

"Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand"

Do you think that If you had hair and fingernails like hers, you could accomplish more in life? Would you have more influence to bring more people to love and serve Jesus? <https://www.foxnews.com/entertainment/billie-eilish-once-incr-edibly-religious>

The headlines say that she "recalls [when a little girl] of being 'incredibly religious.' But she says that it 'just completely went away.' Why? How? Innocent little children are "religious" because they have the sweet peace of innocence that God gave them. The Vatican has put the Jesuits in charge of the educational system in America. For many years they have been working hard in church schools and public schools to give the students success in the world. But in that program, their innocent peace and joy disappeared, and, like this girl, their walk with Jesus "just completely went away." In this letter, you'll see that this happened to William - and to millions who have attended the schools which Martin Luther called "the gates of hell." For a while, the virus moved many into home schools. Concerning the future, the prophet said, "All schools among us will soon be closed up." 5T 156.

In the article, the girl's father said that he was happy for her to believe anything or nothing. He said, "We did not go to church and we didn't really talk about religion at all... I thought it was pretty marvelous."

When I was a freshman in college, our English teacher was a poor Jesuit trained fiend. In class he told us - "It would be good if you get rid of everything you've ever believed and go around believing in nothing." That way, your brain, being a clean slate, is more open to start being attracted to the beauties of the teachings of Rome; witchcraft; devil worship; spiritualism; etc. This has been one of Rome's goals in "Protestant America." In this letter, you'll get a hint.

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The Bible quote says, "Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried." It's so comforting that our kind Father is doing this for us. As we allow Him to do it, we are allowing Him to take us to heaven. And then the verse says, "but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand." Daniel 12:10. In this letter, will we get a glimpse of that?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

William: I was raised in the Catholic faith. Even as a small child I wanted to be a priest. I cut up bed sheets and made vestments out of them and I said the mass for my little friends – feeding them poker chips. I determined that I was going to serve God. But along the way I hit a few bumps in the road. One of the nuns who taught me in the eighth grade, gave me an occultic book of magic. It was fascinating.

“In college, I entered the ‘minor seminary’ to become a Catholic priest. So I started studying theology, and guess what I ran into? I ran into college professors who started telling me that most of the Bible wasn’t true. They told me that Adam and Eve didn’t even exist. They told me that Moses never parted the Red Sea - that all he did was gallop through a marsh, and that Pharaoh’s army got stuck in the mud, and then the tide came in and they all drowned. This is the kind of information I was getting from my Catholic professors.

[Note - Because of Roman Catholic infiltration, colleges and universities are the “gates of hell” as Martin Luther warned {See GC 140,141}.

“They destroyed what little faith I had in the Bible. Then came the second part of Satan’s 1-2 punch. In the Catholic church they teach that a priest is another Christ. So what my professor told me was that if I really wanted to be like Jesus, I was going to have to do what Jesus did between the ages of 12 and 30. The professor said that He traipsed off to the far east and studied under the gurus of Tibet. He went to India, and to Egypt, and studied under all the great maji and learned how to turn water into wine. He laid on a bed of nails in the lotus position and stared at His stomach until he was enlightened, and if I studied the occult, I too could be another Christ. I was only 19 years old. This professor was a Roman Catholic priest with a white collar around his neck and about five degrees after his name, so I believed him. So I got a bunch of occult books, and I started experimenting. In my sophomore year we had a seance in which we tried to call up the ghost of the lady whose body was buried in the music department at the college, and it was reasonably successful. The doors got blown open even though they were locked, and a few things like that happened. I was really intrigued by this because it kept working. So by the time I was a senior, I figured out that to really get into the occult, you’ve got to become a witch. [Note - This is where Rome secretly wants people to go because many of Rome’s clergy are into witchcraft themselves.] So I wrote the king of the witches. His name is Alex Sanders. He was also a Catholic priest, so I figured we had a lot in common. He told me where there was a coven in Plymouth, MA. where I could go and become a witch. So I went and got my first degree of witchcraft.

“Then I dropped out of the seminary because it seemed that what I was doing now was a lot more fascinating than being a Catholic priest. I met this lady who was to become my wife. She had also been pursuing the study of witchcraft, and so we went down to Arkansas - near where Bill Clinton was from, to the headquarters of the grandmaster druid of all North America. We spent the entire summer studying and learning high-level witchcraft and druidism. In the cool of the evening we would sit around a picnic table on a mountaintop and learn all of this ‘truth.’ What was fascinating was that almost every night, a U.F.O. would come down and hover over the mountain for the better part of the evening. We could actually see something moving around in the windows of that thing. My wife and I had a big witch wedding in a park in Zion, Illinois with 200 witches present in a big circle and a bonfire in the middle. We ended up settling in Milwaukee, which was to be our base of operation for the next 10 years. In Milwaukee we had a really fertile field. When we got there, there were some 48 people just waiting, panting for us to teach them about witchcraft. We set up quite a significant number of covens, and we initiated 175 witches all up-and-down Lake Michigan, and had covens in Dubuque, Davenport, and other places in Iowa.

