majestic being of dazzling brightness, resembling the description of the Son of God given by John in the Revelation. {Revelation 1:13-15}. The glory that surrounds him is unsurpassed by anything that mortal eyes have yet beheld. The shout of triumph rings out upon the air: 'Christ has come! Christ has come!' The people prostrate themselves in adoration before him while he lifts up his hands and pronounces a blessing upon them, as Christ blessed His disciples when He was upon the earth. His voice is soft and subdued, yet full of melody. In gentle, compassionate tones he presents some of the same gracious, heavenly truths which the Saviour uttered; he heals the diseases of the people, and then, in his assumed character of Christ, he claims to have changed the Sabbath to Sunday, and commands all to hallow the day which he has blessed. He declares that those who persist in keeping holy the seventh day are blaspheming his name by refusing to listen to his angels sent to them with light and truth. This is the strong, almost overmastering delusion." GC 623, 624.

Dear Pastor Jan,
I was converted to God's SDA Bible truth because of your book "National Sunday Law!" Thank you for your service to God! I would like to read more, so please send me your newsletters. A.E.

Of the 1.5 million inhabitants of L.A., hundreds of thousands of anxious mothers, fathers, teenagers, and children stood in their yards watching, and hearing the booming of the giant guns. Here's the photograph of the battle of L.A. in the February 26, 1942 issue of the Los Angeles Times. You see spotlights from 9 army artillery positions, firing 50 caliber machine guns, and 12.8 pound anti-aircraft shells from the hills near the city. The oval shaped object is seen in the center with smaller objects moving around it. Direct hits were made by the exploding shells without effect.

Along with many buildings and vehicles, you can see where this car was hit by bullets or shrapnel from the exploding shells over the city. The license plate reads, California 1942.

Protect the work-free Sunday!

March 2, 2018

The European Sunday Alliance calls on all its supporters to take action against Sunday Work. The Sunday as a common weekly day of rest is under pressure in Europe. Online shopping offered around the clock, a tendency towards permanent availability of workers due to mobile devices as well as the increasing use of on-call time and the increasing opening of shops, especially in tourist areas on Sundays, endanger not only the work-free Sunday as a common day of rest but also common free time and a rest period from a purely economic-driven lifestyle.

The European Sunday Alliance is convinced that working on Sundays endangers the health and safety of workers as well as the social cohesion in our societies. The challenge of reconciling working schedules with social and civic commitments had just been discussed at the last breakfast meeting of the Interest Group Work-Life Balance in the European Parliament on February 22. Only a well-protected common work-free day per week enables citizens to enjoy full participation in cultural, sports, social and religious life and allows for reconciliation. That is why the European Sunday Alliance commits itself to safeguarding a work-free Sunday.

The European Sunday Alliance calls on all its members and on all citizens to take action as the Day for a work-free Sunday with special activities, and Church services, in order to raise awareness about the unique value of Sunday for the European society and the importance of common free time in a digitalized society.

The European Sunday Alliance is a network of national Sunday Alliances, trade unions, employers' organizations, civil society organizations, churches, and religious communities committed to raise awareness of the unique value of free time for our European societies. CESI has been a member of the Alliance since 2017.

What is there about April 19? This article reveals that great things have happened on that date.

On April 19, 1775, "the 'embattled farmers' stood and fired "the shot heard round the world" as the British attacked in an attempt "to abridge their rights."

Then on April 19, 1993, Branch Davidians died in a blazing inferno near Waco, Texas.

Then on April 19, 1995, is when Timothy McVeigh and "others unknown," "took revenge by

The devil has gone hog wild because the fiend knows that he'll be turned to ashes. Eze. 28:19. Do you like to see signs that dear Jesus is coming soon? Here are two men. When the devil has succeeded in making men, women, and sodomites dress alike, and mate with each other, and with animals, you'll know that "As a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man." Luke 21:36.

