The most beautiful teeth?

Hope: What does this have to do with Bible prophecy?

Pastor Jan: This Bible text will give you a hint - “And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” Rev. 13:11,12. Those who look and listen carefully, hear the dragon’s roar. The man in this picture hears it. But “their folly shall be manifest unto all men.” 2 Timothy 3:9. Even now the whole world can see the crooked folly.

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in the holy name of Jesus.

Faith: The Bible verse says, “Their folly shall be manifest unto all men.” II Tim. 3:9. How will that happen? How will it affect God’s dear people?

Faith FAMILY FREEDOM

The New American, July 17, 2023

classmates against the school's so-called transgender bathroom policy late last year, school officials first suspended Josh and then placed onerous conditions on his return. Finally, on February 6, they called the cops. [Certain leaders of church and state who are controlled by Papal Curia in Rome, think that using force and causing pain are just fine because we must preserve the good name of the church. Concerning the godly Waldensees, the innocent Pope Innocent III said, "That malicious and abominable sect of malignants," if they 'refuse to abjure, to be crushed like venomous snakes.'

"No charge could be brought against their moral character. Their grand offense was that they would not worship God according to the will of the pope. For this crime, every disgrace, insult, and torture that men or devils could think up was heaped upon them. They were hunted to death; yet their blood watered the seed sown, and it failed not of yielding fruit. Scattered over many lands... it will be carried forward to the close of time by those who also are willing to suffer all things 'for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.' Revelation 1:9." GC 77,78.] Praise God!

"Officers with the Ontario Provincial Police arrested Josh on a charge of trespassing at his own school. They suspended him for the rest of his junior year, and he has no idea what next year holds. In the meantime, he has become a celebrity in conservative and Christian circles, appearing in countless interviews including a short spot on Fox News' Tucker Carlson Tonight, and during a recent appearance on David Freiheit's 'Viva Frei' podcast. In the current culture, 'just being a Christian and upholding your values means that you are rebellious,' he told Freiheit.

"The schools are now synonymous with abuse, neglect, and starvation.

"One example involved a spontaneous debate in math class, when a teacher defended male breast feeding. Josh spoke up and said, "Male breast feeding is pedophilia!" That didn't go over very well. A transgender student jumped up, [a male who was controlled by demons] shouting and insisting that a person can be whatever gender he chooses. Josh remained seated and quietly affirmed that male and female are the only choices, and that "you are born one or the other."

"The teacher also lost his temper and began yelling. He asked Josh to explain the pedophilia comment. Josh said, 'For one, you're shouting about children's sexuality while you're in math class.' At that point, it got pretty awkward. I said, 'You are now endorsing a man who is forcing a baby to suck his nipples.'" With that, the conversation ended rather awkwardly, and nothing else was said about it for the time being. But it would come up again.

"Then, Josh was suspended from school for 20 days for bullying the sodomite fiend who had leaped from his desk and shouted at Josh. After that, Josh was banned from speaking to a transgender queer whom he had never seen. 😊

Josh

Then the Catholic school leaders said that Josh's presence is detrimental to the physical and mental well-being of students and staff.

"When he returned home, he received a message that the school had issued a no trespassing notice and that he would lose credits for the whole semester. But the administration's malice remained unsatisfied. When he showed up for class, they called the police who arrested him and drove off with him. But seeing the farce - the police dropped him off by the side of the road.

Two days later, Josh was back in a police cruiser because he and his friends were quoting Bible verses outside the campus art center where the poor queers, sodomites, and fiends were hosting a demon "Drag Queen Story Hour" to help corrupt the minds of youth, children, toddlers, and tiny tots. Josh said, "They held me in the back of the cruiser for two hours, and then drove off and dumped me on the side of the road."

Finally, with words like those of Martin Luther, Josh said, "I'm not going to compromise, especially when it affects young people. They're being indoctrinated. I speak out against these things because it's the right thing to do."

"The days of Martin Luther was a time of superstition and fear. Christianity was mixed with paganism. [As it is now.] For protection and deliverance from eternal damnation, the church demanded absolute, and unquestioning obedience from the people..."

