Desperate for guards, prison turned to gangs

In this newspaper article we get a hint concerning a big question. It has to do with words of this Bible quote - “fully ripe.” Will everyone’s character be “fully ripe” when Jesus comes? Will their characters be fully ripe like the fiends in prisons, and like the Nazi SS death squads of 1944? How long will that take? In this letter, you’ll get a hint.

How do they look to you? Do they look like happy ministers and church members at the church picnic? Do you see Cousin Sue, and Uncle Bob? Do you see the SS on his collar? What the picture doesn’t tell you is that these singing, laughing souls are the monsters at the Auschwitz death camp who decide who will be shot on the spot, who will be gassed, and who will be worked until they’re dead. Their story is called, “The Unbearable Lightness of Being a Nazi.” The jolly ones are responsible for millions of dead corpses. Look at their faces. Are they fully ripe in 1944?

We don’t have to wait for our society to get bad enough before the mark of the beast is enforced, and “average” people like these are capable of putting God’s dear people to death.

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in Jesus’ holy name. Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we’ll talk about what’s happening.

Faith: Many people are waiting for society to get “bad enough” before average people will be willing - under pressure - to murder people - like the “happy family” in this picture. But the prophet of God said -

“When the storm of God’s wrath breaks upon the world, it will be a terrible revelation for souls to find that their house is being swept away because it is built upon the sand. Let the warning be given them before it is too late. We should now feel the responsibility of laboring with intense earnestness to impart to others the truths that God has given for this time. We cannot be too much in earnest.

“The heart of God is moved. Souls are very precious in His sight. It was for this world that Christ wept in agony; for this world He was crucified.” 6T 15.

Hope: How will the words, “fully ripe” affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

The article in USA TODAY reveals that 1) the prisons are “brimming with violence.” 2) And are “awash in weapons.” 3) As many as 80% of the inmates “are affiliated with gangs.” 4) The wages paid for being a guard is very low. 5) Therefore, prisons are short on guards. 6) Because of all that, “There have been violent incidents in the state prisons across the country, and without enough guards, systems often lock down inmates, restricting them to their cells for weeks or months.” 7) The warden by the name of Bradley, “speaks with the gang lords and asks them to control their men.” 8) He said, “Using gangs this way is just the way the... prisons operate... It ain’t right, but it’s the truth.” [The department of Corrections said it’s not true.] 9) They didn’t notice that one prisoner was living in the wrong cell for a week - “until his cellmate strangled him.” 10) One inmate said, “Gangs control a vast amount of the decisions made in here.” 11) Security cameras saw Brad Fitch, a member of a prison gang, race through the dayroom, chased by two prisoner gang members. After they killed him, prisoners milled around and heated up snacks in the microwave near his body. “And he cried with a loud cry saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are FULLY RIPE. And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.” Rev. 14:18,19.

She said, “You look at these pictures and they look like... normal people!”

The church picnic?

How long will that take? The commentator of the internet documentary you learned about on page one said - “These are the men and women who ran Auschwitz - the hell on earth. These pictures were taken in the summer of 1944 when the slaughter was at its height.”

“Auschwitz survivor, Regina Speigel [in the picture above] said, ‘But they’re devils! There’s something in human flesh that can sit there knowing the tortures that are happening to people, and enjoy it!’ [That’s why the masses laugh when they see videos on T.V. of people falling down and breaking their bones.]

Charity: How long will the laughing last?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely -

“When the voice of God turns the captivity of His people [at the 5th plague], there is a terrible awakening of those who have lost all in the great conflict of life. While probation continued they were blinded by Satan’s deceptions, and they justified their course of sin... They had neglected to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to deal justly, and to love mercy. They had sought to exalt themselves and to obtain the homage of their fellow creatures... Now they look with terror upon the destruction of their idols... They have sold their souls for earthly riches and enjoyments, and have not sought to become rich toward God. Their lives are a failure... The gain of a lifetime is swept away in a moment. But their lamentations are silenced by the fear that they themselves are to perish with their idols.

“The world see the very class whom they have mocked and desired to exterminate, pass unharmed through pestilence, tempest, and earthquake. He who is to the transgressors of His law a devouring fire, is to His people a safe pavilion...

