

"And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke." Joel 2:30. The prophet said, "In the last scenes of this earth's history war will rage." LDE 24. What do super computers have to do with it?

“I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down!”

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in Jesus' holy name.
Faith: In the verse, the prophet Jeremiah saw the earth, the heavens, the mountains, the hills, the wilderness, and the cities. They were broken down, and the wicked were "taken" away in death. What's going on?
Hope: And why does this magazine depict the devil as a cartoon monster rather than a gorgeous angel? And why did they blast tons of nuclear explosions in Nevada? And what does blowing up nuclear bombs have to do with high tech fiends? And what does all this have to do with the shortness of time and with us?
Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

The article in Discover magazine says - "On a hot August day in 1968... workers assembled the device behind steel-reinforced concrete walls in the desert, mating radioactive materials with high explosives. It was called "Kearsarge." The crew lowered it through a hole drilled thousands of feet [3,000] into the Nevada Test Site, then entombed it beneath millions of pounds of sand.

"Thirty miles away, Los Alamos Director Siegfried Hecker sat nervously in the control room. Seven top Soviet nuclear scientists watched intently. [They enjoyed the friendly collusion.] What if the bomb fizzled, Hecker thought. Then what would happen to America's nuclear deterrent? [But what if the bomb didn't fizzle? Then what would happen to the people in Nevada?]

The Nevada desert

"Officials had negotiated this Joint Verification Experiment for years. The United States and the Soviet Union had long conducted test explosions of the bigger weapons in their arsenals, both to make sure they really worked, and as a show of force. The adversaries were willing to permanently stop blowing up the biggest bombs, but first scientists needed a way to verify violations. Each country would test its monitoring techniques on the other side's bomb. If today's nuclear test went well [this was back in 1968], it might be among the last.

"The detonation order went out. Kearsarge exploded with 10 times more energy than Hiroshima. [Its power was 150 kilotons. That means that it had the power of 150,000 tons of TNT. That's three hundred million pounds of TNT.] Vital signs from the bomb raced up cables as they vaporized. One hundred thousand raw data points fed into computers. The earth shook. 90 miles away in Las Vegas, lamps danced over pool tables at the Tropicana. [It reminds me of Sodom, and of "Lot's wife."]

"Hecker was relieved! Later, his Soviet counterpart congratulated him over lunch. 'The world will never be the same,' Hecker said...

"In the years that followed, the Cold War would end, and so would the days of shaking the desert."

Charity: But then how would America maintain its nuclear superiority without continuing to blast off nuclear bombs to see how they are working?

And what about nuclear bombs that have been sitting in secret places for 40 years? How can they know whether or not they even work anymore?

Pastor Jan: The article tells that their scientists came up with a plan. But before I tell you what it is, I'll share what the article says about the effects of just one of Uncle Sam's 150 kiloton bombs - which is puny compared to what they have now.

As illustrated in this picture on the right, the article says, "A nuclear blast at the Port of Long Beach - a 150 kiloton explosion - kills some 60,000 instantly. Chaos ensues as 6 million people flee Los Angeles."

Pastor Jan: Within the first ring area near the blast, the temperature is one million degrees. Buildings, rocks, dirt, ocean water, cars, animals, people, trucks, trains, etc. turn to vapor, and disappear.

The same type of nuclear power will affect the wicked who are trying to kill God's people [as seen in Rev. 13:15] when dear Jesus appears. Why are the wicked trying to kill God's people? It's for not joining them in receiving the mark of the beast at the Sunday law. Here's what happens - "Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them." Zech. 14:12,13. To burn the flesh off of people's bones before they can even fall down is the work of nuclear power.

And even before that happens, the prophet saw this - "Last Friday morning, just before I awoke, a very impressive scene was presented before me. From the windows I could behold a terrible conflagration. Great balls of fire were falling upon houses, and from these balls fiery arrows were flying in every direction. It was impossible to check the fires that were kindled, and many places were being destroyed. The terror of the people was indescribable. After a time I awoke and found myself at home. Evangelism, p. 29.