“We learned that witchcraft is like a drug. Magic is addictive. You can’t quite get enough of it. Eventually, you want more. You want to know more and have more power.

“We had almost daily communications with spirit guides. They are also called ‘doctors of divinity.’ These entities were giving us all this wonderful advice. They told us “Maybe you ought to look into the church of Satan. So we did. If you had told me five years earlier that I would have done this, I would’ve laughed at you. But this is how seductive this can be. So I wrote Anton LaVey. [He was the leader of the church of Satan - who a few years earlier, had visited his boss in the Vatican - the Pope of Rome - “The Man of Sin.” II Thess. 2.] He sent me an application to join the church of Satan. So I paid my $20 entrance fee and got a membership card which proclaimed me a member of the infernal kingdom. I was progressing so fast that after about a year, I applied for ‘second-degree.’ I took this exhaustive test and qualified to be a warlock.

“About this time I started realizing that the church of Satan is like the tip of a very big, black, iceberg with lots of stuff going on beneath the surface. What I learned may surprise some of you. I learned that in order to get into the higher levels of Satanism, you must first become a Mason. You have to be at least a Master Mason. I have a friend whose father was involved with the Masons. He sponsored me, and, in about a year, I became a Master Mason. Then I went on to the York Rite, and got the 10th degree of that. Then I became a 32nd degree Mason in the Scottish Rite. Their black and white checkerboard means that you can’t have good without evil. Finally, I got into the part of masonry where I became a Shriner. On the surface they do good things, but beneath the surface, they are ‘right out of the pit.’

William

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I was brought up as a Roman Catholic, but I left the Catholic church. I knew it was wrong to pray to the saintly statues. I have just finished reading your book, “National Sunday Law” and I was totally shocked and amazed! I picked up your book at my doctor’s office and I couldn’t put it down. I want more to give to my family and friends. May God bless you always.
Lynne C. Florida

“Once I got those degrees, I was ready to get into the “real thing.” Now I was connected with what was called ‘The Brotherhood’ in Chicago, and at the same time, I started getting visits from someone who called himself ‘Master H.’ I was working third shift as a newspaper carrier. I would be out there in the middle of the night filling up boxes with newspapers, and ‘Master H’ would just pop out of thin air and stand there like Vincent Price dressed in a white robe. He would kind of glow-in-the-dark. He would give me all this instruction how to be an “illuminated” being, then he would just vanish. To become ‘illuminated.’ is the goal of Satanism and Masonry.

“Then I learned that to become a Satanic priest, I first had to become a Roman Catholic priest! All Satanic priests are Roman Catholic priests! I was able to work something out with a Catholic bishop where I would make him a witch high priest if he would make me a Catholic priest. We had a very equitable arrangement. So I was ordained to the Catholic priesthood. [Note - You see that for him, the seminary was not necessary to become a Catholic priest in the first place. The seminary was a great farce, just like much Jesuit controlled education today. The Ex-Jesuit priest, Alberto Rivera, revealed that the Vatican owns more than 50% of the stocks in the Pharmaceutical companies. So the great MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH {Rev. 17:5} controls the AMA, and the medical “practice” of the nation. Readers’ Digest revealed that over 100,000 Americans die every year from the drugs they “practice” on you with. “For by thy sorceries [“sorceries” in Greek = “pharmaceia” = pharmaceuticals] were all nations deceived. And in her was

Dear Sir;

I recently read “National Sunday Law” and I loved it! I love the Bible truth it contains. I am living to draw closer and closer to God by prayer, and studying His word. Please send me anything that will continue to keep me be close to Him. Your brother in Christ, Shawn Burke Pennsylvania found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.” Rev. 18:23,24. I thank God for the principles of health we find in the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy.]

