Can you guess what “miracle crystals” on your forehead will lead to? Atheists, agnostics, liberals, Vatican avatars, transvested sex fiends, dogs, whoremongers, etc. will all be “converted” to the great, miracle movement - to receive the mark of the beast at the Sunday law - for even “Satan himself is converted, after the modern order of things.” GC 588.

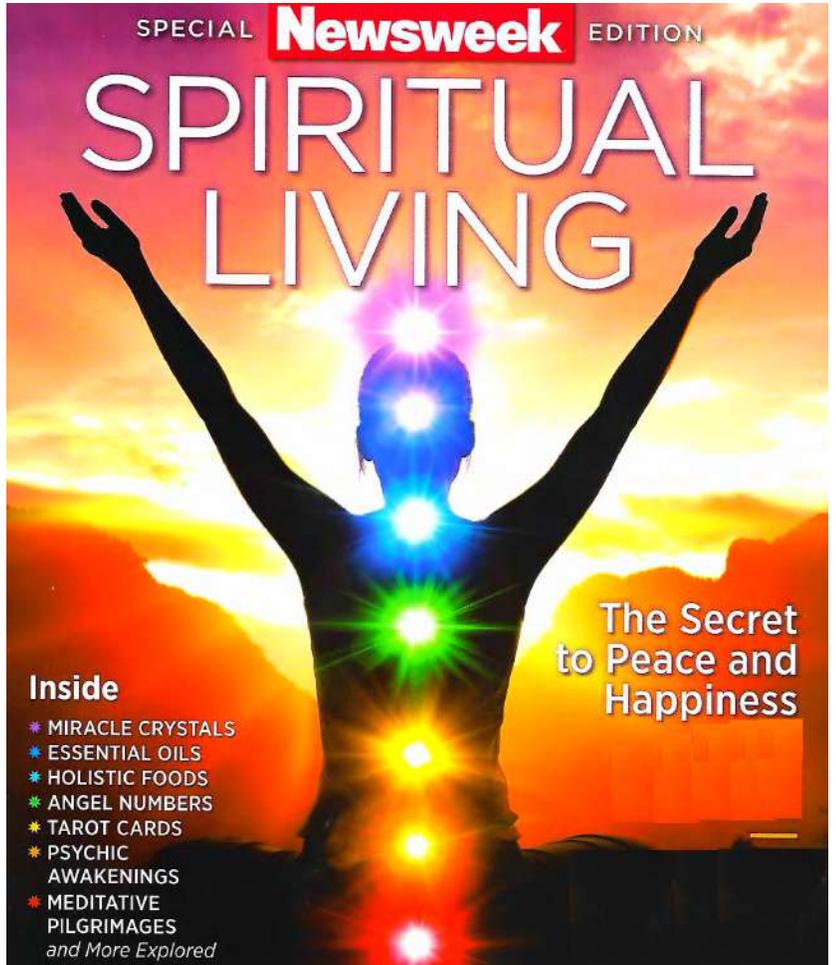

Dear SDA friends around the world,

You’ve already learned that Hiram Dukes, (the former U.S. spy who later became an SDA minister), said that, “Spiritualism and Catholicism are as close together as two fingers are on your hand.” “Men are rapidly being bound up in bundles to be burned.” UL 33. Secret societies; money making clubs, “Gimmy it.”

Millions are joyfully killing themselves from what they are putting into their bodies. It’s no wonder that “The end of all things is at hand.”

Faith: To help save thousands from eternal death, is this the letter that is going to give away thousands of NSL preachers free?

Miracle crystals, holistic foods, angel numbers, tarot cards, psychic awakenings. By thus blending both good and evil, “Satan determines to unite them in one body and thus strengthen his cause by sweeping all into the ranks of spiritualism.” GC 588.

A spiritually inspired sign adorns a street in the unique town of Cassadaga, Florida. Known for its large population of psychics, mediums and others who commit their lives to connecting, the town is frequently referred to as the “Psychic Capital of the World.” The Cassadaga Spiritualist Camp, perhaps the town’s best-known attraction, was founded by George P. Colby, a trance medium known as the “seer of spiritualism.”