"In the providence of God Luther was led to visit Rome... He entered the city, visited the churches, listened to the marvelous tales repeated by priests and monks. Everywhere he looked upon scenes that filled him with astonishment and horror. He saw that iniquity existed among all classes of the clergy. He heard indecent jokes from prelates, and was filled with horror at their awful profanity, even during mass. As he mingled with the monks and citizens he met dissipation, debauchery. 'No one can imagine,' he wrote, 'what sins and infamous actions are committed in Rome; they must be seen and heard to be believed. Thus they are in the habit of saying, 'If there is a hell, Rome is built over it: it is an abyss whence issues every kind of sin.'

[Then, the indulgence monger - Tetzel - came creeping around with a man beating on a drum to draw a crowd.]

"As Tetzel entered a town, a messenger went before him, announcing: 'The grace of God and of the holy father is at your gates.' And the people welcomed the blasphemous pretender as if he were God Himself come down from heaven to them." GC 124-127.

Tetzel: Now my good people! This is no ordinary indulgence! This will build St. Peter's Cathedral in Rome. And you will share in every mass that is said from now until doomsday! Here, in the pope's own words - full forgiveness for all sins! Absolution from all punishments! No confession necessary. Valid even for your loved ones in purgatory. For who would see his mother in flames, when with a piece of silver he can set her free! For, as soon as the money clinks in the chest, a soul flies up to heavenly rest! Come along good people! Put your money in the chest!

Pastor Jan: When one of Luther's church members presented to him the letter of indulgence, Luther read it and said, "Tetzel! I'll put a hole in his drum." This started the fight that "led to the battle which shook the papal throne and jostled the triple crown upon the pontiff's head." GC 127.

To his congregation Luther said concerning indulgences, "This is not salvation. This is damnation."

Luther sat down with his Bible and wrote 95 theses against indulgences. Then, on the great Roman Catholic holiday - Halloween of 1517 - he nailed it to the church door in Wittenberg. Printers had it translated into German, and then other languages of Europe. Within weeks, they were the talk of all Germany. Within months, all Christendom was on fire [as the whole world will be when they get God's mighty 3 angels' messages with the latter rain power of the Holy Spirit!]

Poor Tetzel read some of the 95 theses to the Archbishop of Mainz. "It is better to give to the poor than to buy an indulgence! There, my lord ArchBishop - - translate it for everybody to read! Is it any wonder why my sales of indulgences have fallen off! Give me three weeks your Eminence. I'll turn the people against him as a heretic! I'll burn his books, and I'll burn him too - and scatter his ashes on the Elb."

In Rome, the legate, Aleander, read some of it to Pope Leo III.

Aleander: Here my lord Pope, listen to this - "The true treasure of the church is the gospel of the grace of God. Why therefore does not the Pope empty purgatory out of pure Christian charity?"

Pope Leo: What drunken German wrote that?

Dear Sir;

I received your book entitled "National Sunday Law." At first I didn't read it and I put it on the shelf with my other books. But God revealed to me that I was to read "National Sunday Law" now! So I got the book out and started studying it. I read it over and over. Before reading it, I didn't understand about what the mark of the beast is. I was taught that it is a computer chip. But after reading your book, I can see that they led me so wrong! Now I want to get more of these books to give to others! I want people to know the truth!! Thank you and God bless you! Shirley M.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I have been a member of the Pentecostal church, but through your book I have been led to see that I have been paying homage to popery and the Catholic Church. Through "National Sunday Law," I have come to know the real truth! Now, by the grace of God, I am a Seventh-day Adventist! I thank the Almighty, who has made the light of His salvation to shine upon you, and upon us all.
Yours in Christ, S.M.

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,
I grew up as a Baptist, but I just didn't "get it." So I turned to the streets. Then I got into Islam and other weird things, but none of it satisfied my soul. Then, a friend of mine gave me "National Sunday Law." I thank God that you wrote it because it changed my life!! Everything is clear to me now. Thank you!! I don't want to be blind anymore. Thank you and God bless! Daryl W.

Aleander: Martin Luther! A monk of the Augustinians.

Pope Leo: So this is your clever scholar! Your fine theologian!

To the Archbishop of Mainz, Aleander said, "What kind of rebellious beasts do you breed up here in Germany?"

