Way down yonder in the wilds of old Kentucky, there sits this massive object as a sign of the end of the world! What might it be? Do you see the seven thousand people crowding around? Do you hear their shouts?

imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually... “Every species of animals which God had created was preserved in the ark. The confused species which God did not create, which were the result of amalgamation, were destroyed by the flood.” 1 SP 78.

“They delighted in destroying the life of animals; and the use of flesh for food rendered them still more cruel and bloodthirsty, until they came to regard human life with astonishing indifference.” PP 91.

The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth. Make thee an ark of gopher wood... For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy... And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.”

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in Jesus' holy name.

Faith: The verse says, “And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.” What does that have to do with us? And how is this flood which happened 4,400 years ago a sign to us of the end of the world?

They beautified “their dwellings with the most skillful workmanship.” PP 90.

“Whoever coveted the wives or the possessions of his neighbor, took them by force, and men exulted in their deeds of violence.” PP 91.

“And the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.” Gen. 7:1.

“The trees far surpassed in size, beauty, and perfect proportion any now to be found; their wood was of fine grain and hard substance, closely resembling stone, and hardly less enduring.” PP 90.

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

A Christian man named Ken Ham was a school teacher for many years, but in 2004, he had an idea. After much counsel and prayer, he and his Christian team decided to build an exact replica of Noah's ark - 300 cubits long, 50 cubits wide, and 30 cubits high. That's huge! It's nearly than 2/3 the size of the Titanic! After 12 years of prayer, hard work, sweat, and tears, the project was finished - at the staggering cost of $100,000,000!!! That's one hundred million dollars. Now, "Noah's Ark" in Kentucky, is the largest man-made wooden structure in the entire world! I've put a few pictures of it in this letter. The prayer of Ken and his team is that when people see it - both inside and out - they will truly believe that the Bible is the word of the living God, and that dear Jesus is our only hope of salvation from sin and eternal death.

Hope: The flood! Why did our kind Father make Lucifer; make you and me; and make even one atom, while knowing that someone would sin and die?

The prophet said, "Those who lived before the flood [were] more than twice as tall as men now living upon the earth." 3SG 83. My finger is about 2.5 inches long. Here's a petrified giant's finger about 6 inches long.

Pastor Jan: God never had a beginning. He always was. Can you figure that out? And what is He like? "God is love." He only does what love will do. Before He ever made anything, God knew the exact position of every sub-atomic particle in the universe - forever. He knew every thought and every word that everyone would ever think or speak. He knew all about Lucifer, all about you and me, and all about everything that would ever happen in the universe - forever. He knew that He Himself would suffer on the cross of Calvary more than anyone in the universe would ever suffer. "Amid the awful darkness, apparently forsaken of God" DA 756] while suffering the horrors of hell death "for every man" [Heb,2:9] He knew that the entire universe will one day understand this - "He that ruleth in the heavens is the one who sees the end from the beginning—the one before whom the mysteries of the past and the future are alike outspread, and who, beyond the woe and darkness and ruin that sin has wrought, beholds the accomplishment of His own purposes of love and blessing. Though 'clouds and darkness are round about Him: righteousness and judgment are the foundation of His throne.' Ps. 97:2, And this, the inhabitants of the universe, both loyal and disloyal, will one day understand. His work is perfect: for all His ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is He.' Deut.

The prophet said, "If there was one sin above another which called for the destruction of the race by the flood, it was the base crime of amalgamation of man and beast which defaced the image of God, and caused confusion everywhere." 3SG 63. Though sceptics may deny it, you've already learned of it happening again - "As it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man." Luke 17:26.

32:4." PP 42,43. Praise God!

Hope: The flood! How was it then like it is today?

Pastor Jan: Here it is - "The period of their probation was about to expire. Noah had faithfully followed the instructions which he had received from God. The ark was finished in every part as the Lord had directed, and was stored with food for man and beast. And now the servant of God made his last solemn appeal to the people. With an agony of desire that words cannot express, he entreated them to seek a refuge while it might be found. Again they rejected his words, and raised their voices in jest and scoffing. Suddenly a silence fell upon the mocking throng. Beasts of every description, the fiercest as well as the most gentle, were seen coming from mountain and forest and quietly making their way toward the ark. A noise as of a rushing wind was heard, and lo, birds were flocking from all directions, their numbers darkening the heavens, and in perfect order they passed to the ark.

"Methuselah and his sons and grandsons... with some others, received instruction from Noah, and assisted him in building the ark." 3SG 59,60.