“The setting aside of the divine precepts gave rise to thousands of springs of evil... until the earth became one vast field of strife, one sink of corruption... No language can express the longing which the disobedient feel for that which they have lost forever—eternal life...

“The people see that they have been deluded. They accuse one another of having led them to destruction; but all unite in heaping their bitterest condemnation upon the ministers. Unfaithful pastors have prophesied smooth things; they have led their hearers to make void the law of God and to persecute those who would keep it holy... The multitudes are filled with fury. ‘We are lost!’ they cry, ‘and you are the cause of our ruin;’ and they turn upon the false shepherds... Everywhere there is strife and bloodshed...

“The Lord cometh out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.’ Isa 26:21... In the mad strife of their own fierce passions, and by the awful outpouring of God’s unmingled wrath, fall the wicked inhabitants of the earth...

“At the coming of Christ the wicked are blotted from the face of the whole earth—consumed with the spirit of His mouth and destroyed by the brightness of His glory. Christ takes His people to the City of God, and the earth is emptied of its inhabitants. ‘Behold, the Lord maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.’ ‘The land shall be utterly emptied.’ Isa. 24:1,3,5,6.

“I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down.’ Jer. 4:23-26.

“Here is to be the home of Satan with his evil angels for a thousand years. Limited to the earth, he will not have access to other worlds to tempt and annoy those who have never fallen... For a thousand years, Satan will wander to and fro in the desolate earth to behold the results of his rebellion against the law of God. During this time his sufferings are intense...

A joyful sing-along with leading Nazi killers at Auschwitz.. The smiling “angel of death” is the 5th from the right. Do you see the accordion?

On the right is SS doctor Joseph Mengele, the happy “angel of death.” He’s so happy because he had the joy of medically torturing women and children. “And fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.” Rev. 20:9.

“During the thousand years between the first and the second resurrection the judgment of the wicked takes place. Daniel declares that ‘judgment [of the wicked] was given to the saints of the Most High.’ Dan. 7:22.

“At the close of the thousand years, Christ again returns to the earth. He is accompanied by the host of the redeemed and attended by a retinue of angels. As He descends in terrific majesty He bids the wicked dead arise to receive their doom. [The wicked are raised in this second resurrection. That’s why God says, “Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power.” Rev. 20:6.] They [the wicked] come forth, a mighty host, numberless as the sands of the sea. The righteous were clothed with immortal youth and beauty. The wicked bear the traces of disease and death.

Vennita's Corner: "Dare to be singular because you love Jesus better than the world, and righteousness with persecution better than disobedience with worldly prosperity." TMK 318

Dear Jan Marcussen,

A few days ago I was reading the scripture and wondering about what it said concerning the Sabbath when I received the book "National Sunday Law." I just now finished reading it and I have to write to you! For years I have told people that I learned from the Bible that the Catholic church is the great whore of Revelation. But you are the first one I know of who puts it all together with the other important information about this power trying to change God's Sabbath. I know that what is in your book is the truth! I want to get more for others! Thank you very much, and God bless you! E.P.

“Every eye in that vast multitude is turned to behold the glory of the Son of God. With one voice the wicked hosts exclaim: ‘Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord!’ It is not love to Jesus that inspires this utterance. The force of truth urges the words from unwilling lips...

“Christ descends upon the Mount of Olives, whence, after His resurrection, He ascended... As the New Jerusalem, in its dazzling splendor, comes down out of heaven, it rests upon the place purified and made ready to receive it, and Christ, His people and the angels, enter the Holy City.

“Now Satan prepares for a last mighty struggle for the supremacy. While deprived of his power and cut off from his work of deception, the prince of evil was miserable and dejected; but as the wicked dead are raised and he sees the vast multitudes upon his side, his hopes revive, and he determines not to yield the great controversy. He will marshal all the armies of the lost under his banner and through them endeavor to execute his plans... [He’s like his faithful children - Adolf Hitler and his singing fiends.] The presence of Christ having been removed, Satan works wonders to support his claims. He makes the weak strong and inspires all with his own spirit and energy. He proposes to lead them against the camp of the saints and to take possession of the City of God. With fiendish exultation he points to the unnumbered millions who have been raised from the dead and declares that he is well able to overthrow the city and regain his throne and his kingdom...