“I was finally ready for the big moment. I was now eligible to become a priest of Satan. The only problem is, I had to sell my soul to the devil to do that. I didn’t realize that the devil already had my soul. But I was a little nervous about the thought of signing a contract to give the devil my soul. So I did what a Catholic priest does when he is confronted with some major decision. I was going to say a mass to the Holy Spirit. While saying this mass, the wine started fizzing and bubbling, and, right before my eyes, it turned into blood. It was even warm. Since the Catholic priest has to drink all the wine that is left after the mass, I had to drink all of this blood. This convinced me that God must have given His approval for me to sign over my soul to the devil. So I went down into a suburb of Chicago and signed my name in a black book. I signed the contract with Satan, and my soul was committed to hell. The contract was for seven years, during which the devil would give me wine, women, song, dope, power, you name it. At the end of those seven years, he would get to kill me and take me to hell. But you’ve got to understand something. A Satanist believes that hell is one big party. It’s filled with sex, dope, and rock-and-roll. That’s all that goes on there. I was taught that heaven is boring. You just sit around on a cloud and strum on some harp. So I thought I’d be better off in hell anyway. [The poor fiends don’t know that hell doesn’t even exist, but will begin when the fire falls at the end of the millennium when Jesus awakens the wicked dead to receive their final reward of eternal death. [Rev. 20:1-9.] That is the suffering that dear Jesus suffered for us - in our place. For those who reject Him, His death for them will have been in vain. But He would have suffered all that agony and horrible torture for just one person - just for you!] So I sold my soul to the devil, and then got my first taste of what it was like to be ‘illuminated.’

“What was it like? I was visiting my father in a little town in Iowa, when, in the middle of the night, I was ripped out of my bed, and taken at an incredible rate of speed past stars and galaxies and came to this great black castle. [Satan also carried Jesus at great speed to “an exceeding high mountain.” Matt. 4:5-8. Such an “exceeding” high mountain exists in Switzerland, but not anywhere near Jerusalem.] I went right through the door, and into a room with walls about 50 feet high. The only light was a bluish glow from two glass walls on each side - which were filled with water like two giant aquariums. But instead of fish floating in those huge aquariums, there were hundreds of men, women, and children floating in it. Master H appeared and said, “Welcome to the cathedral of pain.”

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,

I was born a Roman Catholic, and have been going to church all my life. I’ve heard many sermons on the book of Revelation, but never has anything touched my heart like the book “National Sunday Law!” I’m hungry for God’s truth! God bless you and your ministry. Your brother in Christ, M. Anjaiah South India

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I was given the book “National Sunday Law” by a friend. After I read it, I gave it to another friend who is a strong Catholic. After he read it, he gave it to other members of his Catholic family. I have given these books to others as well. Surely you are helping to get God’s last message to my area here in East Africa. I’m in a densely populated area and through this book, I can spread the three angels’ messages to many homes. I’m going to be holding evangelistic meetings, and give them this book! May God be with you! Yours in Christ, Zacchaeus Kinuthia

Then, there appeared a throne with a 20 foot tall being seated on it, who identified himself as Satan. He changed forms, and alternated between a handsome man, a gorgeous woman, a winged bull, and a winged goat. I was ordered to lie down on a black table in the middle of the room, and a being came up to me with hands about 5 times the size of mine, and with six inch talons. He buried one of his talons into my forehead, and a voice said, "Now you belong to me." It felt like my brain exploded, and then the floor dropped out from under me, and I fell through space and landed in my father's back yard with a thud. All around me in a circle was burning grass. You could smell ozone, as if it had just been hit by lightning. I didn't have a stitch of clothing on, and I staggered back into the house and managed to get back into bed. It was about 4 o'clock, and I had this terrible headache. My mind was totally transformed. I felt as though I was a machine with no sense of any kind of compassion. I was like half human and half machine, and the demon inside me viewed human beings with contempt and disdain - like ants - to be stepped on.

"You might think that this is about as bad as it gets, but I'm sorry, the devil wasn't done with me yet. Because of that experience in the cathedral of pain, I was deemed worthy to be a 90th degree Mason. At the same time, I was ordained as a Catholic bishop. The fellow who signed at the bottom of this degree, introduced me to one other kind of magic. He took me to a church in Chicago where there was a vampire cult. [You've heard a lot about Chicago in the news lately. It's one of the great Jesuit controlled cities where you see murder, suffering, and chaos - just what the devil loves.] So I was initiated into the cult of the vampires. There are medical research papers about people who are addicted to human blood. I began to develop a taste for human blood. It got more and more overwhelming until I couldn't eat anything except blood and the Catholic communion bread. Eventually I had to start finding women that would let me bite them in the neck. I had two or three covens full of witches, and so I rounded up 6 to 12 women who were willing to let me tap their jugular veins. By spreading it around, I never endangered any one woman, except once when I accidentally took too much of her blood and I nearly killed her. I got to be really scared by this time. I looked at what I had become, and I realized that I was totally out of control. When I was driving down the street and would see a woman or a prostitute - it was all I could do to keep from leaping out of the car and jumping on her and ripping her throat out. I mean I was feeling that murderous and ravenous. I'm sorry if this is upsetting to any of you, but this is where I got. I was at the bottom of my occult experience - not far from death. I didn't know where it was going to end. But when I had no hope, the Lord intervened.