Washington: “President Donald Trump told the National Security Council that Iran should have signed the agreement. He said, “I said that over and over... And therefore, [since they won’t sign it], everyone should immediately leave Tehran.””

What will happen as a result of the President’s words? On the news I saw the traffic jams clogging the roads as the panicked masses flee Iran’s great capital. [Just now the news is reporting that because of the chaos and horrors, thousands in Iran are turning to God!] What nations are taking sides? The news revealed that Turkey’s leader presented President Trump with fifty billion dollars - as Chinese and Russian jets and missiles have teasingly attacked things like the greatest U.S. aircraft carrier - Gerald Ford. Russian jets have also violated NATO’s air space. The President said that if Russian jets violate it - to “shoot them down.” With more nations taking sides, it appears that they are moving closer to Lilly White’s Party. It was reported that the generals of the nations were gathered together to see what they will do.

“And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints... and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.” Rev. 11:18.

We also remember that our kind Father will not permit the four angels {who are holding back the great time of trouble} to let loose the winds - “yet.” The mighty angel said to those four angels to -

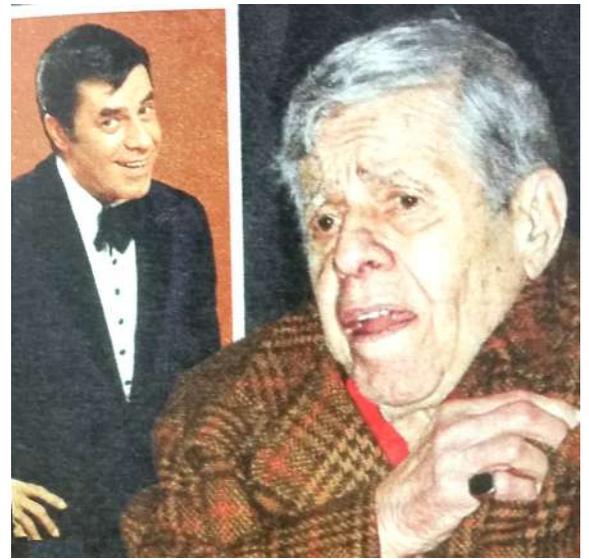

Satan led the choir in heaven. He uses his servants to get control of those who are captivated by their music. “And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, And cast him into the bottomless pit.” The pit is “bottomless.” It represents the second death.

angel of mercy is about to take her flight, never to return.” Mar 199.

“The Lord says, ‘Sell that ye have, and give alms.’ Luke 12:33. Who would sell their excess stuff - which they don’t need - to bless humanity? Who could it be? The richest man in the world?”

Elan Musk: It's not something most people expect me to focus on. But I decided to sell almost everything I own! Most people were shocked when I announced that I was selling my houses and most of my possessions. I was working 20 hours per day and sleeping on the factory floor. I've barely seen my children in months. When I finally arrived at my 16,000 square foot mansion, I was exhausted beyond anything I've ever experienced. I went through room after room - filled with carefully selected furniture and art. I had seven bedrooms and I only slept in one. I had five bathrooms and I needed only one. My mansion has a dining room to seat 20, when I really had no time for dinner with anyone. Why was I doing all this?

I couldn't come up with an answer. I remembered my grandfather telling me something when I was young. He lived through difficult times in South Africa and knew what it meant to have very little. He said, ‘The more possessions you have the more they end up possessing you.’”

When you're tempted to be rich and famous, remember this - “The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass... The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.” Isa. 40:6-8. Praise God!