“Satan consults with his angels, and then with these kings and conquerors and mighty men. [There they are!] They look upon the strength and numbers on their side, and declare that the army within the city is small in comparison with theirs, and that it can be overcome. They lay their plans to take possession of the riches and glory of the New Jerusalem. All immediately begin to prepare for battle...

“At last the order to advance is given, and the countless host moves on—an army such as was never summoned by earthly conquerors, such as the combined forces of all ages since war began on earth could never equal. Satan, the mightiest of warriors, leads the van, and his angels unite their forces for this final struggle. Kings and warriors are in his train, and the multitudes follow in vast companies, each under its appointed leader. With military precision the serried ranks advance over the earth’s broken and uneven surface to the City of God. By command of Jesus, the gates of the New Jerusalem are closed, and the armies of Satan surround the city and make ready for the onset...

“Now Christ again appears to the view of His enemies. Far above the city, upon a foundation of burnished gold, is a throne, high and lifted up. Upon this throne sits the Son of God, and around Him are the subjects of His kingdom. The power and majesty of Christ no language can describe, no pen portray. The glory of the Eternal Father is enshrouding His Son. The brightness of His presence fills the City of God, and flows out beyond the gates, flooding the whole earth with its radiance.

“The redeemed raise a song of praise that echoes and re-echoes through the vaults of heaven: ‘Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.’ Rev. 7:10... As the redeemed have beheld the power and malignity of Satan, they have seen, as never before, that no power but that of Christ could have made them conquerors... The burden of every song, the keynote of every anthem, is: Salvation to our God and unto the Lamb...

Dear Pastor Jan,

Thank you for the "National Sunday Law" books and for your monthly letter. The other day I got a call from a girl who got the book. She said that before she read it, she had started using drugs and doing a lot of bad things. But now she is going to live for God. She gave the book to a friend. Now they both gave their hearts to the Lord and they went to church. Her parents are Baptists, but she is coming to my Seventh-day Adventist church because after reading the NSL book, she believes in God's seventh-day Sabbath. I am going to study the Bible with her, and keep up with her. May God bless you. S.H.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I just finished reading "National Sunday Law" and I must say that I was shocked. But I most certainly felt the Holy Spirit at work within me while reading this great, vast subject. I ask God to lead me into all truth because I'm going to follow it all the way. I know that neither my wife nor my church will get me to heaven, and I pray that I will be faithful to follow God all the way. God bless you. H.M.

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.’ Rev 20:11,12.

“As soon as the books of record are opened, and the eye of Jesus looks upon the wicked, they are conscious of every sin which they have ever committed. They see just where their feet diverged from the path of purity and holiness, just how far pride and rebellion have carried them in the violation of the law of God.—all appear as if written in letters of fire.

“Above the throne is revealed the cross; and like a panoramic view appear the scenes of Adam’s temptation and fall, and the successive steps in the great plan of redemption. The Saviour’s lowly birth; His early life of simplicity and obedience; His baptism in Jordan; the fast and temptation in the wilderness; His public ministry, unfolding to men heaven’s most precious blessings; the days crowded with deeds of love and mercy, the nights of prayer and watching in the solitude of the mountains; the plottings of envy, hate, and malice which repaid His benefits; the awful, mysterious agony in Gethsemane beneath the crushing weight of the sins of the whole world; His betrayal into the hands of the murderous mob; the fearful events of that night of horror—the unresisting prisoner, forsaken by His best-loved disciples, rudely hurried through the streets of Jerusalem; the Son of God exultingly displayed before Annas, arraigned in the high priest’s palace, in the judgment hall of Pilate, before the cowardly and cruel Herod, mocked, insulted, tortured, and condemned to die—all are vividly portrayed.

“And now before the swaying multitude are revealed the final scenes—the patient Sufferer treading the path to Calvary; the Prince of heaven hanging upon the cross; the haughty priests and the jeering rabble deriding His expiring agony; the supernatural darkness; the heaving earth, the rent rocks, the open graves, marking the moment when the world’s Redeemer yielded up His life.

“The awful spectacle appears just as it was. Satan, his angels, and his subjects have no power to turn from the picture of their own work. Each actor recalls the part which he performed...