"I saw an immense ball of fire fall among some beautiful mansions, causing their instant destruction. I heard someone say: 'We knew that the judgments of God were coming upon the earth, but we did not know that they would come so soon.' Others, with agonized voices, said: 'You knew! Why then did you not tell us? We did not know.'" 9T 28.

Concerning the second ring outward from the blast, the article says, "Radiation poisoning kills at least half of everything within this ring."

Concerning the third ring, it says, "About 2 miles from

Do you see all the 3,000 foot holes? They are just a few of the many, many holes from the bottom of which they blasted off atomic bombs in Nevada. After they blasted off the first one (in New Mexico) a member of President Truman's cabinet reported to him the result. It helped him to determine whether or not to drop it on Japan. He said to the President, "A blind woman saw the light!"

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

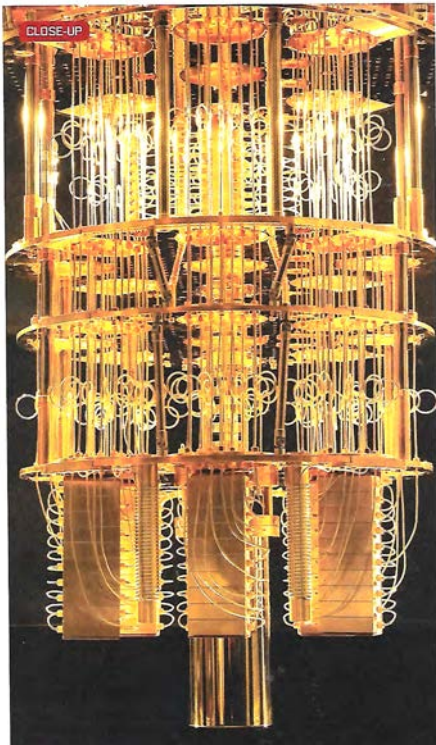

A ministry in Tennessee sent me your book entitled "National Sunday Law." Here at this prison we treasure your book as much as we treasure our Bibles, and we share it with others. "National Sunday Law" contains priceless information, especially dealing with the enforcement of the mark of the beast at the Sunday law, which will be enacted soon. We take the prophecy of Revelation 13 very seriously. We are studying history unfolding in these end times as foretold in Revelation. Please put me on your list to receive your newsletters. I have a work I must do for our Lord. You are in our prayers. Maranatha! Clarence H.

the epicenter, many people die, and virtually all homes are leveled [by the shock wave and the hurricane-like winds. Concerning the 4th ring, it says, "Extreme heat sparks fires that can merge into a firestorm. Third-degree burns are rampant, and vegetation is charred."

Concerning the 5th ring out from the blast, the article says, "More than 6 miles away, heavy airburst gusts shatter windows." It can also blow cars and trucks into each other on the freeway, and knock people and animals to the ground.

The devil has an advantage over those who don't know Bible prophecy because he can drive them through ignorance and fear. Those - like yourself - who do understand Bible prophecy have a great advantage over those who don't because you can remain calm and peaceful and happy in dear Jesus while "Men's hearts [are] failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory." Luke 21:26,27.

While the devil is wrecking all the damage he can, our kind Father limits his rage and won't let the fiend drop nuclear bombs on the U.S. before the people - following their crooked preachers - go so far as to approve and receive the mark of the beast.

It looks a little like a fancy bird cage. But it's covered with gold. What do scientists do with it? You'll be amazed.

Faith: So what did the scientists come up with to be able to keep checking the condition of the nation's nuclear bombs, without having to keep blasting them off in poor Nevada? And what does the golden contraption in this picture on the left have to do with it?

Pastor Jan: Here's what the article reveals - 1) "If they couldn't blow up nuclear bombs anymore, scientists would simulate the detonations with computers. But first, they would need computers 10,000 times faster than anything the world had ever seen. Why? Because China and Russia are competing with them. 2) It says that America has already exploded 1,000 nuclear bombs! Poor Nevada! So to stay ahead militarily, the important thing to them is to create a program based on supercomputers. The nation's top scientists in the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency receive $4 to $5 billion per year to help keep our defense program in top condition. So now, instead of building bigger bombs, the article says, "they'd take turns building the world's largest computers, and only pretend to blow up bombs." 3) To do this, they'd need computers that could make calculations at the speed of at least one million trillion calculations per second. But in trying to make such a monster, they found that heat slowed it down. So now, what would they do? 5) According to physics textbooks, 459.15 degrees below zero is what they call, "absolute zero." At that temperature, it is said that atoms, electrons, and sub-atomic particles would stop moving, and everything would fall apart, disappear, and cease to exist.