Animals obeyed the command of God, while men were disobedient. Guided by holy angels, they 'went in two and two unto Noah into the ark,' and the clean beasts by sevens. The world looked on in wonder, some in fear. Philosophers were called upon to account for the singular occurrence, but in vain. It was a mystery which they could not fathom. But men had become so hardened by their persistent rejection of light that even this scene produced but a momentary impression. As the doomed race beheld the sun shining in its glory, and the earth clad in almost Eden beauty, they banished their rising fears by boisterous merriment, and by their deeds of violence they seemed to invite upon themselves the visitation of the already awakened wrath of God.

"God commanded Noah, 'Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before Me in this generation.' Mercy had ceased its pleadings for the guilty race. [That will happen again soon.] The beasts of the field and the birds of the air had entered the place of refuge. Noah and his household were within the ark, 'and the Lord shut him in.' [THAT WAS IT! Probation for those wicked people had CLOSED forever!] A flash of dazzling light was seen, and a cloud of glory more vivid than the lightning descended from heaven and hovered before the entrance of the ark. The massive door, which it was impossible for those within to close, was slowly swung to its place by unseen hands. Noah was shut in, and the rejecters of God's mercy were shut out. The seal of Heaven was on that door; God had shut it, and God alone could open it. So when Christ shall cease His intercession for guilty men, before His coming in the clouds of heaven, the door of mercy will be shut. Then divine grace will no longer restrain the wicked, and Satan will have full control of those who have rejected mercy. They will endeavor to destroy God's people; but as Noah was shut into the ark, so the righteous will be shielded by divine power.

It was huge - nearly 2/3 the size of the Titanic.

"For seven days after Noah and his family entered the ark, there appeared no sign of the coming storm. During this period their faith was tested. [A similar thing will happen to us.] It was a time of triumph to the world without. The apparent delay confirmed them in the belief that Noah's message was a delusion, and that the Flood would never come. Notwithstanding the solemn scenes which they had witnessed—the beasts and birds entering the ark, and the angel of God closing the door—they still continued their sport and revelry, even making a jest of these signal manifestations of God's power. They gathered in crowds about the ark, deriding its inmates with a daring violence which they had never ventured upon before.

"They gathered in crowds about the ark, deriding its inmates with a daring violence which they had never ventured upon before." PP 98. Down here in our day, these are news reporters at the Ark in Kentucky.

"But upon the eighth day dark clouds overspread the heavens. There followed the muttering of thunder and the flash of lightning. Soon large drops of rain began to fall. The world had never witnessed anything like this, and the hearts of men were struck with fear. All were secretly inquiring, 'Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed to destruction?' Darker and darker grew the heavens, and faster came the falling rain. ["For a time the ground drank up the rain; but soon the water began to rise, and day by day it rose higher and higher. Each morning as the people found the rain still falling they looked at one another in despair, and each night they repeated the words 'Raining still!'" Christ Triumphant, p. 61.]

"The beasts were roaming about in the wildest terror, and their discordant cries seemed to moan out their own destiny and the fate of man. Then 'the fountains of the great deep' were 'broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.' Water appeared to come from the clouds in mighty cataracts. Rivers broke away from their boundaries, and overflowed the valleys. Jets of water burst from the earth with indescribable force, throwing massive rocks hundreds of feet into the air, and these, in falling, buried themselves deep in the ground.

"As the violence of the storm increased, trees, buildings, rocks, and earth were hurled in every direction. The terror of man and beast was beyond description. Above the roar of the tempest was heard the wailing of a people that had despised the authority of God. Satan himself, who was compelled to remain in the midst of the warring elements, feared for his own existence. [Dear Jesus held the fiend down in the horrible chaos.] Satan had delighted to control so powerful a race, and desired them to live to practice their abominations and continue their rebellion against the Ruler of heaven. He now uttered imprecations against God, charging Him with injustice and cruelty. Many of the people, like Satan, blasphemed God, and had they been able, they would have torn Him from the throne of power. Others were frantic with fear, stretching their hands toward the ark and pleading for admittance. But their entreaties were in vain. Conscience was at last aroused to know that there is a God who ruleth in the heavens. They called upon Him earnestly, but His ear was not open to their cry. In that terrible hour they saw that the transgression of God's law had caused their ruin. Yet while, through fear of punishment, they acknowledged their sin, they felt no abhorrence of evil. They would have