Most people don't know that it was Rome {during the "Inquisition" of the "dark ages"} that accounted God's people guilty until proven innocent. It will happen again. In the article in this magazine, you get hints that papal agents have taken over society [in fulfillment of GC 565,566] to the degree that people are even now being judged guilty until they can prove themselves innocent. If you read this website seen on the right, you'll learn that it also happened in Waco. This is one of the foundation principles that Satan seeks to enforce before the strict enforcement of the Sunday law - when God's dear people will "then have to flee before infuriated mobs." Last Day Events, p. 261. If you want a copy of the above magazine article, just send anything to cover the shipping. I thank our kind Father that nothing touches His dear people without His permission!

bombing the Alfred P. Murrah federal building in downtown Oklahoma City.”

Dear Sir,
You don't know me but that doesn't matter. I'm writing to let you know that I found your book "National Sunday Law" full of truth! I was completely breathless! I went to a Catholic school when I was a child, and then to a Baptist school as a teenager, and none of them satisfied my thirst. Thank you for sending out this information!
Sincerely, Your sister in Christ, N.W. New York

Most people would never dream that Rev. 18:24 has anything to do with it. The prophet of God said, "We need not be surprised at anything that may take place now. We need not marvel at any developments of horror. Those who trample under their unholy feet the law of God have the same spirit as had the men who insulted and betrayed Jesus. Without any compunctions of conscience they will do the deeds of their father the devil." 3SM 416.

Hope: Would a Roman Catholic priest ever be quoted in the Sabbath School Quarterly for God's people to enjoy?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely -

Rev. Frank J. Matera Ph.D.

"Father Frank J. Matera was named Pastor at St. Mary's Catholic Church in June 2012, returning to parish life after decades in education. He studied at Thomas Seminary in Bloomfield, St. Bernard Seminary in Rochester, and at the Catholic University of Louvain, where he received his M.A.

The church's website says, "The Holy Days of Obligation are days when we as Catholics are required to attend Mass in addition to our regular Sunday obligation. Some of the Holy Days of Obligation are - 1) First Sunday of Advent, 2)

Immaculate Conception Sunday, 3) Christmas, 4) Mary, Mother of God Monday, 5) Ash Wednesday, 6) Palm Sunday, 7) Holy Thursday, 8) Good Friday, 9) Easter Sunday, 10) Divine Mercy Sunday, 11) All Saints Day, etc.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Praise God! I just finished reading "National Sunday Law" and it brought me back close with God. I will say that the book saved my life. How wonderful God is! I praise Him. Yours in Christ, Andrew

Charity: Why would anyone quote a Roman Catholic priest in the Sabbath School Quarterly?

Pastor Jan: He's acclaimed as being one of the leading scholars on the writings of Paul. That means that when you read what he said about what Paul said, you know more about what Paul said than when you read what Paul said. How does that sound?

"Father" Frank Matera PhD is quoted on page 65 of the adult Sabbath School Quarterly for Sunday, August 13, in the Quarterly for July, August, & Sept. of 2017, named, "The Gospel in Galatians." On that page it says that our union with Christ means that what is true of Christ is also true of us. At the bottom of that page it says - "Dwell on the thought that what is true of Christ is also true of us."

Faith: Christ is God. John 1:1. Is that true of us? Dear Jesus said, "No man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 14:6. Is that true of us? Is it true of the pope? The Bible says, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus." I Tim. 2:5. Is the pope that "one mediator"?