“Hold, Hold, Hold! Hold!” God is giving a little time for millions more to get His 3rd angel’s message - many of whom will be lost if they are not reached. We must not slump down with our bellies because “The end will come sooner” than people think. Many don’t know that God’s prophet revealed that angels will do a work that men might have done. It won’t take hundreds of millions of holy angels [working along with us] long to finish God’s work. God’s prophet revealed that - “When divine power is combined with human effort, the work will spread like fire in the stubble. God will employ agencies whose origin man will be unable to discern. Angels will do a work [there they are!] which men might have had the blessing of accomplishing had they not neglected to answer the claims of God.—1SM 118. “Satanic agencies in human form will take part in this last great conflict to oppose the building up of the kingdom of God. And heavenly angels in human guise will be on the field of action.” Mar. 167.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I appreciate your ministry very much. I’ve been watching your CCA video series. I left a NSL book at the office where I work. One of the head men picked it up and read it. Now he and his wife are both keeping God’s Sabbath holy and are sharing it with their Baptist church and preacher! Our SDA church here is putting out the NSL books and we are getting interests and Bible studies. We are praying for success to tell those in our area of the soon return of our Lord Jesus Christ. Sincerely, Hope: Since nearly the whole world is obeying the devil, the lying fiend claims that the earth is his. What can Jesus do to 1) expose the liar; to 2) legally wrench the earth from the monster, and to 3) vindicate our Father and Jesus in the eyes of the universe?

felt that by sin He was being separated from His Father. The gulf was so broad, so black, so deep, that His spirit shuddered before it. This agony He must not exert His divine power to escape. As man He must suffer the consequences of man's sin. As man He must endure the wrath of God against transgression.

"As Christ felt His unity with the Father broken up, He feared that in His human nature He would be unable to endure the coming conflict with the powers of darkness... Now the tempter had come for the last fearful struggle. For this he had been preparing during the three years of Christ's ministry. Everything was at stake with him. If he failed here, his hope of mastery was lost; the kingdoms of the world would finally become Christ's; he himself would be overthrown and cast out. But if Christ could be overcome, the earth would become Satan's kingdom, and the human race would be forever in his power.

"With the issues of the conflict before Him, Christ's soul was filled with dread of separation from God. Satan told Him that if He became the surety for a sinful world, the separation would be eternal. He would be identified with Satan's kingdom, and would nevermore be one with God... [Faith: Did Satan want Jesus and himself to rule together as blood brothers?]

"And what was to be gained by this sacrifice? How hopeless appeared the guilt and ingratitude of men! In its hardest features Satan pressed the situation upon the Redeemer: The people... have rejected You. They are seeking to destroy You... One of Your own disciples... will betray You. One of Your most zealous followers will deny You. All will forsake You. Christ's whole

"The Passover moon, broad and full, shone from a cloudless sky...

"As they approached the garden, the disciples had marked the change that came over their Master. Never before had they seen Him so utterly sad and silent. As He proceeded, this strange sadness deepened; yet they dared not question Him as to the cause. His form swayed as if He were about to fall... Every step that He now took was with labored effort. He groaned aloud, as if suffering under the pressure of a terrible burden. Twice His companions supported Him, or He would have fallen to the earth...

being abhorred the thought. That those whom He had undertaken to save, those whom He loved so much, should unite in the plots of Satan, this pierced His soul. The conflict was terrible. Its measure was the guilt of His nation, of His accusers and betrayer, the guilt of a world lying in wickedness. The sins of men weighed heavily upon Christ, and the sense of God's wrath against sin was crushing out His life.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I received your book, "National Sunday Law," from a friend. It was enlightening and inspiring. So many truths were revealed to me. Your book is a work of love. Thank you! This is a book that I will definitely pass on to all my friends and enemies. Except for the holy Bible, your book is the best book I've ever read. Sir, this book of knowledge is by far the most exquisite gift anyone could have ever given me, - more valuable than diamonds. Every page brings a new gem of knowledge. I can never put into words how eternally grateful I am. God bless you. G.L.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

All my life I have been a devout Catholic. I thought I knew it all. I compared your book "National Sunday Law" with what is written in the Bible. After one year of studying and looking for faults and false statements in your book and newsletters, I was not able to find any. I came to the conclusion that your book and newsletters are truly inspired by the Holy word. The Catholic church contends that SDAs are just ignorant to the fact of Catholic views and that I should continue in my Catholic faith. Well, I don't want to continue in my Catholic faith! I want to know and live my faith through Jesus Christ, and follow his word. I have made my decision to live my life for Jesus and not the Catholic church! I will become a Seventh-day Adventist and be on the right path towards heaven. Please keep me in your prayers. Sincerely, Gil

The One who had

Dear Jesus saw it happening by the billions, and “His decision was made. He will save man at any cost to Himself.” DA 693.