“There are papist priests and prelates, who claimed to be Christ’s ambassadors, yet employed the rack, the dungeon, and the stake to control the consciences of His people. There are the proud pontiffs who exalted themselves above God and presumed to change the law of the Most High. Those pretended fathers of the church have an account to render to God from which they would fain be excused. Too late they are made to see that the Omniscient One is jealous of His law and that He will in no wise clear the guilty.

“The whole wicked world stand arraigned at the bar of God on the charge of high treason against the government of heaven. They have none to plead their cause; they are without excuse; and the sentence of eternal death is pronounced against them.

“It is now evident to all that the wages of sin is not noble independence and eternal life, but slavery, ruin, and death. The wicked see what they have forfeited by their life of rebellion. ‘All this,’ cries the lost soul, ‘I might have had; but I chose to put these things far from me. Oh, strange infatuation!’ All see that their exclusion from heaven is just. By their lives they have declared: ‘We will not have this Man [Jesus] to reign over us...’

“Satan seems paralyzed as he beholds the glory and majesty of Christ. He who was once a covering cherub remembers whence he has fallen...

“Memory recalls the home of his innocence and purity, the peace and content that were his until he indulged in murmuring against God, and envy of Christ. His accusations, his rebellion, his deceptions to gain the sympathy and support of the angels, his stubborn persistence in making no effort for self-recovery when God would have granted him forgiveness - all come vividly before him... As Satan looks upon his kingdom, the fruit of his toil, he sees only failure and ruin. He has led the multitudes to believe that the City of God would be an easy prey; but he knows that this is false. Again and again, in the progress of the great controversy, he has been defeated and compelled to yield. He knows too well the power and majesty of the Eternal... Praise God!

“Satan sees that his voluntary rebellion has unfitted him for heaven. He has trained his powers to war against God; the purity, peace, and harmony of heaven would be to him supreme torture. His accusations against the mercy and justice of God are now silenced. The reproach which he has endeavored to cast upon Jehovah rests wholly upon himself. And now Satan bows down and confesses the justice of his sentence.

“Who shall not fear Thee, O Lord, and glorify Thy name? for Thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before Thee; for Thy judgments are made manifest.”

“The hour has come when Christ occupies His rightful position and is glorified above principalities and powers and every name that is named. It was for the joy that was set before Him—that He might bring many sons unto glory—that He endured the cross and despised the shame. And inconceivably great as was the sorrow and the shame, yet greater is the joy and the glory. He looks upon the redeemed, renewed in His own image, every heart bearing the perfect impress of the divine, every face reflecting the likeness of their King.

He beholds in them the result of the travail of His soul, and He is satisfied. [Praise God!] Then, in a voice that reaches the assembled multitudes of the righteous and the wicked, He declares: ‘Behold the purchase of My blood! For these I suffered, for these I died, that they might dwell in My presence throughout eternal ages.’ And the song of praise ascends from the white-robed ones about the throne: ‘Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing.’

“Notwithstanding that Satan has been constrained to acknowledge God’s justice and to bow to the supremacy of Christ, his character remains unchanged. The spirit of rebellion, like a mighty torrent, again bursts forth. Filled with frenzy, he determines not to yield the great controversy. The time has come for a last desperate

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
We want to thank you for the wonderful work that you are doing! Many of us have been asleep! I met a student pastor who came into the church and is now going to be a faithful SDA minister because of reading the book “National Sunday Law.” I’m sure there are more like him. We will pray that you will keep up the wonderful work you are doing!
F.M.

Pastor Jan: God gets all the praise, and He gives us the joy.

Dear Sir;
I praise and thank God, and I thank you for showing us the true word of God! Oh, I praise God for opening my eyes to the seal of God and the mark of the beast with the book, “National Sunday Law!” I’m so excited! Your witnessing has fallen on fertile ears. Dan H. Oregon

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I grew up as a Roman Catholic and was molested by a nun when I was an alter boy. I read your amazing newsletter about the pope being found guilty by the international court of child trafficking, rape, murder, eating their flesh and drinking their blood. I now keep God’s true Sabbath day holy, and I would love to be put on your mailing list to receive your letters. I want more of the precious truth of God’s word. In Christ, James struggle against the King of heaven. He rushes into the midst of his subjects and endeavors to inspire them with his own fury and arouse them to instant battle. But of all the countless millions whom he has allured into rebellion, there are none now to acknowledge his supremacy. His power is at an end. [Praise God!] The wicked see that their case is hopeless, that they cannot prevail against Jehovah. Their rage is kindled against Satan and those who have been his agents in deception, and with the fury of demons they turn upon them. [Notice that Satan is one of those whom the wicked “will turn upon” “with the fury of demons.” Then what will happen? Below, you’ll see that he will be thrown “to the ground” “that they may behold thee.”]