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
Greetings from Tanzania. The "National Sunday Law" books have pointed many people to the truth of God. I'm distributing them to several groups of people. The first group are the Roman Catholic priests and nuns. I know so many of them as I was educated in their schools for 16 years. I gave the "National Sunday Law" books to four Catholic bishops. Several priests have decided to leave the priesthood. The next group to receive NSL books were students of the University, teachers, police, and medical assistants. Many of them have become faithful Seventh-day Adventists! [Praise God!] In his service, Ewaldi Mushi

Pastor Jan: In 1993 I could see that many of God's people desired to study a quarterly that has only the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy. So we made one - which has been printed every quarter of every year since then, though we haven't saved all the back issues. I was surprised when Andrews University ordered it for their library. Many of you don't know that it even exists because I haven't wanted to compete with the regular quarterly, so I haven't even mentioned it for a long, long time. But since Priest Frank Matera PhD came to light, I thought that some of you might get a blessing from the quarterly that has just the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy. We charge nothing for it, and if you would like to have them for the rest of the year, you may send any kind of donation to help cover the cost and shipping. To the right, you see a sample of four of them. May our kind Father be praised, and may His dear people be blessed.

Hope: How do we know that Rome is laying the foundation for the Sunday law? Why doesn't she just forget about it?

Here's Sweet Vennita! We're eating together in nature with dear Joy and the family.

Hi Sweetheart! You're so nice. We love to see you.

“The evening had been calm and pleasant, and quiet rested upon the lake; but suddenly darkness overspread the sky, the wind swept wildly down the mountain gorges along the eastern shore, and a fierce tempest burst upon the lake.

“The sun had set, and the blackness of night settled down upon the stormy sea. The waves, lashed into fury by the howling winds, dashed fiercely over the disciples’ boat, and threatened to engulf it. Those hardy fishermen had guided their craft safely through many a storm; but now their strength and skill availed nothing. They were helpless in the grasp of the tempest, and hope failed them as they saw that their boat was filling.

“Absorbed in their efforts to save themselves, they had forgotten that Jesus was on board. Now, seeing their labor vain and only death before them, they remembered at whose command they had set out to cross the sea. In Jesus was their only hope. In their helplessness and despair they cried, ‘Master, Master!’ But the dense darkness hid Him from their sight. Their voices were drowned by the roaring of the tempest, and there was no reply. Doubt and fear assailed them. Had Jesus forsaken them? Was He who had conquered disease and demons, and even death, powerless to help His disciples now? Was

Sunday shopping

The sabbath involves staying close to home, family and simple pleasures while avoiding harsh legalism

Question: Is it wrong to shop on Sunday? I find shopping enjoyable, not work. A priest on the radio recently said shopping on Sunday is a mortal sin.

— Kathy Cerroni

The first and most serious obligation for us on Sundays is to attend holy Mass. Scripture, referring to the Third Commandment, says, “There are six days when you may work, but the seventh day is a day of sabbath rest, a day of sacred assembly” (Lev 23:3).

Hence not only is rest from work required, but so is attending the sacred assembly we call Mass. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, “The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin” (No. 2181).

If refusing Mass on Sunday is a “grave sin” now, what kind of sinners will we be for disobeying the Sunday law when the devil appears as Jesus -- working miracles, healing, and calling down fire from heaven? Let him leap up and down!

He unmindful of them in their distress?

“Again they call, but there is no answer except the shrieking of the angry blast. Already their boat is sinking. A moment, and apparently they will be swallowed up by the hungry waters.

“Suddenly a flash of lightning pierces the darkness, and they see Jesus lying asleep, undisturbed by the tumult. In amazement and despair they exclaim, ‘Master, carest Thou not that we perish?’ How can He rest so peacefully, while they are in danger and battling with death?

“Their cry arouses Jesus. As the lightning’s glare reveals Him, they see the peace of heaven in His face; [Praise God!] they read in His glance self-forgetful, tender love, and, their hearts turning to Him, cry, ‘Lord, save us: we perish!’

“Never did a soul utter that cry unheeded.

[Praise God!] As the disciples grasp their oars to make a last effort, Jesus rises. [Our Lord and our God!] He stands in the midst of His disciples, while the tempest rages, the waves break over them, and the lightning illuminates His countenance. He lifts His hand, so often employed in deeds of mercy, and says to the angry sea, ‘Peace, be still.’ The storm ceases. The billows sink to rest. The clouds roll away, and the stars shine forth. The boat rests upon a quiet sea. Then turning to His disciples, Jesus asks sorrowfully, ‘Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith?’ Mark 4:40.

