Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings to you in Jesus' holy name.

Faith: What things are happening which show that we are in the end of the world?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Sweet Vennita's duty was to take care of one year old baby Joy. As the associate pastor, my duty was to take care of them both, as well as church members and visitors. We were in the Tampa First SDA church in Tampa, FL. We had only been there a few weeks but we were getting to know the people. Elder Dick Shepherd was our Senior Pastor. Elder Henry Carruba was our Conference President.

My duty was to preach once a month; conduct prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings; give Bible studies; visit the sick; and things like that. The membership there was about 600, and so every Sabbath there was a fellowship dinner.

After shaking hands in the fellowship hall, I went through the swinging double doors which led into the long hall; the sanctuary; and the library. After I was in the hall, I saw a man walking toward me. He was the tallest man I'd ever seen! His head wasn't too far from the ceiling. I was curious. I shook his hand and greeted him. I asked if he was a visitor, and where he was from. He said he was a visitor from a place I didn't recognize. He never told me his name; and the whole time we were talking, not one person ever came into the hall. I wondered about that.

Now he said, "Go into the library and you'll find a young lady looking back and forth at the book shelves. Go up to her and ask if she would like to study the Bible with you, and she'll say, "Yes." I thanked him because I was always looking for someone to study the Bible with.

Later I wondered how he knew what she was thinking; what she was planning to do; what she would be doing when I came in; and what she would say to me. Of course, I thought that the tall man knew all this from talking with her in the library.

I thanked him and then asked him something about who he was. For the second time He said nothing but - "Go into the library and you'll find a young lady looking back and forth at the book shelves. Go up to her and ask if she would like to study the Bible with you, and she'll say, "Yes."

Now I started moving around him toward the library. But then this weak, ignorant fiend [me] got curious again, and I asked another question about who he was - - -

"Go into the library and you'll find a young lady looking back and forth at the book shelves. Go up to her and ask if she would like to study the Bible with you, and she'll say, "Yes."

Then he said, "Do it NOW!!!" That shocked me!!! I said, "Yes! I will!" Immediately I turned toward the library and I never saw him again. His words were not loud, but there was such power in his voice that I dared not fool around!

The library has a clear glass door. So I saw her through the door before I ever opened it. Can you guess what she was doing in there? That's right. She was looking back and forth at the book shelves - just like he said.

With strangers, I'm quite bashful. But, the tall man - telling me her thoughts - took away my bashfulness. He told me what she was thinking, and what she was planning to do. So I opened the door and walked right up to her. With assurance I said, "Hi! Would you like to study the Bible with me?" She got a funny look on her face, and said, "Yes." I knew she would. ☺

America's War on Terror a Disaster for the World

If you're angry about the mass immigration crisis in the West, a report by a leading Washington D.C. think tank will push you over the edge. According to Foreign Policy in Focus (FPIF), the U.S. Global War on Terror (GWOT), which began in the aftermath of the Sept. 11, 2001, attacks, has forced between 37 million and 60 million people in the Middle East and Africa to flee their home countries. Many of these refugees then headed to Europe and the United States to escape the fighting and destruction.

the SDA church next Sabbath, and if she finds a good reason why she should join the SDA church, she will. If not, she said that she would join the [gibberish] church.

She said that she was about ready to quit looking at the book shelves. She was about ready to walk out of there and join the Pentecostal church. But all of a sudden - at the last minute - her answer came!

Eternal life, or eternal death were at stake. You’ll see why in a minute. For one thing, I was holding everything up with my worthless questions. It was almost too late! No wonder the tall young man - with all the power of his being said - “Do it Now!!!”

Now Ron Fox enters the scene. He and Diane knew each other. He knew that Diane was a Roman Catholic looking for the church that’s teaching the truth.

But there was a problem. The honky-tonk noise; the shouts, the powerful pastor; the friendly demons; etc. were appealing to her. It was irreverent, lively, and noisy; just the opposite from the reverent Catholic services. Ron knew that the only way he was going to help get Diane out of there was to go to the Pentecostal church with her.

So he did. The first thing is the music. Satan was the choir director in heaven. The music is not too bad at first, but by the time the brains of the poor people are ripe for stage 2, their

Dear Pastor Jan,
I thank God for His goodness in giving you the understanding to write that great book, “National Sunday Law.” It’s a book for this time! My friends and I are getting together, and we’re planning to give 1000s of them in cities and towns. By God’s grace, we are now embarking on this wonderful campaign! In Jesus’ holy name, K.W.

brains are shouting, singing, swinging, sinning, and celebrating. They’re ready to either become demon possessed, or to have something like “Saint Vitis Dance.” Your encyclopedia will tell you what that is.

Then, while the sheep had come to kneel at the altar, the cattle herding pastor has such power that he simply points at one of the poor kneeling souls, and that person starts speaking gibberish.

When the pastor pointed at Ron, nothing happened. He pointed at Ron again, and nothing happened. Ron was praying hard for God to get him and Diane out of there! That embarrassed the crooked pastor so that now Ron was “Public Enemy #1.”

But Ron wasn’t bashful. He knew that he was dealing with demons. He determined to be the last one in that place so he could find out more about the pastor. Finally, the pastor said, “Who are you?”

Ron said, “I’m a Seventh-day Adventist.” The pastor said, “We don’t need you here. I have power over these people.” I can point at them and I’ve got them in my power. I’m not a Christian, I’m a Jew!!! That’s right, I’m a Jew! And I have power over these people.”

How would you feel if you knew that a tall young man is recording all your thoughts - to meet you in the Judgment? Well, our recording angel is doing just that. But when we sinners turn to Jesus and ask for forgiveness and cleansing, all our foolish, vain, lustful, selfish, fearful, thoughts are washed away by His holy blood on the cross of Calvary. Praise God!

“Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.” Ps. 19:14.

Here’s what I learned - her name is Diane Saladino. She was a Roman Catholic young lady who was looking for the church which teaches the truth. She was torn between joining the Pentecostal church and the Seventh-day Adventist church. So Diane made a deal with God. She told our kind Father that she will go into the library in God’s prophet said, “The Lord has given me a view of other worlds. Wings were given me, and an angel attended me from the city to a place that was bright and glorious. The grass of the place was living green, and the birds there warbled a sweet song. The inhabitants of the place were of all sizes; they were noble, majestic, and lovely. They bore the express image of Jesus, and their countenances beamed with holy joy, expressive of the freedom and happiness of the place.” Maranatha, p. 368.

Dear Pastor Jan,
If it weren’t for your ministry, and your “National Sunday Law” book, there’s no telling where I would be today. Your little NSL book is opening many eyes, and helping people to return to the Lord. Praise God! The ones we have received from you are being placed all over - on bus stop benches, park benches, directly into people’s hands, etc. We pray that the Holy Spirit speaks to these people who read them as He did to us. And thanks for the newsletters which really keep us informed on the signs of the times. And we love reading the testimony letters you receive from others in response to the NSL book. God bless you, your family, and ministry. P.L. Kentucky

Pastor Jan: Now we can see more than ever the vital importance of the young man's words, "Do it Now!!!" It was actually an emergency. Now we praise our kind Father that the devil lost that battle to King Jesus! We praise God that Satan could not use that demon pastor to get control of Diane.

We studied together each week, and at the Florida Conference Campmeeting, Elder Victor Zuchowski [the Ministerial Secretary] came up to me and said, "Jan, there's a young lady here who would like for you to baptize her. Her name is Diane." Praise God!

Some time later, she became one of the teachers at the church school.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I've been a member of a church which is keeping Sunday. But through reading your book "National Sunday Law," I am now enlightened as to the will of God in keeping the Seventh day Sabbath holy. I highly thank God for giving me this wonderful message, and also for the way He has used you to publish this fascinating book. I am using it to study this wonderful, saving truth with many others. I'm so proud to be working for the soon returning of our Redeemer and King. I have a great desire to know more of the Seventh-day Adventist message. Your Sister, L.E.

Later, Ron and I were discussing this situation, and I said, "Will you do me a favor? The next time you see Diane, please ask her to tell you about that tall young man whom I was talking with in the hall, and Diane [I thought] was talking with him in the library."

The next time I saw Ron he said, "I asked Diane to tell me about that tall young man she was talking with in the library."

Pastor Jan: What did she tell you about him?

Ron: Diane said that she never saw any such man. That man does not exist.

Hope: Since that young man doesn't exist, then how did you know Diane's secret thoughts and what she was planning? Who told it to you?

Pastor Jan: The one who told me her secret thoughts and plans was the tall young man. I'm not a prophet.

Faith: Who was that tall young man?

Pastor Jan: It's a secret.

But it would be interesting to visit the Tampa 1st church again. and see the clear glass door going into the library where Diane was searching. The other day Sweet Vennita said, "Let's visit the church in Tampa." But we don't have to read all the books in the library to find Jesus. He said, "Ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found of you, saith the LORD." Jer. 29:13. We can find dear Jesus all through the Bible and even in the alphabet of God's word.

Jesus is the Alpha, and the Adam, and the Advocate, and the Anointed One, and the Author of our salvation,

Dear Pastor Jan,

I have been loving pleasure more than God. I found the book "National Sunday Law" on top of a newspaper machine. I thought that the Sunday law is just what the world needs! I would petition everyone in my area to be in favor of the Sunday law. So I took the book home with me. Four hours later, I accepted the Sabbath of God! Soon, my husband and daughter followed my lead. We became Seventh-day Adventists. Praise God! What a lot of lives this one little book has changed! We need to get many more of them into the people's hands! My friends and I will be covering many doorsteps with these little preachers! Please pray for us as we are for you. In Christ, P.N.

Dear Sir,
 One Sunday morning while coming from church, I met a friend of mine. He was distributing books entitled “National Sunday Law.” I asked if I could have some. He gave me some, and I helped him to distribute them, not even knowing what was in it. Two weeks later, something in my mind told me to take that book and read it. I started to read it, and I learned the truth of God! I now keep God’s Sabbath day holy with His people. Now there’s a whole group of us in our SDA church who give out the NSL preachers. Thank you and may God bless you! Yours in the faith, Charles.

Dear Pastor Jan,
 Thank you for the “National Sunday Law” books and for your monthly letter. The other day I got a call from a teenage girl who thanked me for the book because it powerfully touched her heart, and caused her to give her heart to the Lord. She gave me her phone number and I called and prayed with her. I learned that she got the book because I left it in the waiting room of the hospital where people sit. Her mother picked it up, took it home and gave it to her. The girl {Jena} said that before she read the book, she had started using drugs and doing a lot of bad things. But now she is going to live for God. She also gave the book to a friend of hers. Now they both gave their hearts to the Lord and they went to church. She is coming to my SDA church because after reading the book, she understands and believes in God’s seventh-day Sabbath. I am going to study the Bible with her, and keep up with her. May God bless you! R.L. California

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
A man kept telling me about a strange book. He kept telling me so much that I read it. The book is "National Sunday Law." It surprised me! It opened my eyes. It made me understand the Bible and my faith in a whole new light! After reading "National Sunday Law," I can honestly say that I believe in Christ 100% now. It changed my whole life! It put the pieces together. I was lost but now am found! I love this book so much. I always thought that I would be a gang member and go to prison. But that was because I did not know Jesus Christ. But now I do, and your book helped me to know Him! Thank you so much!