Since heat slows the computer down, how will they cool a super computer down enough for it to make at least one million trillion calculations per second? 6) This is where the gold contraption in this picture comes in. Concerning it, the article says, "Quantum computers operate on units of information called qubits. But they make mistakes when exposed to heat. So IBM built this gold-plated device, called a "dilution refrigerator," to cool its 50 qubit processor to a temperature of just a fraction above absolute zero. When properly chilled, the processor can crunch massive numbers at lightning-speed, and solve extraordinarily complex problems that would bog down traditional computers." 7) Finally, this picture below shows the great super trophy of the scientists! They call it "The Summit." Concerning it, the article says, "Oak Ridge National Laboratory unveiled its Summit supercomputer, which can make 3 billion billion [that's the same as 3 million trillion] calculations per second."

Here it is! "The Summit"

Dear Sir:

My wife and I were Roman Catholic. One day we received a copy of the book "National Sunday Law" in the mail. That little book changed our lives in a major way! For some time, I knew there was something wrong with Catholicism. My exposure to Protestant faiths other than Seventh-day Adventists, just didn't offer enough truth to follow either. But when the truths of Daniel and Revelation were explained in your book, the puzzle of life began to fit together! I was convinced! When my wife and some of the children read the book, they too saw the truth! Shortly thereafter, we ceased to labor on Saturday, and started attending church on God's Sabbath. And soon, we were baptized. May God bless you! T.S.

Dear A Jan Marcussen,

I've tried all my life to figure out the prophecies of the Bible and I got nowhere. Now this book came in the mail - "National Sunday Law." I couldn't put it down! After reading it, I read it again! I've known about the one world government for years and watched it devouring our freedoms. But I did not understand all that is in your book concerning Jesus and God's holy Sabbath. I want to learn more! Sincerely, Margaret New York

So now the scientists are as happy as a cage of larks. They've beaten Russia and China in making the world's fastest computer. As you can see, it fills up this giant building. The article ends by quoting one of the scientists, Dr. Dongarra, as asking the question - "Since we now have the fastest computer - like a trophy on the mantel - what are we going to accomplish now?"

Hope: What will they do now? Will they download their brains into it to live forever? Will they use it to keep the nation safe? Will they use it to play monopoly? Will they keep making faster computers? Will they use it to fight the devil?

Pastor Jan: When Prince Adrian was 5 years old, he and I were taking a walk one day. As we walked, he picked up a stick and said, "With this stick, we will fight the devil." It touched my heart. I gave him the good news that we can beat the devil with the word of God and prayer in the name of Jesus.

Charity: On page one, National Geographic pictured the devil as a cartoon monster, and gave a history of how that view developed. Do you think that these ridiculous Roman church approved pictures led many to think that Satan doesn't exist? How will anyone escape being taken over by Satan if they neglect prayer, Bible study, and are ignorant of his devices?

Do you see anyone in the devil's mouth? Can you guess why National Geographic showed these comical Roman Catholic pictures which have led people to believe that Satan doesn't exist? Does Satan want people to think that he doesn't exist so they'll be "ignorant of his devices?" Do high masonic Vatican leaders believe that Satan doesn't exist? Or do they secretly worship Lucifer?

with himself; so that wherever was the presence of his Son, it was as his own presence. [Jesus said, "I and my Father are one." John 10:30.] The word of the Son was to be obeyed as readily as the word of the Father. Especially was his Son to work in union with himself in the creation of the earth and every living thing that should exist upon the earth...