"The sin-loving and superstitious multitudes were terrified as the sophistries that had soothed their fears were swept away by Luther's teachings...

"It was decreed that Luther's doctrines should be immediately condemned. Sixty days were granted the Reformer and his adherents, after which, if they did not recant, they were all to be excommunicated.

"That was a terrible crisis for the Reformation. For centuries Rome's sentence of excommunication had struck terror to powerful monarchs; it had filled mighty empires with woe and desolation.

"Those upon whom its condemnation fell were universally regarded with dread and horror; they were cut off from intercourse with their fellows and treated as outlaws, to be hunted to extermination [as will us." LDE 180. Then, we all will be like happen again in the near future in fulfillment of Rev. 13:15. Concerning that terrible shaking time, the prophet of God said, "The majority forsake either Martin Luther, or like Judas.] Luther was not blind to the tempest about to burst upon him; but he stood firm, trusting in Christ to be his support and shield. With a martyr's faith and courage he wrote: 'What is about to happen I know not, nor do I care to know. Let the blow light where it may, I am without fear. Not so much as a leaf falls, without the will of our Father. How much rather will He care for us! It is a light thing to die for the Word, since the Word which was made flesh hath Himself died. If we die with Him, we shall live with Him...'

"When the papal bull reached Luther, he said: 'I despise and attack it, as impious, false. It is Christ Himself who is condemned therein. I rejoice in having to bear such ills for the best of causes. Already I feel greater liberty in my heart; for at last I know that the pope is antichrist, and that his throne is that of Satan himself.' —D'Aubigne, b. 6, ch. 9.

"Everything seemed to indicate that the Reformer's work was about to close. But Luther was fearless still. [Praise God!] Rome had hurled her anathemas against him, and the world looked on, nothing doubting that he would perish or be forced to yield. But with terrible power he flung back upon herself the sentence of condemnation and publicly declared his determination to abandon her forever. In the presence of a crowd of students, doctors, and citizens of all ranks Luther burned the pope's bull, with the canon laws, the decretals, and certain writings sustaining the papal power. 'My enemies have been able, by burning my books,' he said, 'to injure the cause of truth in the minds of the common people, and destroy their souls; for this reason I consumed their books in return. A serious struggle has just begun. Hitherto I have been only playing with the pope. I began this work in God's name; it will be ended without me, and by His might.' Ibid., b. 6, ch. 10.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

It was such a blessing to have read your book "National Sunday Law" concerning future events that are about to take place. I am convinced that you have interpreted Bible prophecy correctly! As I read your book, my spirit cried out "Truth, Truth, Truth!!!" Thank you for your book and the clear teachings that you present in it! God bless and keep you. Your humble brother always,

Dear Pastor Jan,

I grew up as an atheist, but sometimes I would wonder if God really exists. One day I was in a horrific accident - and I walked away untouched. I knew that only supernatural power could have protected me. So I started going to the Baptist church. I was surfing the internet, and accidentally ran across a book entitled "National Sunday Law." As I read, I was convinced that the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord, and that Seventh-day Adventists are God's true remnant people who keep all the commandments of God. Thank you for that wonderful book! I thank God for all who will not compromise with error. David New Jersey

“I do not say that I am a prophet; but I say that they ought to fear precisely because I am alone and they are many. I am sure of this, that the word of God is with me, and that it is not with them.’—Ibid., b. 6, ch. 10.

“A new bull appeared, declaring the Reformer’s final separation from the Roman Church, denouncing him as accursed of Heaven, and including in the same condemnation all who should receive his doctrines. The great contest had been fully entered upon...

“As Luther ceased speaking, [at the diet of Worms] the spokesman of the Diet said angrily: ‘You have not answered the question put to you. You are required to give a clear and precise answer. Will you, or will you not, retract?’

“The Reformer answered: ‘Since your most serene majesty and your high mightinesses require from me a clear, simple, and precise answer, I will give you one, and it is this: I cannot submit my faith either to the pope or to the councils, because it is clear as the day that they have frequently erred and contradicted each other. Unless therefore I am convinced by the testimony of Scripture, unless I am persuaded by means of the passages of the Bible, I cannot and I will not retract, for it is unsafe for a Christian to speak against his conscience. Here I stand, I can do no other; may God help me. Amen.’