"When I got my bank statement back from the bank, a lady at the bank had noticed that one of my checks had been made out to the church of Satan, and she wrote on the back of that check the words, 'I'll be praying for you in the name of Jesus.' I just looked at the check and laughed. By this time I was so deceived that I thought Jesus was a witch. I just filed the check away and forgot about it. But within 48 hours, my life began to fall apart. I lost my job, I lost all the supernatural powers that I'd been given by this blood addiction, and so I was really hurting. I cried out to Lucifer for a sign. I told him that I went through all the right stuff, I signed on the dotted line, I sold my soul to you, and got others to do the same, and here I am flat on my face. What did I do wrong?" But Satan did not answer that prayer. God did. It was like God flicked Satan out of the way with His finger - and said, 'I'm going to answer this prayer.' Praise God! This is the kind of Mighty God that we serve! The way God got the Gospel to me is that He had Satan's servants bring it. One day we had a couple of witches from Chicago visit us. And do you know what they brought with them? They brought Christian literature. In the back of it was a section telling how you can become born again. They brought it because they thought it was funny. They had marked it up with obscene things. They said, "We thought that you'd really like this because it's hilarious." At the time, I just glanced at it and tossed it into the corner.

"Seven years earlier, the grand master druid told us that if we ever got into any serious trouble, to join the Mormon church, because it was a church that had been founded by Masons for Masons.

We were told by the Druid that if we really wanted to get to the heart of things, we needed to go through the Mormon temple in Salt Lake City - because incredible

Dear Pastor Jan,

Thank you for the "National Sunday Law" books and for your monthly letter. The other day I got a call from a teenage girl who thanked me for the book because it powerfully caused her to give her heart to the Lord. I learned that she got the book because I left it in the waiting room of the hospital where people sit. Her mother picked it up and gave it to her. The girl {Jena} said that before she read the book, she had started using drugs and doing a lot of bad things. But now she is going to live for God. She also gave the book to a friend of hers. Now they both gave their hearts to the Lord and they went to church. Her parents are Baptists, but she is coming to my SDA church because after reading the NSL book, she understands and believes in God's seventh-day Sabbath. I am going to study the Bible with her. Also, I gave a NSL book to the lady at the clinic who takes Xrays. She read it and gave it to her mother in law. And I gave her 3 more to give to other family members. I gave this testimony at our SDA church, and gave 15 church members an NSL book. May God bless you.

Dear Sir,

It is with profound awe that I read your book "National Sunday Law." No other book has made such an impact on my life except the Bible. I have been a Christian for 20 years, but when I read your book, I experienced and felt a calling by God to translate it into my language which is spoken by over 25 million people. I am a qualified college-trained teacher of the language, and I will take personal responsibility for the expense of translating and publishing it. Distribution of "National Sunday Law" is essential for our country. Your brother in Christ, things would take place there. So we drove all the way to the Temple in Salt Lake - and were paced about half of the way by U.F.O.s. When we got there, we gave the secret names into the computer at the front door. Bells started ringing, and their whole computer system crashed. So they ushered everyone out, and they ushered us in. The rites and the things that we saw in the Mormon temple were taken right out of Masonry and witchcraft. Most Mormons don't know all this because most Mormons aren't former Satanists or former Masons. We were ushered into the presence of one of the twelve apostles. My wife let the Mormon apostle know that we had been given to understand that the god of the Mormon temple is Lucifer. When she said that, the Mormon apostle looked at her very solemnly and said, 'I bear you my solemn testimony that the things that you have said today are true.' He said that she was obviously an elect lady. He said that if we would move to Salt Lake and be true to all of our covenants, we would have special places to serve inside the Mormon Temple.

"We went home and I was excited, but my wife had started reading the Bible. Through reading the Bible, she committed her life totally to Jesus, and she had also started to pray for me. I was in total bondage to the Mormon system - being hooked into this priesthood thing, and I had become an elder, the president of an elder's group, and I was teaching a course in Mormonism. Finally, my wife got me to go back to Iowa - where I was invited to attend a "born again" Christian meeting. I went there seeking to dazzle them with my great knowledge - and get them all to become Mormons. I challenged the pastor, and asked him the typical Mormon question - 'Where do you get your authority to baptize so people can be saved?' [William would learn about Bible baptism later. Notice the words, "Where do you get your authority?" That phrase started with Noah and the doomed slaves of the devil in his day; then it was used by King Ahab with Elijah; then by church leaders with John the Baptist, and with dear Jesus; then the poor fiends used it with Martin Luther; then with the Millerites; then with godly Seventh-day Adventists; and finally it will be asked to God's 144,000.] The pastor said, "Who said anything about baptism? Acts 16:31 says, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."