"Satan left the immediate presence of the Father, dissatisfied, and filled with envy against Jesus Christ. [His self exalted bubble had been popped.] Concealing his real purposes, [that's the way he works] he assembled the angelic host. He introduced his subject, which was himself. As one aggrieved, he related the preference God had given Jesus to the neglect of himself. He told them that never would he again bow down to Christ. He would take the honor upon himself which should have been conferred upon him, and would be the commander of all who would submit to follow him and obey his voice. There was contention among the angels...

"Angels that were loyal and true sought to reconcile this mighty, rebellious angel to the will of his Creator. They justified the act of God in conferring honor upon Jesus Christ... He had ever stood at the right hand of God, and his mild, loving authority had not heretofore been questioned... The angels wept.

"Satan refused to listen. And then he turned from the loyal and true angels, denouncing them as deluded slaves. These angels, true to God, stood in amazement as they saw that Satan was successful in his effort to excite rebellion. He promised them a new and better government than they then had, in which all would be freedom. Great numbers signified their purpose to accept Satan as their leader and chief commander. [He is doing the same kind of work now in our day. But the majority who are fooled into getting on Satan's side don't realize that it will lead them - along with Satan himself - to eternal death.]

"The loyal angels hasten speedily to the Son of God, and acquaint him with what is taking place among the angels. They find the Father in conference with his beloved Son, to determine the means by which, for the best good of the loyal angels, the assumed authority of Satan could be forever put down. The great God could at once have hurled this arch deceiver from Heaven; but this was not his purpose. He would give the rebellious an equal chance to measure strength and might with his own Son and his loyal angels. In this battle every angel would choose his own side, and be

Vennita's Corner: "Those who are willing to make any and every sacrifice for eternal life will have it." TMK 303

Pastor Jan: Here it is - "How few realize the wiles of the arch-deceiver! How many are ignorant of his devices!" 5T 426. "Satan is controlling the minds of the youth and leading their inexperienced feet astray. They are ignorant of his devices, and in these perilous times parents should be awake and work with perseverance to shut out the first approach of the foe. They should instruct their children when they go out and when they come in." 1T 390. "Satan's great success lies in keeping men ignorant of his devices." 3SM 423.

Faith: Many preachers and church members warn people not to learn Satan's devices from the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy, but mainly to hear about God's love. Is that tricky?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "Satan in Heaven, before his rebellion, was a high and exalted angel, next in honor to God's dear Son. His countenance, like those of the other angels, was mild and expressive of happiness. His forehead was high and broad, showing a powerful intellect. His form was perfect; his bearing noble and majestic. A special light beamed in his countenance, and shone around him brighter and more beautiful than around the other angels; yet Jesus, God's dear Son, had the pre-eminence over all the angelic host. He was one with the Father before the angels were created. Satan was envious of Christ, and gradually assumed command which devolved on Christ alone.

[Dear Jesus was so meek and humble that He didn't stop him from doing it. So our kind Father would do something. Here's what He did - ]

"The great Creator assembled the heavenly host, that he might in the presence of all the angels confer special honor upon his Son. The Son was seated on the throne with the Father, and the heavenly throng of holy angels was gathered around them. The Father then made known that it was ordained by himself that Christ, his Son, should be equal

Dear Sir, I have never seen anything that has explained so clearly God's word in such a plain, understandable way as "National Sunday Law." Thank you, and may God bless you all. I will be sending for more of them later. Love in Christ, Anne

Dear Jan Marcussen,
My wife Judy, found your book "National Sunday Law" and brought it home and gave it to me. I suspect that God had someone drop it off just so that I would get it. I read the whole book tonight, and I agree with you 100%. I hope that "National Sunday Law" will become the world's most read book.
Sincerely, B.C.