Dear Pastor Jan,

Recently I met a brother who introduced me to the book "National Sunday Law." I am hungering for more! This book should be in every household in the nation! For so long the truth of God has been concealed from the people! I joined the Seventh-day Adventist study group and found out what I had never been taught in my Sunday church. They also showed me so much friendliness and love that I have been going there every week. I have got to help spread God's real message to the people who have been blinded for so long! Thank you for your time, energy, and effort spent in working for the people! May God continue to bless you! Love always, brother Patrick M.

always had words of sympathy for them was now suffering superhuman agony, and He longed to know that they were praying for Him and for themselves. How dark seemed the malignity of sin! Terrible was the temptation to let the human race bear the consequences of its own guilt, while He stood innocent before God. If He could only know that His disciples understood and appreciated this, He would be strengthened.

“Rising with painful effort, He staggered to the place where He had left His companions. But He ‘findeth them asleep.’ Had He found them praying, He would have been relieved. Had they been seeking refuge in God, that satanic agencies might not prevail over them, He would have been comforted by their steadfast faith. But they had not heeded the repeated warning, ‘Watch and pray...’

“The disciples awakened at the voice of Jesus, but they hardly knew Him, His face was so changed by anguish.

“Again the Son of God was seized with superhuman agony, and fainting and exhausted, He staggered back to the place of His former struggle. His suffering was even greater than before. As the agony of soul came upon Him, ‘His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.’ The cypress and palm trees were the silent witnesses of His anguish. From their leafy branches dropped heavy dew upon His stricken form, as if nature wept over its Author wrestling alone with the powers of darkness.

“Turning away, Jesus sought again His retreat, and fell prostrate, overcome by the horror of a great darkness. The humanity of the Son of God trembled in that trying hour. He prayed not now for His disciples that their faith might not fail, but for His own tempted, agonized soul. The awful moment had come—that moment which was to decide the destiny of the world. The fate of humanity trembled in the balance. Christ might even now refuse to drink the cup apportioned to guilty man. It was not yet too late. He might wipe the bloody sweat from His brow, and leave man to perish in his iniquity. He might say, Let the transgressor receive the penalty of his sin, and I will go

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I read your book, “NATIONAL SUNDAY LAW” from cover to cover! I can tell that you are a child of God. I will let all of my friends and family know about “NATIONAL SUNDAY LAW.” I choose to serve my Master and receive God’s seal. I have been so lost for so long. I wanna tell you that it was awesome to be able to enjoy the feeling of freedom from sin! Please keep up your faith and thank you so much for all your hard work. Now we can enjoy God’s Sabbath day, and keep it holy! Mark S.