“A hush fell upon the disciples. Even Peter did not attempt to express the awe that filled his heart. The boats that had set out to accompany Jesus had been in the same peril with that of the disciples. Terror and despair had seized their occupants; but the command of Jesus brought quiet to the scene of tumult. The fury of the storm had driven the boats into close proximity, and all on board beheld the miracle. In the calm that followed, fear was forgotten. The people whispered among themselves, ‘What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?’

“When Jesus was awakened to meet the storm, He was in perfect peace. There

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
Glory to the Lord God that I can write to you! I am fascinated because God in heaven has used your book “National Sunday Law” to perform miracles in the lives of many people in my community. Their minds have been opened by the Holy Spirit through the NSL book. He has used it to change church going Sunday worshipers into church going Sabbath worshipers. And your monthly letters are most eye-opening. May God bless you to help save many more souls for His kingdom! Sincerely, M.P.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
You have shown me the Bible for the last days like I have never seen or heard before!! “National Sunday Law” makes me so hungry to hear more of God’s real truth, and I thank God for the day that you wrote this amazing book!!! I want everyone to read it! I have a new hunger for God like I never had before!!! P.C.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I feel compelled to write to you, having just read your book “National Sunday Law” which someone left in my newspaper box. All my life I’ve been searching for the truth. I’ve gone from church to church seeking, and I came away empty. Now I have discovered that everything you have written in “National Sunday Law” is the truth! I cannot tell you how much joy I feel. Now I know that the seventh day is God’s true Sabbath day! I thank God that I found you! I cannot contain my happiness! I have an unquenchable thirst for all truth, and the love of God. I pray that your book will spread out around the whole world! The truth will set us “free.” God bless you!
Yours in Christ, Velma

was no trace of fear in word or look, for no fear was in His heart. But He rested not in the possession of almighty power. It was not as the 'Master of earth and sea and sky' that He reposed in quiet. That power He had laid down... He trusted in the Father's might. It was in faith—faith in God's love and care—that Jesus rested, and the power of that word which stilled the storm was the power of God.

"How often the disciples' experience is ours! When the tempests of temptation gather, and the fierce lightnings flash, and the waves sweep over us, we battle with the storm alone, forgetting that there is One who can help us. We trust to our own strength till our hope is lost, and we are ready to perish. Then we remember Jesus, and if we call upon Him to save us, we shall not cry in vain. Though He sorrowfully reproves our unbelief and self-confidence, He never fails to give us the help we need. Whether on the land or on the sea, if we have the Saviour in our hearts, there is no need of fear. Living faith in the Redeemer will smooth the sea of life, and will deliver us from danger in the way that He knows to be best. [Praise God!]

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I read the "National Sunday Law" book and shortly afterward, I became a Seventh-day Adventist after 30 years of Sunday worship! The NSL book has changed my life forever! Recently, a friend gave me some of your newsletters, and the material is astounding! I'm amazed with the amount of TRUTH that I've learned in a short time! I will be giving out the NSL books. Keep up the good work! God bless you!

"There is another spiritual lesson in this miracle of the stilling of the tempest... 'The wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest... There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.' Isa. 57:20,21. Sin has destroyed our peace. While self is unsubdued, we can find no rest. The masterful passions of the heart no human power can control. We are as helpless here as were the disciples to quiet the raging storm. But He who spoke peace to the billows of Galilee has spoken the word of peace for every soul. However fierce the tempest, those

Jesus who turn to Jesus with the cry, 'Lord, save us,' will find deliverance. [Praise God!] His grace, that reconciles the soul to God, quiets the strife of human passion, and in His love the heart is at rest. 'He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. Then are they glad because they be quiet; so He bringeth them unto their desired haven.' Ps. 107:29,30. 'Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.'

'The work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance forever.' Romans 5:1; Isa. 32:17." DA 334-337. Praise God friend! Praise God!