This letter was sent from Nigeria to my SDA friend and co-worker in Norway, Abel Struksnes

To be frank, I was a devoted Catholic. But since someone loaned me the book "National Sunday Law" by Jan Marcussen, everything about my life has changed. That book caused me to make the decision that has made me a Seventh-day Adventist today. The man who loaned the book to me, took it back, but the contents of the book has been established in my heart.

manifested to all. [Such “a line in the sand” happened again in Noah’s day, and it will happen again in ours, at earth’s “final test” involving God’s holy Sabbath vs. Rome’s day of the sun.] All Heaven seemed in commotion. The angels were marshaled in companies, each division with a higher commanding angel at their head. All the heavenly host were summoned to appear before the Father, to have each case determined. [Look at that! Hundreds of millions standing before the King of the universe!] Satan unblushingly made known his dissatisfaction that Christ should be preferred before him. He stood up proudly and urged that he should be equal with God, and should be taken into conference with the Father and understand his purposes. God informed Satan that to his Son alone he would reveal his secret purposes, and he required all the family in Heaven, even Satan, to yield him implicit, unquestioned obedience; but that he (Satan) had proved himself unworthy of a place in Heaven. Then Satan exultingly pointed to his sympathizers, comprising nearly one half of all the angels, and exclaimed, These are with me! Will you expel these also, and make such a void in Heaven? He then declared that he was prepared to resist the authority of Christ, and to defend his place in Heaven by force of might, strength against strength.

“Good angels wept to hear the words of Satan, and his exulting boasts. God declared that the rebellious should remain in Heaven no longer. Their high and happy state had been held upon condition of obedience to the law which God had given to govern the high order of intelligences... Satan grew bold in his rebellion, and expressed his contempt of the Creator’s law. This Satan could not bear. He claimed that angels needed no law... that law was a restriction of their liberty...

[Many smiling preachers - after taking certain Bible verses out of context - now teach that God’s 10 commandments [all 10 of them] have been done away with at the cross. To get rid of God’s 4th commandment, the devil and the preachers must try to get rid of all 10. Like many angels in heaven, many humans have also swallowed Satan’s lie. Such a man was talking to an SDA man I know. He told him that he would give him a check for $1000 if he would name just 2 of the 10 that God allows us to break now. So he took out his checkbook and started writing the man a check for $1000. While he was writing the check, he told the man what the 1st commandment says, and asked, “Can we worship other gods now?” The man said, “No.” Then he quoted the second one, and said, “Can we bow down to idols now? The man said, “No.” After he went through some of the others, [not to kill, steal, lie, etc.] the man felt more and more foolish, so the embarrassed man walked away, and the SDA man tore up the check, got in his car, and drove home. The prophet continues -]

“Then there was war in Heaven. The Son of God and his loyal angels, engaged in conflict with the arch rebel and those who united with him... and Satan and his sympathizers were expelled from Heaven. All the heavenly host adored the God of justice. Not a taint of rebellion was left in Heaven. All was again peaceful and harmonious as before. [Praise God!]

“Angels in Heaven mourned the fate of those who had been their companions in happiness and bliss. Their loss was felt in Heaven. The Father consulted Jesus in regard to at once carrying out their purpose to make man to inhabit the earth...

“Satan stood in amazement at his new condition. His happiness was gone. He looked upon the angels who, with him, were once so happy. Before their fall, not a shade of discontent had marred their perfect bliss. Now strife and discord were among them. Satan now beholds the terrible results of his rebellion. He shuddered, and feared to face the future, and to contemplate these things.

“The hour for joyful, happy songs of praise to God and his dear Son had come. Satan had led the heavenly choir. [He knows a lot about music. The radio is full of his wicked noises.] He had raised the first note, then all the angelic host united with him, and glorious strains of music had resounded through Heaven in honor of God and his dear Son. But now, instead of strains of sweetest music, discord and angry words fall upon the ear of the great rebel leader. Where was he? Was it not all a horrible dream? Was he shut out of Heaven? Were the gates of Heaven never more to open and admit him? Could he be again as he was when he was pure, true and loyal, gladly would he yield up the claims of his authority. But he was lost! And this was not all; he had led others to the same lost condition with himself...