“Saith the Lord: ‘Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God; behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom.’ ‘I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire... I will cast thee to the ground. [Down he goes!] I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee... I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee... Thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.’ See Eze. 28:6-8,16-19... [The singing, laughing, and church parties of the wicked are over!]

“Upon the wicked He shall rain quick burning coals, fire and brimstone and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.’ Isa 9:5; 34:2; Ps 11:6. Fire comes down from God out of heaven. The earth is broken up. Devouring flames burst from every yawning chasm. The very rocks are on fire. The day has come that shall burn as an oven. The elements melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein are burned up. Mal 4:1; 2 Pet. 3:10. The earth’s surface seems one molten mass—a vast, seething lake of fire.

“‘The wicked receive their recompense in the earth.’ Prov. 11:31. They ‘shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts.’ Mal. 4:1. Some are destroyed as in a moment, while others suffer many days. All are punished ‘according to their deeds...’

“[Satan’s] punishment is to be far greater than that of those whom he has deceived. After all have perished who fell by his deceptions, he is still to live and suffer on. In the cleansing flames the wicked are at last destroyed... The full penalty of the law has been visited; the demands of justice have been met; and heaven and earth, beholding, declare the righteousness of Jehovah...

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I have left the Sunday churches that I was attending. I’ve been searching for the truth, and now, because of reading “National Sunday Law,” I have found it! None of those churches are guiding their people to live by the word of God. None of them! Praise God that your book leads people to His true church that wants its people to live by the Bible. Sincerely, Vince L.

“While the earth was wrapped in the fire of destruction, the righteous abode safely in the Holy City. Upon those that had part in the first resurrection, the second death has no power. While God is to the wicked a consuming fire, He is to His people both a sun and a shield. Rev 20:6; Ps 84:11. [Praise God!]

“‘I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away.’ Rev. 21:1. The fire that consumes the wicked purifies the earth. Every trace of the curse is swept away. No eternally burning hell will keep before the ransomed the fearful consequences of sin.

“One reminder alone remains: Our Redeemer will ever bear the marks of His crucifixion. Upon His wounded head, upon His side, His hands and feet, are the only traces of the cruel work that sin has wrought. Says the prophet, beholding Christ in His glory: ‘He had bright beams coming out of His side: and there was the hiding of His power.’ Hab. 3:4 margin. That pierced side whence flowed the crimson stream that reconciled man to God—there is the Saviour’s glory, there ‘the hiding of His power.’ ‘Mighty to save...’ [Wonderful Jesus!] Human language is inadequate to describe the reward of the righteous. No finite mind can comprehend the glory of the Paradise of God...

“The tree of life yields its fruit every month, and the leaves of the tree are for the service of the nations. There are ever-flowing streams, clear as crystal, and beside them waving trees cast their shadows upon the paths prepared for the ransomed of the Lord. There the wide-spreading plains swell into hills of beauty, and the mountains of God rear their lofty summits. On those peaceful plains, beside those living streams, God’s people, so long pilgrims and wanderers, shall find a home. [Praise the Lord!]

“‘My people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.’ ‘They shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them... Mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.’ Isa 32:18; 60:18; 65:21,22...

“Pain cannot exist in the atmosphere of heaven. There will be no more tears, no funeral trains... ‘The inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.’ Rev. 21:4; Isa. 33:24.

“There is the New Jerusalem [Look at the colors! It’s gorgeous!] the metropolis of the glorified new earth... ‘Her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.’ Saith the Lord: ‘I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in My people.’ Isa 62:3; Rev 21:11,24. [We love Thee dear Father. We love Thee dear Jesus.]