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

Over the years I have drifted from God's word. Your book has rekindled a coal in my soul. I sincerely thank you! It was a privilege and a pleasure to read your most enlightening book "National Sunday Law!" I had never pondered the reasons for the Sabbath of God until I read your book. Let me congratulate you on such an uplifting description. Your direct approach is very heartwarming to me, as I have worked on Saturdays and rested on Sundays. I commend your use of language – that of the people! Your book is easy to follow and understand. Your use of language is prosaic, as it is prophetic, and fully convincing due to the Bible quotations. I won't challenge you, as your teachings are foolproof. Your explanation that Satan devotes so much energy corrupting us humans is fully believable and I am compelled to dwell on the astounding proclamation! Respectively, Robert W.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I think that you are a woman. I am a born-again, Sunday believing, Christian. I have been attending a Church, but it is dead. Your book "National Sunday Law" was delivered to my door. You have certainly done your homework! After reading your book, I have started keeping the Bible Sabbath as God said to do. You have made a difference in my life! I will be sending for more of your books to give to my family. I don't know who is responsible for the book I got, but the seed fell on fertile ground. God bless you! Pat C.

returned to their defiance of Heaven, had the judgment been removed. So when God's judgments shall fall upon the earth before its deluge by fire, the impenitent will know just what their sin is... Yet they will have no more true repentance than did the old-world sinners.

"Some in their desperation endeavored to break into the ark, but the firm-made structure withstood their efforts. Some clung to the ark until they were borne away by the surging waters, or their hold was broken by collision with rocks and trees. The massive ark trembled in every fiber as it was beaten by the merciless winds and flung from billow to billow. The cries of the beasts within expressed their fear and pain. But amid the warring elements it continued to ride safely. Angels that excel in strength were commissioned to preserve it.

Dear Pastor Jan,

I was raised as a Roman Catholic. One day a friend gave me your book "National Sunday Law." I took it home and couldn't put it down! I walked around the house glued to the book. It changed my life! I was captivated by what God's word says concerning the Whore of Babylon. Now I encourage everyone to order "National Sunday Law" books by the case to give to everybody they meet! Pastors should have cases of this wonderful book for their members to give out! Together we can work to help hasten Christ's coming! E.C.

warnings of God's servant no longer seemed a subject for ridicule. How those doomed sinners longed for the opportunities which they had slighted! How they pleaded for one hour's probation, one more privilege of mercy, one call from the lips of Noah! But the sweet voice of mercy was no more to be heard by them. Love, no less than justice, demanded that God's judgments should put a check on sin. The avenging waters swept over the last retreat, and the despisers of God perished in the black depths.

"By the word of God... the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.' 2 Peter 3:5-7. Another storm is coming. The earth will again be swept by the desolating wrath of God, and sin and sinners will be destroyed.

"The sins that called for vengeance upon the antediluvian world exist today. The fear of God is banished from the hearts of men, and His law is treated with indifference and contempt. The intense worldliness of that generation is equaled by that of the generation now living...

"That which is lawful in itself is carried to excess. Appetite is indulged without restraint. Professed followers of Christ are today eating and drinking with the drunken, while their names stand in honored church records. Intemperance benumbs the moral and spiritual powers and prepares the way for indulgence of the lower passions. Multitudes feel under no moral obligation to curb their sensual desires, and they become the slaves of lust. Men are living for the pleasures of sense; for this world and this life alone. Extravagance pervades all circles of society. Integrity is sacrificed for luxury and display. They that make haste to be rich pervert justice and oppress the poor, and 'slaves and souls of men' are still bought and sold. Fraud and bribery and theft stalk unrebuked. The issues of the press teem with records of murder—crimes so cold-blooded and causeless that it seems as though every instinct of humanity were blotted out. And these atrocities have become of so common occurrence that they hardly awaken surprise. The spirit of anarchy is permeating all nations, and the outbreaks that from time to time excite the horror of the world are but indications of the pent-up fires of passion and lawlessness that, having once escaped control, will fill the earth with woe and desolation. The picture which Inspiration has given of the antediluvian world represents too truly the condition to which modern society is fast hastening. Even now

Dear Jan Marcussen,

Wow! What an excellent and incredible book! Praise God!! "National Sunday Law" is such a blessing. I'm so overjoyed at what I learned from it that I have to write and say "Thank you" for writing such an outstanding book. I send my deepest regards, and to express that you are a blessing from God to many of us who desire to understand God's word. What a great book! May the Holy Spirit continue to bless you. C.R. Dear Jan Marcussen,

My parents gave me alcohol when I was 4. I turned into a heroin addict and a drug pusher. One day I received a copy of the book "National Sunday Law!" It is very profound and enlightening! I thank our Father and Jesus our Saviour for putting you into the ministry, and for writing that book. It has given me an understanding of the meaning of Revelation, and how to escape the mark of the beast. I have read and re-read this book almost every day since I received it. God has used your book to explain a great deal of the mysteries of the kingdom to me, and I want to say "Thank you." May God bless you always, in Jesus' name, Amen. R.E.

there are crimes daily perpetrated as black and terrible as those for which the old-world sinners were destroyed.