“Satan trembled as he viewed his work. He was alone in meditation upon the past, the present, and his future plans. His mighty frame shook as with a tempest. An angel from Heaven was passing. [That was no accident.] He called him, and entreated an interview with Christ. This was granted him. [Wonderful Jesus! They had just been fighting with superhuman strength. Now they quietly talk together. As Satan stands in front of dear Jesus, he does not realize that one day he will murder Him and torture Him to death on a wooden cross!] He then related to the Son of God that he was willing to take the place God had previously assigned him, and be under his wise command. [“Jesus wept.”] Christ wept at Satan’s woe, but told him, as the mind of God, that he could never be received into Heaven. All Heaven would be marred should he be received back; for sin and rebellion originated with him. The seeds of rebellion were still within him... When Satan became fully convinced that there was no possibility of his being re-instated in the favor of God, he manifested his malice with increased hatred and fiery

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I have read your book “National Sunday Law” and am reading it the second time. I must say that I will obey God’s Sabbath, which has been so clearly presented in this book. I refuse to be a hypocrite like the preacher who talks about the 10 Commandments yet honors Sunday. I thank you from the depths of my heart. G.R.

Our dear Saviour gets all the praise for what He is doing to save thousands of souls. His testimony says, “If there is one work more important than another, it is that of getting our publications before the public.” ChS 145.

“More than one thousand will soon be converted in one day, most of whom will trace their first convictions to the reading of our publications.” RH, 11/10/85. One drop of ink can make 10 million think.

Dear Sir,
Wow! The book “National Sunday Law!” All I can say is, “What dynamite!” I just loved it and could not stop reading it. My joy is so great! I feel so happy! I want to know more! A lot of my questions got answered, and it’s a great feeling, especially when you know that God is with you! A.E.

Praise the Lord Jan Marcussen!
My name is Danielle Riley. I read “National Sunday Law” and I have become a Seventh-day Adventist! I came out of the Baptist church, and it was such a relief to learn the truth of God. I have a burden for souls. God delivered me from suffering and drug addiction! I was in the hospital getting ready to die from an overdose of cocaine. But God stepped in and regulated my heart. He saved me because He has a job for me to do! Please send me as many NSL preachers for what I’ve sent as you can. God bless you! New Jersey vehemence. God knew that such determined rebellion would not remain inactive...

“Even when he was cast out of heaven, Infinite Wisdom did not destroy Satan... Had he been immediately blotted out of existence, some would have served God from fear rather than from love... For the good of the entire universe Satan must more fully develop his principles, that his charges against the divine government might be seen in their true light by all created beings... [Satan watched the creation of the world, and worked to trick the sinless pair into obeying him instead of God. Then he could make the earth his headquarters.]

“Sorrow filled heaven as it was realized that man was lost and that the world which God had created was to be filled with mortals doomed to misery, sickness, and death... The whole family of Adam must die. I then saw the lovely Jesus and beheld an expression of sympathy and sorrow upon His countenance. Soon I saw Him approach the exceeding bright light which enshrouded the Father. Said my accompanying angel, ‘He is in close converse with His Father.’ The anxiety of the angels seemed to be intense while Jesus was communing with His Father. Three times He was shut in by the glorious light about the Father, and the third time He came from the Father we could see His person. His countenance was calm, free from all perplexity and trouble, and shone with a loveliness which words cannot describe. He then made known to the angelic choir that a way of escape had been made for lost man; [Praise God!] that He had been pleading with

His Father, and had obtained permission to give His own life as a ransom for the race, to bear their sins, and take the sentence of death upon Himself, thus opening a way whereby they might, through the merits of His blood, find pardon for past transgressions, and by obedience be brought back to the garden from which they were driven...

“Then joy, inexpressible joy, filled heaven, [Praise God!] and the heavenly choir sang a song of praise and adoration. They touched their harps and sang a note higher than they had done before, because of the great mercy and condescension of God in yielding up His dearly Beloved to die for a race of rebels. Praise and adoration was poured forth for the self-denial and sacrifice of Jesus, in choosing a life of suffering and anguish, and an ignominious death, that He might give life to others.” EW 126,127.

“He that ruleth in the heavens is the one who sees the end from the beginning—the one before whom the mysteries of the past and the future are alike outspread, and who, beyond the woe and darkness and ruin that sin has wrought, beholds the accomplishment of His own purposes of love and blessing.

Though ‘clouds and darkness are round about Him: righteousness and judgment are the perfect: [Praise God!] for all ‘His ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is He.’ Deut. 32:4.” PP 43.