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

“Thus stood this righteous man upon the sure foundation of the word of God. [Praise God!] The light of heaven illuminated his countenance. His greatness and purity of character, his peace and joy of heart, were manifest to all as he testified against the power of error and witnessed to the superiority of that faith that overcomes the world.” GC 160.

“The whole assembly were for a time speechless with amazement. The partisans of Rome had been worsted; their cause appeared in a most unfavorable light. They sought to maintain their power, not by appealing to the Scriptures, but by a resort to threats, Rome’s unfailing argument. Said the spokesman of the Diet: ‘If you do not retract, the emperor and the states of the empire will consult what course to adopt against an incorrigible heretic.’

“Luther said calmly: ‘May God be my helper, for I can retract nothing.’ Ibid., b. 7, ch. 8.

“Had the Reformer yielded a single point, Satan and his hosts would have gained the victory. But his unwavering firmness was the means of emancipating the church... [The church he emancipated is found in Heb. 12:22,23; cf. Rev.

12:17 & Rev. 19:10.] The influence of this one man, who dared to think and act for himself in religious matters, was to affect the church and the world, not only in his own time, but in all future generations... The power and majesty of God stood forth above the counsel of men, above the mighty power of Satan.” GC 124-167. Praise God!

The prophet said, “In vision I saw two armies in terrible conflict. One army was led by banners bearing the world’s insignia; the other was led by the blood-stained banner of Prince Emmanuel. [Now here’s what happens after the Sunday law is passed] Standard after standard was left to trail in the dust as company after company from the Lord’s army joined the foe; and tribe after tribe [whole churches] from the ranks of the enemy united with the commandment keeping people of God. An angel flying in the midst of heaven put the standards of Emmanuel into many hands, while a mighty general cried with a loud voice, ‘Come into line. Let those who are loyal to the commandments of God and the testimony of Christ, now take their position...

“The battle raged. Victory alternated from side to side. Now

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
This book “National Sunday Law” is so amazing and shocking that I could not believe what I was reading! I stopped, and went back and reread the page. It was so shocking that I put the book away, and then went back and found it again. I tried to erase it from my mind, but I couldn’t. Now, I believe it, and I’m going to give these books out to people! I use to go to church on Sunday. No more! Now I keep God’s true Sabbath day holy. All this truth took a while to sink in, but it has. I want everyone to believe it too! God is good! And Jesus is a good Lord and Saviour! Thank you so much for the book! D.H.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
This letter is to inform you of the fact that the “National Sunday Law” book you have written has accomplished its purpose. I used to be a Catholic. Not anymore! Praise God! I found your book at a Walmart in Tennessee. I read it in several hours and started to make a change within myself. And now I keep God’s Sabbath day holy. I want to say thanks to you. The work you’ve done makes me look for the grace of God, and now I know that by His grace I can keep His commandments. God be with you always! O. H. Bucios the soldiers of the cross gave way, 'as when a standard-bearer fainteth.' But their apparent retreat was but an effort to gain a more advantageous position. Shouts of joy were heard. A song of praise to God went up, and angel voices united in the song, as Christ's soldiers planted his banner on the walls of fortresses till then held by the enemy. The Captain of our salvation was ordering the battle, and sending support to his soldiers [Praise God!] His power was mightily displayed, encouraging them to press the battle to the gates. He taught them terrible things in righteousness as he led them on step by step, conquering and to conquer.

Dear Amazing Truth,
This book, "National Sunday Law" has amazing insights that the media neglects to reveal. For any serious Bible student this is highly recommended reading! It covers long forgotten subjects by the Christian world that seriously undermine many of it's modern beliefs. I found the frankness and accuracy quite startling. I commend the writer for sticking his neck out and revealing this truth in such a politically correct world. This book is for those who can still think. I highly recommend it!

"At last the victory was gained [Praise the Lord!] The army following the banner with the inscription, 'The commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus,' were gloriously triumphant. The soldiers of Christ were close beside the gates of the city of God, and with joy the city received her King. The kingdom of peace and joy and everlasting righteousness was established. God's will was done on earth, as it is done in heaven." RH 11/26/03.