“In the City of God ‘there shall be no night.’ None will need or desire repose. [You’ll never get tired. Never sleepy. Happy forever!] We shall ever feel the freshness of the morning and shall ever be far from its close... The glory of God and the Lamb floods the Holy City with unfading light. [Look around the city! What do you see? Praise God!]

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
Let me say that the NSL preacher was the final straw that brought my brother to the Lord. It happened over night! He read the book about 5 p.m. one evening, and then again the next morning. Soon after that, he became a faithful Seventh-day Adventist! Praise the Lord! I give out NSL books at a flea market. I believe that these little books are the most convincing soul-winning tool! May God bless you! R,B.

“The loves and sympathies which God Himself has planted in the soul shall there find truest and sweetest exercise. The pure communion with holy beings, the social life with the blessed angels and with the faithful ones who have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb... ‘the whole family in heaven and earth’ - these help to constitute the happiness of the redeemed.

“There, immortal minds will contemplate with never-failing delight the wonders of creative power, the mysteries of redeeming love. There will be no cruel, deceiving foe to tempt to forgetfulness of God. Every faculty will be developed, every capacity increased... There the grandest enterprises may be carried forward, the loftiest aspirations reached, the highest ambitions realized...

“All the treasures of the universe will be open to the study of God’s redeemed. Unfettered by mortality, they wing their tireless flight to worlds afar [look at that!] worlds that thrilled with sorrow at the spectacle of human woe and rang with songs of gladness at the tidings of a ransomed soul. With unutterable delight the children of earth enter into the joy and the wisdom of unfallen beings. [They can invite you to stay for dinner.] They share the treasures of knowledge and understanding gained through ages upon ages in contemplation of God’s handiwork.

With undimmed vision they gaze upon the glory of creation—suns and stars and systems, all in their appointed order circling the throne of Deity. [Notice the words, “circling the throne of Deity.” You’ve already learned that astronomer Dr. Robert Gentry discovered that the entire universe is moving away from our galaxy, making

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I have a prison ministry and I gave the prisoners “National Sunday Law” books. Now 12 of them have accepted the truth of God! They are keeping His Sabbath day holy! In fact, they are becoming faithful Seventh-day Adventists! I want to get more to give to others! Sincerely, Edward our galaxy the center of the universe. So can you guess where God’s throne is? Why would He want us so near to Himself? Because His dear people are “a people near unto Him.” Ps. 148:14. Praise God!

“And the years of eternity, as they roll, will bring richer and still more glorious revelations of God and of Christ. As knowledge is progressive, so will love, reverence, and happiness increase... As Jesus opens before them the riches of redemption and the amazing achievements in the great controversy with Satan, the hearts of the ransomed thrill with more fervent devotion, and with more rapturous joy they sweep the harps of gold; and ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands of thousands of voices unite to swell the mighty chorus of praise. [Praise God!]

“And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.’ Rev. 5:13.

“The great controversy is ended. [Praise God!] Sin and sinners are no more. The entire universe is clean. One pulse of harmony and gladness beats through the vast creation. From Him who created all, flow life and light and gladness, throughout the realms of illimitable space. From the minutest atom to the greatest world, all things, animate and inanimate, in their unshadowed beauty and perfect joy, declare that God is love.” [GC 654-679] Praise God friend! Praise God!

Announcements

- 1) You may make color copies of this letter for others.
- 2) And you may download them from JansNewsletter.com and email them to anyone on the planet. I hope you do.
- 3) We now have nearly 90% of what we need to reach another million people in Honolulu, Spokane, and the Jesuit controlled city of Sacramento, in the great 100 Million Man March. If our kind Father impresses you to help us reach this goal, mark it below.
- 4) I will still give all 16 CCA DVDs free to all who get 1000 NSL preachers to help save souls for a donation of 49¢ each with free shipping in the U.S. God’s people are having us to bulk mail them, and they’re also putting them on doorsteps, sidewalks, benches, parking lots, laundromats, restrooms, and any place people sit, walk, wait, or go. God gets all the praise!
- 5) “Come join our happy crew. We’re bound for Canaan’s shore. The Captain says there’s room for you! - and room for millions more.”

[GC 654-679] Praise God