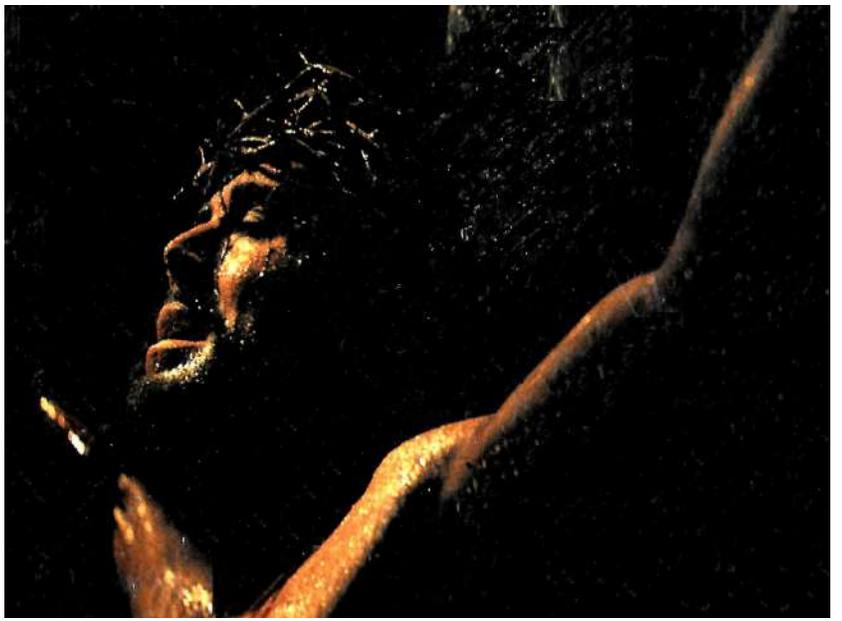

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I read your book “National Sunday Law,” and WOW! - I must say that I was amazed! Thank you for giving me such an impact on the reality of truth! Today is Saturday. I will start this very day to remember God’s Sabbath day, the 7th day - to “keep it holy.” And I will also share with my family this wonderful truth of keeping all of God’s commandments - by His grace. I thank God for using you to save my life and open my eyes. I am a new babe in Christ, God bless you and your family! M.P. North Carolina back to My Father. Will the Son of God drink the bitter cup of humiliation and agony? Will the innocent suffer the consequences of the curse of sin, to save the guilty? The words fall tremblingly from the pale lips of Jesus, 'O My Father, if this cup may not pass away from Me, except I drink it, Thy will be done.'

"Three times has He uttered that prayer. Three times has humanity shrunk from the last, crowning sacrifice. But now the history of the human race comes up before the world's Redeemer. He sees that the transgressors of the law, if left to themselves, must perish. He sees the helplessness of man. He sees the power of sin. The woes and lamentations of a doomed world rise before Him. He beholds its impending fate, and His decision is made. He will save man at any cost to Himself. He accepts His baptism of blood, that through Him perishing millions may gain everlasting life. He has left the courts of heaven, where all is purity, happiness, and glory, to save the one lost sheep, the one world that has fallen by transgression. And He will not turn from His mission... His prayer now breathes only submission: 'If this cup may not pass away from Me, except I drink it, Thy will be done.'

"Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ." HP 262.

"When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned." SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

Our son in law came to be a Seventh-day Adventist by reading your book "National Sunday Law." And then he brought our daughter back to God. She had not been to church in many years. May God bless and protect you is our prayer. C.G.

"Having made the decision, He fell dying to the ground... Where now were His disciples, to place their hands tenderly beneath the head of their fainting Master, and bathe that brow, marred indeed more than the sons of men?"

"But God suffered with His Son. Angels beheld the Saviour's agony. They saw their Lord enclosed by legions of satanic forces, His nature weighed down with a shuddering, mysterious dread. There was silence in heaven. No harp was touched. Could mortals have viewed the amazement of the angelic host as in silent grief they watched the Father separating His beams of light, love, and glory from His beloved Son, they would better understand how offensive in His sight is sin...

"The powers of good and evil waited to see what answer would come to Christ's thrice-repeated prayer. Angels had longed to bring relief to the divine sufferer, but this might not be. No way of escape was found for the Son of God. In this awful crisis, when everything was at stake, when the mysterious cup trembled in the hand of the sufferer, the heavens opened, a light shone forth amid the stormy darkness of the crisis hour, and the mighty angel who stands in God's presence, occupying the position from which Satan fell, came to the side of Christ. The angel came not to take the cup from Christ's hand, but to strengthen Him to drink it, with the assurance of the Father's love. He came to give power to the divine-human suppliant. He pointed Him to the open heavens, telling Him of the souls that would be saved as the result of His sufferings. He assured Him that His Father is greater and more powerful than Satan, that His death would result in the utter discomfiture of Satan, and that the kingdom of this world would be given to the saints of the Most High. He told Him that He would see of the travail of His soul, and be satisfied, for He would see a multitude of the human race saved, eternally saved.

"Christ's agony did not cease, but His depression and discouragement left Him. The storm had in

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I am 22 years old and am patiently waiting the soon return of our Lord Jesus. After reading your book "National Sunday Law," I was astonished! This book has entirely changed my life! The facts in this book are undeniable. To reject these truths is perilous. May God enable you to continue to expose the masterpiece of Satan, and to reveal the beauties of Jesus. I lead a group of people in Bible study. I am sharing this book with them, and with many other people. Your brother in Christ, F.C.