"That scripture went through me like a bullet through a sheet of paper. I felt like it exploded inside of me and I was bleeding all over the floor. I was amazed! I thought to myself, 'Can it be that easy?' All the way home I kept thinking - 'Can it be that easy! After 34 years of trying every conceivable works related system in the book, could it really be that easy?'

"Well, I did what every good Mormon would do. I prayed and fasted, and read the Bible, and as I was reading through the Epistles of Paul, I made a momentous discovery. I discovered that the Apostle Paul could not have possibly been a Mormon. I knew then that there was nothing I could do to save myself. Then I remembered that somewhere in the house was this marked up literature that told about how to be born again. So I rummaged around for about a half hour and I finally located it in a box somewhere. Then I knelt at the foot of my bed and opened up the literature. Then I took off my sacred Mormon underwear 'cause I didn't want anything interfering with my prayer. Then I prayed the sinner's prayer, and at that moment I gave my heart and my life to Jesus Christ. Amen! Hallelujah! Thank You Lord Jesus!

"At that moment I was totally set free. [Praise God!] I burned about $3800 worth of occult books. About a year later God called me into full-time ministry for Jesus. Now we're trying to get the word out about how soon He is coming, and we're trying to bring people {who are trapped by Satan} to our Lord Jesus Christ. Even some people in the cults can still be reached for Jesus. I'm living proof of that fact."

"And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And again they said, Alleluia... And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia." Rev. 19:1-4.

Our kind Father will fill you with His Holy Spirit and make you a missionary worker with Him! A missionary in your town! Yes! He will use you to reach many for Him.

"Nothing is impossible with God. Nothing is so tangled that it cannot be remedied. No habit is so deep-rooted that it cannot be overcome. No one is so ill that he cannot be healed. No mind is so dull that it cannot be made brilliant. Whatever we need, if we trust in God He will supply it... Trust in God for healing, love, and power." RH 10/7/65.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I'm a born-again, Sunday Christian. Your book "National Sunday Law" was left on my doorstep. I have been attending an Episcopal Church, but it is in its last throws. After reading your book, I have started keeping the Bible Sabbath as God said to do. God has used "National Sunday Law" to make a big difference in my life! I will be sending for more of your books to give to my family. God bless you!
P.C. New Hampshire

Dear Pastor Jan,
Greetings from England. I gave the "National Sunday Law" book to a friend, and he was so impressed by it that he gave it to an elder in their Pentecostal church. They began sharing it with more and more people until they had meetings about God's Sabbath. Then he began to preach about it from the pulpit. Finally the whole congregation agreed that the Bible Sabbath is the seventh day, and now the entire church has switched, and is keeping the Bible Sabbath of God! Praise God! May God bless you! A.S.

“In the City of God ‘there shall be no night...’ We shall ever feel the freshness of the morning and shall ever be far from its close... The glory of God and the Lamb floods the Holy City with unfading light. The redeemed walk in the sunless glory of perpetual day...

“The people of God are privileged to hold open communion with the Father and the Son... We shall see Him face to face, without a dimming veil between. We shall stand in His presence and behold the glory of His countenance.

“There, immortal minds will contemplate with never-failing delight the wonders of creative power, the mysteries of redeeming love. There will be no cruel, deceiving foe to tempt to forgetfulness of God. Every faculty will be developed, every capacity increased... There, the grandest enterprises may be carried forward, the loftiest aspirations reached, the highest ambitions realized; and still there will arise new heights to surmount, new wonders to admire, new truths to comprehend, fresh objects to call forth the powers of mind and soul and body.

“All the treasures of the universe will be open to the study of God's redeemed. [Praise God!] Unfettered by mortality, they wing their tireless flight to worlds afar... [How many worlds will you fly to? The kind people will no doubt invite you to stay for dinner.] With unutterable delight the children of earth enter into the joy and the wisdom of unfallen beings... With undimmed vision they gaze upon the glory of creation—suns and stars and systems, all in their appointed order circling the throne of Deity...

“The great controversy is ended. [Praise God!] Sin and sinners are no more. The entire universe is clean. One pulse of harmony and gladness beats through the vast creation.