“Before the Flood God sent Noah to warn the world, that the people might be led to repentance, and thus escape the threatened destruction. As the time of Christ’s second appearing draws near, the Lord sends His servants with a warning to the world to prepare for that great event. Multitudes have been living in transgression of God’s law, and now He in mercy calls them to obey its sacred precepts. All who will put away their sins by repentance toward God and faith in Christ are offered pardon. But many feel that it requires too great a sacrifice to put away sin. Because their life does not harmonize with the pure principles of God’s moral government, they reject His warnings and deny the authority of His law.

“Of the vast population of the earth before the Flood, only eight souls believed and obeyed God’s word through Noah. For a hundred and twenty years the preacher of righteousness warned the world of the coming destruction, but his message was rejected and despised. So it will be now. Before the Lawgiver shall come to punish the disobedient, transgressors are warned to repent, and return to their allegiance; but with the majority these warnings will be in vain. [“Save us O Lord our God!”] Says the apostle Peter, ‘There shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of His coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning.’ 2 Peter 3:3,4. Do we not hear these very words repeated by many who occupy the pulpits of our land? ‘There is no cause for alarm,’ they cry. ‘Before Christ shall come, all the world is to be converted, and righteousness is to reign for a thousand years. Peace, peace! all things continue as they were from the beginning...’

“As the time of their probation was closing, the antediluvians gave themselves

Dear Pastor Jan,

I have been brutalized and persecuted in every form and fashion. Last night, this was stepped up to a new level, {by the food that was brought to me in my cell} and I vomited much blood, my body going into severe shock typical of the ingestion of poisonous snake venom. I felt like I was going to certainly die this time. As I lay on my cell bed, I decided that the best way to go out of this life was to be reading your newsletter that was just delivered to me. By the time I got to page 5, I was fading fast, and knew that in a few moments, I would be dead. I tried to focus my blurry eyes, and could just barely make out the word, “Jesus,” and above that, the words, “on the cross.” I continued to look at the word “Jesus.” It seems like a divine transfer was taking place. The sting of the serpent’s deadly venom was being transferred to Jesus. I continued to read and look at “Jesus” all night. By 6 a.m., I was totally well. The guards who knew what was going on were shocked to see me alive. They expected to see a venom-filled corpse. I am not only alive, but I am totally well. So I have nothing but “Praise to God” for His perfect provision, and for His perfect timing in sending your newsletter at exactly the right time. Praise God! Jesus truly did pay it all, and take it all on the cross. Sincerely, Jim Karnath Washington, D.C.

up to exciting amusements and festivities [as church members do now.] Those who possessed influence and power were bent on keeping the minds of the people engrossed with mirth and pleasure, lest any should be impressed by the last solemn warning. Do we not see the same repeated in our day? While God’s servants are giving the message that the end of all things is at hand, the world is absorbed in pleasure seeking. There is a constant round of excitement that causes indifference to God and prevents the people from being impressed by the truths which alone can save them from the coming destruction...

To Whom it may concern,

Wow! I was walking by the book cart and I stopped because something called out to me. It was the Holy Spirit in a faint voice saying, “Look!” And there was your book “National Sunday Law” calling out to me! I would have missed it. I just now finished reading it. It’s amazing! I’m going to share it with others! Thanks, and God bless you. Gerald B. Florida

Dear Pastor Jan,

I’m happy to announce that after reading your book “National Sunday Law,” I’m committed to keeping God’s Sabbath day holy, and I’ve accepted His Seventh-day Adventist Bible truth. At first I didn’t believe your book – oh, the history seemed okay, and I couldn’t argue with the Bible truths presented, but to conclude that a national Sunday law is coming? I didn’t buy it! But lo and behold – after seeing the signs in the Sunday morning news – I’m on board!! Praise God! Sincerely James

“With all their boasted philosophy, men found too late that their wisdom was foolishness, that Omnipotence is at no loss for means to accomplish His purposes. ‘The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.’ 2 Peter 3:10. When the reasoning of philosophy has banished the fear of God’s judgments; when religious teachers are pointing forward to long ages of peace and prosperity, and the world are absorbed in their rounds of business and pleasure, feasting and merrymaking, rejecting God’s warnings and mocking His messengers—then it is that ‘sudden destruction cometh upon them, and they shall not escape.’ 1Thess. 5:3.” PP 97-103.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I was a member of the Baptist Church. Thanks to you, that powerful book “National Sunday Law” fell into my hands. I thank God for your God-given insight to share with us those vital scriptures. Because I was taught that the Lord was raised on the first day of the week, I couldn’t see the truth of God’s Bible Sabbath. But now I see it! I thank God that you wrote that book!!!
